PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

(Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K could not be filed on or before the prescribed due date, March 16, 2007, without unreasonable effort and expense, as a result of delays experienced in preparing its financial statements and related narrative disclosures for inclusion in Form 10-K. These delays relate primarily to additional work required by the Registrant resulting from compliance with SEC rules which first became applicable to the Registrant as of the end of its 2006 fiscal year. Specifically, the Registrant is now required to provide disclosures relating to the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006. The Registrant intends to complete its filing as soon as possible, but in no event later than fifteen days from the original due date for its 2006 Form 10-K.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant anticipates an increase in revenue for Fiscal 2006 as compared to the prior fiscal year. The Registrant also anticipates reporting an increase in net income for Fiscal 2006, as compared to the prior fiscal year. However, these changes cannot be expressed quantitatively until all final financial data has been finalized by the Registrant.
