Matav Reports Motion for Class Action Concerning Misleading Publication

NETANYA, Israel February 9, 2005 Matav-Cable Systems Media Ltd. (Nasdaq & TASE: MATV) announced today that on February 8, 2005 it received notice of a motion that was filed by an Israeli resident in the Tel Aviv- Jaffa District Court requesting the Court's approval of a class action against Matav. The motion alleges, among other things, that Matav has misled consumers within the framework of a certain sales promotion campaign in 2001, thereby violating the Israeli Consumers Protection Law. According to the motion, the damages owed to the plaintiff are in the amount of NIS 1,574 (equates to approximately $357) and the aggregate damages to the class are indeterminable at this stage, because the number of other potential claimants is not known to the plaintiff.

Matav is studying the details of the motion. Matav noted that the motion relates to the same subject matter of an indictment that was filed in March 2003 in the Netanya Magistrate Court against Matav and certain of its officers for violation of the Israeli Consumers Protection Law. As previously reported, the officers were dropped from the indictment and in November 2003, the court approved a plea bargain, pursuant to which Matav admitted the facts in an amended indictment and paid an insignificant fine.
