Section 3 Securities and Trading Markets

Item 3.02. Unregistered Sale of Equity Securities

The information set forth in Item 5.03 is incorporated herein by reference.

Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Oracle filed a Certificate of Designations with the Secretary of State of Delaware on January 31, 2006 to authorize the issuance of shares of Series C Preferred Stock. Eleven thousand two hundred (11,200) shares of the Series C Preferred Stock were issued on the same day to an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Oracle in exchange for shares of Oracle Series B Preferred Stock held by such subsidiary. The exchange was made as part of an internal recapitalization related to the acquisition of Siebel Systems, Inc. Because these shares are held by an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary, neither the shares of Series C Preferred nor the shares of Series B Preferred will be reflected on Oracle's consolidated balance sheet. Oracle does not plan to transfer the shares of Series C Preferred outside the Oracle consolidated group. This filing is being made because the Certificate of Designations constitutes an amendment of Oracle's certificate of incorporation.

The Series C Preferred Stock ranks senior to Oracle's Common Stock with respect to dividends and upon liquidation, and carries a cumulative dividend of $15,000 per year per share, payable quarterly. Upon liquidation, the Series C Preferred Stock has a preference of $261,500 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. After February 2, 2026, Oracle may redeem the Series C Preferred Stock for $261,500 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. Because the shares are held by an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Oracle, any dividends or redemptions will be within the Oracle consolidated group and will thus not be reflected in Oracle's consolidated financial statements.

Although the Series C Preferred Stock by its terms votes with Oracle's Common Stock with respect to the election of directors, under Delaware law the shares are not entitled to vote because they are held by an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary.

This description of the terms and conditions of the Series C Preferred Stock does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Certificate of Designations attached hereto as Exhibit 3.06 and incorporated by reference.

The Series C Preferred Stock has not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and was issued in a transaction not involving a public offering pursuant to the exemption under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act.
