Dear Stockholder:

On August 7, 2006, Aleris International, Inc. (Aleris or the Company) entered into a merger agreement providing for the acquisition of the Company by Aurora Acquisition Holdings, Inc., which we refer to as Parent, an entity currently owned indirectly by private equity funds sponsored by TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc. If the merger is completed, you will receive $52.50 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes, for each share of Aleris common stock you own.

As further described in the proxy statement attached to this letter, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Aurora Acquisition Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, which we refer to as Merger Sub, with and into the Company pursuant to which each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of the Company (other than shares held in the treasury of the Company or owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent or the Company and other than shares held by stockholders who properly exercise statutory appraisal rights) will be converted into the right to receive $52.50 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes.

You will be asked, at a special meeting of the Company s stockholders to be held at [•] on [•] at [•], to vote on the merger proposal. Only stockholders of record of Aleris common stock on the close of business on [•] are entitled to vote at the special meeting. The board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Aleris and its stockholders. The board of directors unanimously recommends that Aleris s stockholders vote FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that, as a result of the merger, certain of Aleris s directors will receive payment for equity-based interests in the Company that they hold in addition to shares of Aleris common stock.

The proxy statement attached to this letter provides you with information about the proposed merger and the special meeting of the Company s stockholders. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement carefully. You may also obtain more information about the Company from documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Your vote is very important. Because approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Aleris common stock entitled to vote as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, a failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person and regardless of the number of shares you own, it is important that your shares be represented and voted at the special meeting. Accordingly, you are requested to vote the enclosed proxy at your earliest convenience. Your shares will then be represented at the special meeting, and we will be able to avoid the expense of further solicitation.

Submitting your proxy will not prevent you from voting your shares in person if you subsequently choose to attend the special meeting.

Thank you for your cooperation and continued support.

Very truly yours,

Steven J. Demetriou
Chairman of the Board of Directors and

Chief Executive Officer

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD [●]

Dear Stockholder:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of stockholders of Aleris International, Inc. (Aleris or the Company), will be held at [●] on [●] at [●]. At the special meeting Aleris stockholders will be asked to:

Consider and vote on a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement that provides for the acquisition of the Company by Aurora Acquisition Holdings, Inc., which we refer to as Parent, an entity currently owned indirectly by private equity funds sponsored by TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc. As further described in this proxy statement, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Aurora Acquisition Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, which we refer to as Merger Sub, with and into Aleris pursuant to which each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of the Company (other than shares held in the treasury of the Company or owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent or the Company and other than shares held by stockholders who properly exercise statutory appraisal rights), will be converted into the right to receive $52.50 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes.

Consider and vote on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement, if proposed by the Company's board of directors.

Consider and take action on any other business matter that may properly come before the special meeting or any reconvened special meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, we encourage you to vote by proxy as soon as possible. To vote your proxy by mail, mark your vote on the enclosed proxy card, sign it correctly, and return it in the envelope provided. To vote your proxy by telephone or electronically via the Internet, see the instructions on the proxy card and have the proxy card available when you call or access the Internet website. If you receive more than one proxy card because your shares are registered in different names or at different addresses, each proxy card should be voted to ensure that all of your shares will be counted. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the special meeting, and if you are present at the special meeting, you may withdraw your proxy and vote in person.

Only stockholders of record of Aleris common stock on the close of business on [●] are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting and at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. On the record date, we had outstanding [●] shares of common stock. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to come before the special meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote as of the record date is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Aleris common stock entitled to vote as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. If you fail to return your proxy card or fail to submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet and do not attend the special meeting in person, the effect will be that your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting and, if a quorum is present, will have the same effect as a vote against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. All stockholders of record are cordially invited to attend the special meeting in person. A complete list of stockholders of record entitled to vote at the special meeting will be open to the examination of any stockholder at our headquarters during normal business hours at 25825 Science Park Drive, Suite 400, Beachwood, Ohio 44122-7392 for a period of ten days before the special meeting.

A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to the proxy statement of which this notice is a part. The proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement is described in more detail in the accompanying proxy statement. You should read these documents carefully and in their entirety before voting. Aleris's board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Aleris and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that Aleris stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement. In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that, as a result of the merger, certain of Aleris's directors will receive payment for equity-based interests in the Company that they hold in addition to shares of Aleris common stock.

This notice, the accompanying proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card are sent to you by order of the board of directors of Aleris International, Inc.

Christopher R. Clegg

Senior Vice President, General Counsel

and Secretary

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

Stockholders of Aleris who do not vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares if the merger is completed, but only if they submit a written demand for appraisal to the Company before the vote is taken on the merger agreement and they comply with all requirements of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. A copy of the applicable statutory provisions is included as Annex C to the proxy statement, and a summary of these provisions can be found in the section entitled "Rights of Appraisal" in the proxy statement.

Please do not send your stock certificates at this time. If the merger is completed, you will be sent instructions regarding the surrender of your stock certificates.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement and may not contain all of the information that may be important to you. This summary is not meant to be a substitute for the information contained in the remainder of the proxy statement. To understand fully the potential acquisition of Aleris by private equity funds sponsored by TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc., which we refer to as the merger, and for a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement, its annexes and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

The Parties to the Merger

Aleris International, Inc.

Aleris International, Inc. is a global leader in aluminum rolled products and extrusions, aluminum recycling and specification alloy production. Aurora Acquisition Holdings, Inc.

c/o Texas Pacific Group

(817) 871-4000

Aurora Acquisition Holdings, Inc., which we refer to as Parent, is currently indirectly wholly owned by private equity funds sponsored by TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc., which we refer to together as TPG. Parent was formed solely for the purpose of entering into the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 7, 2006, by and among Aleris, Parent and Aurora Acquisition Merger Sub, Inc., which we refer to as the merger agreement, and completing the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. It has not conducted any activities to date other than activities incidental to its formation and in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Aurora Acquisition Merger Sub, Inc.

c/o Texas Pacific Group

301 Commerce Street, Suite 3300

Fort Worth, TX 76102

(817) 871-4000

Aurora Acquisition Merger Sub, Inc., which we refer to as Merger Sub, is wholly owned by Parent. Merger Sub was formed solely for the purpose of entering into the merger agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. It has not conducted any activities to date other than activities incidental to its formation and in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Aleris. Aleris will survive the merger and Merger

Sub will cease to exist.

Table of Contents

Parent and Merger Sub are each entities currently indirectly owned by private equity funds sponsored by TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc. Each of TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc. is serving as the sole general partner of related entities engaged in making investments in securities of public and private companies.

Reasons for the Merger (Page 26)

In evaluating the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Aleris board of directors consulted with Aleris's management, financial advisor and legal counsel. In concluding that the merger is in the best interests of Aleris and its stockholders, the Aleris board of directors considered a variety of factors including, among others;

the fact that the merger consideration of $52.50 per share in cash represents (1) a premium to the closing sale price of Aleris common stock on August 4, 2006, the last full trading day before the time the Aleris board of directors met to consider approval of the merger agreement, which was prior to the Company's release of record second quarter earnings on August 8, 2006 of $1.40 per share, which (according to published reports) exceeded the securities analysts' estimates of $1.24 per share (which estimates were consistent with the Company's prior guidance), (2) a premium to the weighted average trading price of Aleris common stock as of August 1, 2006, and (3) a substantial premium to the average trading price of Aleris common stock prior to the 13D filings by OZ Management, L.L.C. and Brahman Capital Corp.;

the specific terms of the merger agreement; and the fact that the merger is subject to the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Aleris common stock, and the availability of appraisal rights to holders of Aleris common stock who comply with all of the required procedures under Delaware law.

For a description of the factors that the Aleris board of directors considered in concluding that the merger is in the best interests of Aleris and its stockholders, see "The Merger" Reasons for the Merger.

Opinion of Aleris's Financial Advisor (Page 29 and Annex B)

In connection with the merger, Aleris's board of directors received a written opinion, dated August 7, 2006, from Citigroup Global Markets Inc., or Citigroup, Aleris's financial advisor, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Aleris common stock. The full text of Citigroup's written opinion is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. Citigroup's opinion, which was provided to Aleris's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration from a financial point of view, does not address any other aspects or implications of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed merger.

Financing the Merger (Page 34)

Parent estimates the total amount of funds necessary to complete the merger is approximately $3.4 billion, which includes approximately $1.7 billion to be paid to our stockholders and holders of our other equity-based interests, with the remaining funds to be used to refinance existing indebtedness of the Company and to pay customary fees and expenses in connection with the merger, the financing arrangements and the related transactions. These payments are expected to be funded by equity contributions by investment funds affiliated with TPG and other co-investors that may be identified by TPG, debt financing and our available cash.

Table of Contents

TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P., investment funds sponsored by TPG, and Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC, Parent's immediate parent company, which is currently wholly-owned by such investment funds sponsored by TPG, have agreed to fund in the aggregate up to $1 billion as the equity portion of the financing for the merger, subject to the terms and conditions contained in their respective equity commitment letters.

In connection with the merger agreement, to finance in part payment of the merger consideration, Parent has obtained:

commitments from Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch to provide a senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $970 million and a senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility with a maximum availability of $750 million; and commitments from Deutsche Bank AG Cayman Islands Branch to provide funds in an aggregate principal amount of up to $530 million under a senior unsecured bridge facility and up to $525 million under a senior subordinated unsecured bridge facility.

The debt commitments expire on June 30, 2007. The documentation governing the debt facilities has not been finalized and, therefore, the actual terms of such facilities may differ from those described in this proxy statement.

Parent has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the debt financing on the terms and conditions described in the commitments. The closing of the merger is not conditioned on the receipt of the debt financing by Merger Sub. Parent, however, is not required to complete the merger until after the completion of the marketing period as described above under When the Merger Will Be Completed and in further detail under The Merger Agreement The Merger; Effective Time; Marketing Period .

If all other conditions to the consummation of the merger have been satisfied (including, without limitation, the expiration of the marketing period), Parent will be required to consummate the merger regardless of whether Parent has obtained debt financing on the terms and conditions described in the debt financing commitments, and the failure by Parent to consummate the merger in such circumstances would constitute a breach of the merger agreement. In the event that the Company terminates the merger agreement because Parent or Merger Sub breaches its obligations to effect the closing and satisfy its obligations with respect to payment of the merger consideration when all conditions to the closing are satisfied and the marketing period has expired and Parent fails to effect the closing because of a failure to receive the proceeds of one or more of the debt financings contemplated by the debt financing commitments or because of its refusal to accept debt financing on terms materially less beneficial to it than the terms set forth in the debt financing commitments, Merger Sub will be required to pay the Company a $40 million termination fee. This termination fee payable to the Company is the exclusive remedy of the Company unless Parent or Merger Sub is otherwise in breach of the merger agreement, in which case the Company may pursue a damages claim. The aggregate liability of Parent and its affiliates arising from any breach of the merger agreement is in any event capped at $100 million.

In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that some of our directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. The aggregate amount of compensatory payments and benefits that executive officers and directors will receive as a result of the merger and the underlying Company plans with respect to the cancellation of their outstanding equity awards is $59,108,960, which amount is exclusive of shares owned by executive officers as of the record date for the special meeting.

Treatment of Stock Options (Page 37)

As of the record date, there were approximately 1,024,121 shares of our common stock subject to stock options granted under our equity incentive plans to our current executive officers and directors. Each outstanding stock option that remains unexercised as of the completion of the merger, whether or not the option is vested or exercisable, will be canceled (to the extent permitted under the governing stock plan documents and related award agreements or otherwise effectuated by us), and the holder of each such stock option that has an exercise price of less than $52.50 will be entitled to receive a cash payment, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the number of shares of our common stock subject to the option as of the effective time of the merger; and the excess, if any, of $52.50 over the exercise price per share of common stock subject to such option.

Please see page 37 for a table that summarizes the vested and unvested options with exercise prices of less than $52.50 per share held by our executive officers and directors as of October 9, 2006, as well as the consideration that each of them will receive pursuant to the merger agreement in connection with the cancellation of their options.

Treatment of Restricted Stock and Stock Units (Page 37)

As of the record date, there were approximately 202,335 shares of our common stock represented by restricted share awards held by our executive officers and directors under our equity incentive plans. Under the merger agreement, all such restricted share awards will become immediately vested and free of restrictions effective as of the completion of the merger; and at the effective time of the merger, the holder of each such award will receive a cash payment of $52.50 per share of restricted stock, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, in exchange for the cancellation of such restricted shares in accordance with the treatment of other stockholders participating in the merger.

In addition, as of the record date there were approximately 8,000 shares of our common stock represented by certain restricted stock units held by an executive officer originally granted in 2004 under an IMCO Recycling Inc. equity plan. Under the merger agreement, these restricted stock unit awards will be cancelled, and the holder of the restricted stock unit award will be entitled to receive in consideration for the cancellation a cash payment of $52.50 per restricted stock unit, without interest and less any required withholding taxes.

Please see page 38 for a table that summarizes the restricted shares and restricted stock unit awards held by our executive officers and directors as of October 9, 2006, and the consideration that each of them will receive pursuant to the merger agreement in connection with the cancellation of such awards.

Treatment of Performance Units (Page 38)

Certain executive officers and other employees of the Company were granted performance units in 2005 and 2006 under the Company's 2004 Equity Incentive Plan. The grants provided for performance units, the settlement of which would be in shares of Aleris common stock, which would vest based on the attainment of certain performance goals. One-half of the performance unit award would vest upon the attainment of return on capital employed targets, which we refer to as the ROCE Vested Units, and the other half would vest only upon attainment of certain merger synergy targets prior to December 31, 2008 related to the merger of IMCO Recycling Inc. and Commonwealth Industries, Inc., which we refer to as the Synergy-Vested Units. Certain executive officers and other employees were also granted awards consisting of a cash amount and performance units as part of the 2005 Acquisition Incentive Awards, which we refer to as the Acquisition Units, which would be payable upon the attainment of specified goals at the end of 2006 and 2007.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Synergy-Vested Units will remain outstanding and the surviving corporation will make payments, if any, in accordance with the Synergy-Vested Units original agreements based on the attainment of the applicable performance measures. Any amount that would have been payable in shares will instead be payable in cash in an amount equal to $52.50 multiplied by the number of shares underlying the Synergy-Vested Unit, less any required withholding taxes.

Also, under the merger agreement, the ROCE-Vested Units and the Acquisition Units will be accelerated and vested as if all performance goals had been met as of the date which is the later of January 15, 2007 and one business day following the closing date of the merger. The ROCE-Vested Units and the Acquisition Units will subsequently be cancelled and each holder of such units will receive in consideration for such cancellation an amount in cash equal to $52.50 multiplied by the number of shares underlying the ROCE-Vested Units and the Acquisition Units, less any required withholding taxes, plus the cash amount portion of the Acquisition Unit award if any.

Please see page 39 for a table that summarizes the ROCE-Vested Units and the Acquisition Units held by our executive officers and directors as of October 9, 2006, the consideration that each of them will receive for the cancellation of the performance units in connection with the merger and the cash payment portion of the Acquisition Units that becomes payable upon the acceleration of the Acquisition Units.

Other Matters (Page 40)

Certain members of our management are parties to severance agreements, deferred compensation agreements and other employment-related arrangements. We do not expect the termination of employment provisions of these executive officers' agreements to be triggered. However, under these agreements, in the event of certain terminations of employment by the Company or the executive officer following the merger, payments ranging between $933,816 and $7,723,777, representing the amounts of severance, would become payable to the executive officer, depending on the particular agreement's terms. In addition, certain executives are eligible to receive a gross-up payment to offset any excise tax liability incurred as a result of the severance payment and the value of any accelerated vesting on outstanding equity awards. The potential gross-up payments which would become due in connection with the merger range from approximately $562,000 to $6,003,000, depending on the individual. See page 40 for a more detailed discussion.

The merger agreement provides for indemnification arrangements for each of our current and former directors and officers that will continue for six years following the effective time of the merger. In addition, the merger agreement provides that the Company will purchase by the effective time of the merger, and the surviving corporation will maintain, tail policies to the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies currently maintained by the Company and its subsidiaries. These tail policies will not have aggregate premiums in excess of 400% of the annual amounts currently paid by the Company, will be effective for six years from the effective time of the merger with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred prior to the effective time of the merger, and, except as provided in the merger agreement, will contain coverage that is at least as protective to the persons covered as our existing policies in this respect.

Furthermore, although no agreements have been entered into as of the date of this proxy statement, TPG has informed us that it is their intention to offer Mr. Demetriou the opportunity to serve on the boards of directors of Parent and the surviving corporation following the completion of the merger as chairman of the board and to retain members of our existing management team with the surviving corporation after the merger is completed, and, in that connection, Mr. Demetriou has engaged in preliminary discussions with representatives of Parent concerning the possibility of Mr. Demetriou serving on the boards of directors of the surviving corporation and Parent following the completion of the merger and members of our existing management entering into new arrangements with Parent, Merger Sub or their affiliates regarding employment with, and the right to reinvest, convert or participate in the equity of, the surviving corporation or one or more of its parent companies, although such matters are subject to further negotiation and discussion and no terms or conditions have been finalized.

As of [●], the record date for the special meeting, directors and executive officers of Aleris and their affiliates beneficially owned an aggregate of [●] shares of Aleris common stock (not including options) entitled to vote at the special meeting, which represents approximately [●]% of the Aleris common stock outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date for the special meeting. In addition, as of such date, directors and executive officers of Aleris and their affiliates beneficially owned options to purchase, in the aggregate, [●] shares of Aleris common stock. These individuals are not party to any voting agreements with Aleris and do not have any obligations to vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, but have indicated to Aleris their intention to vote their outstanding shares of Aleris common stock in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Furthermore, no stockholder is party to any voting agreement with Aleris and none has indicated to Aleris that it is a party to any agreement containing any obligations to vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Additionally, Mr. Demetriou currently serves on the board of directors of each of Kraton Polymers, LLC and Polymer Holdings LLC, Kraton's direct parent company. Mr. Demetriou receives customary compensation for serving as a director of Kraton. Kraton is a portfolio company of TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and investment funds affiliated with TPG Advisors IV, Inc.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 42)

The merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes if you are a holder of our common stock. Your receipt of cash in exchange for your shares of our common stock will cause you to recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes measured by the difference, if any, between the cash you receive in the merger and the adjusted tax basis of your shares. See The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences for a more detailed discussion.

Regulatory Approvals (Page 44)

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which we refer to as the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, provides that transactions such as the merger may not be completed until certain information has been submitted to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and certain waiting period requirements have been satisfied. On September 1, 2006, the Company and TPG Partners V, L.P. each filed a Notification and Report Form with the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission and requested an early termination of the waiting period. On September 19, 2006, the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the waiting period initiated by these filings.

The European Community merger control laws, namely Council Regulation (EC) No. 139/2004 of January 20, 2004, require that transactions, such as the merger, may not be implemented until certain information has been submitted to the European Commission and it has approved the merger. TPG and Aleris caused the filing of the required information with the European Commission on September 1, 2006, and the European Commission cleared the transaction on October 6, 2006.

Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, the Council Regulation (EC) No. 139/2004 and the filing of a certificate of merger in Delaware on or before the effective date of the merger, we are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the merger agreement or completion of the merger.

Litigation (Page 45)

On or about August 10, 2006, a putative class action lawsuit, entitled Kahn v. Demetriou, et al., Case No. 2335-N, was filed against the Company and its directors in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, New Castle County. The plaintiff filed an amended complaint on October 6, 2006. The amended complaint purports to be brought on behalf of all the Company's stockholders (excluding the defendants and their affiliates). The amended complaint alleges that the Company's directors violated their fiduciary obligations to the Company's stockholders in approving the merger agreement. In that connection, the amended complaint alleges that (i) the merger consideration is inadequate; (ii) the announcement of the proposed transaction was timed to cap the market price of the Company's common stock prior to the August 8, 2006 announcement of record financial results for the second quarter that exceeded analysts' expectations and exceeded the Company's prior guidance to analysts; (iii) the directors failed to shop the Company because the proposed transaction is not the result of a pre-signing auction process or reliable market check; (iv) the go-shop provision is inadequate and unfairly limits the pool of potential merger candidates to certain strategic bidders and specifically excludes financial buyers; and (v) the termination fee and no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement will hinder and deter other potential acquirers from seeking to acquire the Company on better terms than the proposed merger. The amended complaint also alleges that the preliminary proxy statement filed on September 8, 2006 was inadequate and misleading because it failed to make a number of disclosures related to the proposed transaction, including the fact that although Alcoa, Inc.'s share price declined after it announced record financial results, the preliminary proxy statement does not disclose that those financial results were below analysts' expectations. The amended complaint seeks various forms of relief, including injunctive relief that would, if granted, prevent the completion of the proposed transaction, unspecified compensatory damages, and attorneys' fees and expenses.

Solicitation (Page 53)

The merger agreement restricts our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding specified transactions involving the Company. Notwithstanding these restrictions, (1) under certain limited circumstances required for our board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties, our board of directors may respond to an unsolicited bona fide proposal for an alternative acquisition or may terminate the merger agreement and enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal after paying the termination fee specified in the merger agreement and (2) we were permitted to solicit and participate in discussions with certain strategic bidders until 12:01 a.m. (Eastern Time) on September 7, 2006.

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger (Page 60)

The completion of the merger depends on satisfaction, at or prior to the merger, of a number of conditions, including the following:

the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by the required vote of our stockholders; absence of any legal prohibition on completion of the merger or of any claim, action, suit, proceeding, arbitration, mediation or investigation by a governmental entity seeking to prohibit the merger;

expiration or termination of the waiting periods, and receipt of all approvals under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and the Council Regulation (EC) No. 139/2004, and material consents and approvals of any governmental entity that are necessary for the completion of the merger;

accuracy as of the closing of the merger of the representations and warranties made by the other party to the merger agreement, to the extent specified in the merger agreement;

performance by the other party to the merger agreement of the obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to the closing of the merger, to the extent specified in the merger agreement; and a legal defeasance, or discharge, with respect to our 9% Senior Notes due 2014 and a discharge with respect to our 10³/₈% Senior Secured Notes due 2010, the release of all liens securing such secured notes, and the termination of all restrictions on liens applicable to the notes.

In addition, Parent and Merger Sub are not obligated to complete the merger until the expiration of the marketing period to permit them to complete the debt financing for the merger, as described under The Merger Agreement The Merger; Effective Time; Marketing Period .

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 62)

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the completion of the merger:

by mutual written consent of Parent and us;

by either Parent or us if:

a final and non-appealable court or other governmental order prohibits the merger;

the merger shall not have been completed on or before June 30, 2007, unless the failure of the merger to occur by such date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or comply with the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in the merger agreement; or the requisite approval of the stockholders to approve and adopt the merger agreement is not obtained at the special meeting of our stockholders or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which a vote on such approval was taken;

by us, if we are not then in material breach of any of our covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, if Parent or Merger Sub has breached any of their covenants or agreements or any of their representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement which breach would result in, if occurring or continuing at the effective time of the merger, the failure of a condition of the Company to complete the merger, and which is not cured by the earlier of June 30, 2007 and 30 days following written notice to Parent or Merger Sub, or which by its nature or timing cannot be cured within such time period;

by Parent, if neither Parent nor Merger Sub is then in material breach of any of their respective covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, if we have breached any of our covenants or agreements or any of our representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement (except the covenants and agreements concerning our non-solicitation obligations or our obligations to take certain actions in order to obtain stockholder approval), which breach would result in, if occurring or continuing at the effective time of the merger, the failure of a condition to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to complete the merger, and which is not cured by the earlier of June 30, 2007 and 30 days following written notice to us, or which by its nature or timing cannot be cured within such time period;

by Parent if:

our board of directors withdraws, modifies, qualifies or proposes publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, the recommendation of our board of directors of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders;

Edgar Filing: Aleris International, Inc. - Form PRER14A

we have, or our board of directors (or any committee thereof) has, publicly proposed to (1) approve, adopt or recommend any acquisition proposal or (2) approve or recommend, or allow us or any of our subsidiaries to enter into, a definitive agreement for an acquisition proposal;

we have failed to include in this proxy statement our recommendation that our stockholders approve the merger agreement and the merger;

we have breached in any material respect any of our covenants or agreements relating to our non-solicitation obligations or our obligations to take certain actions in order to obtain a stockholder vote, or

we have taken any action to exempt any person (other than Parent, Merger Sub and their respective affiliates) from the restrictions on business combinations contained in Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (or any similar provisions) or otherwise caused such restrictions not to apply; and by us at any time prior to approval and adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders if in connection with entering into an agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal:

we have complied with our non-solicitation covenants in all material respects with respect to the acquisition proposal;

our board of directors (1) has determined in good faith (after consultation with our outside counsel and financial advisor) that the acquisition proposal is a superior proposal and (2) has determined in good faith (after consultation with our outside counsel) that entering into the agreement for such acquisition proposal is required for our board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

we have provided Parent with at least three business days prior written notice of our intention to terminate the merger agreement, which notice must specify the terms and conditions of the proposed agreement for the acquisition proposal (and any change to such terms and conditions shall require a new notice from us and will re-start the three business day period);

after taking into account any amendments to the merger agreement proposed by Parent after Parent's receipt of the notice referred to in the immediately preceding bullet, our board of directors has not changed its determination that such acquisition proposal is a superior proposal and that it is required by its fiduciary duties to enter into the agreement with respect to the acquisition proposal; and we concurrently pay to Parent the termination fee, as described below.

Fees and Expenses (Page 64)

Fees and Expenses Payable by the Company

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, the Company will be obligated to pay a termination fee to Parent of $40 million. If the merger agreement is terminated because our stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement, the Company will be obligated to pay the expenses of Parent and Merger sub, up to $10 million, which amount will be offset against the termination fee described above, if payable.

Fees and Expenses Payable by Parent and Merger Sub

In the event that the Company terminates the merger agreement because Parent or Merger Sub breaches its obligations to effect the closing and satisfy its obligations with respect to payment of the merger consideration when all conditions to the closing are satisfied and the marketing period has expired and Parent fails to effect the closing because of a failure to receive the proceeds of one or more of the debt financings contemplated by the debt financing commitments or because of its refusal to accept debt financing on terms materially less beneficial to it than the terms set forth in the debt financing commitments, Merger Sub will be required to pay the Company a $40 million termination fee. This termination fee payable to the Company is the exclusive remedy of the Company unless Parent or Merger Sub is otherwise in breach of the merger agreement, in which case the Company may pursue a damages claim. The aggregate liability of Parent and its affiliates arising from any breach of the merger agreement is in any event capped at $100 million.

Market Price of the Company's Stock (Page 66)

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the trading symbol ARS. On August 4, 2006, which was the last full trading day before the date our board of directors met to consider approval of the merger agreement, shares of the Company's common stock closed at $41.23 per share. On [●], 2006, which was the last trading day before the date of this proxy statement, shares of the Company's common stock closed at $ [●] per share.

Rights of Appraisal (Page 68 and Annex C)

Delaware law provides you with appraisal rights in the merger. This means that if you comply with the procedures for perfecting appraisal rights provided for under Delaware law, you are entitled to have the fair value of your shares determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and to receive payment based on that valuation in lieu of the merger consideration. The ultimate amount you receive in an appraisal proceeding may be more or less than, or the same as, the amount you would have received under the merger agreement.

To exercise your appraisal rights, you must deliver a written demand for appraisal to the Company before the vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting and you must not vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Your failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under Delaware law will result in the loss of your appraisal rights. A copy of Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are some questions regarding the special meeting and the proposed merger that you, as a stockholder of Aleris, may have, and answers to those questions. These questions and answers are not meant to be a substitute for the information contained in the remainder of the proxy statement. We urge you to read the entire proxy statement, its annexes and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement before making any decision.

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of Aleris by Parent, an entity currently owned indirectly by investment funds sponsored by TPG, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 7, 2006, by and among the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. Once the merger agreement has been approved and adopted by our stockholders and the other conditions to closing under the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, Merger Sub will merge with and into Aleris. Aleris will be the surviving corporation in the merger and will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed? What is the marketing period ?

A: We are working to complete the merger as soon as possible. We currently anticipate completing the merger in early 2007, subject to the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders and the satisfaction of the other closing conditions in the merger agreement. In addition, Parent and Merger Sub are not obligated to complete the merger until the expiration of a 60 consecutive calendar day marketing period throughout and at the end of which (1) Parent and its financing sources have the financial information that the Company is required to provide pursuant to the merger agreement to complete the debt financing for the merger and (2) the conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to complete the merger are satisfied or would be satisfied if the closing were then scheduled to occur. Parent and Merger Sub may use the marketing period to complete the debt financing for the merger.

The marketing period begins to run no earlier than the initiation date. The initiation date is the latest of (1) the date this proxy statement is mailed to the Company's stockholders, (2) the date that Parent and its financing sources have received certain financial information from the Company and (3) the later of November 10, 2006 and the business day after the Company files its quarterly report for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

There are also certain periods that will not count towards the 60-day marketing period and, in certain circumstances applicable to closing the merger in 2007, the marketing period instead will be 45 consecutive calendar days and will be deemed to start on specified dates in 2007.

Q: What will I receive in exchange for my Aleris shares?

A: Following completion of the merger, if you hold shares of Aleris common stock, you will receive $52.50 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes, for each share of Aleris common stock that you own. You will not own shares in the surviving corporation.

Q: What will happen to my Aleris shares after completion of the merger?

A: Upon completion of the merger, your shares of Aleris common stock will be cancelled and will represent only the right to receive your portion of the merger consideration (or the fair value of your Aleris common stock if you seek appraisal rights). In addition, trading in shares of Aleris common stock on the New York Stock Exchange will cease and price quotations for shares of Aleris common stock will no longer be available.

Q: Where and when is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will take place at [•], on [•], at [•].

Q: What matters will be considered at the special meeting?

A: You will be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement, to consider and vote on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and to consider and transact any other business as may properly be brought before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Stockholders of record of Aleris common stock on the close of business on [●], the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. A complete list of stockholders of record entitled to vote at the special meeting will be open to the examination of any stockholder at our headquarters during normal business hours at 25825 Science Park Drive, Suite 400, Beachwood, Ohio 44122-7392 for a period of ten days before the special meeting.

Q: What is the quorum requirement and required vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement?

A: Each holder of record of shares of Aleris common stock as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting is entitled to cast one vote per share at the special meeting on each proposal. As of [●], the record date for the special meeting, [●] shares of Aleris common stock were entitled to vote at the special meeting. The presence of the holders of Aleris common stock having a majority of the voting power of the stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. Approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Aleris common stock entitled to vote as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting. A failure to vote your shares of the Company's common stock or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger.

Q: How does the Aleris board of directors recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Our board of directors believes the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Aleris and its stockholders. In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that, as a result of the merger, certain of Aleris's directors will receive payment for equity based interests in the Company that they hold in addition to shares of Aleris common stock. You should read The Merger Reasons for the Merger for a discussion of certain material factors that our board of directors considered in deciding to recommend the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: How do I vote my shares?

A: After reading this proxy statement carefully, including the annexes, and considering how the merger affects you, please ensure that your shares are voted at the special meeting. To vote your proxy by mail, mark your vote on the enclosed proxy card, sign it correctly, and return it in the envelope provided. To vote your proxy by telephone or electronically via the Internet, see the instructions on the proxy card and have the proxy card available when you call or access the Internet website. If you hold shares registered in the street name of a broker, bank or other nominee, the broker, bank or other nominee has enclosed or will provide a voting instruction card for your use in directing your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote those shares.

Q: How Will Shares Be Voted at the Special Meeting?

A: All shares of Aleris common stock represented by properly executed proxies received before or at the special meeting, and not properly revoked, will be voted as specified in the proxies. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

A properly executed proxy marked ABSTAIN with respect to any proposal will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum at the special meeting. An abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

If you hold shares of Aleris common stock in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, the broker, bank or other nominee may vote your shares only in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give specific instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee as to how you want your shares voted, your broker, bank or other nominee will indicate that it does not have authority to vote on the proposal, which will result in what is called a broker non-vote. Broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum present at the special meeting, but broker non-votes will have the same practical effect as a vote AGAINST approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, the people named in the proxy card will have discretion to vote the shares represented by duly executed proxies in their sole discretion.

Q: What happens if I do not vote?

A: Because the required vote of Aleris stockholders is based on the number of outstanding shares of Aleris common stock entitled to vote, abstentions from voting and broker non-votes will have the same practical effect as voting AGAINST the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. If you return your proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and any proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the persons named in the proxy card will have discretionary authority to vote upon other business, if any, that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: Yes. You may attend the special meeting of Aleris's stockholders and vote your shares in person rather than submitting a proxy by mail, telephone or the Internet. If you wish to vote in person and your shares are held in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee authorizing you to vote your shares held in the broker's, bank's or other nominee's name.

Q: What is required for admission to the special meeting?

A: Only stockholders of Aleris as of the record date for the special meeting may attend the special meeting. If you are a registered stockholder and plan to attend the special meeting in person, please bring valid photo identification with you to the special meeting. If you are a beneficial owner of Aleris common stock that is held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, you will need a legal proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds your shares and valid photo identification to be admitted to the special meeting.

Q: What if I own my shares through a 401(k) Plan?

A: If you hold your shares through the Commonwealth Industries, Inc. 401(k) Plan or the Commonwealth Aluminum Lewisport, LLC Hourly 401(k) Plan, your proxy will serve as voting instructions to the trustee under the plan. The trustee will vote the shares of Aleris common stock allocated to your account at the special meeting as directed by you on the proxy card. If the trustee does not receive your instructions, the shares of Aleris common stock allocated to your account will not be voted at the special meeting.

Q: May I change my vote?

Edgar Filing: Aleris International, Inc. - Form PRER14A

- A: Yes, you may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If you are a registered stockholder, you may revoke your proxy by notifying the Company's Corporate Secretary in writing or by submitting a new proxy by mail, telephone or the Internet, in each case, dated after the date of the proxy being revoked. In addition, your proxy may be revoked by attending the special meeting and voting in person (you must vote in person, simply attending the special meeting will not cause your proxy to be revoked).

Please note that if you hold your shares in street name and you have instructed a broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply, and instead you must follow the instructions received from your broker, bank or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card or vote instruction card?

A: If your shares are registered differently or are in more than one account, you will receive more than one card. Please complete and return all of the proxy cards or vote instruction cards you receive (or submit your proxies by telephone or the Internet, if available to you) to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: How will the solicitation of proxies be handled?

A: We expect to solicit proxies primarily by mail, but our directors, officers and regular employees may also solicit by personal interview, telephone or similar means. All expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by us. We have made arrangements with McKenzie Partners, Inc. to assist us in soliciting proxies for the special meeting and have agreed to pay McKenzie Partners, Inc. a fee not expected to exceed $[•], plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, for these services. Arrangements also will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of shares of Aleris common stock held of record by those persons.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Shortly after the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send in your stock certificates to or process your book-entry shares with the paying agent in order to receive the merger consideration. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange stock certificates for the merger consideration to which you are entitled as a result of the merger. Do not send any stock certificates with your proxy.

Q: How can I obtain additional information about Aleris?

A: We will provide a copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, excluding certain of its exhibits, and other filings, including our reports on Form 10-Q, with the SEC without charge to any stockholder who makes a written request to Aleris International, Inc., 25825 Science Park Drive, Suite 400, Beachwood, Ohio 44122-7392. INFORMATION ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND VOTING

Time, Place and Purpose of the Special Meeting

This proxy statement is being furnished to our stockholders as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the special meeting. The special meeting will be held on [●], starting at [●], at [●] unless it is postponed or adjourned. The purpose of the special meeting is for our stockholders to consider and vote upon the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. If the stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the merger will not occur. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A.

Matters to Be Considered

At the special meeting, Aleris stockholders will be asked:

to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement; to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement; and to consider and transact any other business as may properly be brought before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

At this time, the Aleris board of directors is unaware of any matters, other than those set forth in the first two bullets above, that may properly come before the special meeting.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote

The close of business on [●] has been fixed by Aleris's board of directors as the record date for the determination of those holders of Aleris common stock who are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

At the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, there were [●] shares of Aleris common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by approximately [●] holders of record. A complete list of stockholders of record entitled to vote at the special meeting will be open to the examination of any stockholder during normal business hours at our headquarters at 25825 Science Park Drive, Suite 400, Beachwood, Ohio 44122-7392 for a period of ten days before the special meeting.

Quorum and Required Vote

Each holder of record of shares of Aleris common stock as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting is entitled to cast one vote per share at the special meeting on each proposal. The holders of Aleris common stock having a majority of the voting power of the stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. Approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Aleris common stock entitled to vote as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting.

As of [●], the record date for the special meeting, directors and executive officers of Aleris and their affiliates beneficially owned an aggregate of [●] shares of Aleris common stock (not including options) entitled to vote at the special meeting. These shares represent [●]% of the Aleris common stock outstanding and entitled to vote as of the record date for the special meeting. Although these individuals are not party to any voting agreements with Aleris and do not have any obligations to vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, they have indicated their intention to Aleris to vote their outstanding shares of Aleris common stock in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Furthermore, no stockholder is party to any voting agreement with Aleris and none has indicated to Aleris that is is party to any agreement containing any obligations to vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

How Shares Will Be Voted at the Special Meeting

All shares of Aleris common stock represented by properly executed proxies received before or at the special meeting, and not properly revoked, will be voted as specified in the proxies. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

A properly executed proxy marked ABSTAIN with respect to any proposal will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum at the special meeting. However, because approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the special meeting, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

If you hold shares of Aleris common stock in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, the broker, bank or nominee may vote your shares only in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give specific instructions to your broker, bank or nominee as to how you want your shares voted, your broker, bank or nominee will indicate that it does not have authority to vote on the proposal, which will result in what is called a broker non-vote. Broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum present at the special meeting, but because approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote as of the close of business on the record date, broker non-votes will have the same practical effect as a vote AGAINST approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting, the people named in the proxy card will have discretion to vote the shares represented by duly executed proxies in their sole discretion.

If the trustee does not receive your instructions, the shares of Aleris common stock allocated to your account will not be voted at the special meeting.

How to Change Your Vote

If you are a registered stockholder, you may revoke your proxy at any time before your shares are voted at the special meeting by:

sending a written notice to the Corporate Secretary of Aleris, 25825 Science Park Drive Suite 400, Beachwood, Ohio 44122-7392, by the close of business on [●], indicating you are revoking your earlier proxy; completing, signing and timely submitting a proxy card to the addressee indicated on the envelope enclosed with your initial proxy card by the close of business on [●]. The latest dated and signed proxy actually received by such addressee before the special meeting will be counted, and any earlier proxies will be considered revoked;

subsequently recording a different vote by telephone or Internet; or attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Merely attending the special meeting will not revoke any prior votes or proxies. You must vote at the special meeting to revoke a prior proxy.

If you are a street-name stockholder and you vote by proxy, you may later revoke your proxy by informing the holder of record in accordance with that entity's procedures.

Solicitation of Proxies

We expect to solicit proxies primarily by mail, but our directors, officers and regular employees may also solicit by personal interview, telephone or similar means. All expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by us.

The expenses incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of this document will be paid by Aleris. Aleris has also made arrangements with MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to assist Aleris in soliciting proxies for the special meeting and has agreed to pay MacKenzie Partners, Inc. a fee not expected to exceed $[●], plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, for these services. Arrangements also will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of shares of Aleris common stock held of record by those persons, and Aleris will, if requested, reimburse the record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

The board of directors and senior management of Aleris periodically discuss Aleris' s long-range plans and consider strategies for increasing stockholder value. From time to time, Aleris receives unsolicited inquiries from professional investors with respect to Aleris' s business. In certain circumstances, members of Aleris management meet with these parties to discuss the publicly available information regarding the Company and to explain the Company' s business.

In this context, in late April 2005, representatives of TPG met with Steven Demetriou, Aleris' s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and other members of senior management of Aleris to discuss the Company' s business. At this time, Mr. Demetriou was serving, and continues to serve, as the director of Kraton Polymers, LLC, a portfolio company of TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and investment funds affiliated with TPG Advisors IV, Inc., and as a director of Kraton' s direct parent company, Polymer Holdings LLC. Also at that time, Aleris had begun to consider the potential acquisition of the downstream aluminum business of Corus Group plc, which we refer to as Corus. Given the then relative sizes of Corus' s downstream aluminum business and Aleris, the Company determined that additional equity financing might be required to effect any transaction with Corus. TPG expressed an interest in providing this equity financing. Representatives of TPG then met with senior management of Aleris to further discuss an investment transaction between Aleris and TPG relating to a potential acquisition by Aleris of Corus' s downstream aluminum business.

On May 18, 2005 and May 19, 2005, the board of directors of the Company held a meeting during which Mr. Demetriou informed the directors of the recent discussions between senior management of Aleris and TPG with respect to a potential transaction involving Corus' s downstream aluminum business. The board of directors gave Aleris management authority to enter into a confidentiality agreement with TPG. On June 21, 2005, TPG entered into a confidentiality agreement with Aleris.

Members of senior management of the Company then made unsuccessful attempts to contact Corus. As a result, TPG committed to attempt to contact Corus to inquire whether Corus was interested in pursuing a transaction with Aleris. TPG contacted Corus and Corus informed TPG that it was not interested in pursuing a transaction with Aleris at that time. In early July of 2005, representatives of TPG informed Mr. Demetriou that TPG was interested in pursuing a potential change in control transaction involving Aleris.

On July 20, 2005, the board of directors of the Company met in executive session. Christopher Clegg, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Aleris, also attended this meeting. At this meeting, Mr. Demetriou updated the board of directors on the discussions with TPG and informed the directors that TPG was interested in pursuing a transaction with Aleris that could lead to a change in control involving the Company. Mr. Demetriou informed the board of directors that TPG was requesting an opportunity to conduct expedited due diligence within a three-week period.

On July 21, 2005, the board of directors of the Company reconvened in executive session. Mr. Clegg also attended this meeting. At this meeting, the board of directors appointed Messrs. Kesler, Lego, Merow and Demetriou to an ad hoc committee to consider issues and direct Aleris management concerning a potential transaction involving TPG. The board of directors also directed that Mr. Demetriou invite TPG to commence due diligence during an expedited time frame.

At a meeting of Aleris' s board of directors on August 19, 2005, Mr. Demetriou reported that TPG had concluded its preliminary assessment of the Company and advised him that TPG would not pursue a transaction with Aleris at that time.

Aleris continued to operate its business in the ordinary course. Consistent with its business strategy, Aleris continued to look for potential acquisition opportunities for the Company. In this regard, on August 31, 2005, Aleris closed its acquisition of Tomra Latasa, on October 3, 2005, Aleris closed its acquisition of AlSCO Holdings, Inc., on December 12, 2005, Aleris closed its acquisition of Alumitech, Inc., on December 20, 2005, Aleris closed its acquisition of assets from Ormet Corporation, and on May 23, 2006, Aleris entered into an agreement to acquire the downstream aluminum business of Corus, which we refer to as the Corus acquisition, which was completed on August 1, 2006.

In early June of 2006, two large stockholders of Aleris separately called Mr. Demetriou. Each of these stockholders informed Mr. Demetriou that it was interested in exploring opportunities to enhance the value of the Company. Mr. Demetriou informed each of these stockholders that Aleris was and continued to be focused on enhancing stockholder value. Also, in early June of 2006, representatives of Aleris held preliminary discussions concerning a potential strategic transaction with a company that we refer to as company 1. Aleris and company 1 executed a confidentiality agreement although no non-public information was exchanged.

On June 12, 2006, Aleris's board of directors held a telephonic meeting. Representatives of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP, which we refer to as Fried Frank, Aleris's outside legal counsel, also attended this meeting. At this meeting, Mr. Demetriou informed the board of directors that he had received unsolicited calls from two large stockholders of the Company that stated that they were interested in exploring opportunities to enhance the value of the Company. Mr. Demetriou then discussed with the board of directors the types of transactions that these parties might be interested in pursuing to enhance the value of the Company and that they could include proposals for a change in control transaction involving the Company. After a discussion of the Company's prospects and the then current macroeconomic circumstances in the metals industry generally, the board of directors decided that the Company should consider proposals that could enhance stockholder value, including potential change in control transactions, provided that any such proposal contemplated a meaningful premium to the then current market price of the Company's stock (on June 9, 2006, Aleris's stock price closed at $39.65). The board of directors also determined that the Company should engage a financial advisor to assist the Company. The Company subsequently engaged Citigroup Global Markets Inc., which we refer to as Citigroup, as its financial advisor. The board of directors emphasized that the first priority of the Company should be to close the Corus acquisition.

On June 16, 2006, OZ Management, L.L.C., a hedge fund that at the time owned approximately 6.4% of the outstanding common stock of Aleris, filed a Form 13D with the Securities and Exchange Commission (on June 15, 2006, Aleris's stock price closed at $39.20). In this filing, OZ Management stated that it acquired the shares of Aleris common stock for investment in the ordinary course of business, but that it now intended to explore opportunities to enhance the value of Aleris, that it had undertaken and intended to continue to undertake discussions with Aleris, third parties and other stockholders of Aleris, and that it would support or participate in any such opportunity only if it is also supported by senior management of Aleris.

On June 22, 2006, Brahman Capital Corp., a hedge fund that at the time owned approximately 11.43% of the outstanding common stock of Aleris, filed a Form 13D with the Securities and Exchange Commission (on June 21, 2006, Aleris's stock price closed at $38.32). In this filing, Brahman stated that it acquired the shares of Aleris common stock for investment in the ordinary course of business, but that it now intended to explore opportunities to enhance the value of Aleris, that it had undertaken and intended to continue to undertake discussions with Aleris, third parties and other stockholders of Aleris, and that it would support or participate in any such opportunity only if it is also supported by senior management of Aleris.

Following the filing by OZ Management of its Form 13D, Mr. Demetriou contacted a representative of TPG to discuss the OZ Management filing, following which several discussions took place between Mr. Demetriou and TPG. On June 23, 2006, TPG informed Mr. Demetriou that TPG was impressed with Aleris's execution of its business plan and was again interested in exploring a possible change in control transaction involving the Company. Mr. Demetriou informed TPG that if it was now interested in pursuing a transaction with Aleris at a meaningful premium to the then current market price (on June 22, 2006, Aleris's stock price closed at $40.47), Aleris would provide TPG with non-public information relating to the Company. Aleris confirmed that its existing confidentiality agreement with TPG was still in effect and began providing TPG with access to non-public information relating to the Company.

On June 22, 2006, Mr. Demetriou received an unsolicited call from a large private equity firm, which we refer to as private equity firm 1. In this call, private equity firm 1 informed Mr. Demetriou that it had conducted a review of publicly available information regarding the Company and that it was interested in exploring a possible change in control transaction involving the Company. Mr. Demetriou informed private equity firm 1 that any change in control transaction involving the Company would have to be at a meaningful premium to the then current market price of Aleris's common stock (on June 21, 2006, Aleris's stock price closed at $38.32). On the evening of June 22, 2006, private equity firm 1 signed a confidentiality agreement with Aleris. Aleris then began providing private equity firm 1 with access to non-public information relating to the Company.

On June 23, 2006, another large private equity firm, which we refer to as private equity firm 2, contacted Mr. Demetriou and informed Mr. Demetriou that it has seen the 13D filings by OZ Management and Brahman and was interested in pursuing a potential change in control transaction with the Company. Private equity firm 2 then stated that it planned on reviewing publicly available information regarding the Company and that it expected to request non-public information shortly thereafter.

On June 25, 2006 and June 26, 2006, Aleris management made a presentation on the Company to TPG and its representatives. On June 26, 2006, Aleris management gave a presentation on the Company to private equity firm 1. Aleris management and its representatives also continued to provide non-public information to both TPG and private equity firm 1 and to respond to each party's requests for information. At the Company's direction, Citigroup subsequently requested that TPG and private equity firm 1 submit a non-binding proposal with respect to a potential transaction with the Company by the morning of June 29, 2006 for consideration by Aleris's board of directors at a special meeting scheduled on the afternoon of June 29, 2006.

On June 28, 2006, TPG submitted a written non-binding proposal to acquire all of Aleris's outstanding shares of common stock for $50.00 per share. This non-binding proposal stated that TPG would finance the transaction with a combination of equity from TPG as well as debt financing, and that TPG had received debt financing commitments from Deutsche Bank. TPG's letter also stated that TPG had substantially completed its due diligence and that it believed it could complete its confirmatory due diligence within approximately seven days of getting access to the necessary documents and personnel of Aleris. In this letter, TPG stated that its willingness to enter into a transaction with Aleris was subject to Aleris closing the Corus acquisition and obtaining financing with respect to the Corus acquisition on terms that would not adversely affect TPG's ability to refinance Aleris's indebtedness or impede or increase the cost of financing a transaction with Aleris. TPG's letter also provided that TPG would expect a merger agreement between Aleris and TPG to provide a limited period after the signing of the merger agreement to permit Aleris to seek alternative proposals to TPG's proposal. TPG also requested that Aleris negotiate exclusively with TPG with respect to a transaction involving the Company.

On the morning of June 29, 2006, private equity firm 1 called Mr. Demetriou and informed him that it believed that Aleris's common stock was fairly valued in the public markets (shares of Aleris common stock closed at $41.96 on June 28, 2006) and that private equity firm 1 was not willing to pay a premium to the then current market price and was therefore removing itself from the process.

On June 29, 2006, Aleris's board of directors held a special meeting in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to consider TPG's proposal. All of the members of the board of directors were present in person, except Mr. Kittelberger who participated by telephone. Representatives from Citigroup and Fried Frank also attended this meeting in person. Mr. Demetriou updated the board of directors on the status of the negotiations with respect to a potential change in control transaction. The board of directors was also provided with a copy of TPG's proposal letter. Fried Frank discussed with our board of directors its fiduciary duties under Delaware law in connection with a potential change in control transaction involving the Company. The Company's financial advisor discussed with our board of directors financial aspects of TPG's proposal. Citigroup and Aleris management also explained to the board of directors that any high yield debt financing issued in connection with the Corus acquisition would likely have to be refinanced upon a change in control transaction and that there would be a significant refinancing premium if this debt were refinanced. The bridge financing commitments made available to the Company by Deutsche Bank and Citigroup in connection with the Corus acquisition did not contain any such premium applicable to the refinancing of such bridge financing in the context of a subsequent change of control of the Company. Therefore, Aleris management advised our board of directors that the Company should consider replacing its planned high yield debt offering with the bridge financing if it thought a change in control transaction involving the Company was likely. Aleris management also informed our board of directors that since the Corus acquisition was scheduled to close on August 1, 2006, a decision to take the bridge financing would have to be made by July 15, 2006.

At this meeting, our board of directors also met without Mr. Demetriou to discuss TPG's proposal. Our board of directors determined that TPG's proposal was worthy of further consideration and directed Citigroup to attempt to obtain a higher price from TPG. In light of the timing constraints imposed on Aleris management to complete the Corus acquisition and the related financing, and because there were fewer competitive issues in disclosing non-public information to financial buyers given that the Corus acquisition had not yet closed, the board of directors requested and authorized Citigroup to continue discussions with TPG and to solicit proposals from other financial buyers that were familiar with the metals industry and had the financial capability to complete a transaction with Aleris. The board of directors did not authorize Aleris management to grant exclusivity to TPG at this time. Also at this meeting, the board of directors authorized management to contact Deutsche Bank (which was providing debt financing to the Company in connection with the Corus acquisition) to inquire whether Deutsche Bank would agree not to offer any potential buyer debt financing on an exclusive basis. Following the meeting of the board of directors, we contacted Deutsche Bank and Deutsche Bank agreed not to offer any potential buyer debt financing on an exclusive basis.

Over the next few days, in accordance with the directives of our board of directors, Citigroup contacted private equity firm 2, another large private equity firm, which we refer to as private equity firm 3, and an additional financial buyer (that subsequently indicated that it was not interested in exploring a transaction involving Aleris).

During the period after the June 29, 2006 meeting of our board of directors, Aleris continued to provide TPG and its representatives with non-public information concerning the Company. On July 3, 2006, Aleris and TPG signed an amendment to the existing confidentiality agreement to permit TPG to obtain non-public information related to Corus and the Corus acquisition.

On July 3, 2006, Aleris signed a confidentiality agreement with private equity firm 3 and began providing private equity firm 3 with access to confidential information relating to the Company. On July 5, 2006, Aleris signed a confidentiality agreement with private equity firm 2 and began providing private equity firm 2 with access to confidential information relating to the Company.

On July 5, 2006 and July 7, 2006, Aleris management made presentations on the Company to private equity firm 3. On July 10, 2006, Aleris management made a presentation on the Company to private equity firm 2. Aleris management and its representatives also continued to have discussions with TPG, private equity firm 2 and private equity firm 3, and to respond to each party's requests for information. Also, on July 12, 2006, members of senior management of the Company met with representatives of private equity firm 3 to discuss Aleris's business and to further answer questions from private equity firm 3. At Aleris's request, on July 9, 2006 and July 10, 2006, Deutsche Bank discussed potential debt financing with respect to a potential transaction with private equity firm 2 and private equity firm 3. Given Aleris's need to decide whether to seek bridge financing for the Corus acquisition, TPG, private equity firm 2 and private equity firm 3 were requested to inform the Company by July 12, 2006 whether or not they were interested in pursuing a transaction involving the Company and, if so, to provide the Company with their best and final offer.

On July 12, 2006, private equity firm 2 informed Citigroup that it believed that Aleris's common stock was fairly valued in the public markets (shares of Aleris common stock closed at $45.46 on July 11, 2006) and that private equity firm 2 was not willing to pay a premium to the then current market price.

On July 12, 2006, private equity firm 3 submitted a non-binding proposal to purchase Aleris for $48.50 to $51.50 per share in cash, subject to five weeks of due diligence and negotiation of definitive documentation relating to the merger and the debt financing needed to finance the merger.

Also on July 12, 2006, TPG delivered a non-binding proposal that indicated that TPG was willing to acquire Aleris for $52.00 per share and that TPG had substantially completed its due diligence. In its proposal letter, TPG stated that its proposal was contingent on Aleris's commitment to negotiate with TPG on an exclusive basis. TPG stated that its offer was also contingent on Aleris closing the Corus acquisition and obtaining financing with respect to the Corus acquisition without any prepayment penalties and on terms that would not otherwise adversely affect TPG's ability to refinance Aleris's indebtedness or impede or increase the cost of financing a transaction with Aleris. TPG's letter also provided that TPG would expect a merger agreement between Aleris and TPG to provide for a 30-day period after the signing of the merger agreement to permit Aleris to seek alternative proposals to TPG's proposal from strategic buyers. TPG's proposal also was accompanied by a draft merger agreement that was prepared by TPG's legal counsel, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, which we refer to as Cleary, and, on July 13, 2006, TPG delivered debt financing commitment letters from Deutsche Bank.

On July 13, 2006, Aleris's board of directors held a telephonic meeting. Members of Aleris senior management and representatives from Citigroup and Fried Frank also attended this meeting. At this meeting, Mr. Demetriou updated the board of directors on the status of the negotiations with the potential acquirors. Citigroup informed the board of directors that TPG had reiterated that TPG would only continue to pursue a change in control transaction if Aleris granted TPG exclusivity. Our board of directors determined that the TPG proposal was worthy of further consideration and that it was willing to grant TPG exclusivity. Our board of directors instructed Citigroup to ascertain whether TPG would increase its offer price and to inform TPG that Aleris needed time to close the Corus acquisition and related financing. Our board of directors also directed Citigroup to confirm with TPG that TPG had substantially completed its due diligence review of the Company and that the exclusivity period was to negotiate definitive documentation and not for TPG to perform further due diligence (other than confirmatory due diligence). Our board of directors elected not to hold any further discussions with private equity firm 3 or pursue the proposal by private equity firm 3 because of its request for a five-week due diligence period, the wide price range contained in the proposal, the pending closing of the Corus acquisition and related financing and TPG's requirement that the Company grant it exclusivity to proceed. The board of directors discussed the importance of preserving the flexibility of the Company to be able to have discussions with strategic bidders since the Company had only had discussions with potential financial buyers up to this point. The board of directors also authorized obtaining bridge financing for the Corus acquisition.

On July 13, 2006 and July 14, 2006, as instructed by our board of directors, representatives of Citigroup held discussions with TPG. TPG confirmed with Citigroup that it had substantially completed its due diligence and had only a small number of confirmatory follow-up due diligence items that it wanted to pursue and that TPG did not believe such items would have any impact on its valuation of the Company. After further discussions with Citigroup, TPG increased its proposed purchase price to $52.50 in exchange for Aleris granting TPG exclusivity. TPG indicated that it was not prepared to pay more than $52.50. On the evening of July 14, 2006, Aleris and TPG entered into an exclusivity agreement. The exclusivity agreement provided that Aleris would not negotiate with any person or entity other than TPG regarding a potential transaction until 11:59 p.m. (Eastern time) on August 7, 2006 and would not provide information or access to any other person, provided that Aleris could (i) provide information and access to and have discussions with any strategic bidder with which the Company was having discussions concerning a potential acquisition transaction as of July 14, 2006 and (ii) after the earlier of the end of the exclusivity period and the completion of the Corus acquisition, respond to any unsolicited proposal from a strategic bidder. During the week of July 17, 2006, representatives of TPG performed confirmatory due diligence on the Corus acquisition.

Concurrently with working on closing the Corus acquisition and related financing, Aleris and its legal and financial advisors negotiated the terms of the proposed merger agreement with TPG and its advisors. Also during this period, Aleris continued to provide information to Citigroup, including the Company's second quarter results, and TPG completed its confirmatory due diligence review of the Company. During the final few days of negotiations, Aleris became concerned that under certain circumstances the combined amount of equity and debt financing commitments provided by TPG and Deutsche Bank might not have been sufficient to complete the merger. After considerable negotiations, on August 5, 2006, TPG agreed to increase the maximum amount of its equity commitment from $900 million to $1 billion. During the final few days before the merger agreement was signed, Aleris and TPG had additional negotiations relating to the merger consideration. Following these negotiations, on August 6, 2006, TPG reaffirmed its offer price of $52.50 per share and reiterated that it was not prepared to pay more.

On the afternoon of August 7, 2006, the Aleris board of directors convened a meeting at Aleris's headquarters in Beachwood, Ohio. Prior to the meeting, the directors were provided with a copy of the substantially final merger agreement and a copy of Citigroup's board presentation materials. All of the Aleris directors attended the meeting in person, except for Mr. Kesler who attended by telephone. Also attending this meeting were members of Aleris management as well as representatives from Citigroup and Fried Frank. Mr. Demetriou provided an update on the status of discussions with TPG and an update on the Company's results for the second quarter, which Mr. Demetriou described as essentially on track with the prior estimates previously provided to the board of directors. Mr. Demetriou informed the board of directors that after further price negotiations TPG confirmed its offer of $52.50 per share as its best and final offer. The board of directors also discussed the amount of TPG's equity and debt commitments, and Mr. Demetriou informed the board of directors that TPG had agreed to increase the maximum amount of its equity commitment from $900 million to $1 billion. Fried Frank gave a presentation to our board of directors that described the directors' fiduciary duties in considering the proposed transaction with TPG and described the terms of the merger agreement. Citigroup reviewed its financial analysis of the merger consideration and rendered to Aleris's board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated August 7, 2006, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the matters described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Aleris common stock. The board of directors then met without Mr. Demetriou and without Aleris management to further discuss the proposed transaction. After such discussion and consideration of certain factors, including those described under "Reasons for the Merger", the Aleris board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

On the evening of August 7, 2006, Aleris, Parent and Merger Sub finalized and executed the merger agreement, and on the morning of August 8, 2006, Aleris publicly announced that the Company had entered into a definitive merger agreement with TPG.

Shortly after the merger agreement was signed, and in accordance with the go-shop provisions of the merger agreement, Citigroup, on behalf of Aleris, contacted more than 20 selected strategic bidders (including company 1) to solicit their potential interest in pursuing a transaction with Aleris and distributed a package of public information relating to Aleris to strategic bidders that expressed interest in receiving such information. To date, the Company has not received any proposals for the acquisition of the Company from any such strategic bidders. In accordance with the go-shop provisions of the merger agreement, no financial buyers were contacted or provided with any information with respect to any potential interest in pursuing a transaction with Aleris. Aleris continues to consider its strategic alternatives on an ongoing basis, including by having discussions concerning potential acquisitions by Aleris that may take place before or following completion of the merger.

Reasons for the Merger

In evaluating the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Aleris board of directors consulted with Aleris's management, financial advisor and legal counsel. The Aleris board of directors considered the following factors and potential benefits of the merger, each of which it believed supported its decision:

The merger consideration of $52.50 per share in cash represents (1) a premium of approximately 27.3% to the closing sale price of Aleris common stock on August 4, 2006, the last full trading day before the time our board of directors met to consider approval of the merger agreement, which was prior to the Company's release of record second quarter earnings on August 8, 2006 of $1.40 per share, which

(according to published reports) exceeded the securities analysts' estimates of $1.24 per share (which estimates were consistent with the Company's prior guidance), (2) a premium of approximately 23.6% to the weighted average trading price of Aleris common stock as of August 1, 2006 and (3) a substantial premium to the average trading price of Aleris common stock prior to the 13D filings by OZ Management, L.L.C. and Brahman Capital Corp. See Background of the Merger .

The merger consideration is all cash.

The advantages and disadvantages of alternatives to the merger, including Aleris remaining as an independent publicly traded company, the potential creation of stockholder value, the ability to achieve the Company's strategic goals, the possibility of an alternative transaction with a third party (based in part on the Company's previous discussions with potential financial buyers besides TPG, and that none of these parties was likely to offer a purchase price greater than the purchase price offered by TPG), and that the merger was more favorable to the stockholders than any other alternative reasonably available to the Company and its stockholders. See Background of the Merger .

The highly cyclical nature of the Company's business and the current stage of that cycle, including that aluminum prices reached a ten-year high in May 2006 and had retreated from those highs.

The views of the Company's management regarding the risks of achieving the Company's business plan in light of the cyclical nature of the Company's business and that aluminum prices reached a ten-year high in May 2006 and had retreated from those highs, and that the merger maximized stockholder value.

On July 10, 2006, Alcoa, Inc. had announced a record quarter, but had seen its stock price decline from a closing price of $33.55 a share on July 7, 2006 to a closing price of $30.79 a share on July 14, 2006. (We note, however, that Alcoa, Inc.'s results were below consensus securities analysts' estimates.)

The financial presentation of Citigroup, including its opinion, dated August 7, 2006, to Aleris's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Aleris common stock. See Opinion of Aleris's Financial Advisor .

The strength of the debt commitment letters and equity commitment letters obtained by Parent.

The merger is subject to the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Aleris common stock, and the availability of appraisal rights to holders of Aleris common stock who comply with all of the required procedures under Delaware law, which allows stockholders to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. See Rights of Appraisal .

The general terms and conditions of the merger agreement, which were favorable to Aleris and were the product of arms-length negotiations between the parties, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, the conditions to the parties' obligations, the likelihood of consummation of the merger, the termination provisions of the merger agreement and the time necessary to close the transaction.

The Aleris board of directors considered, among others, the following favorable terms of the merger agreement:

Edgar Filing: Aleris International, Inc. - Form PRER14A

The merger agreement provides for a 30-day post-signing go-shop period during which the Company may solicit interest in an alternative transaction from, provide non-public information to, and engage in discussions with, anyone who directly or indirectly through a controlled entity manufactures or fabricates metals and is not a discretionary private equity fund or other discretionary investment vehicle.

The merger agreement permits Aleris, under certain circumstances (including as described in the preceding sub-bullet), to provide non-public information to, and engage in discussions with, any third-party that proposes an alternative transaction involving the Company, and to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal upon payment of a $40 million termination fee to Parent.

The limited nature of the closing conditions included in the merger agreement and the likelihood of satisfaction of all conditions to consummation of the merger, including the absence of any financing condition and the fact that if Parent and Merger Sub fail to close the transaction because of a failure to receive the debt financing proceeds, Merger Sub must pay Aleris a $40 million termination fee as the Company's exclusive remedy unless Parent or Merger Sub is otherwise in breach of the merger agreement, in which case the maximum recovery by Aleris against Parent and Merger Sub (and their respective affiliates) is capped at $100 million. Parent is generally obligated to close the merger notwithstanding any breaches of Aleris's representations and warranties, unless those breaches would have a material adverse effect on Aleris.

The surviving corporation in the merger will indemnify the Company's directors and officers for all prior acts and maintain the existing charter and bylaw indemnification provisions for at least six years. The Company will purchase a tail insurance policy with respect to directors' and officers' insurance covering a period of six years following the merger at a premium not to exceed 400% of the annual premium on the Company's current policy.

The surviving corporation in the merger will provide certain continuing employee benefits to Aleris employees for at least one year following the merger.

The Aleris board of directors also considered and balanced against the potential benefits of the merger, the following potentially adverse factors concerning the merger:

The risk of diverting management resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters for an extended period of time.

Aleris stockholders will lose the opportunity to participate in any future earnings growth of the Company and will not benefit from any future appreciation in the value of Aleris.

Certain of Aleris's directors and officers may receive benefits that are different from, and in addition to, those of Aleris's other stockholders. The merger will accelerate restricted stock and performance units held by certain directors and officers.

The Aleris board of directors also considered, among others, the following negative terms of the merger agreement:

The restrictions on solicitation of alternative proposals.

The right of Parent to obtain information with respect to any alternative proposals and to a three business day period to make adjustments to its proposal before the Aleris board of directors can change its recommendation or the Company can terminate the merger agreement to enter into a superior proposal.

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Aleris is obligated to pay Parent a $40 million termination fee. This provision will make it more costly for a third party to effect an alternative transaction.

The possibility that certain provisions in the merger agreement could discourage a competing proposal to acquire Aleris or lower the price per share a competing bidder may be willing to pay in an alternative transaction. However, after considering certain factors and after discussions with Aleris's legal and financial advisors, the Aleris board of directors concluded that these provisions should not preclude other parties from making a competing proposal.

Parent has a specified period to market its debt financing during which it is not obligated to close the merger.

The restrictions on the conduct of the Company's business prior to the completion of the merger, which require the Company to conduct its business only in the ordinary course, subject to specific limitations.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Aleris board of directors is not exhaustive. The Aleris board of directors based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented to and considered by it. Individual members of the Aleris board of directors may have considered different factors and given different weight to different factors.

Recommendation of Aleris's Board of Directors

After careful consideration, the Aleris board of directors, at a special meeting held on August 7, 2006, unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Aleris and its stockholders. The Aleris board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends Aleris stockholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger. In considering the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that, as a result of the merger, certain of Aleris's directors will receive payment for equity-based interests in the Company that they hold in addition to shares of Aleris common stock.

Opinion of Aleris's Financial Advisor

Aleris has retained Citigroup as its financial advisor in connection with the merger. In connection with this engagement, Aleris requested that Citigroup evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Aleris common stock. On August 7, 2006, at a special meeting of Aleris's board of directors held to evaluate the merger, Citigroup rendered to Aleris's board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated the same date, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the matters described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Aleris common stock.

The full text of Citigroup's written opinion, dated August 7, 2006, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B and is incorporated into this proxy statement by reference. Citigroup's opinion was provided to Aleris's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration and relates only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Aleris common stock. Citigroup's opinion does not address any other aspects or implications of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed merger.

In arriving at its opinion, Citigroup:

reviewed the merger agreement;

held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of Aleris and certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of TPG concerning Aleris's business, operations and prospects;

examined certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Aleris;

examined certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Aleris which were provided to or otherwise discussed with Citigroup by Aleris's management;

reviewed the financial terms of the merger as set forth in the merger agreement in relation to, among other things, current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Aleris common stock, historical and projected earnings and other operating data of Aleris and the capitalization and financial condition of Aleris;

analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations Citigroup considered relevant in evaluating those of Aleris;

analyzed Aleris' s projected future cash flows under alternative industry scenarios based on financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or discussed with Citigroup by Aleris' s management; and conducted other analyses and examinations and considered other information and financial, economic and market criteria as Citigroup deemed appropriate in arriving at its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Citigroup assumed and relied, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, on the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with it and on the assurances of Aleris' s management that it was not aware of any relevant information that was omitted or remained undisclosed to Citigroup. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Aleris provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Citigroup, Citigroup was advised by Aleris' s management, and Citigroup assumed, with Aleris' s consent, that the forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of Aleris' s management as to Aleris' s future financial performance under the alternative industry scenarios reflected in the forecasts. Citigroup assumed, with Aleris' s consent, that the merger would be completed in accordance with its terms, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement, and in compliance with all applicable laws, and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Aleris or the merger.

Citigroup did not make, and it was not provided with, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Aleris, and Citigroup did not make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Aleris. In connection with Citigroup' s engagement and at the direction of Aleris, Citigroup was requested to approach, and Citigroup held discussions with, selected financial buyers prior to the date of the merger agreement to solicit indications of interest in the possible acquisition of Aleris, and Citigroup was requested to solicit such indications of interest from strategic buyers for a limited period after the date of the merger agreement as permitted under the provisions of the merger agreement. Citigroup' s opinion does not address any terms or other aspects or implications of the merger (other than the merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in the opinion) or any aspects or implications of any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the merger or otherwise. Citigroup expressed no view as to, and its opinion does not address, Aleris' s underlying business decision to effect the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Aleris or the effect of any other transaction in which Aleris might engage. Citigroup' s opinion was necessarily based on information available to Citigroup, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing and disclosed to Citigroup, as of the date of its opinion. Except as described above, Aleris imposed no other instructions or limitations on Citigroup with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by Citigroup in rendering its opinion.

In preparing its opinion, Citigroup performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of these analyses is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Citigroup' s opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Citigroup arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole, and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis for purposes of its opinion. Accordingly, Citigroup believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In its analyses, Citigroup considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters existing as of the date of its opinion, many of which are beyond the control of Aleris. No company or business used in those analyses as a comparison is identical to Aleris, and an evaluation of those analyses is not entirely mathematical and, accordingly, those analyses may not necessarily utilize all companies or businesses that could be deemed comparable to Aleris. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies or business segments analyzed.

The estimates contained in Citigroup's analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by its analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not necessarily purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Citigroup's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger was determined through negotiations between Aleris and TPG and the decision to enter into the merger was solely that of Aleris's board of directors. Citigroup's opinion was only one of many factors considered by Aleris's board of directors in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Aleris's board of directors or Aleris's management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented to Aleris's board of directors in connection with Citigroup's opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Citigroup's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Citigroup's financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, financial data relating to Aleris utilized by Citigroup in its analyses described below were prepared by Aleris's management under two cases: one which reflected a stable economic environment and continuity in current market trends in the metals industry, the end-use segments of Aleris's business and the industries of Aleris's customers, referred to as the stable market case, and one which reflected the potential for a downturn in the general economic environment and a cyclical downturn in the metals industry, the end-use segments of Aleris's business and the industries of Aleris's customers during calendar years 2007 through 2011, referred to as the cycle case. The financial data relating to Aleris prepared by Aleris's management was pro forma for the Corus acquisition, which closed on August 1, 2006, and related synergies anticipated by Aleris's management to result from such acquisition, as if such acquisition was completed on January 1, 2006.

Table of ContentsSelected Companies Analysis.

Citigroup reviewed financial and stock market information and public market trading multiples of Aleris and the following eight selected publicly held companies, six of which were integrated aluminum producers and two of which were aluminum rolling companies. These companies were selected primarily because such companies (i) manufacture and sell aluminum and/or aluminum fabricated products including aluminum rolled products, Aleris's main product, (ii) have sales and industry cycles that are generally similar to those of Aleris and (iii) are similarly impacted by macroeconomic and demographic trends.

Citigroup reviewed, among other things, enterprise values of the selected companies, calculated as fully diluted equity value (less option proceeds) based on closing stock prices on August 1, 2006, plus debt, minority interests, preferred stock, and out-of-the-money convertibles, less investments in unconsolidated affiliates and cash, as a multiple of calendar years 2006 and 2007 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, commonly referred to as EBITDA. Citigroup then applied a selected range of calendar years 2006 and 2007 estimated EBITDA multiples derived from the selected companies to corresponding financial data of Aleris. Estimated financial data of the selected companies were based on research analysts' estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. Estimated financial data of Aleris were based on the stable market case with respect to Aleris's calendar year 2006 estimated EBITDA and both the stable market case and the cycle case with respect to Aleris's calendar year 2007 estimated EBITDA. This analysis indicated the following selected per share equity reference range for Aleris, as compared to the merger consideration:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

Citigroup performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Aleris to calculate the estimated present value of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Aleris could generate for the second half of fiscal year 2006 through fiscal year 2011 under both the stable market case and the cycle case. Estimated terminal values for Aleris were calculated by applying to the average of the fiscal year 2005 EBITDA and fiscal year 2011 estimated EBITDA, referred to as mid-cycle EBITDA, of Aleris a range of EBITDA terminal value multiples of 6.75x to 7.25x. The cash flows and terminal values were discounted to present value using discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 11.0%, which discount rate range was derived taking into consideration the estimated weighted average cost of capital for Aleris and the North American selected companies referred to above under Selected Companies Analysis. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference ranges for Aleris, as compared to the merger consideration:

Table of ContentsLeveraged Buyout Analysis.

Citigroup performed a leveraged buyout analysis to estimate the theoretical purchase price that could be paid by a hypothetical financial buyer in an acquisition of Aleris taking into account the potential pro forma leverage structure of Aleris that could result from financing such acquisition under customary market terms and assuming that such financial buyer would attempt to realize a return on its investment in Aleris's fiscal year 2011. Estimated financial data for Aleris were based on both the stable market case and the cycle case. Estimated exit values for Aleris were calculated by applying a range of exit value multiples of 6.5x to 7.5x to Aleris's mid-cycle EBITDA. Citigroup then derived a range of theoretical purchase prices based on an assumed required internal rate of return for a financial buyer of approximately 20.0% under the stable market case and 15.0% under the cycle case. This analysis indicated the following implied per share equity reference ranges for Aleris, as compared to the merger consideration:

Miscellaneous.

Under the terms of Citigroup's engagement, Aleris has agreed to pay Citigroup for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger an aggregate fee of approximately $13.25 million, a portion of which was payable in connection with the delivery of its opinion and approximately $10.75 million of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Aleris also has agreed to reimburse Citigroup for reasonable travel and other expenses incurred by Citigroup in performing its services, including reasonable fees and expenses of its legal counsel, and to indemnify Citigroup and related persons against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

Citigroup and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide, services to Aleris and certain of its affiliates, for which services Citigroup and its affiliates have received, and expect to receive, compensation, including having acted as (i) financial advisor to Aleris in connection with certain acquisition transactions and (ii) joint lead arranger and joint book-runner in connection with certain credit facilities and note offerings of Aleris and certain of its affiliates. During the past two years, Citigroup has received aggregate compensation from Aleris and its affiliates unrelated to the merger of approximately $19.8 million. Citigroup and its affiliates in the past also have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide services to TPG and certain of its affiliates, for which services Citigroup and its affiliates have received, and expect to receive, compensation, including (i) acting as financial advisor to TPG and certain of its portfolio companies in connection with certain spin-off, sale and acquisition transactions, (ii) having acted as joint book-running, lead or other managing underwriter for certain portfolio companies of TPG in connection with various securities offerings and asset-backed or other securitization transactions and (iii) having acted as a lender under, and as joint lead arranger, joint book-runner and co-syndication or co-documentation agent in connection with, various credit facilities of certain portfolio companies of TPG. In the ordinary course of business, Citigroup and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Aleris and certain portfolio companies of TPG for their own account or for the account of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in those securities. In addition, Citigroup and its affiliates, including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates, may maintain relationships with Aleris, TPG and their respective affiliates.

Aleris selected Citigroup as its financial advisor in connection with the merger based on Citigroup's reputation, experience and familiarity with Aleris and its business. Citigroup is an internationally recognized investment banking firm which regularly engages in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

Financing the Merger

Parent estimates that the total amount of funds necessary to complete the merger and the related transactions is approximately $3.4 billion, which includes approximately $1.7 billion to be paid to Aleris stockholders and holders of other equity-based interests in Aleris, with the remaining funds to be used to refinance certain of Aleris' existing indebtedness and to pay customary fees and expenses in connection with the merger, the financing arrangements and the related transactions. These payments are expected to be funded by a combination of equity contributions by TPG and its co-investors (which may include one or more existing holders of Aleris common stock), debt financing and available cash of Aleris.

Equity Financing

TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P., private equity funds sponsored by TPG, and Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC have agreed to fund in the aggregate up to $1 billion as the equity portion of the financing for the merger, subject to the terms and conditions of their respective equity commitment letters. TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. have delivered an equity commitment letter for up to $1 billion to Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC and Aleris, and Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC, in turn, has delivered an equity commitment letter for up to $1 billion to Parent and Aleris. The equity commitment letter entered into by TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. provides that TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. may effect the funding required by their commitment through one or more affiliated entities and may assign their commitment to fund up to 49% of the equity to one or more other investors. TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. will be liable for the portion of their equity commitment that they assign unless the person to which TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. have assigned a portion of their commitment delivers a commitment letter to Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC and Aleris agreeing to be bound by TPG Partners IV, L.P.'s and TPG Partners V, L.P.'s obligations with respect to the portion of the commitment that has been assigned.

Each equity commitment letter provides that the funds will be contributed on or prior to the closing of the merger to fund a portion of the merger consideration pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement, provided that the amount of such commitments to be funded on or prior to the closing of the merger may be reduced in a manner specified by TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. or Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC but only to the extent it will be possible for Parent to complete the merger contributing less than the full amount of such commitments. Each equity commitment letter also provides that funds will be contributed to satisfy any liabilities or obligations of Parent or Merger Sub arising out of or in connection with any breach by Parent or Merger Sub of their respective representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement and to pay to the Company the termination fee payable by Merger Sub (collectively, the limited reimbursement obligations) to the extent provided in the merger agreement. Each of the equity commitments is generally subject to the satisfaction of the conditions to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to effect the closing under the merger agreement. Each of the equity commitment letters will terminate upon termination of the merger agreement except that the obligations of TPG Partners IV, L.P. and TPG Partners V, L.P. and Aurora Acquisition Holdings, LLC to pay the limited reimbursement obligations, if any, will survive such termination.

Debt Financing

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Parent is obligated to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the debt financing described below, including to negotiate definitive agreements with respect to the debt financing and to satisfy on a timely basis all conditions applicable to Parent in the definitive agreements that are within Parent's control. In the event any portion of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the commitments in respect thereof, Parent is obligated to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange to obtain alternative financing from alternative sources on terms not materially less beneficial to Parent and Merger Sub (as determined in the reasonable judgment of Parent).

Table of Contents

In connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, Parent has obtained:

commitments from Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch to provide a senior secured term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $970 million and a senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility with a maximum availability of $750 million; and commitments from Deutsche Bank AG Cayman Islands Branch to provide funds in an aggregate principal amount of up to $530 million under a senior unsecured bridge facility and up to $525 million under a senior subordinated unsecured bridge facility to finance, in part, the payment of the merger consideration, the repayment or refinancing of certain indebtedness of the Company outstanding on the closing date of the merger and to pay fees and expenses in connection therewith and for working capital needs and general corporate requirements of the Company.

The debt commitments expire on June 30, 2007. The documentation governing the debt facilities has not been finalized and, therefore, the actual terms of such facilities may differ from those described in this proxy statement.

The facilities contemplated by the debt financing commitments are conditioned on the merger being completed on or prior to June 30, 2007 and other customary conditions including:

receipt of cash equity financing from TPG or other investors reasonably satisfactory to Deutsche Bank in an aggregate amount of at least 25% of the total financing used to fund the merger consideration and pay down the existing indebtedness of the Company;

execution of satisfactory definitive documentation;

no amendments to the merger agreement that are not reasonably satisfactory in all material respects to Deutsche Bank;

the merger being completed and all of the conditions precedent to the consummation of the merger being satisfied or waived, except that no condition material to the interests of Deutsche Bank may be waived except with the consent of Deutsche Bank (which consent cannot be unreasonably withheld or delayed);

the refinancing of certain of the Company's existing indebtedness occurring substantially concurrently with the funding of the facilities;

the Company having excess availability under the Company's asset-based revolving credit facility based on the borrowing base therein of at least an amount to be agreed by TPG and Deutsche Bank;

the absence of a material adverse effect on the Company since December 31, 2005;

all costs, fees, expenses and other compensation payable to Deutsche Bank contemplated by the agreements relating to the debt financing having been paid;

Edgar Filing: Aleris International, Inc. - Form PRER14A

Deutsche Bank having received customary legal opinions, a customary solvency certificate and other customary closing documentation;

Deutsche Bank having at least 25 days following the delivery of a confidential information memorandum by the Company to market and syndicate the senior secured debt financing; and Deutsche Bank having at least 25 days following receipt of a complete set of customary high-yield offering materials from the Company to place debt securities of the Company with qualified purchasers.

Although the debt financing commitments described in this proxy statement are not subject to due diligence or a market out , such financing may not be considered assured. As of the date of this proxy statement, no alternative financing arrangements or alternative financing plans have been made in the event the debt financing described herein is not available as anticipated.

Table of Contents

If all other conditions to the consummation of the merger have been satisfied (including without limitation, the expiration of the marketing period), Parent will be required to consummate the merger regardless of whether Parent has obtained debt financing on the terms and conditions described in the debt financing commitments, and the failure by Parent to consummate the merger in such circumstances would constitute a breach of the merger agreement. In the event that the Company terminates the merger agreement because Parent or Merger Sub breaches its obligations to effect the closing and satisfy its obligations with respect to payment of the merger consideration when all conditions to the closing are satisfied and the marketing period has expired and Parent fails to effect the closing because of a failure to receive the proceeds of one or more of the debt financings contemplated by the debt financing commitments or because of its refusal to accept debt financing on terms materially less beneficial to it than the terms set forth in the debt financing commitments, Merger Sub will be required to pay the Company a $40 million termination fee. This termination fee payable to the Company is the exclusive remedy of the Company unless Parent or Merger Sub is otherwise in breach of the merger agreement, in which case the Company may pursue a damages claim. The aggregate liability of Parent and its affiliates arising from any breach of the merger agreement is in any event capped at $100 million.

Asset-Based Revolving Credit Facility

Borrowings under the asset-based revolving credit facility will be limited in the case of each borrower by a borrowing base, which will be calculated periodically based on specified percentages of the value of eligible accounts receivable and, in the case of U.S. and Canadian borrowers, the value of eligible inventory, subject to adjustments for reserves and other matters. Borrowings under the asset-based revolving credit facility will be guaranteed by the Company and its subsidiaries (subject to certain exceptions) and secured by a first priority lien in substantially all current assets of the Company located in the U.S. and Canada as well as certain other assets and a second priority lien in fixed assets of the Company and certain other assets that secure the term loan facility on a first priority basis. Borrowings under the asset-based revolving credit facility on the closing date to effect the merger and the refinancing of certain of the Company's existing indebtedness and to pay fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger will be limited to $315 million plus an amount by which working capital on the closing date exceeds a trailing average of working capital to be agreed.

Term Loan Facility

Borrowings under the term loan facility will be made on the closing date of the merger. The borrowings will be guaranteed by the Company and its subsidiaries (subject to certain exceptions) and will be secured by a first priority lien in fixed assets of the Company as well as certain other assets and a second priority lien in the current and other assets securing the asset-based revolving credit facility on a first priority basis.

Bridge Facilities

Borrowings under the bridge facilities will be used by Parent and Merger Sub in a single draw on the closing date of the merger in the event that Parent does not complete other contemplated permanent financings at or prior to such time. The bridge facilities will be guaranteed (on a senior subordinated basis, in the case of the senior subordinated bridge facility) by the U.S. subsidiaries of the Company (subject to certain exceptions).

Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Company's board of directors with respect to the merger, you should be aware that some of the Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interest of our stockholders generally. These interests may present them with actual or potential conflicts of interests, and these interests, to the extent material, are described below. The Company's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. The aggregate amount of compensatory payments and benefits that executive officers and directors will receive as a result of the merger and the underlying Company plans with respect to the cancellation of their outstanding equity awards is $59,108,960, which amount is exclusive of shares owned by executive officers as of the record date for the special meeting.

Table of ContentsTreatment of Stock Options

As of the record date, there were approximately 1,024,121 shares of our common stock subject to stock options granted under our equity incentive plans to our current executive officers and directors. Each outstanding stock option that remains unexercised as of the completion of the merger, whether or not the option is vested or exercisable, will be canceled (to the extent permitted under the governing stock plan documents and related award agreements or otherwise effectuated by the Company), and the holder of such stock option that has an exercise price of less than $52.50 will be entitled to receive a cash payment, less any required withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the number of shares of our common stock subject to the option as of the effective time of the merger; and

the excess, if any, of $52.50 over the exercise price per share of common stock subject to such option.

The following table summarizes the vested and unvested options with exercise prices of less than $52.50 per share held by our directors and executive officers as of October 9, 2006, and the consideration that each of them will receive pursuant to the merger agreement in connection with the cancellation of their options:

Treatment of Restricted Stock and Stock Units

As of the record date, there were approximately 202,335 shares of our common stock represented by restricted share awards held by our directors and executive officers under our equity incentive plans. Under the terms of the merger agreement, all such restricted share awards will become immediately vested and free of restrictions effective as of the completion of the merger; and at the effective time of the merger, the holder of each such award will receive a cash payment of $52.50 per share of restricted stock, less any required withholding taxes, in exchange for the cancellation of such restricted shares in accordance with the treatment of other stockholders participating in the merger.

In addition, as of the record date there were approximately 8,000 shares of our common stock represented by certain restricted stock units held by an executive officer originally granted in 2004 under an IMCO Recycling Inc. equity plan. Others who received this type of award are no longer directors or executive officers of the Company. Under the terms of the merger agreement, these restricted stock unit awards will be cancelled, and the holders of the restricted stock unit awards will be entitled to receive in consideration for the cancellation a cash payment of $52.50 per restricted stock unit, less any required withholding taxes.

The following table summarizes the restricted shares and restricted stock unit awards held by our executive officers and directors as of October 9, 2006, and the consideration that each of them will receive pursuant to the merger agreement in connection with the cancellation of such awards:

Treatment of Performance Units

Certain executive officers and other employees of the Company were granted performance units in 2005 and 2006 under the Company's 2004 Equity Incentive Plan. The grants provided for performance units, the settlement of which would be in shares of Aleris common stock, which would vest based on the attainment of certain performance goals. One-half of the performance unit award would vest upon the attainment of return on capital employed targets, which we refer to as the ROCE-Vested Units, and the other half would vest only upon attainment of certain merger synergy targets prior to December 31, 2008 related to the merger of IMCO Recycling Inc. and Commonwealth Industries, Inc., which we refer to as the Synergy-Vested Units. Certain executive officers were also granted awards consisting of a cash amount and performance units as part of 2005 Acquisition Incentive Awards, which we refer to as the Acquisition Units, which would be payable upon the attainment of specified goals at the end of 2006 and 2007.

Table of Contents

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Synergy-Vested Units will remain outstanding and the surviving corporation will make payments, if any, in accordance with the Synergy-Vested Units original agreements based on the attainment of the applicable performance measures. Any amount that would have been payable in shares will instead be payable in cash in an amount equal to $52.50 multiplied by the number of shares underlying the Synergy-Vested Unit, less any required withholding taxes. Also, under the terms of the merger agreement, the ROCE-Vested Units and the Acquisition Units will be accelerated and vested as if all performance goals had been met as of the date which is the later of January 15, 2007 or one business day following the closing date of the merger. The ROCE-Vested Units and Acquisition Units will subsequently be cancelled and each holder of such units will receive in consideration for such cancellation an amount in cash equal to $52.50 multiplied by the number of shares underlying the ROCE-Vested Units and the Acquisition Units, less any required withholding taxes, plus the cash amount portion of the Acquisition Unit award.

The following table summarizes the ROCE-Vested Units and Acquisition Units held by our executive officers and directors as of October 9, 2006, the consideration that each of them will receive for the cancellation of the performance units in connection with the merger and the cash payment portion of the Acquisition Units that becomes payable upon the acceleration of the Acquisition Units:

Severance Agreements

Each of our current executive officers and certain other officers have severance agreements with us. Under the severance agreements, if the officer's employment is terminated by the Company during a two-year period following a change in control event for any reason other than for cause, death, disability or certain retirement events, or if the officer resigns for good reason, he will be entitled to severance compensation as follows:

a lump sum payment in an amount equal to three times (for Mr. Demetriou) or two times (for the other executive officers) the sum of his base salary (at the highest rate in effect for any period within the past twelve months prior to his termination date) plus the highest of (1) the target bonus for the fiscal year in which the change in control occurs, (2) the target bonus for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs or (3) the highest bonus earned by him in respect of the three fiscal years prior to the change in control;

a lump sum payment of (1) a pro-rata portion of the annual bonus pay (based on the greater of (a) the target bonus for the fiscal year in which a change in control occurs and (b) the target bonus for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs), (2) accrued salary and vacation and (3) any compensation previously deferred by the officer under any nonqualified plan;

continued welfare benefits for three years (for Mr. Demetriou) or two years (for the other executive officers) following his termination date; and reimbursement for any excise tax liability imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, or any interest or penalties incurred with respect to such excise tax in an amount such that after payment by the respective officer of all taxes, that officer retains an amount equal to the amount of the excise tax.

Certain other officers have similar severance arrangements, however the severance payment and benefit continuation multiple is a factor of 1.5 times his or her base salary and 18 months, respectively.

While we do not expect the termination of employment provisions of these officers' agreements to be triggered, the following table summarizes the cash payments and value of continued benefits, as outlined above, that would be made to each executive officer if the officer's agreement was triggered by certain terminations by the Company or the executive officer following the merger. For purposes of this calculation, we have assumed the executive officer's salary, bonus amounts, the target bonus as in effect on the date hereof, and a theoretical termination date of December 31, 2006.

	Base and Bonus with Multiplier	Target Bonus	Assumed Annual Value of Continued Benefits with Multiplier	Severance Payment
Executive Officers:
Steven J. Demetriou	6,630,000	850,000	243,777	7,723,777
Michael D. Friday	1,746,250	296,250	41,532	2,084,032
John J. Wasz	1,688,000	288,750	30,900	2,007,650
Christopher R. Clegg	1,141,000	174,000	40,800	1,355,800
Sean M. Stack	1,105,000	227,500	30,600	1,363,100
Robert R. Holian	793,000	109,000	31,816	933,816
Alfred Haszler

In addition, as discussed above, the executive would be entitled to reimbursement for any excise tax liability incurred as a result of these payments and the value of any accelerated vesting on outstanding equity awards. In connection with the merger, the value of the accelerated vesting of equity awards discussed above equals approximately, $4,715,000 for Mr. Demetriou, $1,203,000 for Mr. Friday, $1,318,000 for Mr. Wasz, $721,000 for Mr. Clegg, $702,000 for Mr. Stack, and $429,000 for Mr. Holian. If the executive were to be terminated in connection with the merger, taking into account the value for the accelerated vesting just described, the amount of the gross-up payment that would be due to the executives would equal approximately $6,003,000 for Mr. Demetriou, $1,444,000 for Mr. Friday, $1,334,000 for Mr. Wasz, $890,000 for Mr. Clegg, $954,000 for Mr. Stack, and $562,000 for Mr. Holian.

For purposes of the severance agreements, "cause" includes the willful and continuing failure to perform duties of employment; gross misconduct, fraud or dishonesty involving the Company; breach of the duty of loyalty to the Company; impeding an investigation being conducted by the Company's board of directors; or conviction of a felony. "Good reason" generally means the occurrence of the following events following a change in control: assignment of duties inconsistent with prior duties or adverse change in reporting responsibilities of the executive; reduction in the executive's base salary or target bonus; a reduction in the executive's benefits, not providing welfare benefits for dependents, or not providing most favorable fringe benefits; a relocation of the executive's principal place of employment 100 miles from his current location; or failure of the Company to have the severance agreement assumed by any successor company.

Deferred Compensation Plans and Distribution of Accounts

Pursuant to the merger agreement, at the time the merger becomes effective, all account balances under the Company's non-qualified deferred compensation plans, including the deferred compensation plans and retirement benefit restoration plan, in which our executive officers or directors participate, will be paid out in cash to participants, less any required withholding taxes. As of September 30, 2006, distributions of deferred compensation balances pursuant to the merger agreement will include $735,920.04 to Mr. Demetriou and $336,624.40 to Mr. Friday, in each case, less applicable taxes.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that all rights to indemnification existing in favor of current and former officers, directors or employees of the Company or any of our subsidiaries in their capacity as such provided in the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, or similar documents of the Company's subsidiaries, as in effect as of the date of the merger agreement with respect to matters occurring prior to the effective time of the merger shall continue in full force and effect for a period of not less than six years after the effective time of the merger, unless otherwise required by law.

The merger agreement provides that the Company will purchase by the effective time of the merger, and the surviving corporation will maintain, tail policies to the current directors and officers liability insurance policies currently maintained by the Company and its subsidiaries. These tail policies will not have aggregate premiums in excess of 400% of the annual amounts currently paid by the Company, will be effective for six years from the effective time of the merger with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred prior to the effective time of the merger, and except as provided in the merger agreement will contain coverage that is at least as protective to the persons covered as our existing policies in this respect.

New Management Arrangements

As of the date of this proxy statement, no member of our management has entered into any amendments or modifications to existing employment agreements with us or our subsidiaries in connection with the merger. In addition, as of the date of this proxy statement, no member of our management has entered into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with Parent, Merger Sub or their affiliates regarding employment with, or the right to reinvest, convert or participate in the equity of, the surviving corporation.

TPG has informed us that it is their intention to offer Mr. Demetriou the opportunity to serve on the boards of directors of Parent and the surviving corporation following the completion of the merger as chairman of the board and to retain members of our existing management team with the surviving corporation after the merger is completed. In that connection, Mr. Demetriou has engaged in preliminary discussions regarding possible service as a director of the surviving corporation and Parent and revised terms of employment for members of our existing management. In addition to revised terms of employment, TPG has informed us that they intend to offer members of management the opportunity to reinvest or convert a portion of their current equity interests in the Company into equity in the surviving corporation, and that they also intend to set up equity-based incentive compensation plans for management of the surviving corporation. Although we believe Mr. Demetriou is likely to join the boards of directors of the surviving corporation and Parent following the merger and that members of our management team are likely to enter into new arrangements with Parent, Merger Sub or their affiliates regarding employment with, and the right to reinvest, convert or participate in the equity of, the surviving corporation, such matters are subject to further negotiations and discussions with TPG and no terms or conditions have been finalized. The new arrangements may be entered into prior to the completion of the merger.

Other

Mr. Demetriou currently serves, and since December 1, 2004, has served, as a non-employee director of each of Kraton Polymers LLC, which we refer to as Kraton, and Polymer Holdings LLC, which we refer to as Polymer Holdings, Kraton's direct parent company. TJ Chemical Holdings LLC, or TJ Chemical, owns 100% of the equity interests of Polymer Holdings, which in turn owns 100% of the equity interests of Kraton. TJ Chemical is indirectly owned by TPG Partners III, L.P., TPG Partners IV, L.P. and certain of their parallel investment entities, entities affiliated with or managed by J.P. Morgan Partners, LLC and its affiliates and Kraton Polymers Management LLC. TPG Partners III, L.P. is an investment fund affiliated with each of TPG Advisors IV, Inc. and TPG Advisors V, Inc.

Mr. Demetriou receives $25,000 per year from Kraton for his service as a director and also currently has an a $150,000 investment in Kraton. Mr. Demetriou also receives annually 25,000 options to purchase Kraton stock. He currently holds 50,000 such options and he will receive an additional 25,000 such options on December 1, 2006. Mr. Demetriou's annual compensation, both in terms of monetary remuneration and equity incentives, is the same as that of each other non-employee director of Kraton.

Mr. Demetriou currently is not an investor in any investment fund affiliated with TPG. However, as chief executive officer and director of a TPG portfolio company, from time to time he may be offered the opportunity to invest as a limited partner in TPG-sponsored funds. It is expected that any such opportunity would be on terms and conditions substantially similar to those offered to other senior officers and directors of TPG's portfolio companies.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of our common stock. We base this summary on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), applicable current and proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice, all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. holder" to mean:

a citizen or individual resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or the District of Columbia;

a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons, as defined under Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code ("U.S. persons"), have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

A "non-U.S. holder" is a person (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. holder.

This discussion assumes that a holder holds the shares of our common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income tax that may be relevant to a holder in light of its particular circumstances, or that may apply to a holder that is subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (including, for example, insurance companies, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, traders in securities who elect the mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax, persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, mutual funds, partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, certain expatriates, corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax, holders who hold shares of our common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, or holders who acquired their shares of our common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements). In addition, this discussion does not address any tax considerations under state, local or foreign tax laws, or U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the U.S. federal income tax that may apply to holders. The U.S. federal income tax consequences set forth below are not intended to constitute a complete description of all tax consequences relating to the merger. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences, including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws, of the receipt of cash in exchange for our common stock pursuant to the merger.

If a partnership holds our common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding our common stock, you should consult your tax advisors.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of cash in the merger (or pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights) by U.S. holders of our common stock will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder of our common stock will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between:

the amount of cash received in exchange for such common stock; and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such common stock.

If the holding period in our common stock surrendered in the merger (or pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights) is greater than one year as of the date of the merger, the gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized on the exchange is subject to limitations under the Code. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of our common stock at different times and different prices, such holder must determine its adjusted tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of our common stock.

Under the Code, cash received in the merger (or pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights) by a U.S. holder may be subject to U.S. information reporting and backup withholding. Backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) will apply with respect to the amount of cash received by a non-corporate U.S. holder, unless the U.S. holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or a correct taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against a U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that such U.S. holder furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain realized on the receipt of cash in the merger (or pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights) by a non-U.S. holder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business of the non-U.S. holder in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder);

the non-U.S. holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of that disposition, and certain other conditions are met; or the non-U.S. holder owned, directly or under certain constructive ownership rules of the Code, more than 5% of our common stock (which includes for purposes of this bullet point the stock of our predecessor entity) at any time during the five-year period preceding the merger, and we are or have been a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time during the shorter of a five-year period preceding the merger or the period that the non-U.S. holder held our common stock.

A non-U.S. holder described in the first bullet point immediately above will be taxed on a net income basis on the net gain derived from the merger and in the same manner as if it were a U.S. person, and, if a non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, it may be subject, in addition, to the branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits or at such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty. An individual non-U.S. holder described in the second bullet point immediately above will generally be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from the merger, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses, even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States under the Code.

Since January 1, 2004 we have not been a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes and do not anticipate becoming one in the future. If you owned more than 5% of our common stock at any time during the five-year period preceding the merger and owned any of our common stock at any time prior to January 1, 2004, please consult your tax advisor to determine the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Information reporting and, depending on the circumstances, backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) will apply to the cash received in the merger (or pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights), unless a beneficial owner certifies under penalty of perjury that it is a non-U.S. holder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that such beneficial owner is a U.S. person) or such beneficial owner otherwise establishes an exemption. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against a non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that such non-U.S. holder furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Regulatory Approvals

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and related rules provide that transactions such as the merger may not be completed until certain information has been submitted to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. On September 1, 2006, the Company and TPG Partners V, L.P. each filed a Notification and Report Form with the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission and requested an early termination of the waiting period. On September 19, 2006, the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the waiting period initiated by these filings.

The European Community merger control laws require that transactions, such as the merger which is required to be notified to the European Commission, must not be implemented until certain information has been submitted to the European Commission and the merger has been subsequently approved. In particular, Council Regulation (EC) No. 139/2004 of January 2004 requires notification to, and approval by, the European Commission of mergers or acquisitions involving parties with combined aggregate worldwide sales and individual European Union sales exceeding specified thresholds before these mergers or acquisitions are implemented. TPG and Aleris caused the filing of the required information with the European Commission on September 1, 2006, and the European Commission cleared the transaction on October 6, 2006.

Under the merger agreement, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to do all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to complete the merger, including making any required submission with any governmental entity with respect to the merger and to supply information and material that may be requested by any governmental entity. In the event that any action, suit, proceeding or investigation relating to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby is commenced, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub agreed to cooperate and use their reasonable best efforts to defend vigorously against it and respond thereto and to cause to any order, injunction or decree preventing the merger to be vacated or lifted.

Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, the Council Regulation (EC) No. 139/2004 and the filing of a certificate of merger in Delaware at or before the effective date of the merger, we are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the merger agreement or completion of the merger.

Litigation

On or about August 10, 2006, a putative class action lawsuit, entitled Kahn v. Demetriou, et al., Case No. 2335-N, was filed against the Company and its directors in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, New Castle County. The plaintiff filed an amended complaint on October 6, 2006. The amended complaint purports to be brought on behalf of all the Company's stockholders (excluding the defendants and their affiliates). The amended complaint alleges that the Company's directors violated their fiduciary obligations to the Company's stockholders in approving the merger agreement. In that connection, the amended complaint alleges that (i) the merger consideration is inadequate; (ii) the announcement of the proposed transaction was timed to cap the market price of the Company's common stock prior to the August 8, 2006 announcement of record financial results for the second quarter that exceeded analysts' expectations and exceeded the Company's prior guidance to analysts; (iii) the directors failed to shop the Company because the proposed transaction is not the result of a pre-signing auction process or reliable market check; (iv) the go-shop provision is inadequate and unfairly limits the pool of potential merger candidates to certain strategic bidders and specifically excludes financial buyers; and (v) the termination fee and no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement will hinder and deter other potential acquirers from seeking to acquire the Company on better terms than the proposed merger. The amended complaint also alleges that the preliminary proxy statement filed on September 8, 2006 was inadequate and misleading because it failed to make a number of disclosures related to the proposed transaction, including the fact that although Alcoa, Inc.'s share price declined after it announced record financial results, the preliminary proxy statement does not disclose that those financial results were below analysts' expectations. The amended complaint seeks various forms of relief, including injunctive relief that would, if granted, prevent the completion of the proposed transaction, unspecified compensatory damages, and attorneys' fees and expenses.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and is incorporated in this proxy statement by reference. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. We encourage you to read the merger agreement because it, and not this document, is the legal document that governs the merger. The description of the merger agreement in this proxy statement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms.

The Merger; Effective Time; Marketing Period

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into Aleris upon the terms, and subject to the conditions, of the merger agreement. Aleris will survive the merger and continue to exist after the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. Following completion of the merger, the Company's common stock will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange, deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and no longer publicly traded. The Company will be a privately held corporation and the Company's current stockholders, other than any persons who may be permitted to invest in the surviving corporation (or Parent) and who chose to so invest, will cease to have any ownership interest in the Company or rights as Company stockholders. Therefore, such current stockholders of the Company will not participate in any future earnings or growth of the Company and will not benefit from any appreciation in value of the Company.

The merger will be effective at the time the certificate of merger is filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (or at a later time, if agreed upon by the parties and specified in the certificate of merger). So long as the marketing period has expired, the closing date will occur as promptly as practicable but in no event later than the second business day after all conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived (or on such other date as Parent and the Company may mutually agree). In the event that all conditions have been satisfied but the marketing period has not expired, the parties are not required to effect the closing until the earlier of:

a date during the marketing period specified by Parent on no less than three business days' notice to the Company; and the final day of the marketing period.

The marketing period is defined in the merger agreement as the first period of 60 consecutive calendar days after the initiation date throughout and at the end of which (1) Parent and its financing sources have the financial information that the Company is required to provide pursuant to the merger agreement to complete the debt financing for the merger and (2) the conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to complete the merger are satisfied or would be satisfied if the closing were then scheduled to occur. Also, the marketing period will end on any earlier date that the debt financing contemplated by the merger agreement has been completed. However, the periods of November 22-24, 2006 and December 15-31, 2006 will not be counted or taken into account for purposes of calculating the period of 60 consecutive calendar days.

The initiation date is the latest of (1) the date this proxy statement is mailed to the Company's stockholders, (2) the date that Parent and its financing sources have received certain financial information from the Company and (3) the later of November 10, 2006 and the business day after the date of the filing of the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006.

In addition:

if the marketing period, determined as described above, would otherwise end after January 31, 2007, and:

on or before March 1, 2007 (if the Company is a large accelerated filer), the marketing period will be 45 consecutive calendar days and commence on the later of March 2, 2007 and the business day after the date the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006; or

on or before March 16, 2007 (if the Company is an accelerated filer), the marketing period will be 45 consecutive calendar days and commence on the later of March 17, 2007 and the business day after the date the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006; or if the marketing period, determined as described above, would otherwise end between May 1, 2007 and May 10, 2007, then the marketing period will be 45 consecutive calendar days and commence on the later of May 11, 2007 and the business day after the date the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007.

In any such event, the other criteria for the marketing period specified in the merger agreement and summarized above will continue to apply.

Throughout this period, Parent has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to arrange the debt financing on the terms described in the debt financing commitments and to satisfy on a timely basis the conditions to obtaining the financing set forth in such commitments (subject to Parent's right to replace or amend the commitments under specified circumstances), and in the event that any portion of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in such commitments, to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange alternative financing on terms not materially less beneficial to Merger Sub (as determined in the reasonable judgment of Parent) in an amount sufficient to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Merger Consideration

Each share of Aleris common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist and will be converted into the right to receive $52.50 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes, other than:

shares owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Parent or the Company; shares held in the treasury of the Company; and shares held by holders who have properly exercised their appraisal rights, and have not effectively withdrawn or lost such appraisal rights.

After the merger is effective, each holder of a certificate representing any shares of Aleris common stock (other than shares for which appraisal rights have been properly exercised) will no longer have any rights with respect to the shares, except for the right to receive the merger consideration.

Treatment of Options and Other Awards

Immediately prior to the completion of the merger, each option to purchase shares of Company stock granted under any Company plan that is outstanding and remains unexercised, whether or not the option is vested or exercisable, will be canceled, and the holder of each such stock option that has an exercise price of less than $52.50 will be entitled to receive upon completion of the merger, a cash payment, equal to the product of (1) the number of shares of our common stock previously subject to the option; and (2) the excess, if any, of $52.50 over the exercise price per share of common stock subject to such option, less applicable withholding taxes.

In addition, each share of Company stock subject to vesting or other restrictions pursuant to a Company plan, will, immediately prior to the completion of the merger, vest and become free of restrictions. All holders of such restricted stock will be entitled to participate in the merger as other stockholders, receiving $52.50 for each share of restricted stock, less any required withholding taxes.

Except with respect to those performance unit and acquisition unit awards described below, each other award of a right under any Company plan entitling the holder thereof to restricted shares, shares or cash equal to or based on the value of shares of Company common stock, which we refer to collectively as stock units, that is outstanding as of the completion of the merger (whether vested or unvested) will be canceled by the Company and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive, at the completion of the merger, or as soon as practicable thereafter, in consideration for such cancellation, an amount in cash equal to the product of (1) the number of shares previously subject to such stock unit and (2) the excess, if any, of $52.50 over the exercise price per share, if any, previously subject to such stock unit, less any required withholding taxes.

Certain employees of the Company hold performance unit awards which were, when granted, intended to be payable in shares and vest in two parts, based on the attainment of certain performance goals. One-half of the performance unit award would vest upon the attainment of return on capital employed targets, and one-half would vest based on certain merger synergy targets stemming from the merger of IMCO Recycling Inc. and Commonwealth Industries, Inc. (these performance unit awards were previously described in The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger as the ROCE-Vested Units and Synergy-Vested Units, respectively). In addition, certain employees hold acquisition incentive awards that consist of a cash component and performance unit component (previously described in The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger as the Acquisition Units). The merger agreement provides that the Synergy-Vested Units will remain outstanding and the Company will make payments, if any, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the agreement evidencing the grant of such awards, including any provisions with respect to forfeiture, accelerated payment of such stock unit awards in certain circumstances and the satisfaction of performance criteria. With respect to awards payable in shares under the applicable grant agreement, any payment to the grantee will consist of an amount in cash equal to the product of (1) the number of shares to which such grantee would have been entitled, if any, under the terms of the award and (2) $52.50, less any required withholding taxes. Also pursuant to the merger agreement, the ROCE-Vested Units and Acquisition Units will, in connection with the merger, become fully vested as of the later of either (a) January 15, 2007 or (b) the business day immediately following the closing date of the merger, in either case as if all performance targets had been satisfied with respect to such awards. Within ten days of such later date, the Company will pay to the grantee an amount in cash equal to the sum of (1) the product of (x) the number of shares to which such grantee would have been entitled under the terms of the applicable ROCE-Vested Unit or Acquisition Unit award and (y) $52.50, and (2) the cash portion of such grantee's Acquisition Unit award, if any, under the applicable agreement, less any required withholding taxes.

All account balances under the Company's deferred compensation plan and retirement benefit restoration plan will be paid out in cash to participants therein by the Company upon consummation of the merger, or as soon as practicable thereafter, less any required withholding taxes.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

At or prior to the effective time of the merger, Parent will deposit, or will cause to be deposited, in trust an amount of cash sufficient to pay the merger consideration to each holder of shares of our common stock with a bank or trust company (the paying agent) reasonably acceptable to us. Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will mail a letter of transmittal and instructions to you and the other stockholders. The letter of transmittal and instructions will tell you how to surrender your common stock certificates or shares you may hold represented by book entry in exchange for the merger consideration.

You should not return your stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your stock certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal.

You will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration until you surrender your stock certificate or certificates (or book-entry shares) to the paying agent, together with a duly completed and executed letter of transmittal and any other documents as may be required by the letter of transmittal. The merger consideration may be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the corresponding certificate is registered if the certificate is properly endorsed or is otherwise in the proper form for transfer. In addition, the person who surrenders such certificate must either pay any transfer or other applicable taxes or establish to the satisfaction of the surviving corporation that such taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

No interest will be paid or will accrue on the cash payable upon surrender of the certificates (or book-entry shares). The paying agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold, and pay to the appropriate taxing authorities, any applicable taxes from the merger consideration. Any sum which is withheld and paid to a taxing authority by the paying agent will be deemed to have been paid to the person with regard to whom it is withheld.

At the effective time of the merger, our stock transfer books will be closed, and there will be no further registration of transfers of outstanding shares of our common stock. If, after the effective time of the merger, certificates are presented to the surviving corporation for transfer, they will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

Neither Parent nor the surviving corporation will be liable to any person for any cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of the merger consideration deposited with the paying agent that remains undistributed to the holders of certificates evidencing shares of our common stock for six months after the effective time of the merger, will be delivered to the surviving corporation. Holders of certificates who have not surrendered their certificates prior to the end of the six-month period may only look to Parent or the surviving corporation for the payment of the merger consideration. Any portion of the merger consideration that remains unclaimed prior to one year after the effective date of the merger (or an earlier date that is immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any governmental authority) will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of the surviving corporation free and clear of any claims or interest of any person previously entitled to the merger consideration.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by us to Parent and Merger Sub and representations and warranties made by Parent and Merger Sub to us. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of that contract between the parties and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of that contract. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to contractual standards of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters of fact. In addition, the representations and warranties (1) have been qualified by disclosures made to the other parties in connection with the merger agreement, (2) will not survive consummation of the merger and cannot be the basis for any claims under the merger agreement by the other parties after termination of the merger agreement, and (3) at closing, must only be true and correct subject to the standards contained in the merger agreement, which may differ from what may be viewed as material by stockholders. Certain representations and warranties were made only as of the date of the merger agreement or such other date as is specified in the merger agreement. Solicitation

We have agreed that we, our subsidiaries and our respective officers, directors and employees will not, and will use our best efforts to ensure our and our subsidiaries' representatives will not, directly or indirectly:

We also agreed as of August 7, 2006 to immediately cease any existing solicitation, encouragement, discussion or negotiation conducted by us or our subsidiaries or representatives with respect to an acquisition proposal.

An acquisition proposal is any offer or proposal, or indication of interest in making an offer or proposal, made by a person or group at any time which is structured to permit such person or group to acquire beneficial ownership of at least 20% of the assets of, equity interest in, or business of, Aleris and its subsidiaries pursuant to a merger, consolidation or other business combination, sale of shares of capital stock, sale of assets, tender offer or exchange offer or similar transaction, including any single or multi-step transaction or series of related transactions, in each case other than the merger pursuant to the merger agreement described in this proxy statement.

Notwithstanding the restrictions on solicitation, and subject to the relevant person signing a confidentiality agreement that is substantially similar to the confidentiality agreement in place between us and TPG on August 7, 2006 (except for such changes specifically necessary in order for us and our subsidiaries to be able to comply with our obligations under the merger agreement), from August 7, 2006, until 12:01 a.m. (Eastern time) on September 7, 2006, we and our representatives were permitted to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of an acquisition proposal from any person who, directly or indirectly through a controlled entity, manufactures or fabricates metals and is not a discretionary private equity fund or other discretionary investment vehicle (a strategic bidder); and

If (1) our board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with our outside counsel and financial advisor) that an acquisition proposal constitutes, or would reasonably be likely to constitute, a superior proposal, (2) our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that the following action is required for them to comply with their fiduciary duties under applicable law and (3) we provide Parent at least three business days prior written notice of our intent to take the following action:

We have also agreed to provide to Parent any non-public information concerning Aleris or any of our subsidiaries not previously provided to Parent that we provide to any person or its representatives pursuant to an acquisition proposal as described above.

In addition, we have agreed, except with respect to strategic bidders prior to September 7, 2006:

to promptly communicate to Parent (and in any event within 48 hours) the identity of the person or group making an information request or an acquisition proposal and any other terms of the request or acquisition proposal, including copies of any written communications received by us; and to keep Parent currently informed of the status of any discussions or negotiations, and to provide Parent a copy of all written materials provided to or by us or our subsidiaries related to any inquiries or acquisition proposals.

Prior to September 7, 2006, with respect to any acquisition proposal received by the Company from a strategic bidder, we are only required to promptly notify Parent (and in any event within 48 hours), orally and in writing, of an acquisition proposal received from such strategic bidder, including the identity of such strategic bidder, the material terms of such acquisition proposal and copies of any written communication received from such strategic bidder.

Our board of directors will only be permitted to withdraw, modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub, its recommendation of the merger if, in connection with a bona fide acquisition proposal:

we have complied with the solicitation restrictions described above with respect to such acquisition proposal;

our board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that such action is required for our board of directors to comply with their fiduciary duties under applicable law;

we provide Parent at least three business days written notice of our intent to take this action; and

Access to Information

We are obligated to provide to Parent, Merger Sub and their representatives reasonable access to our and our subsidiaries' employees, plants, offices, warehouses and other facilities, as well as books, contracts, commitments, records and work papers. At the request of Parent, we will consult with Parent and Merger Sub about and keep them informed on a timely basis the status of negotiations, material discussions and proposed resolutions or settlements with any governmental entity with respect to any material environmental matters or with representatives of collective bargained employees and will consider in good faith suggestions made by Parent or Merger Sub in connection therewith. We will permit Parent and Merger Sub to make reasonable inspections, furnish financial and operating data with respect to our and our subsidiaries' business, properties and personnel and provide copies of each documents filed or received by us or our subsidiaries pursuant to the securities laws. We have also agreed to take reasonable actions as may be requested by Parent to the extent such actions are necessary to minimize or eliminate German real property transfer taxes that would otherwise arise as a result of the merger unless such action would cause us to incur a significant cost or liability until all conditions to the merger have been satisfied or waived.

Stockholder Approval

The merger agreement requires us to, as promptly as practicable, call and hold a special meeting of our stockholders to obtain the required vote to approve the merger. We have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to cause the special meeting to occur as soon as reasonably practicable and that, subject to the provisions described under "Solicitation" above, our board of directors will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the stockholder vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. We have also agreed to submit the merger agreement to our stockholders at the special meeting even if our board of directors has withdrawn or modified their recommendation of the merger agreement, as long as the merger agreement has not been validly terminated.

Reasonable Best Efforts

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, each party has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to take all actions and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including making filings with any governmental entity (including under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act) for which Parent or we determine should be made. Parent and we have also agreed to supply as promptly as reasonably practicable any additional information that may be requested by any governmental entity and use our reasonable best efforts to take all necessary, proper or advisable actions to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act. In addition, each party has agreed to cooperate and use reasonable best efforts to defend vigorously against and respond to any action, suit or proceeding related to the merger agreement and to cause any order, injunction or decree preventing the merger to be vacated or lifted. We will cooperate with Parent and Merger Sub to determine whether any other filings or consents are required in connection with the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and will promptly make such filings or obtain such consents.

Without the prior written consent of Parent (which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), we and our subsidiaries are prohibited from paying or committing to pay to any person whose approval or consent (other than a governmental entity) with respect to the merger is being solicited any cash or other consideration or from making any commitment to incur any liability or other obligation. Parent and Merger Sub are not required to pay or commit to pay to any person whose approval or consent (other than a governmental entity) with respect to the merger is being solicited any cash or other consideration or from making any commitment to incur any liability or other obligation.

Indemnification and Insurance

Parent and Merger Sub have agreed that all rights to indemnification existing in favor of our and our subsidiaries' current or former directors, officers and employees in the certificates of incorporation, bylaws or other organizational documents as in effect as of August 7, 2006, with respect to matters occurring before the merger, will survive the merger and continue in full force and effect for a period of not less than six years unless otherwise required by law.

We have agreed to purchase prior to the merger, and Parent has agreed that the surviving corporation will maintain, tail policies to our current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained as of August 7, 2006, by us and our subsidiaries, and that the tail policies:

will not have total premiums greater than 400% of the annual amount we currently pay to maintain the existing policies; will be effective from the time of the merger and for six years thereafter with respect to claims arising from facts or events that existed or occurred before the merger; and will contain coverage that is at least as protective to the persons covered by our existing policies.

If equivalent coverage cannot be obtained or can be obtained only by paying total premiums greater than 400% of the annual amount we currently pay to maintain our existing policies, we will only be required to obtain (and the surviving corporation will only be required to maintain) as much coverage as can be obtained by paying total premiums equal to 400% of the current annual premiums.

If any claim, action or investigation is made against any of the indemnified persons covered by the provisions described in the preceding paragraphs on or prior to six years after the merger, the provisions will continue in effect until the final disposition of such claim, action or investigation. In addition, proper provisions will be made so that the successors and assigns of the surviving corporation or Parent will succeed to any such indemnification and insurance obligations.

Employee Matters

Except as set forth below, prior to the merger we and our subsidiaries will, and from and after the merger, Parent and the surviving corporation will, honor, in accordance with their terms, all of our existing employment and severance agreements, plans, policies and arrangements with our and our subsidiaries' officers, directors and employees.

For one year following the merger, the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries will maintain with respect to each employee of the Company at the time of the merger other than those individuals covered by a collective bargaining agreement (current employees) (other than current employees who have entered into or will enter into an individual employment agreement with us) compensation and benefits provided under our employee benefit plans that are in the aggregate no less favorable than the compensation and benefits maintained for and provided to current employees immediately prior to the merger (excluding, for this purpose, equity-based compensation). The foregoing does not limit the right of Parent, the surviving corporation or any of their subsidiaries to terminate the employment of any current employee or to take actions that are necessary in order to comply with applicable law.

Parent and the surviving corporation will cause service rendered by current employees prior to the merger to be taken into account for vesting and eligibility (but not for accrual purposes, except for vacation and severance) under employee benefit plans of Parent, the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries, to the same extent as such service was taken into account under the corresponding employee benefit plans of the Company and our subsidiaries immediately prior to the merger. Current employees will not be subject to any pre-existing condition or eligibility limitations under any welfare plan of Parent, the surviving corporation or its subsidiaries for any condition for which they would have been entitled to coverage under the corresponding employee benefit plan of the Company in which they participated prior to the merger. Parent and the surviving corporation will give current employees credit under the plans for co-payments made and deductibles and maximum out-of-pocket limitations satisfied prior to the merger.

We have agreed that no later than five business days prior to its distribution, we will provide Parent and Merger Sub with a copy of any communication intended to be made to any of our employees relating to the merger, and will provide an opportunity for Parent and Merger Sub to make reasonable revisions to such communication.

Takeover Laws

We have agreed that, upon the request of Parent or Merger Sub, we will take all reasonable steps to exclude the applicability of, or to assist in any challenge to the validity or applicability to the merger or any other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law and any other moratorium, control share acquisition, business combination, fair price or other form of anti-takeover laws or regulations.

Proxy Statement; Other Filings

We agreed to prepare and file this proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission as soon as practicable, subject to the prior review and approval of Parent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld).

Parent and we agreed to prepare and file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as soon as practicable, all other documents required to be filed in connection with the merger pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the other filings).

Parent and we each agreed:

to obtain and furnish information relating to itself and its affiliates required to be included in this proxy statement and all other filings; to use reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments received by the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to this proxy statement and all other filings; and

We also agreed to cause this proxy statement to be mailed to our stockholders at the earliest practicable date.

If at any time prior to the special meeting of stockholders to vote on the merger, Parent, Merger Sub or we discover any information in this proxy statement or in any other filings that should be set forth in an amendment so that this proxy statement or the other filings will not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements herein or therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information is required to promptly notify the other party, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information must be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and, to the extent required by law, disseminated to our stockholders. Prior to filing or mailing this proxy statement or filing any other filings or responding to any comments of the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect hereto or thereto, the party responsible for filing or mailing such document is required to provide the other parties an opportunity to review and comment on such document or response and must include in such document or response comments reasonably proposed by the other parties.

Table of Contents

Subject to the provisions of Section 5.02 of the merger agreement (discussed above under Solicitation), we are required to include in this proxy statement the recommendation of our board of directors of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger. Our board of directors is required to use its reasonable best efforts to solicit the approval of the merger by our stockholders.

Notification of Certain Matters

We are required to give prompt notice to Parent, and Parent is required to give prompt notice to us, of the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event, that is likely:

to cause any representation or warranty of that party contained in the merger agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect if made as of any time prior to the merger; or to result in any material failure of that party to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied under the merger agreement.

Financing

Prior to the merger, we will, and will cause our subsidiaries and representatives to, use reasonable best efforts to provide Parent and Merger Sub with all cooperation requested by Parent that is necessary, proper or advisable in connection with Parent's debt financing commitment letters and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including:

using reasonable best efforts to obtain accountants' comfort letters, legal opinions, surveys and title insurance that is reasonably requested by Parent;

taking all corporate actions necessary to permit the completion of the debt financing and to permit the proceeds from the debt financing, together with our and our subsidiaries' cash, to be made available to us on the closing date to complete the merger. We also consented to the use of our and our subsidiaries' logos in connection with the debt financing.

Parent has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange the debt financing on the terms and conditions described in the debt financing commitment letters, including using reasonable best efforts to:

negotiate definitive agreements with respect to the terms and conditions contained in the debt financing commitment letters or on other terms acceptable to Parent; and satisfy on a timely basis all conditions applicable to Parent in the definitive agreements relating to the debt financing that are within Parent's control.

In the event any part of the debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the debt financing commitment letters, Parent has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain alternative financing from alternative sources on terms not materially less beneficial to Parent and Merger Sub (as determined in the reasonable judgment of Parent) in an amount sufficient to complete the merger.

Subsequent Filings

Prior to the merger, we are obligated to timely file with the Securities and Exchange Commission all forms, reports and documents we are required to file under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and to deliver to Parent copies of each such report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. As of their respective dates, none of the reports will contain any untrue statement of a material fact, omit to state a material fact that is required to be stated in the reports or omit to state a material fact that is necessary to make the statements in the reports not misleading. Our audited consolidated financial statements and unaudited interim financial statements will fairly present, in all material respects, our and our consolidated subsidiaries' financial positions as at the dates of such reports, as well as the results of our operations and changes in financial position for the periods then ended.

If such release or announcement is required by law or the rules or regulations of any applicable United States securities exchange or regulatory or governmental body, the party required to make the release or announcement will use its reasonable best efforts to allow each other party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of the issuance of the release or announcement.

we have taken any action to exempt any person (other than Parent, Merger Sub and their respective affiliates) from the restrictions on business combinations contained in Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (or any similar provisions) or otherwise caused such restrictions not to apply; and

The termination fee is payable by the Company to Parent simultaneously with termination of the merger agreement if we terminate the merger agreement to enter into an agreement for a superior proposal prior to approval of the merger agreement by our stockholders.

Payable by Parent or Merger Sub

Merger Sub has agreed to pay a $40 million termination fee to us if we terminate the merger agreement as a result of a breach by Parent or Merger Sub of their obligations to close the merger and satisfy their obligations for payment for our shares of common stock and Parent and Merger Sub fail to close and satisfy these obligations because of a failure to receive the debt financing contemplated by the debt financing commitments referred to in the merger agreement (or because of their refusal to accept financing on terms not materially less beneficial to Parent and Merger Sub) and Parent and Merger Sub are not otherwise in breach of the merger agreement such that the conditions of the Company's obligations to complete the merger would not be satisfied. In these circumstances, the Company's right to terminate the merger agreement and receive the termination fee from Merger Sub will be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company and its affiliates against Parent, Merger Sub and any of their respective former, current and future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, members, managers, general or limited partners, assignees or agents for any loss or damage suffered as a result of the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement by Parent or Merger Sub and the failure of the merger to be completed.

Maximum Recovery

We have agreed that in no event will Parent, Merger Sub and their respective former, current and future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, members, managers, general or limited partners, assignees or agents be subject to liability in excess of $100 million in the aggregate for all losses and damages arising from or in connection with breaches by Parent or Merger Sub of their representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in the merger agreement.

Amendment, Extension and Waiver

Subject to applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended by the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, at any time before or after adoption by our stockholders of the merger agreement but, after stockholder approval, no amendment may be made which decreases the merger consideration or which adversely affects the rights of our stockholders under the merger agreement without the approval of our stockholders.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub may:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement by any other party or in any document, certificate or writing delivered pursuant to the merger agreement by any other party; and waive compliance by any other party with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

RIGHTS OF APPRAISAL

Under Delaware law, holders of shares of Aleris common stock who do not wish to accept the merger consideration may elect to have the fair value of their shares of Aleris common stock judicially determined and paid in cash, together with a fair rate of interest, if any. The valuation will exclude any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. A stockholder may only exercise these appraisal rights by strictly complying with the provisions of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the DGCL.

The following summary of the provisions of DGCL Section 262 is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the DGCL, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of DGCL Section 262, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C. If you wish to exercise appraisal rights or wish to preserve your right to do so, you should carefully review DGCL Section 262 and are urged to consult a legal advisor.

All references in DGCL Section 262 and in this summary to a stockholder are to the record holder of shares of Aleris common stock as to which appraisal rights are asserted. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Aleris common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow properly the steps summarized below and in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights.

Under DGCL Section 262, if a proposed merger is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, as in the case of Aleris's special meeting, Aleris, not less than twenty days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders entitled to appraisal rights that these appraisal rights are available and include in the notice a copy of DGCL Section 262. This proxy statement constitutes notice to the Aleris stockholders and the applicable statutory provisions of the DGCL are attached as Annex C to this proxy statement.

If you wish to exercise the right to demand appraisal under DGCL Section 262 of the DGCL, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

You must deliver to Aleris a written demand for appraisal of your shares of Aleris common stock before the vote on the merger agreement at Aleris's special meeting. This demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs Aleris of your identity and that you intend by that writing to demand the appraisal of your shares of Aleris common stock. Voting against, abstaining from voting on or failing to vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement will not alone constitute a written demand for appraisal within the meaning of DGCL Section 262. The written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy you deliver or vote you cast in person.

You must not vote your shares of Aleris common stock in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement. A proxy that does not contain voting instructions will, unless revoked, be voted in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement. Therefore, if you vote by proxy and wish to exercise appraisal rights, you must vote against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement or mark your proxy card to indicate that you abstain from voting on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

You must continuously hold your shares of Aleris common stock from the date of making the demand through the completion of the merger. If you are the record holder of shares of Aleris common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made but you thereafter transfer those shares prior to the completion of the merger, you will lose any right to appraisal in respect of those shares. Only a holder of record of shares of Aleris common stock is entitled to demand an exercise of appraisal rights for those shares registered in that holder's name. Therefore, demand for appraisal should be executed by or on behalf of the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as its name appears on the share transfer records of Aleris.

If the shares of Aleris common stock are owned of record by a person in a fiduciary capacity, such as a trustee, guardian or custodian, the demand should be executed in that capacity. If the shares of Aleris common stock are owned of record by more than one person as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all of the owners of record. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute a demand for appraisal on behalf of a stockholder; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is acting as agent for such owner or owners. A record holder, such as a broker, who holds shares as nominee for several beneficial owners may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners while not exercising these rights with respect to the shares held for one or more other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should set forth the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought, and where no number of shares is expressly mentioned the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record holder.

Stockholders who hold their shares of Aleris common stock in street name through brokerage accounts, banks or other nominee forms and who wish to exercise appraisal rights are urged to consult with their brokers, banks or other nominees to determine appropriate procedures for making a demand for appraisal.

A stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights under DGCL Section 262 should mail or deliver a written demand for appraisal to:

Aleris International, Inc.

Corporate Secretary

25825 Science Park Drive, Suite 400

Beachwood, Ohio 44122-7392

Within ten days after the completion of the merger, Aleris must send a notice as to the completion of the merger to each of Aleris's former stockholders who has made a written demand for appraisal in accordance with DGCL Section 262 and who has not voted to approve and adopt the merger agreement. At any time within 60 days after the completion of the merger, any stockholder who has demanded an appraisal has the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the merger agreement for such stockholder's shares of Aleris's common stock. Within 120 days after the completion of the merger, but not after that date, either Aleris or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of DGCL Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of Aleris common stock held by all stockholders demanding appraisal of their shares. Aleris is under no obligation to, and has no present intent to, file a petition for appraisal, and stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that Aleris will file a petition or that it will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of the shares. Accordingly, stockholders who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in DGCL Section 262. Since Aleris has no obligation to file a petition, the failure of affected stockholders to do so within the period specified could nullify any previous written demand for appraisal.

Within 120 days after the completion of the merger, any stockholder who complies with the provisions of DGCL Section 262 to that point in time will be entitled to receive from Aleris, upon written request, a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Aleris common stock not voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and with respect to which Aleris received demands for appraisal and the aggregate number of holders of those shares. Aleris must mail this statement to the stockholder by the later of ten days after receipt of the request and ten days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under DGCL Section 262. As used in this paragraph and throughout the remainder of this section, references to Aleris mean the corporation that survives the merger.

A stockholder who timely files a petition for appraisal with the Delaware Court of Chancery must serve a copy upon Aleris. Aleris must, within 20 days, file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded appraisal of their shares of Aleris common stock and who have not reached agreements with it as to the value of their shares. After notice to stockholders as may be ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing on the petition to determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares of Aleris common stock and who hold shares represented by certificates to submit their certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation on the certificates of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings, and if any stockholder fails to comply with the requirement, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After determining which stockholders are entitled to an appraisal, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the fair value of their shares of Aleris common stock. This value will exclude any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, but will include a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. The costs of the action may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and taxed upon the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems equitable. However, costs do not include attorneys' or expert witness fees. Upon application of a stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may also order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding be charged pro rata against the value of all of the shares entitled to appraisal. These expenses may include, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts. Stockholders considering seeking appraisal should be aware that the fair value of their shares as determined under DGCL Section 262 could be more than, the same as, or less than the value of the merger consideration they would be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their shares. Stockholders should also be aware that investment banking opinions as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a merger are not opinions as to fair value under DGCL Section 262.

In determining fair value and, if applicable, a fair rate of interest, the Delaware Court of Chancery is to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered, and that fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company .

DGCL Section 262 provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger . In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value , but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed DGCL Section 262 to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered . Any stockholder who has duly demanded an appraisal in compliance with DGCL Section 262 will not, after the completion of the merger, be entitled to vote the shares of Aleris common stock subject to that demand for any purpose or be entitled to the payment of dividends or other distributions on those shares. However, stockholders will be entitled to dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of shares of Aleris common stock as of a record date prior to the completion of the merger.

Any stockholder may withdraw its demand for appraisal and accept the merger consideration by delivering to Aleris a written withdrawal of the stockholder's demands for appraisal. Any attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the effectiveness of the merger will require the written approval of Aleris and no appraisal proceeding before the Delaware Court of Chancery as to any stockholder will be dismissed without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and this approval may be conditioned upon any terms the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just. If Aleris does not approve a stockholder's request to withdraw a demand for appraisal when the approval is required or if the Delaware Court of Chancery does not approve the dismissal of an appraisal proceeding, the stockholder would be entitled to receive only the appraised value determined in any such appraisal proceeding. This value could be higher or lower than, or the same as, the value of the merger consideration. Failure to strictly follow the steps required by DGCL Section 262 for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of appraisal rights, in which event dissenting Aleris stockholders will be entitled to receive the consideration with respect to their dissenting shares in accordance with the merger agreement. In view of the complexity of the provisions of DGCL Section 262, if you are considering exercising your appraisal rights under the DGCL, you are urged to consult your own legal advisor.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company has unanimously adopted resolutions approving the acquisition of the Company by Parent, the execution of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and recommending that the Company's stockholders adopt the agreement of merger (as such term is used in Section 251 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the Corporation Law)) contained in this Agreement and approve the transactions contemplated hereby;

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Parent and Merger Sub have each approved, and the Board of Directors of Merger Sub has declared it advisable for Merger Sub to enter into, this Agreement providing for the Merger in accordance with the Corporation Law, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;

WHEREAS, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, certain terms are used in this Agreement as defined subsequently in this Agreement (including Section 8.10);

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

SECTION 1.01. The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Corporation Law, at the Effective Time Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company (the Merger). The Company shall be the surviving corporation in the Merger (the Surviving Corporation) under the name Aleris International, Inc. and shall continue its existence under the Laws of the State of Delaware. In connection with the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease.

SECTION 1.02. Consummation of the Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the Closing) will take place at 10:00 a.m., local time, as promptly as practicable but in no event later than the second Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver (by the party entitled to grant such waiver) of the conditions (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) set forth in Article VI, at the offices of Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, One Liberty Plaza, New York, New York 10006; provided, however, that notwithstanding the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI as of any date, the parties shall not be required to effect the Closing until the earlier of (a) a date during the Marketing Period specified by Parent on no less than three Business Days' notice to the Company and (b) the final day of the Marketing Period (subject in each case to the satisfaction or waiver (by the party entitled to grant such waiver) of all of the conditions set forth in Article VI as of the date determined pursuant to this proviso); and provided further, however, that notwithstanding the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI, this Agreement may be terminated pursuant to and in accordance with Section 7.01 hereof such that the parties shall not be required to effect the Closing, regardless of whether the final day of the Marketing Period shall have occurred before such termination (or the Closing may be consummated at such other place or on such other date as Parent and the Company may mutually agree). The date of the Closing is referred to as the Closing Date. On or prior to the Closing Date and subject to the terms and conditions hereof, Merger Sub and the Company shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the Delaware Secretary) a duly executed and verified certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger), as required by the Corporation Law, and shall take all such further actions as may be required by Law to make the Merger effective. The time the Merger becomes effective in accordance with applicable Law is referred to as the Effective Time.

SECTION 1.03. Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth herein and in the applicable provisions of the Corporation Law.

SECTION 1.04. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Company shall, by virtue of the Merger, be amended and restated in its entirety to read as the Certificate of Incorporation of Merger Sub in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that Article I thereof shall read as follows: The name of the Corporation is Aleris International, Inc. and, as so amended, shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as permitted by Law. The Bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.05. Directors and Officers. The directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time and the officers of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors and officers, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation, and such directors and officers shall hold office in accordance with and subject to the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.06. Conversion of Shares. Each share of common stock of the Company, par value $0.10 per share (each, a Share and collectively, the Shares), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Shares owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any Subsidiary of Parent or the Company or held in the treasury of the Company, all of which shall be canceled without any consideration being exchanged therefor, and other than Dissenting Shares) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive in cash an amount per Share (subject to any applicable withholding Tax specified in Section 1.08) equal to $52.50 (fifty two dollars and fifty cents), without interest (the Merger Consideration), upon the surrender of the certificate representing such Shares as provided in Section 2.02. At the Effective Time all such Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of such Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided herein.

SECTION 1.07. Conversion of Common Stock of Merger Sub. Each share of common stock, $0.01 par value, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and become one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

SECTION 1.08. Withholding Taxes. Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to a holder of Shares, Options, Restricted Shares or Stock Units pursuant to the Merger or this Agreement any stock transfer Taxes and such amounts as are required to be withheld under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or any applicable provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

SECTION 1.09. Subsequent Actions. If at any time after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation shall consider or be advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, assurances or any other actions or things are necessary or desirable to continue, vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise the Surviving Corporation's right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties, privileges, franchises or assets of the Company as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger, or otherwise to carry out the intent of this Agreement, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company, all such deeds, bills of sale, assignments and assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of the Company or otherwise, all such other actions and things as may be necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm any and all right, title and interest in, to and under such rights, properties, privileges, franchises or assets in the Surviving Corporation or otherwise to carry out the intent of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

DISSENTING SHARES; PAYMENT FOR SHARES; OPTIONS

SECTION 2.01. Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and which are held by stockholders properly exercising appraisal rights available under Section 262 of the Corporation Law (the Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into or be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless and until such holders shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost their rights to appraisal under the Corporation Law. Dissenting Shares shall be treated in accordance with Section 262 of the Corporation Law. If any such holder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right to appraisal, such holder's Shares shall thereupon be converted into and become exchangeable only for the right to receive, as of the later of the Effective Time and the time that such right to appraisal shall have been irrevocably lost, withdrawn or expired, the Merger Consideration without any interest thereon. The Company shall give Parent and Merger Sub (a) prompt notice of any written demands for appraisal of any Shares, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the Corporation Law and received by the Company relating to rights to be paid the fair value of Dissenting Shares, as provided in Section 262 of the Corporation Law and (b) the opportunity to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under the Corporation Law. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, voluntarily make or agree to make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisals of capital stock of the Company, offer to settle or settle any such demands or approve any withdrawal of any such demands.

SECTION 2.02. Payment for Shares. (a) At the Effective Time, Parent will make available to a bank or trust company designated by Parent prior to the Effective Time and reasonably satisfactory to the Company (the Paying Agent) sufficient funds to make the payments due pursuant to Section 1.06 on a timely basis to holders of Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (such amounts being hereinafter referred to as the Payment Fund). The Payment Fund shall be invested in such manner as Parent shall reasonably direct. The Payment Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments due pursuant to Section 1.06, except as provided in this Agreement.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each record holder, as of the Effective Time, of an outstanding certificate or certificates (the Certificates) which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Shares (other than Shares owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any Subsidiary of Parent or the Company, Shares held in the treasury of the Company and Dissenting Shares), a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent) and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates and receiving payment therefor. Following surrender to the Paying Agent of a Certificate, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be paid in exchange therefor cash in an amount (subject to any applicable withholding Tax as specified in Section 1.08) equal to the product of the number of Shares represented by such Certificate multiplied by the Merger Consideration, and such Certificate shall forthwith be canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender of the Certificates. If payment is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate surrendered is registered, it shall be a condition of payment that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the payment to a Person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered or establish to the satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such Tax has been paid or is not applicable. From and after the Effective Time and until surrendered in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.02, each Certificate shall represent for all purposes solely the right to receive, in accordance with the terms hereof, the Merger Consideration in cash multiplied by the number of Shares evidenced by such Certificate, without any interest thereon.

(c) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration with respect to the Shares formerly represented thereby.

(d) Any portion of the Payment Fund (including the proceeds of any investments thereof) that remains unclaimed by the former stockholders of the Company for six months after the Effective Time shall be repaid to the Surviving Corporation. Any former stockholders of the Company who have not complied with this Section 2.02 prior to the end of such six-month period shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws) but only as general creditors thereof for payment of their claim for the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon. Neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any holder of Shares for any monies delivered from the Payment Fund or otherwise to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. If any Certificates shall not have been surrendered prior to one year after the Effective Time (or such earlier date as shall be immediately prior to the date that such unclaimed funds would otherwise become subject to any abandoned property, escheat or similar Law) any unclaimed funds payable with respect to such Certificates shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation, free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

SECTION 2.03. Closing of the Company's Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and no transfer of Shares shall thereafter be made. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation for transfer, they shall be canceled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Article II, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenting Shares.

SECTION 2.04. Treatment of Options. (a) The Company shall provide that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, each option to purchase Shares (an Option) granted under any Plan that is outstanding and unexercised as of the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall be canceled (provided that any such Options shall be canceled by the Company only to the extent permitted by the terms of the Plans and any agreements governing the Options, and otherwise the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cancel any such Options), and the holder thereof shall receive at the Effective Time from the Company, or as soon as practicable thereafter (but in no event later than five days after the Effective Time) from the Surviving Corporation, in consideration for such cancellation, an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the number of Shares previously subject to such Option and (B) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per Share previously subject to such Option, less any required withholding taxes.

(b) Each Share granted subject to vesting or other lapse restrictions pursuant to any Plan (collectively, Restricted Shares) which is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall vest and become free of such restrictions as of the Effective Time to the extent provided by the terms thereof (as such Plans may be amended prior to the Effective Time in accordance with the terms hereof) and at the Effective Time the holder thereof shall, subject to this Article II, be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration with respect to each such Restricted Share, less any required withholding taxes.

(c) Except with respect to those awards listed on Section 2.04(e) of the Disclosure Letter, which shall be treated as set forth in Section 2.04(e) below (the Stock Unit Awards), the Company shall provide that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, each award of a right under any Plan entitling the holder thereof to Restricted Shares, Shares or cash equal to or based on the value of Shares (collectively, Stock Units) which, in each case, is outstanding as of the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall be canceled by the Company (provided that any such Stock Unit shall be canceled by the Company only to the extent permitted by the terms of the Plans and any agreements governing the Stock Units and Section 409A of the Code, and otherwise the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cancel any such Stock Units) and the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive at the Effective Time from the Company, or as soon as practicable thereafter (but in no event later than five days after the Effective Time) from the Surviving Corporation, in consideration for such cancellation, an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the number of Shares previously subject to such Stock Unit and (B) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per Share, if any, previously subject to such Stock Unit, less any required withholding taxes.

(d) All account balances under the Company Deferred Compensation Plan, dated as of June 15, 2005 and the Company Retirement Benefit Restoration Plan, dated as of January 1, 2005 (the Deferred Compensation Plans) will be paid out in cash to participants therein by the Company at the Effective Time, or as soon as practicable thereafter (but in no event later than thirty days after the Effective Time) by the Surviving Corporation, less any required withholding taxes.

(e) The Stock Unit Awards listed on Section 2.04(e) of the Disclosure Letter shall remain outstanding and the Surviving Corporation shall make payments, if any, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the agreement evidencing the grant of such Stock Unit Awards (the Stock Unit Award Grant Agreement), including any provisions with respect to forfeiture, accelerated payment of such Stock Unit Awards in certain circumstances and the satisfaction of performance criteria. With respect to those Stock Unit Awards payable in Shares under the applicable Stock Unit Award Grant Agreement, in accordance with Section 12 of the Company 2004 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended, the Surviving Corporation shall pay to the grantee an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the number of Shares to which such grantee would have been entitled, if any, under the terms of the Stock Unit Award and (B) the Merger Consideration, less any required withholding taxes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the applicable Stock Unit Award Grant Agreement, the Stock Unit Awards listed on Section 2.04(e) of the Disclosure Letter that are identified therein as Performance Unit Grants to be Accelerated Pursuant to Section 2.04(e) of the Agreement (the Accelerated Awards) shall become fully vested as of the later of January 15, 2007 and the Business Day immediately following the Closing Date as if all performance targets had been satisfied with respect to such Accelerated Awards, and within ten (10) days of such later date, the Surviving Corporation shall pay to the grantee an amount in cash equal to the sum of (1) the product of (x) the number of Shares to which such grantee would have been entitled under the terms of the Accelerated Award and (y) the Merger Consideration, and (2) the cash portion of such grantee's Accelerated Award, if any, under the applicable Stock Unit Award Agreement evidencing such Accelerated Award, less any applicable withholding taxes.

SECTION 2.05. Further Actions. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the issued and outstanding Shares shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class by reason of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, reclassification, redenomination, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or other similar transaction, the Merger Consideration and any other dependent items shall be appropriately adjusted to provide to the holders of the Shares, Restricted Shares or Stock Units the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such action and as so adjusted shall, from and after the date of such event, be the Merger Consideration or other dependent item, subject to further adjustment in accordance with this Section 2.05.

OF THE COMPANY

Except as (a) disclosed in the section of the disclosure letter dated the date hereof and delivered by the Company to Parent with respect to this Agreement prior to the date hereof (the Disclosure Letter) that specifically relates to, or is reasonably apparent on its face to relate to, such Section of Article III below or (b) disclosed in the Company SEC Reports filed with or furnished to the SEC prior to the date of this Agreement (excluding all disclosures in any Risk Factors section; it being understood that the exclusion with respect to the Risk Factors section shall not be deemed a qualification of the matters expressly set out in the Disclosure Letter), the Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub as follows:

SECTION 3.01. Organization and Qualification. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries is a duly organized and validly existing corporation in good standing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation, with all corporate power and authority to own its properties and conduct its business as currently conducted and is duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign corporation authorized to do business in each of the jurisdictions in which the character of the properties owned or held under lease by it or the nature of the business transacted by it makes such qualification necessary, except as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect. The Company has heretofore made available to Parent (or, with respect to the Subsidiaries of the Company, will make available as soon as practicable after the date hereof) true, correct and complete copies of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws (or similar governing documents) as currently in effect for the Company and each of its Subsidiaries. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, owns any interest in any Person other than the Company's Subsidiaries.

SECTION 3.02. Capitalization. (a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 80,000,000 Shares and 8,000,000 shares of preferred stock of the Company, par value $0.10 per share (the Preferred Shares). As of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date hereof, 31,328,817 Shares (including 350,142 Restricted Shares) and no Preferred Shares were issued and outstanding, 67,364 Shares and no Preferred Shares were held in the Company's treasury and 3,050,873 Shares (not including Shares reserved for issuances for options and awards previously granted) and no Preferred Shares were reserved for issuance under the Plans. In addition, as of such date, there were outstanding (i) Options to purchase an aggregate of 1,545,899 Shares and no Preferred Shares and (ii) 219,191 Shares underlying other outstanding equity-based awards pursuant to any of the Benefit Plans. Since such date, the Company has not issued any Shares or Preferred Shares other than upon the exercise of Options outstanding on such date, has not granted any options, Restricted Shares, any other equity-based awards, warrants or rights or entered into any other agreements or commitments to issue any Shares or Preferred Shares and has not split, combined or reclassified any of its shares of capital stock. All of the outstanding Shares have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable and are free of preemptive rights. Section 3.02(a) of the Disclosure Letter contains a true, correct and complete list, as of the date hereof, of each Option, Restricted Share or other equity-based award outstanding, the number of Shares issuable thereunder, expiration date and exercise price related thereto and the plan pursuant to which each such Option, Restricted Share or other equity-based award was granted. Except for the Options, Restricted Shares or other equity-based awards described above, there are no outstanding (i) securities of the Company convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock or voting securities or ownership interests in the Company, (ii) options, warrants, rights or other agreements or commitments to acquire from the Company, or obligations of the Company to issue, any capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for capital stock or voting securities or other ownership interests in) the Company, (iii) obligations of the Company to grant, extend or enter into any subscription, warrant, right, convertible or exchangeable security or other similar agreement or commitment relating to any capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in the Company (the items in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), together with the capital stock of the Company and the Options, Restricted Shares and other equity-based awards, being referred to collectively as Company Securities) or (iv) obligations by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to make any payments directly or indirectly based (in whole or in part) on the price or value of either the Shares or Preferred Shares. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has any outstanding stock appreciation rights, phantom stock, performance based rights or similar rights or obligations. There are no outstanding obligations, commitments or arrangements, contingent or otherwise, of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any Company Securities. There are no voting trusts or other agreements or understandings to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party with respect to the voting of capital stock of the Company.

SECTION 5.06. Indemnification and Insurance. (a) Parent and Merger Sub agree that all rights to indemnification existing in favor of the current or former directors, officers and employees of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (the Indemnified Persons) as provided in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, or the articles of organization, bylaws or similar constituent documents of any of the Company's Subsidiaries as in effect as of the date hereof with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect for a period of not less than six years unless otherwise required by Law.

(c) This Section 5.06 shall survive the consummation of the Merger and is intended to benefit, and shall be enforceable by each Indemnified Person (notwithstanding that such Persons are not parties to this Agreement) and their respective heirs and legal representatives. The indemnification provided for herein shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which an Indemnified Person is entitled, whether pursuant to Law, contract or otherwise.

(d) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether arising before, at or after the Effective Time) is made against any Indemnified Person on or prior to the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, the provisions of this Section 5.06 shall continue in effect until the final disposition of such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation.

SECTION 5.07. Employee Matters. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, except as set forth below, the Company will, and will cause its Subsidiaries to, and from and after the Effective Time, Parent will, and will cause the Surviving Corporation to, honor, in accordance with their terms, all existing employment and severance agreements, plans, policies, or arrangements between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any officer, director or employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(b) Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and each of its Subsidiaries, for the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, to maintain with respect to each individual employed by the Company at the Effective Time other than those individuals covered by a collective bargaining agreement (the Current Employees) (other than Current Employees who have entered into or will enter into an individual employment agreement with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries) compensation and benefits provided under Plans that are in the aggregate no less favorable than the compensation and benefits maintained for and provided to such Current Employee immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding, for this purpose, equity-based compensation); provided, however, subject to the foregoing, that nothing herein shall prevent the amendment or termination of any Plan or interfere with the Surviving Corporation's right or obligation to make such changes as are necessary to conform with applicable Law. Nothing in this Section 5.07 shall limit the right of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their subsidiaries to terminate the employment of any Current Employee at any time.

(c) Parent will, and will cause the Surviving Corporation to, cause service rendered by Current Employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time to be taken into account for vesting and eligibility (but not for accrual purposes, except for vacation and severance, if applicable) under employee benefit plans of Parent, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, to the same extent as such service was taken into account under the corresponding Plans of the Company and its Subsidiaries for those purposes immediately prior to the Effective Time. Current Employees will not be subject to any pre-existing condition or eligibility limitations under any welfare plan (as defined in Section (3)(1) of ERISA) of Parent, the Surviving Corporation

Parent will, and will cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries, to give such Current Employees credit under such plans for co-payments made and deductibles and maximum out-of-pocket limitations satisfied prior to the Effective Time.

(d) No later than five Business Days prior to its distribution, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall provide Parent and Merger Sub with a copy of any communication intended to be made to any of their respective employees relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, and will provide an opportunity for Parent and Merger Sub to make reasonable revisions thereto.

SECTION 5.08. Takeover Laws. The Company shall, upon the request of Parent or Merger Sub, take all reasonable steps to exclude the applicability of, or to assist in any challenge to the validity or applicability to the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement of, any Takeover Laws.

SECTION 5.09. Proxy Statement; Other Filings. As soon as practicable after the date hereof, (a) the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC, subject to the prior review and approval of Parent (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), a Proxy Statement relating to the Merger and (b) each of the Company and Parent shall, or shall cause their respective Affiliates to, prepare and file with the SEC all Other Filings as required by the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Each of the Company and Parent shall obtain and furnish the information concerning itself and its Affiliates required to be included in the Proxy Statement and, to the extent applicable, the Other Filings. Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments received from the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings, and the Company shall cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Company's stockholders at the earliest practicable date. Each party shall promptly notify the other party upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings and shall provide the other party with copies of all correspondence between it, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand relating to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings. If at any time prior to the Special Meeting, any information relating to the Company, Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective affiliates, directors or officers, should be discovered by the Company or Parent which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings, so that the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of the Company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated above, prior to filing or mailing the Proxy Statement or filing the Other Filings (or, in each case, any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC or its staff with respect thereto, the party responsible for filing or mailing such document shall provide the other party an opportunity to review and comment on such document or response and shall include in such document or response comments reasonably proposed by the other party. Subject to Section 5.02, the Proxy Statement shall include the recommendation of the Board of Directors of the Company of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger and the Board of Directors shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit the approval of the agreement of merger (as such term is used in Section 251 of the Corporation Law) by the stockholders of the Company.

SECTION 5.10. Notification of Certain Matters. The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent, and Parent shall give prompt notice to the Company, of the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event, which is likely (a) to cause any representation or warranty of such party contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect if made as of any time at or prior to the Effective Time or (b) to result in any material failure of such party to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied hereunder; provided, however, that the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.10 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to any of the parties receiving such notice.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement, Marketing Period shall mean the first period of 60 consecutive calendar days after the Initiation Date (A) throughout and at the end of which (1) Parent and its Financing sources shall have the Required Information and (2) nothing has occurred and no condition exists that would cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 6.02(a) and 6.02(b) (other than the receipt of the certificates referred to therein) to fail to be satisfied assuming the Closing were to be scheduled for any time during such 60-consecutive-calendar-day period, and (B) throughout and at the end of which the conditions set forth in Section 6.01 shall be satisfied; provided, that the Marketing Period shall end on any earlier date that is the date on which the Debt Financing is consummated; and provided, further, that for purposes of calculating such 60 consecutive calendar day period, November 22 through November 24, 2006 and December 15 through December 31, 2006 shall not be counted or taken into account. For purposes of this Agreement, Initiation Date shall mean the later to occur of (A) the date the definitive Proxy Statement is first mailed to the Company's stockholders, (B) the date Parent and its Financing sources have received from the Company the Required Information and (C) the later of (x) November 10, 2006 and (y) the Business Day after the date the Company files with the SEC its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2006.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Marketing Period, as determined in accordance with Section 5.11(c) above, would otherwise end (i) after January 31, 2007 and on or before March 1, 2007 (if the Company is then a large accelerated filer for purposes of Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act (Rule 12b-2)) or on or before March 16, 2007 (if the Company is then an accelerated filer for purposes of Rule 12b-2), the Marketing Period shall be 45 consecutive calendar days and shall be deemed to commence on the later of (x) March 2, 2007 (if the Company is then a large accelerated filer for purposes of Rule 12b-2) or March 17, 2007 (if the Company is then an accelerated filer for purposes of Rule 12b-2) and (y) the Business Day after the date the Company files with the SEC its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and (ii) between May 1, 2007 and May 10, 2007, the Marketing Period shall be 45 consecutive calendar days and shall be deemed to commence on the later of (x) May 11, 2007 and (y) the Business Day after the date the Company files with the SEC its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2007, but the other provisions of Section 5.11(c) shall continue to apply.

SECTION 5.12. Subsequent Filings. Until the Effective Time, the Company will timely file with the SEC each form, report and document required to be filed by the Company under the Exchange Act and will promptly deliver to Parent copies of each such report filed with the SEC. As of their respective dates, none of such reports shall contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The audited consolidated financial statements and unaudited interim financial statements of the Company included in such reports shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP applied on a consistent basis (except as may be indicated in the notes thereto) and shall fairly present, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company and its consolidated Subsidiaries as at the dates thereof and the results of their operations and changes in financial position for the periods then ended.

SECTION 5.13. Press Releases. Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub agrees that no public release or announcement concerning the transactions contemplated hereby shall be issued by any party without the prior written consent of the Company and Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except as such release or announcement may be required by Law or the rules or regulations of any applicable United States securities exchange or regulatory or governmental body to which the relevant party is subject or submits, wherever situated, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use its reasonable best efforts to allow each other party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance, it being understood that the final form and content of any such release or announcement, to the extent so required, shall be at the final discretion of the disclosing party.

(v) concurrently with such termination the Company pays the Fee in accordance with Section 7.03(b)(iii).

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) or (h) of this Section 7.01 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party in accordance with Section 8.05, specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) If (i)(A) either Parent or the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(d), and, at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Special Meeting, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly disclosed and shall not have been irrevocably withdrawn prior to the Special Meeting, (B) Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(f) and, at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the breach giving rise to Parent's right to terminate under Section 7.01(f), an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated to the senior management or the Board of Directors of the Company and shall not have been irrevocably withdrawn prior to the breach giving rise to Parent's right to terminate under Section 7.01(f), or (C) Parent or the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(c) and, at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the termination of this Agreement, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated to the senior management or the Board of Directors of the Company and shall not have been irrevocably withdrawn prior to the termination of this Agreement, and (ii) within 12 months after this termination, the Company enters into an agreement in respect of any Acquisition Proposal or a transaction in respect of an Acquisition Proposal is consummated, then the Company shall pay to Parent the Fee (minus any amount of Expenses previously paid in accordance with Section 7.03(b)(iv) below), by wire transfer of same day funds, on the date of the agreement in respect of the Acquisition Proposal, or, if earlier, consummation of the transaction in respect of the Acquisition Proposal, as applicable; provided that for purposes of this Section 7.03(b)(i), (x) the term Acquisition Proposal shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 5.02(g), except that the references to 20% shall be deemed to be references to 50%.

(ii) (A) if the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(e) as a result of a breach by Parent or Merger Sub of its respective obligation to effect the Closing pursuant to Section 1.02 hereof and satisfy its obligations under Article II, including depositing (or causing to be deposited) with the Paying Agent sufficient funds to make all payments pursuant to Section 2.02 and (B) Parent and Merger Sub fail to effect the Closing and satisfy such obligations because of a failure to receive the proceeds of one or more of the debt financings contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitments or because of their refusal to accept debt financing on terms materially less beneficial to Merger Sub than the terms set forth in one or more of the Debt Financing Commitments, then Merger Sub shall pay $40,000,000 (forty million dollars) (the Merger Sub Termination Fee) to the Company or as directed by the Company as promptly as reasonably practicable (and, in any event, within three (3) Business Days following such termination).

Table of Contents

(iii) if (a) Parent terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(g) or (b) the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(h), then the Company shall pay to Parent either simultaneously with (in the case of termination by the Company pursuant to subclause (b) of this section) or as promptly as practicable after (in the case of termination by Parent pursuant to subclause (a) of this section) such termination, the Fee.

(iv) If either Parent or the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.01(d), then the Company shall pay to Parent an amount equal to the sum of Parent's and Merger Sub's reasonably documented Expenses (such Expenses not to exceed $10,000,000 (ten million dollars)) by wire transfer of same day funds, within two (2) Business Days of such termination.

(c) Fee means an amount in cash equal to $40,000,000 (forty million dollars), which Fee shall be paid (when due and owing) by the Company to Parent by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated by Parent.

(d) Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 7.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Fee or Expenses when due or Parent or Merger Sub shall fail to pay the Merger Sub Termination Fee when due, the Company or Merger Sub and Parent, as the case may be, shall reimburse the other party for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred or accrued by such other party (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of this Section 7.03.

SECTION 7.04. Maximum Recovery. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, (i) (A) in the event that Parent or Merger Sub breaches its respective obligation to effect the Closing pursuant to Section 1.02 hereof and satisfy its obligations under Article II including depositing (or causing to be deposited) with the Paying Agent sufficient funds to make all payments pursuant to Section 2.02 and (B) Parent and Merger Sub fail to effect the Closing and satisfy such obligations because of a failure to receive the proceeds of one or more of the debt financings contemplated by the Debt Financing Commitments or because of their refusal to accept debt financing on terms materially less beneficial to Merger Sub than the terms set forth in one or more of the Debt Financing Commitments (and Parent and Merger Sub are not otherwise in breach of this Agreement, including their respective obligations pursuant to Section 5.11) such that the condition set forth in Section 6.03(b) would not be satisfied, then the Company's right to terminate this Agreement and receive the Merger Sub Termination Fee from Merger Sub shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company and its Affiliates against Parent, Merger Sub and any of their respective former, current and future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, members, managers, general or limited partners, assignees or agents for any loss or damage suffered as a result of the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement by Parent or Merger Sub and the failure of the Merger to be consummated, and upon payment of such amount, no Person shall have any rights under any Equity Financing Commitments, whether at law or equity, in contract, in tort or otherwise, and none of Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective former, current and future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, members, managers, general or limited partners, assignees or agents shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) in no event shall Parent, Merger Sub and their respective former, current and future direct or indirect equity holders, controlling persons, Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, members, managers, general or limited partners, assignees or agents be subject to liability in excess of $100,000,000 (one hundred million dollars) in the aggregate for all losses and damages arising from or in connection with breaches by Parent or Merger Sub of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 7.05. Amendment. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, this Agreement may be amended by the Company, Parent and Merger Sub, at any time before or after adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company but, after any such stockholder approval, no amendment shall be made which decreases the Merger Consideration or which adversely affects the rights of the Company's stockholders hereunder without the approval of the stockholders of the Company. This Agreement may not be amended, changed, supplemented or otherwise modified except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of all of the parties.

SECTION 7.06. Extension; Waiver; Remedies. (a) At any time prior to the Effective Time, each party hereto may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein by any other applicable party or in any document, certificate or writing delivered pursuant hereto by any other applicable party or (iii) waive compliance by any party with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of any party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

(b) All rights, powers and remedies provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at law or in equity shall be cumulative and not alternative, and the exercise of any thereof by any party shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise of any other such right, power or remedy by such party. The failure of any party hereto to exercise any rights, power or remedy provided under this Agreement or otherwise available in respect hereof at law or in equity, or to insist upon compliance by any other party hereto with its obligations hereunder, and any custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, shall not constitute a waiver by such party of its right to exercise any such or other right, power or remedy or to demand such compliance.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 8.01. Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties made in Articles III and IV or any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall not survive beyond the Effective Time. The Agreement shall not be assigned by any party by operation of law or otherwise without the prior written consent of the other parties, provided, that Parent or Merger Sub may assign any of their respective rights and obligations to any direct or indirect Subsidiary of Parent, but no such assignment shall relieve Parent or Merger Sub, as the case may be, of its obligations hereunder.

SECTION 8.03. Jurisdiction; Venue. Each of the parties hereto (a) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of any Delaware state or Federal court located in the City of Wilmington in the event any dispute arises out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated by this Agreement, (b) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court, (c) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or any transaction contemplated by this Agreement in any court other than any such court and (d) waives any right to trial by jury with respect to any action related to or arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated by this Agreement. The parties irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in Delaware state or Federal courts located in the City of Wilmington, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waive and agree not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

Opinion of Citigroup Global Markets Inc.

[LETTERHEAD OF CITIGROUP GLOBAL MARKETS INC.]

August 7, 2006

The Board of Directors

Aleris International, Inc.

25825 Science Park Drive, Suite 400

Beachwood, Ohio

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the common stock of Aleris International, Inc. (Aleris) of the Merger Consideration (as defined below) provided for pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 7, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), among Aurora Acquisition Holdings, Inc. (Parent), an affiliate of Texas Pacific Group (TPG), Aurora Acquisition Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and Aleris. As more fully described in the Merger Agreement, (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Aleris (the Merger) and (ii) each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of Aleris (Aleris Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive $52.50 in cash (the Merger Consideration).

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed the Merger Agreement and held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of Aleris and certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of TPG concerning the business, operations and prospects of Aleris. We examined certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Aleris as well as certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Aleris which were provided to or otherwise discussed with us by the management of Aleris. We reviewed the financial terms of the Merger as set forth in the Merger Agreement in relation to, among other things: current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Aleris Common Stock; the historical and projected earnings and other operating data of Aleris; and the capitalization and financial condition of Aleris. We analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations we considered relevant in evaluating those of Aleris and also analyzed the projected future cash flows of Aleris under alternative industry scenarios based on financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or discussed with us by the management of Aleris. In connection with our engagement and at the direction of Aleris, we were requested to approach, and we held discussions with, selected financial buyers prior to the date hereof to solicit indications of interest in the possible acquisition of Aleris and have been requested to solicit such indications of interest from strategic buyers for a limited period after the date of the Merger Agreement as permitted under the provisions thereof. In addition to the foregoing, we conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as we deemed appropriate in arriving at our opinion.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed and relied, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us and upon the assurances of the management of Aleris that it is not aware of any relevant information that has been omitted or that remains undisclosed to us. With respect to financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Aleris provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us, we have been advised by the management of Aleris, and we have assumed, with your consent, that such forecasts and other information and data were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Aleris as to the future financial performance of Aleris under the alternative industry scenarios reflected therein. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with its terms, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement, and in compliance with all applicable laws, and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Aleris or the Merger. We have not made or been provided with an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Aleris nor have we made any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Aleris. Our opinion does not address any terms or other aspects or implications of the Merger (other than the Merger Consideration to the extent expressly specified herein) or any aspects or implications of any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise. We express no view as to, and our opinion does not address, the underlying business decision of Aleris to effect the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Aleris or the effect of any other transaction in which Aleris might engage. Our opinion is necessarily based upon information available to us, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing and disclosed to us, as of the date hereof.

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. has acted as financial advisor to Aleris in connection with the proposed Merger and will receive a fee for such services, a portion of which is payable in connection with the delivery of this opinion and a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. We and our affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide, services to Aleris and certain of its affiliates, for which services we and such affiliates have received, and expect to receive, compensation, including having acted as (i) financial advisor to Aleris in connection with certain acquisition transactions and (ii) joint lead arranger and joint book-runner in connection with certain credit facilities and note offerings of Aleris and certain of its affiliates. We and our affiliates in the past also have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide, services to TPG and certain of its affiliates, for which services we and our affiliates have received, and expect to receive, compensation, including (i) acting as financial advisor to TPG and certain of its portfolio companies in connection with certain spin-off, sale and acquisition transactions, (ii) having acted as joint book-running, lead or other managing underwriter for certain portfolio companies of TPG in connection with various securities offerings and asset-backed or other securitization transactions and (iii) having acted as a lender under, and as joint lead arranger, joint book-runner and co-syndication or co-documentation agent in connection with, various credit facilities of certain portfolio companies of TPG. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Aleris and certain portfolio companies of TPG for our own account or for the account of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, we and our affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with Aleris, TPG and their respective affiliates.

Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information of the Board of Directors of Aleris in its evaluation of the proposed Merger, and our opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, our experience as investment bankers, our work as described above and other factors we deemed relevant, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Aleris Common Stock.

Very truly yours,

/s/ CITIGROUP GLOBAL MARKETS INC.

ANNEX C

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW

OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

§ 262. Appraisal Rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

Table of Contents

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter, shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation.

of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
