Item 1.01: Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

In May 2002, Shareholders approved the 2002 Incentive Compensation Plan (the Plan). Named Executive Officers (NEOs) participate in the Plan. The Plan allows for incentive compensation to be awarded based on periods longer than one year (the Long Term Incentive Plan, or LTIP). The previous LTIP measurement period was for 2002-2004 with the awards available to NEOs consisting of cash and stock options.

The Board of Directors established a new LTIP measurement period for 2005-2006. The awards available to NEOs consist of 50% cash (0-200% of target can be earned based on performance, with a payout of the full amount at the end of the two year performance period and 1/3 of the cash award deferred into stock units until the participant achieves his/her stock ownership requirement); 25% restricted stock units (0-200% of target can be earned based on performance, with service-based vesting for 3 years beyond the end of each respective performance period - i.e., 2005 award vests on December 31, 2008; 2006 award vests on December 31, 2009); and 25% stock options (fair market value grant vesting over 4 years with a 7 year term).
