In April of 2006, the Company engaged a new auditor and principal accountant, Sherb & Co., as detailed in our Form 8-K filed April 3, 2006. Because of the delay experienced as a result of our change of auditors and principal accountants, the Company is still in the process of completing its year end audit and has not yet filed its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. Our preparation of the Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2006 has been delayed as the Company's efforts have been directed towards the completion and filing of the Form 10-K. The company does not expect to be able to meet the May 22, 2006 deadline for filing the Form 10-Q,

Edgar Filing: SMART ONLINE INC - Form NT 10-Q

The Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 has not been filed as of the date of this 12b-25 filing.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company completed two acquisitions in the 4th quarter of 2005. The results of operations of these two subsidiaries will be reflected in the three months ended March 31, 2006. This will result in a significant difference from the results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005 since the results of operations relating to that period do not reflect any subsidiary activity. We expect to report revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2006 of approximately $1,900,000 as compared to $253,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2005. This increase is entirely attributable to the revenue of the subsidiaries. Because substantially all of the Company's effort has been focused on the completion and filing of the 2005 Form 10-K, no other Q1 2006 estimates are available as of the time of this filing.

At May 12, 2006 the Company has cash and cash equivalents of $666,079, of which $394,384 is restricted cash, being reserved for the July installment payment of the purchase price for the acquisition of one of the two acquired subsidiaries.
