- (a) In 2003, The Prudential Insurance Company of America ("Prudential Insurance"), a wholly owned domestic insurance subsidiary of the registrant, established a Funding Agreement Notes Issuance Program pursuant to which a Delaware statutory trust issues medium-term notes (which are included in the registrant's consolidated balance sheet) secured by funding agreements issued to the trust by Prudential Insurance and included in the registrant's Retirement segment. The funding agreements provide cash flow sufficient for the debt service on the medium-term notes. The medium-term notes are sold in transactions not requiring registration under the Securities Act of 1933. On October 5, 2004, issuance of such notes exceeded $2 billion for the first time ($2.05 billion as of such date), out of an aggregate authorized of $3 billion (subject to increase to up to $6 billion). The notes have fixed or floating interest rates and original maturities ranging from two years to five years.
