Governance of the Company

Our Board of Directors believes that the purpose of corporate governance is to ensure that we maximize shareholder value in a manner consistent with legal requirements and the highest standards of integrity. Colony Bankcorp, through its Board of Directors and management, has long sought to meet the highest standards of corporate governance. The Board has adopted and adheres to corporate governance guidelines which the Board and senior management believe promote this purpose, are sound and represent best practices. We continually review these governance practices, Georgia law (the state in which we are incorporated), the rules and listing of NASDAQ, and SEC regulations, as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities.

Currently, our Board of Directors has 10 members, seven of whom meet the NASDAQ standard for independence. Only independent directors serve on our Audit Committee, Governance Committee, Compensation Committee and Nomination Committee.

In May 2003, the Board of Directors re-appointed L. Morris Dowing, Jr. as Chairman, a position Mr. Downing has held since May 2002. In this capacity, Mr. Downing has frequent contact with Mr. Minix and other members of management on a broad range of matters and has additional corporate governance responsibilities for the Board. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Downing meets the Rules of NASDAQ standard for independence.

In assessing potential directors for our Board, we look for candidates who possess a wide range of experience, skills, areas of expertise, knowledge and business judgement. A director candidate should also have demonstrated superior performance or accomplishments in his or her professional undertakings.

Our Board of Directors conducts regular meetings, generally on a monthly basis and also conducts some of its business through the six committees described below. Our Board of Directors met twelve times during the year and each director attended at least 75% of the meetings of the full Board and of the committee on which he serves.

The committee met one time during the year.

Directors of Colony Bank of Fitzgerald were able to defer all or a portion of director's fees in return for a deferred income agreement. Under the agreement, a Director agrees to serve for either five or ten years without director's fee compensation in exchange for an agreement by the Bank to pay the director deferred income at death, or upon attaining age 65. With the deferred compensation, the Bank has purchased key man insurance on the participating directors which will pay the Bank a death benefit equal in value to the projected cost of the deferred income. Management believes the program will have no net cost to the Bank. Liabilities accrued under the plan totaled $796,048 as of December 31, 2003. Benefit payments under the contracts were $100,335 in 2003. Provisions charged to operations totaled $134,724 in 2003. All fees covered by the deferred compensation plan have been deferred and all directors are now receiving director fees. Colony Bank of Fitzgerald continues to pay premiums on the insurance policies. All directors are participating in the plan, except new directors elected since 1990.

Directors of Colony Bank Quitman, FSB adopted a deferred compensation plan effective December 15, 1996 for the benefit of its officers and directors. The bank funds the plan with general bank assets. The bank acquired life insurance policies to serve as the primary funding source. As of December 31, 2003, the cash values of those policies were $1,182,813. The liability accrued for benefits payable under the plan was $81,881 as of December 31, 2003. The purposes of the plan are to provide key person life insurance to the bank and to provide retirement benefits to key employees. A total of six directors participate in the plan. Annual future retirement payments for non-employee directors have limits based on the participant's highest annual compensation. During 2003, the bank recognized deferred compensation expense of $5,940. Income recognized on plan assets was $32,624. Thus, net income for calendar 2003 was $26,684. All directors are participating in the plan, except new directors elected since 2002.

Profit Sharing and Stock Bonus Plans

Each of the subsidiary banks of the Company has adopted a profit sharing and stock bonus plan which provides for the Board of Directors to make a discretionary contribution to the plan out of profits in an amount not to exceed 10% of the total annual compensation of the employees eligible to participate in the plan. Employees are eligible to participate after completion of one year of service. The contribution by the Bank is allocated among the participants according to the ratio of the participant's compensation to the total compensation of all employees. The employee's interest vests over a period of seven years; prior to 1989 an employee's interest in its individual account vested over a period of eleven years. For the year ending December 31, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company and subsidiary banks voted to contribute in the aggregate $476,178 of the profits of the Company to the Company's profit sharing plans.

Other Compensation and Benefit Plans

Incentive Cash Plan. Bonuses for our Cash Incentive Plan are tied to a weighting factor, of which one-half of the bonus award is based on the Company's return on equity, along with other weighting factors of loan growth, problem asset reduction, net interest margin, net overhead, past due loan levels and charge-off loan levels with the reward potential within a range of 6.25% to 50% of salary. The compensation listed as bonus in the summary compensation table for executive compensation represents payments under the cash incentive plan to the listed executive officers.

Transactions with the Company

Loans. The Company's directors and officers from time to time have borrowed funds from the Company's subsidiaries for various business and personal reasons. Such loans are made in strict compliance with state and Federal statutes and regulations of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance.

As of December 31, 2003, certain officers, executive officers, directors, and companies in which they are an executive officer or partner or in which they have a 10% or more beneficial interest, were indebted to the bank in the aggregate amount of $11,249,026. Such loans were (1) made in the ordinary course of business; (2) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as were prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons; and (3) did not involve more than normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

The Company and its subsidiaries utilized the services of Martin, Snow, LLP during 2003. Mr. Edward J. Harrell is a director of the Company and a partner in that law firm.

Legal Proceedings

There are no material pending legal proceedings, other than ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business of the Company, to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or of which any of their property is subject. Material proceedings are defined as claims for damages where the amount involved, exclusive of interest and cost, exceeds ten percent of the current assets of the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis.

During the previous five years, no director, person nominated to become a director, or executive officer of the Company was the subject of a legal proceeding that is material to an evaluation of the ability or integrity of any such person.

Report on Executive Compensation

The Colony Bankcorp Compensation Committee makes this report on executive compensation for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

One of the committee's responsibilities is to determine the compensation of the executive officers of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. and its subsidiaries (Colony Bankcorp), including those named in the Summary Compensation Table which appears elsewhere in this proxy statement. The components of executive compensation are salary, bonus awards under the Company's Incentive Cash Plan, contributions by the Company to its Profit Sharing Plan, director fees, the dollar value of our group term life insurance and company vehicles provided to executive officers and long term compensation in which Colony shares are granted with Colony Bankcorp, Inc. Restricted Stock Grant Plan.

It is our policy to determine the salary components of executive compensation principally upon the basis of corporate performance, although the elements of corporate performance may vary from year to year. Among the performance factors which we consider are corporate profitability, asset quality, growth and corporate performance relative to industry standards such as problem asset levels, past due loan levels, loan production, net interest rate margin and net overhead. We do not use a formula to calculate the relative weight of these performance factors in establishing base salary, but do give significant subjective weight to the overall value of Colony Bankcorp from year to year.

We also take into account how the overall level of Colony Bankcorp's executive compensation compares to similar-sized bank holding companies in the Southeastern United States. It was determined that the salary and bonus component of executive compensation was generally within competitive market limits of similar-sized bank holding companies. All other employment benefits of the executive officers were found to be generally within competitive limits.

In setting the compensation for fiscal year 2003 of James D. Minix, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, which included a 5.00% salary increase, a continuation of the bonus award with the Company's Cash Incentive Plan within a range of 12.50% to 50.00% of salary, and grant of 2000 shares of Colony stock with Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 1999 Restricted Stock Plan, we did not apply an objective formula, but did take into account the following factors:

1. During the fiscal year 2002, Colony Bankcorp continued to increase in value as reflected by an approximate 22.53% increase in stockholder's equity from fiscal year 2001. During that same period, the market value of the Company's common stock increased by approximately 19.40%.
2. Colony Bankcorp posted record earnings for fiscal year 2002. Net income for 2002 increased by approximately 18.19% from 2001.
3. Colony Bankcorp's total assets increased by approximately 25.67% from fiscal 2001 to fiscal 2002.

The compensation committee considered similar factors in setting the compensation for Messrs. Hester, Patten, and Ross.

The Board of Directors of the Company did not modify or reject any recommendations we made in 2003 with respect to compensation decisions.

Audit Committee Charter

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A. The Board of Directors reviews and approves changes to the Audit Committee charter annually.

Independence of Audit Committee Members

The Company's Audit Committee is comprised of Harold E. Kimball, L. Morris Downing, Jr., B. Gene Waldron and Terry L. Coleman. Each of these members meets the requirements for independence as defined by the applicable Nasdaq standards. In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that at least one member of the Audit Committee meets the Rules of NASDAQ standard of having accounting or related financial management expertise. Mr. Kimball was elected the financially sophisticated individual on the Audit Committee in lieu of naming a financial expert. In addition, Mr. Kimball was elected Chairman of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee does not include a financial expert as defined by the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 and the Company has not named a financial expert because the Board of Directors has determined the financial acumen of each member of the Audit Committee to be very strong and capable of satisfactorily discharging their duties and responsibilities to the Board of Directors and the shareholders.

Shareholder Communications with the Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors does not have an established written policy or process from security holders to send communications to the Board of Directors. However, it has been the practice of the Company to direct any such communications to the Chairman of the Board, who would, in his or her discretion, discuss the communications with the Board at a regular Board meeting. The Board has determined this policy and process to be satisfactory in allowing security holders to communicate directly with the Board of Directors.

The Company does not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at the Company's annual meeting. However, all directors are encouraged to attend. Approximately 80% of the Board was in attendance at last year's annual meeting.

Proposal No. 2

Approval of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders approve Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan.

At its February 17, 2004 board meeting, the Board of Directors voted to adopt, subject to the approval of a majority of our shareholders at the 2004 Annual Meeting, the Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan. The text of this plan is attached to this proxy as Exhibit B. The plan enables our Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, to grant up to 114,800 shares of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. $1 par common stock to key officers and employees of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. and our subsidiaries. This amounts to 2.0% of current outstanding shares. The purpose of this plan is to attract, retain and develop strong management as the Company continues to expand, and to induce key individuals who render services that contribute materially to our success to remain with us for the long term.

Our Board of Directors, or its designated committee, will have the sole authority over all administration matters of the plan. The grant price for shares issued under the plan will be the fair market value of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. stock on the dates granted. The term of the plan will be ten years after the effective date, unless terminated earlier, and no shares may be granted under this plan after the ten-year period. The Company will receive no consideration upon granting the shares.

Shares that are granted will vest over three year period. The Company will expense monthly the value of the shares granted during the three year vesting period. During the three year vesting period and under conditions set forth in Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan, the shares are subject to forfeiture. Said restrictions shall lapse with respect to the shares awarded pursuant to a Restricted Stock Award, on the date three years after the Restricted Stock Award is made, but only if on the date the restrictions are to lapse the recipient has been an employee of the Company continuously from the time of the Restricted Stock Award to such date of lapse. Once shares become fully vested the grantee will report as income the fair market value of the shares at the time the shares were granted, while the Company will receive a tax deduction for a like amount.

The 2004 plan may be terminated or amended by our Board of Directors at any time, except that Restricted Stock Awards then outstanding shall not be adversely affected thereby without the written consent of the respective recipients holding such award. The Board may make such amendments to the plan as it shall deem advisable except that the approval by a majority of the Company's stockholders, present or represented at a meeting duly held in accordance with the laws of Georgia shall be required for any amendment which would increase the maximum number of shares of common stock available to exceed 2% of the outstanding stock of the Company.

The vote required for approval of the plan is governed by Georgia law and is a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, provided a quorum is present. Abstentions and broker non-votes are considered in determining the number of votes required to obtain a majority of the shares represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. No actions have yet been taken to determine grants to be made from this plan.

Subject to shareholders approval, the Board of Directors, or its designated committee, according to the governing provisions in the plan document, will determine future grants made from the plan. Please refer to Exhibit C for a complete copy of the proposed plan.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan.

- (a) interpret conclusively the provisions of this Plan and decide all questions of fact arising in its applications;
 - (b) adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to this Plan;
 - (c) determine the Executive Employees to whom Restricted Stock Awards shall be made and the amount of each such Restricted Stock Award; and
 - (d) make any other determinations it deems necessary or advisable, subject only to those determinations which may be reserved to the Board.

ARTICLE IV

SHARES SUBJECT TO PLAN

- 4.1 Maximum amount available. The maximum number of shares of Common Stock which may be subject to Restricted Stock Awards hereunder is 114,800 shares of the $1.00 par value common stock of the Company.
- 4.2 Adjustments. consolidation, acquisition of property or shares, separation, reorganization, liquidation, or the like of or by the Company.

ARTICLE V

TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

- 5.1 Restricted stock awards. Restricted Stock Awards may be made prior to February 16, 2014. Such awards may be made to any Executive Employee, regardless of whether prior Restricted Stock Awards have been made to such person.
- 5.2 Notice. The Board shall promptly provide each Recipient with written notice setting forth:
- (a) the amount of the Restricted Stock Award;
 - (b) the Fair Market Value of the shares of Common Stock awarded; and
 - (c) such other terms and conditions relevant thereto as may be considered appropriate by the Board.
- 5.3 Government and other regulations. The obligations of the Company to issue or transfer Common Stock awarded pursuant hereto are subject to:
- (a) compliance with all applicable governmental rules and regulations, and administrative action;
 - (b) the effectiveness of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, if deemed necessary or appropriate by the Company; and
 - (c) the satisfaction of any listing requirements (or authority for listing upon official notice of issuance) for each stock exchange on which outstanding shares of the same class may then be listed.
- 5.4 Restrictions on transfer. The shares of common Stock awarded pursuant to this Plan are subject to the following restrictions:
- (a) Stock certificates evidencing such shares shall be issued in the sole name of the Recipient (but shall be held by the Company until the restrictions shall have lapsed in accordance herewith) and shall bear a legend which, in part, shall provide that:

The shares of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. Common Stock evidenced by this certificate are subject to the terms and restrictions of the Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan; such shares are subject to forfeiture or cancellation under the terms of said Plan; and such shares shall not be sold, transferred, assigned, pledged, encumbered or otherwise alienated or hypothecated except pursuant to the provisions of said Plan, a copy of which is available from Colony Bankcorp, Inc. upon request.

- (b) No such shares may be sold, transferred, assigned, pledged, encumbered or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, unless, until and then only to the extent that said restriction shall have lapsed in accordance with Paragraph 5.5 hereof.

5.5 Lapse of restriction. The restrictions in Paragraph 5.4(b) hereof shall lapse upon the date of approval of the Plan by the Company's stockholders. Subject to the provisions of Article VI, the restrictions contained in Paragraph 5.4(a) and (b) hereof shall lapse as follows:

- (a) Said restrictions shall lapse with respect to the shares awarded pursuant to a Restricted Stock Award, on the date three years after the Restricted Stock Award is made, but only if on the date the restrictions are to lapse the Recipient has been an employee of the Company continuously from the time of the Restricted Stock Award to such date of lapse. Temporary leaves of absence which are approved by the Company shall not be considered a break in that employee's continuous employment with the Company. The purpose of the restrictions is to provide an incentive to each Recipient to remain with the Company or one of its Subsidiaries and to perform assigned tasks and responsibilities in a manner consistent with the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.
- (b) The Board may at any time in its sole discretion accelerate or waive all or any portion of restrictions remaining in respect of the Restricted Stock Award. This right may be exercised for any or all Recipients.
- (c) In the event of the Recipient's death, permanent total disability, or retirement, the Board may, in its discretion, elect to waive all or any portion of the restrictions remaining in respect of the Restricted Stock Award.
- (d) Risk of forfeiture under Section 5.6 shall terminate with respect to all Shares upon the occurrence of any of the following: (1) any merger, consolidations, reorganization, division or other corporate transaction in which the Common Stock is converted into another security or into the right to receive securities or property of the Company or of any other entity, other than a transaction where the holders of all of the Company's securities before the transaction own substantially all of the securities of the surviving entity in the transaction (e.g., a merger to change domicile would not trigger termination of rights); (2) the Company's sale of all or substantially all of its assets, or liquidation of all or substantially all of its assets, or (3) a change of control of the Company, which for example, but not by way of limitation, shall be deemed to have occurred (i) upon the accumulation by any person of beneficial ownership of voting securities of the Company in excess of ten percent (10%) of the then-outstanding voting securities other than share holders with more than ten percent (10%) of the Company Stock on February 17, 2004, or (ii) by the removal at one time by the vote of shareholders of one half or more of the members of the Company's Board of Directors.

- 5.6 Effect of termination. Except as otherwise provided in Article VI, in the event of Termination, all shares still subject to the restrictions hereof shall be returned to or canceled by the Company and shall be deemed to have been forfeited by the Recipient, unless and then only to the extent the Compensation Committee shall, in its sole discretion, elect in writing to waive said return and forfeiture in accordance with Paragraph 5.5(b) or (c) hereof.
- 5.7 Rights as stockholder. Upon issuance of the stock certificates evidencing the Restricted Stock Award and subject to the restrictions contained in Paragraph 5.4 hereof, the Recipient shall have all the rights of a stockholder of the Company with respect to the shares of Common Stock represented by said Restricted Stock Award, including the right to vote the shares and receive all dividends and other distributions paid or made with respect thereto, except the Company at its discretion may hold possession of the share certificates with a blank stock power signed by Recipient to enforce the restriction in the shares.

ARTICLE VI

MISCELLANEOUS TERMS

- 6.1 Termination and amendment. The Board may terminate or amend the Plan at any time, except that Restricted Stock Awards then outstanding shall not be adversely affected thereby without the written consent of the respective Recipients holding such Awards.

The Plan shall not be effective unless approved by the shareholders of the Company at the annual shareholders meeting in 2004.

- 6.2 Limitation of liability of the company. As illustrative of the limitations of liability of the Company, but not intended to be exhaustive thereof, nothing in the Plan shall be construed to:
- (a) give any employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries any right to be granted any awards other than at the sole discretion of the Board;

6.3 Non-exclusivity of the plan. Nothing contained herein is intended to amend, modify or rescind any previously approved compensation plans or programs entered into by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. This Plan shall be in addition to any and all such plans or programs. The adoption of this Plan by the Board shall not be construed as creating any limitations on the power or authority of the Board to adopt such other additional incentive or other compensation arrangements as the Board may deem necessary or desirable.

6.4 Effective date of the plan. The Plan shall be deemed effective as of February 17, 2004.

6.5 Headings. The headings of the Articles and their subparts in this Plan are for convenience of reading only and are not meant to be of substantive significance and shall not add or detract from the meaning of such Article or subpart.

- (a) All expenses of administering the Plan shall be borne by the Company.
- (b) No person shall have any claim or right to receive an award if, in the opinion of counsel, such receipt conflicts with law or is opposed to public policy.
- (c) The place of administration of the Plan shall be conclusively deemed to be within the State of Georgia, and the validity, construction, interpretation, administration and effect of the Plan and of its rules and regulations and the rights of any and all personnel having or claiming to have an interest herein or hereunder shall be governed by and determined exclusively and solely in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia.
- (d) This Plan shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Company and each Subsidiary, whether by way of merger, consolidation, operation of law, assignment, purchase or other acquisition of substantially all of the assets or business of the Company or any Subsidiary and any such successor or assign shall absolutely and unconditionally assume all of the Company's and each Subsidiary's obligations hereunder.
- (e) Restricted Stock Grant Awards shall be made pursuant to the form of Restricted Stock Grant Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has executed the foregoing Plan by and through its duly authorized offices this 17th day of February, 2004.
