Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On October 25, 2006, during a conference call concerning the results of operations and financial condition for the third quarter 2006 and forward-looking statements for the fiscal year 2006 of K2 Inc. (K2), and in connection with filing its earnings release on October 25, 2006 on a current report on Form 8-K, K2 provided the following information in response to questions from investors and analysts:

In the Team Sports segment, the after tax effect on the gain of the sale of stock received in a customer bankruptcy settlement was approximately $1.1 million.

K2 has entered into a definitive acquisition agreement to acquire the inflatable products business of Sevylor, Inc. and certain of its affiliates. The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including foreign regulatory review, and is expected to close in the fourth quarter 2006. K2 expects that if this acquisition were to close in the fourth quarter, such acquisition would likely have a slightly dilutive effect on K2's earnings in the fourth quarter 2006. K2 noted, however, that the transaction was not material to its business, results of operation or financial condition. K2 expects to fund this acquisition with cash.

The above statements include forward-looking statements. K2 cautions that these statements are qualified by important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, including but not limited to K2's ability to successfully execute its acquisition plans and growth strategy, integration of acquired businesses, weather conditions, consumer spending, continued success of manufacturing in China, global economic conditions, product demand, financial market performance, and other risks described in K2's most recent annual report on Form 10-K, subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and current reports on Form 8-K, each as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. K2 cautions that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive, any forward-looking statements included in this news release is made as of the date of the statement, and K2 does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement.
