ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 6, 2006, the Outside Director Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Dolby Laboratories, Inc. (the Company) approved revised compensation arrangements for non-employee directors of the Company effective as of June 6, 2006, and recommended to the full Board of Directors that the Company's 2005 Stock Plan be amended. On June 6, 2006, the full Board of Directors approved that amendment. Details of these new compensation arrangements are described below.

- a) Meeting Attendance Fees. Each non-employee director now will receive $1,000 for attendance at each Board and committee meeting. Previously, non-employee directors did not receive meeting attendance fees.

- b) Retainers. Each non-employee director will continue to receive an annual $30,000 retainer for service as a member of the Board. The chair of the Audit Committee will continue to receive an additional annual $20,000 retainer. The chair of the Compensation Committee now will receive an additional annual $10,000 retainer. The chair of the Compensation Committee previously did not receive a retainer in that capacity.

- c) 2005 Stock Plan Amendment and Restatement to Increase Automatic Option Grants. The Board amended and restated the Company's Amended and Restated 2005 Stock Plan (the Plan) solely to increase the number of options automatically granted to non-employee directors. As a result of these increases, (i) new non-employee directors appointed to the Board now will receive initial options to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, which vest over three years at a rate of one-third upon each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date as long as the director continues to serve on the applicable vesting date (the Initial Grants), and (ii) following each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders, non-employee directors who have been directors for at least six months now will receive options to purchase 12,500 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, with one-third of the shares covered by these options vesting on each of the first three anniversaries of the grant date as long as the director continues to serve on the applicable vesting date (the Subsequent Grants). These options will become fully vested and exercisable immediately prior to a change in control of the Company. Previously, Initial Grants and Subsequent Grants were grants of options to purchase 20,000 and 10,000, shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, respectively.

- d) Expenses. The Company will continue to reimburse its non-employee directors for reasonable travel expenses in connection with attendance at Board and committee meetings and reasonable continuing education expenses.
