GENERAL INFORMATION FOR SHAREHOLDERS

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE.

Our business is managed by the Company's employees under the direction and oversight of the Board of Directors. Except for Mr. Aldworth, none of the Board members are employees of the Company. The Board limits membership of the Audit Committee, Compensation and Nominating and Governance Committee to independent non-employee Directors as determined by the New York Stock Exchange Listing Standards and the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. We keep Board members informed of our business through discussions with management, materials we provide to them, visits to our offices and their participation in Board meetings and Board committee meetings.

The Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Principles which, along with the charters of the Board Committees and the Company's Code of Conduct, provide the framework for the governance of the Company. A complete copy of the Company's governance principles, the charters of the Board Committees and the Code of Conduct may be found on the Company's Investor Relations Section of our website at www.proquestcompany.com.

The Board met in executive session of non-management directors at each of the 2004 meetings. Mr. Oberndorf has been appointed as the lead Director for these meetings.

The Company has established several means for shareholders or others to communicate their concerns to the Board of Directors. If the concern relates to the Company's financial statements, accounting practices or internal controls, the concern should be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in care of the Company's Secretary at the Company's headquarters address. If the concern relates to the Company's governance practices, business ethics or corporate conduct, the concern may be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee in care of the Company's Secretary at the Company's headquarters address. In addition, shareholders or others may also communicate with the Board via email to board.directors@proquest.com as described on the Company's website (www.proquestcompany.com).

The Company's whistleblower policy prohibits the Company or any of its employees from retaliating or taking any adverse action against anyone for raising a concern. If a shareholder or employee nonetheless prefers to raise his or her concern in a confidential or anonymous manner, the concern may be directed to the Office of the Secretary at the Company's headquarters. The Secretary will refer the concern to the appropriate independent director.

The Board of Directors has determined that as of March 10, 2005, Ms. Roberts and Messrs. Brown, Geltzeiler, Nelson, Oberndorf, Roubos and Schwab are independent under the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors presently consists of ten members. There are currently no vacancies on the Board.

The Board held eight meetings during 2004. Except for Mr. Nelson who attended all but three meetings, the average attendance by Directors at these meetings was greater than 75%. The Board has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Governance Committee.

Edgar Filing: PROQUEST CO - Form DEF 14A

The Board of Directors encourages all of its members to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. In May 2004, eight of the nine director nominees were present at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee's primary responsibilities are:

to be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the Company's independent auditors;

Table of Contents

- to ensure audit partner rotation.

The Audit Committee met five times during 2004. Messrs. Roubos (Chairman), Geltzeiler and Brown were members of the Audit Committee in 2004. Mr. Geltzeiler was appointed to the Audit Committee upon Mr. White's resignation in September 2004. All members attended at least 90% of the Committee meetings. The Audit Committee operates under a formal written charter, which has been approved by the Board and available on the Company's website (www.proquestcompany.com). All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent under New York Stock Exchange listing standards and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Board determined each of the members of the Audit Committee qualifies as an Audit Committee financial expert as defined under the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee's responsibilities are:

- to monitor the Company's management resources, structure, succession planning, development and selection process and the performance of key executives;
- to administer ProQuest Company's Strategic Performance Plan and the Management Incentive Bonus Plan; and
- to review and approve executive compensation.

This Committee met five times during 2004. Messrs. Oberndorf (Chairman) and Roubos are members of the Compensation Committee. The members attended all Compensation Committee meetings in 2004. The Compensation Committee operates under a formal written charter which was approved by the Board. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent under the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Committee currently has a vacancy due to a recent resignation of a director. The vacancy will be filled by the Board.

Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee's responsibilities are:

to identify and recommend candidates for membership on the Board;

to review the size, composition and compensation of the Board;

to develop an evaluation process for the Board; and to develop and recommend corporate governance guidelines.

This Committee met four times during 2004. Messrs. Brown (Chairman), Oberndorf and Roubos are members of the Committee. All members attended at least 90% of the Committee meetings. The Nominating and Governance Committee operates under a formal written charter which has been approved by the Board. The Charter is reviewed periodically by the Board. All of the members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are independent under the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. A copy of the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter is located on the Company's website at www.proquestcompany.com.

Table of Contents

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider board nominees recommended by shareholders. Those recommendations should be sent to the Chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee, care of the Corporate Secretary of ProQuest Company, 777 Eisenhower Parkway, P.O. Box 1346, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106-1346. In order for a shareholder to nominate a candidate for director, under the Company's Bylaws, timely notice of the nomination must be given in writing to the Secretary of the Company. To be timely, such notice must be received at the principal executive offices of the Company not less than ninety days prior to the meeting of shareholders. Notice of a nomination must include your name, address and number of shares you own; the name, age, business address, residence address and principal occupation of the nominee; and the number of shares beneficially owned by the nominee. It must also include the information that would be required to be disclosed in the solicitation of proxies for election of directors under the federal securities laws, as well as whether the individual can understand basic financial statements and the candidate's other board memberships (if any). You must submit the nominee's consent to be elected and to serve. The Nominating and Governance Committee may require any nominee to furnish any other information, within reason, that may be needed to determine the eligibility of the nominee. As provided in its Charter, the Nominating and Governance Committee will follow procedures which the Committee deems reasonable and appropriate in the identification of candidates for election to the board and evaluating the background and qualifications of those candidates. Those processes include consideration of nominees suggested by an outside search firm, by incumbent board members and by shareholders. The Committee will seek candidates having experience and abilities relevant to serving as a director of the Company and who represent the best interests of shareholders as a whole and not any specific interest group or constituency.

The Committee will consider a candidate's qualifications and background, including, but not limited to responsibility for operating a public company or a division of a public company, international business experience, a candidate's technical background or professional qualifications and other public company boards on which the candidate is a director. The Committee will also consider whether the candidate would be independent for purposes of the New York Stock Exchange and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee may from time to time engage the service of a professional search firm to identify and evaluate potential nominees.

Compensation of Directors. All of the non-employee Directors receive the following compensation:

an annual cash retainer of $50,000;

a one-time grant of restricted stock equal to $75,000, subject to a three year restriction period, upon a member's initial election;

an annual stock option grant valued at $25,000;

a fee of $2,000 in cash for each Board meeting attended;

each Audit Committee member receives an annual cash committee meeting fee of $15,000 and the Audit Committee Chairman receives an annual additional cash fee of $10,000;

each Director serving on the Compensation and the Nominating and Governance Committees receives an annual cash committee meeting fee of $6,000 and the Chairman of each of the Compensation Committee and Nominating and Governance Committee receives an additional cash fee of $10,000;

Directors are also reimbursed travel expenses for their attendance at these meetings.

Edgar Filing: PROQUEST CO - Form DEF 14A

The annual stock option grant to directors is made under the ProQuest Company Strategic Performance Plan. Each non-employee Director receives an annual stock option grant made as of the last day of trading of ProQuest's Common Stock in the second fiscal quarter (July 3, 2004). The stock option grant permits a non-employee Director to purchase shares of ProQuest's Common Stock at an exercise price not less than the market value of the Common stock on the date the option is granted. The number of shares that may be purchased is equal to $25,000 divided by the fair market value of an option of one share of Common stock on the grant date.

Table of Contents

For these purposes, the value of an option is determined by using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. In 2004, each Director received an option grant of 2,021 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $27.19 per share. On January 4, 2004, Ms. Roberts and Mr. Nelson each received 2,547 shares of restricted Common Stock. These shares of restricted Common Stock were determined by dividing $75,000 by the market value of the Common Stock on the trading day immediately prior to January 4, 2004. Furthermore, on September 21, 2004, Msrs. Geltzeiler and Schwab each received 2,913 shares of restricted Common Stock. These shares were determined by dividing $75,000 by the market value of the Common Stock on September 21, 2004. Mr. Best received 2,095 shares of restricted Common Stock on March 10, 2005 as determined by dividing $75,000 by the market value of the Common Stock on March 10, 2005.

Please see Related Party Transactions related to consulting agreement with Mr. Best.

Mr. Aldworth receives no additional compensation for being a member of the Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The philosophy of the Compensation Committee is to:

align executive compensation with shareholder interests;

ensure that compensation is at a level that enables the Company to attract and retain high quality talent; and provide significant rewards for achievement of business objectives and growth in shareholder value.

The Company's compensation program for executive officers currently consists of the following key elements:

base salary;

annual bonuses;

stock option and restricted stock grants; and long term incentive programs.

Each element of the program has a somewhat different purpose. Salary and annual bonuses are made to compensate ongoing performance and achievement of business objectives through the year based upon established targets and goals. Stock option and restricted stock grants and long term incentive plans are designed to provide strong incentives for creation of long term shareholder value and continued retention of executive officers and other key employees of the Company.

In determining the overall level and form of executive compensation to be paid or awarded in 2004, the Committee considered, among other things, continued increases in the Company's sales and productivity in a period of rapid change and intensified competition; and the compensation practices and performances of other major corporations which are most likely to compete with the Company for the services of its executive officers.

BASES FOR COMPENSATION

Edgar Filing: PROQUEST CO - Form DEF 14A

Chief Executive Officer. During 2004, Mr. Aldworth received total cash payments of $625,000 salary and $443,694 in bonuses as shown in the Summary Compensation Table on page 9. In determining Mr. Aldworth's 2004 compensation, the Compensation Committee focused on his ability to enhance the long-term value of the Company. During his tenure with ProQuest, Mr. Aldworth has been a leader in the revitalization of the Company and its transformation into a provider of technological solutions within a number of market segments. Mr. Aldworth has also been instrumental in improving the capital and debt structure of the Company. Mr. Aldworth's total compensation is based on both ProQuest's recent performance and his contributions to the overall long-term strategy and financial strength of the Company.

Executive Officer Base Salary. Base salary for the executive officers, other than the Chief Executive Officer was set by the Chief Executive Officer with the consent of the Compensation Committee. In setting these compensation levels, the Compensation Committee considered a variety of factors, including competitive market levels, levels of responsibility, and the unique abilities and individual experience and performance of each officer.

The purpose of the ProQuest Strategic Performance Plan is to increase stockholder value and maintain an entrepreneurial spirit within the Company by providing significant capital accumulation opportunities to the Company's officers and other key employees.

Table of Contents

DEDUCTIBILITY OF COMPENSATION IN EXCESS OF $1,000,000 PER YEAR

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m), in general, precludes a public corporation from claiming a tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1,000,000 in any taxable year for any executive officer named in the summary Compensation table in such corporation's proxy statement. Certain performance-based compensation is exempt from this tax deduction limitation. The Compensation Committee's policy is to structure executive compensation in order to maximize the amount of the Company's tax deduction. However, the Compensation Committee reserves the right to deviate from that policy to the extent it is deemed necessary to serve the best interests of the Company.

The foregoing report on executive compensation is provided by the following members of the Compensation Committee during 2004:

William E. Oberndorf (Chairman) and Gary L. Roubos.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Messrs. Oberndorf and Roubos are the members of the Compensation Committee. No member of the Compensation Committee is an officer of the Company. No member of the Compensation Committee served as a director or member of the Compensation Committee of another entity, any of whose executive officers served as a director or member of the Compensation Committee of the Company.

VOTING

VOTING SECURITIES

Shareholders of record at the close of business on April 29, 2005 will be eligible to vote at the meeting. The voting securities of ProQuest consist of its common stock, of which 29,784,267 were outstanding on April 29, 2005. Each share outstanding on the record date will be entitled to one vote.

Individual votes of shareholders are kept private, except as appropriate to meet legal requirements. Access to proxies and other individual share owner voting records is limited to the Independent Inspectors of Election (Bank Boston, c/o Boston EquiServe, L.P.) and certain employees of ProQuest and its agents who must acknowledge in writing their responsibility to comply with this policy of confidentiality.

VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

The nominees for director receiving a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting in person or by proxy shall be elected. All other matters which may be presented at the meeting require the favorable vote of a majority of shares represented and voted at the meeting for approval. Withholding votes and broker non-votes will not be treated as votes cast. Therefore, withholding, will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors but abstention will have the effect of a vote against all other proposals to be voted on at the meeting. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors at the meeting.

MANNER FOR VOTING PROXIES

The shares represented by all valid proxies received will be voted in the manner specified on the proxies. Where specific choices are not indicated, the shares represented by all valid proxies received will be voted for the nominees for director named earlier in this Proxy Statement.
