REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTRATED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRMS

To the Shareholders of Camtek Ltd.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Camtek Ltd. (the Company) and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity and comprehensive income (loss) and cash flows for each of the three years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the consolidated results of their operations, and their cash flows for each of the three years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

CAMTEK LTD.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
As of December 31, 2005
(US Dollars in thousands)

NOTE 1 BUSINESS

Camtek Ltd. ( Camtek ), an Israeli corporation, which is a majority owned (78%) subsidiary of Priortech Ltd., an Israeli corporation listed on the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange. Camtek design, develop manufacture and market automatic optical inspection systems ( AOI systems ) and related products. Camtek s AOI systems are used for yields enhancement for various applications in the electronic supply chain industry. The main applications along this supply chain are the productions of Microelectronics, Printed Circuit Boards (PCB) and Electronic packaging. Camtek s activities are conducted in one reportable business segment.

NOTE 2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Basis of preparation:

The consolidated financial statements, which include the accounts of Camtek and its subsidiaries (collectively the Company ), are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. All material intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

b. Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

c. Foreign currency transactions:

The functional currency of the Company is the U.S. dollar. Most of the revenues generated by the Company are from outside of Israel and a majority thereof are received in U.S. dollars. In addition, most salaries, materials and components purchased and marketing expenses incurred are either paid for in U.S. dollars or in New Israeli Shekels ( NIS ) linked to changes in the dollar/NIS exchange rate. A significant portion of the Company s expenses are incurred in Israel and paid for in NIS. Foreign currency income (expenses) included in financial and other income (expenses), net, resulting from transactions not denominated in U.S. dollars amounted to $396, $89 and $(238) in 2003, 2004 and 2005, respectively.

d. Cash equivalents:

All highly liquid investments purchased with maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents.

e. Marketable securities:

The Company accounts for its investments in marketable securities in accordance with SFAS No. 115 Accounting for certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities .

As of December 31, 2005 all marketable securities are designated as available-for-sale and accordingly unrealized holding gains and losses, net of the related tax effect, on available-for-sale securities are excluded from earnings and are reported as a separate component of other comprehensive income until realized.

CAMTEK LTD.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
As of December 31, 2005
 (US Dollars in thousands)

f.      Inventories:

Inventories consist of completed AOI systems, AOI systems partially completed and components, and are recorded at the lower of cost, determined by the moving average basis or market.

g.      Fixed assets:

Fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation, and are depreciated over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. Annual rates of depreciation are as follows:

Building	2%
Machinery and equipment	10% - 33%
Office furniture and equipment	6% - 20%
Automobiles	15%

The Company periodically assesses the recoverability of the carrying amount of fixed assets based on expected undiscounted cash flows. If an asset's carrying amount is determined to be not recoverable, the Company recognizes an impairment loss based upon the difference between the carrying amount and the fair value of such assets, in accordance with SFAS No. 144 Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets ( SFAS No. 144 ).

h.      Fair values of financial instruments:

The carrying amounts for cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, convertible loan and amounts due from affiliates approximate fair value because of the short-term duration of those items. Marketable securities are carried at quoted market prices, which represent fair value. The carrying amounts of short-term bank credit and amounts due to or from Priortech Ltd. approximate fair value because the interest rates on such debt approximate the market rate.

i.      Revenue recognition:

The Company recognizes revenue from sales of its products when the products are installed at the customer's premises and are operating in accordance with its specifications, signed documentation of the arrangement, such as a signed contract or purchase order, has been received, the price is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured.

Service revenues consist mainly of revenues from maintenance contracts and are recognized ratably over the contract period.

Non-standard warranty is deferred as unearned revenue and is recognized ratably as revenue when the applicable warranty term period commences.

j.      Warranty:

The Company records a liability for product warranty obligations at the time of sale based upon historical warranty experience. The term of the warranty is generally twelve months.

CAMTEK LTD.
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
As of December 31, 2005
(US Dollars in thousands)

NOTE 2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Cont.)*j. Warranty: (Cont.)

Changes in the product warranty obligations are as follows:

	December 31,
	2005	2004
	US dollars
Beginning of year	1,703	757
New warranties	2,003	2,899
Reductions	(2,544)	(1,953)
End of year	1,162	1,703

k. Income taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes ( SFAS No. 109 ). This Statement prescribes the use of the liability method whereby deferred tax asset and liability account balances are determined based on differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse. The Company provides a valuation allowance, if necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to their estimated realizable value.

l. Research and development:

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred.

m. Earnings (loss) per ordinary share:

Basic earnings (loss) per ordinary share is calculated utilizing only weighted average ordinary shares outstanding. Diluted earning (loss) per share, if relevant, gives effect to dilutive potential ordinary shares outstanding during the year. Such dilutive shares consist of incremental shares, utilizing the treasury stock method, from the assumed exercise of share options. The effect of the exercise of outstanding share options and warrants was anti-dilutive for the year ended December 31, 2003, and has not been included in computing dilutive loss per ordinary share. Potentially dilutive options and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,353,056 ordinary shares were outstanding at December 31, 2003.

In the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005, the effect of the exercise of outstanding share options and warrants is dilutive, and was included in computing diluted earning per ordinary share, 1,250,000 and 1,315,650 options are outstanding at December 31, 2004 and 2005 respectively.

In the year ended December 31, 2005, the effect of conversion of convertible loan was anti-dilutive, and has not been included in computing dilutive earning per ordinary share.

NOTE 2      SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Cont.)*n.      Stock-based compensation:

At December 31, 2005, the Company had five stock-based employee compensation plans, which are described more fully in Note 13(b).

The Company accounts for employee and director stock-based compensation in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees ( APB 25 ) and in accordance with FASB Interpretation No. 44. Pursuant to these accounting pronouncements, the Company records compensation for stock options granted to employees and directors over the vesting period of the options based on the difference, if any, between the exercise price of the options and the market price of the underlying shares at that date. See below for pro forma disclosures required in accordance with SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation ( SFAS No.123 ), as amended by SFAS 148.

The following table illustrates the effect on net income (loss) and earning (loss) per share if the fair value based method had been applied to all awards.

	Year Ended December 31,
	2005	2004	2003
US dollars except per share data
Net income (loss), as reported	2,702	10,797	(1,569)

Diluted - pro forma	0.08	0.37	(0.08)

The weighted average fair value of the options granted during 2003 and 2005 in applying the fair value method was estimated at $2.15 and $1.99, respectively, using the Black-Scholes pricing model with the following assumptions:

o.      Reclassification

Certain prior years amounts have been reclassified in conformity with current year s financial statements presentation.

p.      Recent accounting pronouncements:

1.      In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123(R). SFAS No. 123(R) requires employee share-based equity awards to be accounted for under the fair value method, and eliminates the ability to account for these instruments under the intrinsic value method prescribed by APB Opinion No. 25 and allowed under the original provisions of SFAS No. 123. SFAS No. 123(R) requires the use of an option pricing model for estimating fair value, which is then amortized to expense over the service periods. Had the Company adopted SFAS 123(R) in prior periods, the impact of that standard would have approximated the impact of SFAS 123 as described in the disclosure of pro forma net income and income per share above. SFAS No. 123(R) allows for either prospective recognition of compensation expense or retrospective recognition.

In January 2005, the SEC issued SAB No. 107, which provides supplemental implementation guidance for SFAS No. 123(R). SFAS No. 123(R) will be effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2006. In the first quarter of 2006, the company began to apply the prospective recognition method and implemented the provisions of SFAS No. 123(R).

2.      In May 2005, the FASB issued SFAS No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections. SFAS No. 154 replaces APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting Changes and SFAS No. 3, Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statements. SFAS No. 154 requires retrospective application to prior periods financial statements of changes in accounting principle, unless it is impracticable to determine either the period-specific effects or the cumulative effect of the change. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS No. 154 will have any material impact on its consolidated financial statements.
3.      In November 2005, the FASB issued FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments ( FSP 115-1 and 124-1 ), which clarifies when an investment is considered impaired, whether the impairment is other than temporary, and the measurement of an impairment loss. It also includes accounting considerations subsequent to the recognition of an other-than-temporary impairment and requires certain disclosures about unrealized losses that have not been recognized as other-than-temporary impairments. FSP 115-1 and 124-1 are effective for all reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2005. The Company does not anticipate that the implementation of these statements will have a significant impact on its financial position or results of operations.

Loan in US dollars, bearing annual interest of Libor + 2.1%	5,000	-

On August 23, 2005 (the closing date) the Company raised $5 million as a convertible loan from FIMI Opportunity Fund L.P and FIMI Israel Opportunity Fund, Limited Partnership ( Fimi ). The loan is payable in three equal annual payments starting at the third anniversary of the closing date. The lenders have the right to postpone the repayments to the end of the fifth anniversary from the closing date. The loan bears annual interest of Libor + 2.1%. The interest is payable every three months. Conversion of the loan, in a whole or in part, is optional at any given business day after the closing date. Conversion price per one ordinary share is $5.50, however, in the event that the average closing price of the company's shares as reported on Nasdaq for the sixty consecutive trading days immediately preceding the first and second anniversary of the loan agreement closing date, lower than the conversion price in effect on such date, the conversion price in effect on such date shall be reduced to equal the higher of the average closing price and $2.00.

The Company is subject to the main following covenants in connection to the loan:

1. The shareholders' equity should not decrease to below $45 million, or, $40 million as a result of dividend distributions. Shareholders' equity may not decrease by more than 10%, unless such deviation is cured within three consecutive financial quarters immediately following the financial quarter in which such decrease had occurred.
2. The shareholder's equity shall represent at least 55% of the total assets of the Company.
3. The net loss shall not exceed an aggregate of $10 million in any single financial quarter or any year.
4. Not to take any further loans which exceeds the aggregate amount of $15 million (other than the loans and credit lines which were in effect at the closing date) and not to enter into new transactions with its affiliates.

As of December 31, 2005 the Company is in compliance with the aforementioned terms.

NOTE 10 SEVERANCE PAY

The majority of the Company's liability for severance pay is calculated in accordance with the Israeli law based on the most recent salary paid to employees and the length of employment with the Company. The Company's liability for severance pay is fully provided for. Part of the liability is funded through individual insurance policies and pension funds purchased from outside insurance companies, which are not under the Company's control.

The amounts accrued and the portions funded with severance pay funds and by purchase of insurance policies are composed as follows:

	December 31,
	2005	2004
	US dollars
Accrued severance pay	531	464
Less amounts funded	309	242
Unfunded balance	222	222

The severance pay liabilities covered by the pension funds are not reflected in the above amounts, as the severance pay liabilities have been irrevocably transferred to the pension funds.

Severance pay expenses were $484, $529 and $544 in 2003, 2004 and 2005, respectively.

2.      On February 23, 2005, a lawsuit was filed against the Company in the District Court in Jerusalem by the Company's competitor, Orbotech Ltd., alleging infringement of patent held by Orbotech Ltd. regarding an illumination block, seeking injunctive relief and damages. The court ruled that, based on a court's expert opinion, that Camtek allegedly infringing the said patent, and granted provisional remedy which prevents Camtek from manufacturing the said illumination block. The Supreme Court rejected Camtek's request to appeal on the said District's Court decision. The Company believes that it has good defenses against Orbotech's claims.
3.      On July 14, 2005, a lawsuit was filed against the Company in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota by the Company's competitor August Technology Corporation, alleging infringement of patent, seeking injunctive relief and damages. The Company has filed an Answer and Counterclaims alleging, inter-alia, none infringement of the patent. The Company believes it has substantial defenses to August's allegations.
4.      On December 7, 2004, a former employee of the Company filed a lawsuit in the magistrate court of Haifa, Israel, against the Company and two of his former managers. As of today the company is no longer a part of this lawsuit, however, it may compensate its managers in case the court will find them liable.

The Company believes that the resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the results of operations, liquidity, or financial condition. But there can be no assurance that the Company will necessarily prevail, due to the inherent uncertainties in litigation.

NOTE 12      CONCENTRATION OF RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits, marketable securities and trade receivables. The Company's cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities are maintained with high-quality institutions and the composition and maturities of investments are regularly monitored by management. Generally, these securities and deposits are traded in a highly liquid market, may be redeemed upon demand and bear minimal risk.

The Company's marketable securities include auction rate securities and highly rated corporate bonds.

The trade receivables of the Company are derived from sales to a large number of customers, mainly large industrial corporations located mainly in Asia, the United States and Europe. The Company generally does not require collateral; however, in certain circumstances, the Company may require letter of credit, other collateral or additional guarantees. An allowance for doubtful accounts is determined with respect to those amounts that the Company has determined to be doubtful of collection. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers.

c.      Aborted share issuance expenses:

During 2004, the Company decided to abandon its plan for a secondary share offering to the public. The total accrued expenses related to this offering were $1,122 which were fully written-off in 2004.

NOTE 16      TAXES ON INCOME*a.      Tax under various laws:

The Company and its subsidiaries are assessed for tax purposes on an unconsolidated basis. The Company is assessed under the provisions of the Income Tax Law (Inflationary Adjustments), 1985, pursuant to which the results for tax purposes are measured in Israeli currency in real terms in accordance with changes in the Israeli Consumer Price Index ( CPI ). Each of the subsidiaries is subject to the tax rules prevailing in the country of incorporation.

b.      Tax benefits under the Law for Encouragement of Capital Investments, 1959:

The Company's production facilities have been granted approved enterprise status under the above law. The Company participates in the Alternative Benefits Program and, accordingly, income from its approved enterprises will be tax exempt for a period of 10 years, commencing in the first year in which the approved enterprise first generates taxable income due to the fact that the Company operates in Zone A in Israel.

The period of benefits relating to the most recently approved enterprise production facilities will expire in 2007. The tax benefits with regard to the first approved enterprise production facilities expired on December 31, 1999. In the event of distributions of cash dividends from tax-exempt income, the Company would have to pay the 25% tax in respect of the amount distributed (for this purpose the amount distributed includes the amount of the Company's tax that applies as a result of the distribution). The Company has decided to reinvest the amount of the tax-exempt income, and not to distribute such income as cash dividends. Accordingly, no deferred income tax has been provided with respect to the tax-exempt income.

Undistributed taxable earnings in Israel, for which taxes have not been provided, aggregated $23,709 at December 31, 2005. The amount of tax that would be owed if such amounts were distributed would be approximately $5,927 at December 31, 2005.

The entitlement to the above benefits is conditional upon the Company's fulfilling the conditions stipulated by the above law, regulations there under and the certificate of approval for the specific investments in approved enterprises. In the event of failure to comply with these conditions, the benefits may be canceled and the Company may be required to refund the amount of the benefits, in whole or in part, with the addition of linkage to the CPI and interest.

c. Tax benefits under the Law for the Encouragement of Industry (Taxes), 1969:

The Company is an industrial company as defined by this law and as such is entitled to certain tax benefits, mainly accelerated depreciation as prescribed by regulations published under the Inflationary Adjustments Law and the right to deduct issuance costs as an expense for tax purposes.

Under SFAS No. 109, deferred tax assets are to be recognized for the anticipated tax benefits associated with net operating loss carryforwards and deductible temporary differences, unless it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The adjustment is made by a valuation allowance.

Since the realization of the net operating loss carryforwards and deductible temporary differences is uncertain and not considered more likely than not, a valuation allowance has been established for the full amount of the tax benefits.

As of December 31, 2005, the Company has net operating loss ( NOL ) carryforwards for Israeli tax purposes of approximately $2,901, which may be used to offset taxable income, subject to annual limitations. Such NOL has no expiration date. In addition, foreign subsidiaries have NOL carryforwards aggregating approximately $9,296, of which approximately $4,047 expires from 2006 to 2010, approximately $1,861 expires from 2021 to 2023 and approximately $3,388 has no expiration date.

g. Reduction in corporate income tax rate in Israel:

Edgar Filing: CAMTEK LTD - Form 6-K

On July 25, 2005 an amendment to the Israeli tax law was approved by the Israeli parliament, which reduces the tax rates imposed on Israeli companies to 31% for 2006. This amendment states that the corporate tax rate will be further reduced in subsequent tax years as follows: in 2007 29%, in 2008 27%, in 2009 26% and thereafter 25%. This change does not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.
