PROXY STATEMENT

Our Board of Directors is sending you this proxy statement to ask for your vote as a stockholder of TransDigm Group Incorporated on certain matters to be voted on at the upcoming annual meeting of stockholders, which will be held at 1301 East Ninth Street, 4th Floor, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, on Friday, February 15, 2008, at 9:00 a.m., local time. We are mailing this proxy statement and the accompanying notice and proxy, along with our Annual Report to Stockholders, on or about January 16, 2008. TransDigm Group Incorporated is referred to herein as TD Group or the Company .

ABOUT THE MEETING

What Is the Purpose of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders?

At the Company s annual meeting of stockholders, stockholders will act upon matters outlined in the accompanying notice of meeting, including the election of two directors. We are not aware of any other matter that will be presented for your vote at the meeting.

Who Is Entitled to Vote?

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date, January 3, 2008, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote the shares of common stock that they held on the record date at the meeting, or any postponement or adjournment of the meeting. Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote on each matter to be voted on. As of the record date, the Company had outstanding 47,447,867 shares of common stock.

Who Can Attend the Meeting?

Only stockholders as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the meeting. Please note that if you hold your shares in street name (that is, through a broker or other nominee), your name does not appear in the Company s records, and you will need to bring a copy of your brokerage statement reflecting your ownership of shares of common stock as of the record date.

When and Where Is the Meeting?

The meeting will be held at 1301 East Ninth Street, 4th Floor, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, on Friday, February 15, 2008, at 9:00 a.m., local time.

Who is soliciting my proxy?

This solicitation of proxies is made by and on behalf of TD Group s Board of Directors. TD Group will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, regular employees of TD Group and its subsidiaries may solicit proxies by telephone or facsimile. Those employees will not receive any additional compensation for their participation in the solicitation.

How do I vote by proxy?

Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, TD Group urges you to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy form and to return it in the envelope provided. Returning the proxy form will not affect your right to attend the Annual Meeting.

If you properly complete your proxy form and send it to TD Group in time to vote, your proxy (one of the individuals named in the proxy form) will vote your shares as you have directed. If you sign the proxy form but do not make specific choices, your proxy will vote your shares as recommended by the Board of Directors to elect the director nominees listed in Election of Directors.

If any other matter is presented, your proxy will vote in accordance with his best judgment. As of the date of this proxy statement, TD Group is not aware of other matters to be acted on at the Annual Meeting other than those matters described in this proxy statement.

May I revoke my proxy?

If you give a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by giving written notice to TD Group at its principal executive offices located at 1301 East Ninth Street, Suite 3710, Cleveland, Ohio 44114, or by giving notice to TD Group in open meeting. It is important to note that your presence at the Annual Meeting, without any further action on your part, will not revoke your previously granted proxy.

What constitutes a quorum?

The presence at the Annual Meeting, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the aggregate number of shares of common stock outstanding on the record date will represent a quorum permitting the conduct of business at the meeting. Proxies received by TD Group marked as abstentions or broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting.

What vote is required to approve each proposal assuming that a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting?

The two nominees receiving the greatest number of votes FOR election will be elected as directors. If you do not vote for a particular nominee, or if you indicate Withhold Authority for a particular nominee on your proxy form, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the Annual Meeting, unless you specify otherwise, the shares of common stock represented by your proxy will be voted to re-elect Messrs. Hennessy and Peacock. The two nominees receiving the most votes will be elected as directors. If elected, each nominee will serve as a director for a three-year term and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

Because the Company is no longer a controlled company, in accordance with New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) listing standards, the Company will need to have a majority of independent directors by May 2008. In light of that requirement and because of Warburg Pincus 's reduced ownership in TD Group, Kevin Kruse is not standing for re-election and has informed us that he intends to resign immediately following the Annual Meeting. In addition, Kewsong Lee has informed us that he intends to resign immediately following the Annual Meeting because of Warburg Pincus 's reduced ownership. As a result, after the Annual Meeting, the board will have two vacancies, which may or may not be filled by the Board of Directors by an independent director.

If for any reason either of the nominees is not a candidate when the election occurs (which is not expected), the Board of Directors intends that proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors as recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The following information is furnished with respect to each person nominated for election as a director.

How Often Did the Board Meet in Fiscal 2007?

During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, the Board of Directors held six meetings. Each director attended more than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board of Directors and committees on which he served in fiscal 2007. The Company has not established a formal policy regarding director attendance at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. However, the Company expects that directors will attend if possible. One director attended the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders.

How is the Board Compensated?

Employees of the Company who are also directors are not paid any director fees. In 2007, compensation for non-employee directors included the following:

An annual retainer fee of $30,000, with such fee being paid, at the option of each director, either in cash or shares of our common stock, paid semi-annually in arrears.

A $10,000 annual stock grant, paid in advance, in the form of stock options or restricted stock as determined by the Board of Directors, which shall vest evenly over a three-year period from the date of grant.

A fee of $2,500 for each meeting of the Board of Directors attended, paid semi-annually.

A fee of $1,000 for each meeting of any committee of the Board of Directors attended, paid semi-annually.

An additional retainer of $15,000 to the chairman of the Audit Committee, paid semi-annually in arrears.

An additional retainer of $5,000 to the chairmen of the Compensation and Nominating and Governance Committees, paid semi-annually in arrears.

In addition, pursuant to an agreement entered into in 1999 between TransDigm Inc. and Mr. Peacock, TransDigm is obligated to provide Mr. Peacock and his wife medical insurance coverage comparable to that he was receiving at the time of his retirement. In light of the Company's transition to self-insurance, in 2007 TransDigm Inc. and Mr. Peacock entered into an understanding whereby TransDigm Inc. would satisfy its obligations under the 1999 agreement by paying for Mr. Peacock's Medicare supplemental coverage and Mrs. Peacock's medical insurance coverage and for dental coverage, less the amount of any Company employee portion of premium under the Company's self-insurance program as if Mr. and Mrs. Peacock were covered under TransDigm's benefit plans. The Company also agreed to retain for Mr. and Mrs. Peacock a health insurance consultant to assist Mr. and Mrs. Peacock in evaluating coverage and handling the administrative burden of the Medicare and insurance enrollment process at the outset and thereafter managing claims issues. These payments are made on a grossed-up basis for federal income tax purposes, but no gross-up payment related to fiscal 2007 has yet been made. The cost of services and reimbursement of coverage thereunder in fiscal 2007 was $9,219.

The following table sets forth the compensation paid to our non-employee directors during 2007:

This code requires Senior Financial Officers to act with honesty and integrity; to endeavor to provide information that is full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable in all reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other public filings or communications made by the Company; to endeavor to comply faithfully with all laws, rules and regulations of federal, state and local governments and all applicable private or public regulatory agencies as well as all applicable professional codes of conduct; to not knowingly or recklessly misrepresent material facts or allow their independent judgment to be compromised; to not use for personal advantage confidential information acquired in the course of their employment; to proactively promote ethical behavior among peers and subordinates in the work place; and to promptly report any violation or suspected violation of this code in accordance with the Company's Whistleblower Policy and, if appropriate, directly to the Audit Committee. Only the Audit Committee or the Board of Directors, including a majority of the independent directors, may waive any provision of the code with respect to a Senior Financial Officer. Any such waiver, or any amendment to the code, will be promptly disclosed on the Company's website and as otherwise required by rule or regulation. The policy sets forth procedures for the reporting of alleged financial (including auditing, accounting and internal control matters) and non-financial wrongdoing by employees on a confidential and anonymous basis and by other interested third parties, and a process for investigating such reported acts of alleged wrongdoing and retaliation. Reports may be made directly to the Chief Financial Officer, the Audit Committee or to Business Controls, Inc., a third party service retained on behalf of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee receives notices of complaints reported under the policy and oversees the investigation of such complaints. The Whistleblower Policy is posted on the Company's website, www.transdigm.com, under Investor Relations Corporate Governance.

Board Composition

The Board of Directors of TD Group is divided into three staggered classes of directors of the same or nearly the same number. At each annual meeting of stockholders, a class of directors will be elected for a three-year term to succeed the directors of the same class whose terms are then expiring. The terms of the directors will expire upon election and qualification of successor directors at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held during the years 2010 for the Class I directors, 2008 for the Class II directors and 2009 for the Class III directors.

Our Class I directors are Messrs. Dunn, Graff and Lee (who has informed us that he intends to resign immediately following the Annual Meeting because of Warburg Pincus's reduced ownership in TD Group);

Our Class II directors are Messrs. Kruse (who is not standing for re-election and has informed us that he intends to resign immediately following the Annual Meeting because of Warburg Pincus's reduced ownership in TD Group), Hennessy and Peacock; and

Our Class III directors are Messrs. Barr, Howley and Sheffler.

TD Group's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be fixed from time to time by a resolution of the majority of its Board of Directors. Any additional directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors will be distributed among the three classes so that, as nearly as possible, each class shall consist of one-third of the directors. The division of TD Group's Board of Directors into three classes with staggered three-year terms may delay or prevent a change of our management or a change in control.

In addition, under the terms of the stockholders' agreement, for so long as Warburg Pincus and its affiliates beneficially own at least 25% of our outstanding shares of common stock, TD Group is required to nominate and use its best efforts to have elected to its Board of Directors a number of individuals designated by Warburg Pincus that is equal to the greater of (i) three and (ii) a number of directors (rounded up to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of members of our Board of Directors multiplied by the percentage of the outstanding shares of our common stock that Warburg Pincus and its affiliates beneficially own as of the date of nomination of directors to its Board of Directors, or the Warburg Percentage. In addition, under the terms of the stockholders' agreement, for so long as Warburg Pincus and its affiliates beneficially own at least ten percent but less than 25% of our outstanding shares of common stock, TD Group is required to nominate and use its best efforts to have elected to its Board of Directors a number of individuals designated by Warburg Pincus that is equal to the greater of (i) two and (ii) a number of directors (rounded up to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of members of our Board of Directors multiplied by the Warburg Percentage as of the date of nomination of directors to its Board of Directors. Finally, under the terms of the stockholders' agreement, for so long as Warburg Pincus and its affiliates beneficially own at least five percent but less than ten percent of our outstanding shares of common stock, TD Group is required to nominate and use its best efforts to have elected to its Board of Directors a number of individuals designated by Warburg Pincus that is equal to the greater of (i) one and (ii) a number of directors (rounded up to the nearest whole number) equal to the number of members of its Board of Directors multiplied by the Warburg Percentage as of the date of nomination of directors to its Board of Directors.

TD Group is also party to an employment agreement with W. Nicholas Howley, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, pursuant to which TD Group has agreed to nominate Mr. Howley for re-election to its Board of Directors. Under the terms of this agreement, Warburg Pincus has agreed to vote all of the shares it controls in favor of Mr. Howley's re-election.

Stockholder Communication with Board of Directors

Any stockholder or other interested party who desires to communicate with any of the members of the Company's Board of Directors may do so electronically by sending an email to ir@transdigm.com. Alternatively, an individual may communicate with the members of the Board by writing to the Company, c/o Investor Relations, TransDigm Group Incorporated, 1301 East Ninth Street, Suite 3710, Cleveland, Ohio 44114. Communications may be addressed to an individual director, a Board committee, the non-management directors or the full Board of Directors. Communications received by Investor Relations will be distributed to the appropriate directors. Solicitations for the sale of merchandise, publications or services of any kind will not be forwarded to the directors.

Independence of Directors

Messrs. Dunn, Hennessy, Peacock and Sheffler are considered independent directors within the meaning of the NYSE's listing standards. In determining that Mr. Peacock was independent, the Board considered the insurance arrangement described in this proxy statement under Director Compensation.

Prior to the Company's follow-on secondary offering in May 2007, the Company was a controlled company within the meaning of the NYSE's listing standards and therefore was not required to comply with certain corporate governance requirements, such as maintaining a majority of independent directors and a compensation committee and nominating committee comprised solely of independent directors. The Company is now in a transition period with respect to such requirements. Accordingly, in accordance with NYSE rules, the Company plans to have a majority of independent directors through a combination of the appointment of one or more additional independent directors and the resignation of one or more of the directors affiliated with Warburg Pincus by May 21, 2008.

The Board of Directors reviews periodically the relationships that each director or nominee has with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). Those directors or nominees whom the Board affirmatively determines have no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) as specified in the listing standards of the NYSE will be considered independent.

Presiding Director

Mr. Barr is our Presiding Director, who leads meetings of the non-management directors and otherwise acts as chair of Board meetings in Mr. Howley's absence.

Board Meetings

After each meeting of the Board of Directors, non-management directors meet independently of the Chairman of the Board. In fiscal 2007, the non-management directors met after each regularly scheduled Board meeting. In addition, as required by the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the independent directors meet at least once a year.

Board Committees

During fiscal 2007, the Board of Directors had an Executive Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and an Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has approved the written charters of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which can be found under the Investor Relations Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at www.transdigm.com. Each of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee conducts a self evaluation and review of its charter annually.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee, which consists of Messrs. Howley (Chairman), Lee and Barr, possesses the power of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Company during the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee held no formal meetings during fiscal 2007, although it did act by unanimous written consent.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee oversees and assists our Board of Directors in identifying, reviewing and recommending nominees for election as directors; evaluates our Board of Directors and our management; develops, reviews and recommends corporate governance guidelines and a corporate code of business conduct and ethics; and generally advises our Board of Directors on corporate governance and related matters. Our Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which is available on our website, www.transdigm.com, under Investor Relations Corporate Governance. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held four meetings during fiscal year 2007.

TD Group's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of Messrs. Peacock, Graff and Dunn. Mr. Barr also served on the Committee until July 2007 and Mr. Lee served on the Committee until May 2007. Mr. Sheffler also served on the Committee between May 2007 and September 19, 2007. Mr. Graff is not independent under the rules of the NYSE. In accordance with NYSE listing standards, prior to May 21, 2008, we plan to replace Mr. Graff as a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee with an independent director so that all of TD Group's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee members will be independent as such term is defined in the NYSE rules.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider suggestions forwarded by stockholders to the Secretary of the Company concerning qualified candidates for election as directors. To recommend a prospective nominee for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's consideration, a stockholder may submit the candidate's name and qualifications to the Company's Secretary, Gregory Rufus, at the following address: TransDigm Group Incorporated, 1301 East Ninth Street, Suite 3710, Cleveland, Ohio 44114 between October 18, 2008 and November 17, 2008. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not established specific minimum qualifications a candidate must have in order to be recommended to the Board of Directors. However, in determining qualifications for new directors, the Committee will consider potential members' qualifications as independent under the NYSE's listing standards, as well as diversity, age, skill and experience in the context of the needs of the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider a pool of potential Board candidates established from recommendations from stockholders and third parties, including management and current directors. Although the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may retain a Board search consultant to supplement the pool of potential Board candidates, it has not engaged a consultant at this time.

Audit Committee

TD Group's Audit Committee oversees a broad range of issues surrounding our accounting and financial reporting processes and audits of our financial statements. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Executive Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The compensation of the Company's executive officers is currently determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board. Currently the Compensation Committee is comprised of Sean Hennessey, David Barr and Dudley Sheffler. Mr. Hennessey replaced Kevin Kruse on the Compensation Committee in July 2007 and Mr. Sheffler filled a vacancy in the Committee in April 2007. Salary decisions impacting fiscal year 2007 were made by Messrs. Kruse and Barr. Bonus decisions were made by the Committee as currently comprised.

Objectives of the Executive Compensation Program

The primary objective of the Compensation Committee in determining executive compensation is to provide a competitive total compensation package that enables the Company to attract and retain qualified executives and create a strong incentive to increase the Company's equity value.

In light of the Compensation Committee's objective, the Compensation Committee determines executive compensation consistent with a philosophy of compensating executive officers based on their responsibilities, the Company's performance and the achievement of established annual goals. The primary components of the Company's executive compensation program are (i) base salaries, (ii) discretionary bonuses, (iii) grants of stock options, including predominantly performance based options, and (iv) retirement and welfare benefits, although the executive compensation program is heavily weighted towards compensation through options with a performance component. Each of these components operates within an integrated total compensation program to ensure that executives are compensated equitably, both from an internal and external perspective. Each of these elements is discussed below.

TransDigm Group was a privately held company until March of 2006. As a private equity portfolio company, management had an opportunity to earn a significant amount of compensation based on its equity ownership in the Company. The Committee believes this ownership mentality contributes significantly to incentivize and motivate management to create stockholder value. Because of this opportunity to realize a significant appreciation in the Company's equity value, the Committee has historically provided, and intends to continue to provide, executive officers with a cash compensation package that compensates them below the median cash compensation in the marketplace based on the Committee's knowledge of compensation practices within the industry and publicly available information. The Committee intends to continue to emphasize and reward this ownership mentality, although structuring a similar compensation package as the Company grows and operates as a public company will be one of the Committee's challenges in 2008 and going forward. To that end, the Compensation Committee has engaged Towers Perrin, a nationally recognized consulting firm, to assist the Compensation Committee with designing an equity-based incentive compensation plan for management and we hope to implement this in fiscal 2008.

The Compensation Committee has overall responsibility for establishing, implementing, and monitoring the executive compensation program for executive officers and operating unit Presidents. Salary and target bonus amounts, as well as option awards, for all officers other than Mr. Howley are recommended by Mr. Howley to the Compensation Committee for its approval. The Compensation Committee reviews Mr. Howley's recommendations in light of each operating unit's proposed budget and annual plan and each officer's performance evaluations. The Compensation Committee determines Mr. Howley's salary and bonus and approves option awards, if any, for Mr. Howley, without input from Mr. Howley with respect thereto. Individual performance, including the performance of the executive officer's business unit, if applicable, market conditions and other factors are considered in determining compensation.

Elements of the Executive Compensation Program

Base Salary

The Company's philosophy is to pay base salaries at a level less than similarly situated companies, preferring instead to compensate officers through increased equity value. The base salaries and certain other annual compensation for the Company's executive officers in fiscal 2007 were determined with reference to the experience of the officers, the Company's past practice and the officers' individual performance. Pursuant to their employment agreements, Messrs. Howley, Laubenthal and Rufus receive certain additional benefits described herein.

Towers Perrin did an initial assessment of the competitiveness of our President's and Chief Financial Officer's salaries in October 2006 compared to other companies with sales of $500 million. The Chief Executive Officer of the Company conferred with Towers Perrin in recommending to the Committee a salary range for Messrs. Laubenthal and Rufus in connection with their 2007 compensation. In light of Towers Perrin's analysis, the Compensation Committee determined that, for calendar year 2007, the base salaries of Messrs. Laubenthal and Rufus should be $300,000 and $250,000 per year, respectively, and that the range for their 2007 bonuses should be increased as a percentage of salary. The total amount of potential cash compensation for Messrs. Laubenthal and Rufus remained below the median as determined by Towers Perrin.

The Committee also engaged Towers Perrin to perform a salary survey for executive officers, operating unit presidents and staff against a Company selected peer group, which was completed in mid-2007. The Committee has considered the results of the salary survey in setting 2008 compensation.

In addition, consistent with the factors annually considered by the Committee, the Committee determined that, for calendar year 2007, the base salaries of Messrs. Howley, Henderson, Iversen and Skurka should be $525,000, $235,000, $172,000 and $183,000 per year, respectively.

Annual Incentives

The Committee bases annual discretionary bonuses upon the participants' levels of responsibility and salary, overall corporate performance, performance of the division or subsidiary with which the officer is associated, and individual qualitative performances. Based on the Company's relatively strong performance and management's contribution to the Company's growth including the integration of four acquisitions, the Compensation Committee determined that bonuses should be awarded to each executive in the amounts set forth in the following sentence. For the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, Mr. Howley earned a bonus of $450,000 and Messrs. Laubenthal, Rufus, Henderson, Iversen and Skurka earned bonuses of $170,000, $140,000, $125,000, $75,000 and $80,000, respectively. Mr. Howley's bonus was 87% of his salary. The bonuses for Messrs. Laubenthal, Rufus and Henderson, our executive-level officers, were in the range of 54% - 58% of their respective salaries. The bonuses for Messrs. Iversen and Skurka, division presidents, were in the range of 44% - 46% of their respective salaries.

In addition, under the terms of his retention agreement described below entered into in connection with the Company's purchase of the assets of Skurka Engineering, Mr. Skurka received a performance bonus of $850,000 for the performance of Skurka Aerospace for the fiscal year 2007. Mr. Skurka's bonus was set out in the retention agreement, with the maximum bonus being $850,000 if Skurka Aerospace had cumulative EBITDA for the three-year period ending September 30, 2007 equal to or greater than $20.2 million.

Deferred Compensation

TD Group adopted its management deferred compensation plan in December 2005, in part, in response to certain new requirements under Section 409A under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the termination of its then-existing deferred compensation plan that was entered into in connection with the Company's leveraged buyout. The Company's management deferred compensation plan is for the benefit of employees who were granted new management options under the Company's 2003 stock option plan. The plan provides that a participant's deferred compensation account is fully distributable upon the earlier of December 31, 2008 or a Change in Control (as defined in the plan). If a participant's employment terminates by reason of death or disability, by the employee with good reason, or if a participant's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the plan), a pro rata portion of the deferred compensation account, based on a fraction equal to the number of days elapsed between January 1, 2006 and the termination date over 1,096 (representing the number of days during the period from January 1, 2006 through December 31, 2008) will be distributed. If a participant's employment is terminated for Cause or by the participant without good reason, the entire amount of the deferred compensation attributable to such participant will be forfeited. Any amount distributable under the plan will be distributed no later than two and a half months following the end of the year in which the participant became entitled to the distribution. $6.2 million was allocated to the plan in December 2005, to be allocated on pro rata basis among the participants at the time of distribution. Initial amounts allocated to Messrs. Howley, Laubenthal, Rufus, Henderson, Iversen and Skurka in December 2005 were $1,919,139, $980,082, $293,295, $390,938, $140,460 and $22,144, respectively. Amounts credited to the plan do not earn interest or other earnings. Amounts ultimately paid out will depend on prior payments to departing executives, forfeitures, and the number of participants at the time of distribution.

In addition, the TransDigm Inc. Executive Retirement Savings Plan was established to permit a group of management or highly compensated employees to accumulate additional retirement income through a nonqualified deferred compensation plan. A determination is made annually to determine the employees who are eligible to participate in the executive retirement savings plan. The executive retirement savings plan is a top hat plan exempt from certain ERISA requirements. A participant in the executive retirement savings plan may (i) make elective deferrals in addition to or in lieu of deferrals the participant may have otherwise made under the applicable 401(k) plan, and (ii) receive an allocation of any discretionary amount contributed to the executive retirement savings plan by TransDigm Inc. Deferrals may be made from a participant's salary, bonus or a combination thereof. Deferrals may not be made on any other compensation that a participant may earn. Deferrals, which are irrevocable, must be made no later than the last day of the year preceding the one in respect of which the deferrals will be made. TransDigm Inc. did not make any contributions to the executive retirement savings plan in fiscal 2007 and none of the executive officers are currently participating in the plan by making elective deferrals.

Equity Based Incentives

It is the Committee's intent that a significant portion of management's potential earnings come from growth in the Company's equity value. All of the Company's executive officers are eligible to receive options to purchase common stock of the Company pursuant to the Company's 2003 stock option plan and 2006 stock incentive plan. The Company believes that stock option grants are a valuable motivating tool and provide a long-term incentive to management. Stock option grants reinforce the long-term goal of increasing stockholder value by providing the proper nexus between the interests of management and the interests of the Company's stockholders. For more information regarding the options granted in fiscal 2007 and the aggregate options held by the named executive officers, please refer to the charts on pages 16 and 17.

At the time of the Company's leveraged buyout in 2003, management received significant grants of options, in addition to each individual's equity investment in the Company. The vast majority of those options vest according to annual and cumulative performance targets based on the Company's EBITDA and the achievement of a specified internal rate of return for its initial stockholders. In light of these significant grants in 2003, the Committee does not typically make annual grants of options to executive officers. Rather, it has historically granted additional options in connection with hirings, promotions and the assumption of increased responsibilities.

Perquisites

In 2006, the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table received certain perquisites. These items are more fully discussed in the Summary Compensation Table.

Employment Agreements

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Howley in connection with the leveraged buyout of the Company in 2003, and was negotiated on behalf of the Company by its private equity investor. Prior to our initial public offering, in November 2005, the Company entered into similar employment agreements with Messrs. Laubenthal and Rufus to ensure their continuity with the Company. For a description of the employment agreements, see Employment Agreements below.

Severance

The Company does not have a policy with respect to severance of executive officers terminated without cause, and the Company does not have any recent experience with terminating executive officers from which any consistent practice could be derived. Messrs. Howley, Rufus and Laubenthal have severance provisions in their employment agreements, as described above. The Company would expect that to the extent any severance arrangement is entered into with respect to any executive officer, the Company and executive would enter into a standard severance agreement and release.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed with the Company's management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis set forth above. Based on the review and discussions noted above, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

- (1) Includes the amounts recognized as expense by the Company in fiscal 2007 with respect to option awards issued in 2007 and prior years in accordance with FAS 123(R). Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are included in footnote 15 to the financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, for the year ended September 30, 2007, filed with the SEC on November 21, 2007.
- (2) Amounts shown for Mr. Howley include the incremental cost to us relating to personal use by Mr. Howley of the corporate aircraft in the amount of $220,661. During a portion of the year we owned and operated an aircraft, and we currently have a contract for aircraft services, to facilitate business travel of senior executives in as safe a manner as possible and with the best use of their time. Incremental cost for the period we used our owned-aircraft was calculated based on variable operating costs, which include the following: repairs and maintenance, fuel, general aircraft expense, hanger fees and travel expenses for the flight crew. Fixed costs, such as flight crew salaries, aircraft insurance, training and depreciation are not included in the calculation of incremental cost since these expenses are incurred by us regardless of the personal use of the corporate aircraft by the executives. Incremental cost for the period in which we contracted for aircraft services from a third party is the amount billed to us by our service provider for the specific flight. In addition, reflects $13,754 in 401(k) contributions by the Company, $28,500 in fees related to planning and preparing Mr. Howley's tax returns and managing his financial affairs, $9,250 in country club dues and $19,711 for an automobile for Mr. Howley's use.

Amounts for Mr. Laubenthal include: $13,400 in 401(k) contributions by the Company, $4,809 in country club dues and $13,287 for an automobile for Mr. Laubenthal's use.

Amounts for Mr. Henderson include $13,067 in 401(k) contributions by the Company, $6,496 in country club dues and $9,436 for an automobile for Mr. Henderson's use.

Amounts for Mr. Iversen include $10,421 in 401(k) contributions by the Company and $3,257 for an automobile for Mr. Iversen's use.

Amounts for Mr. Skurka include $10,530 in 401(k) contributions by the Company, respectively.

- (3) In connection with the Company's acquisition of Aviation Technologies, Inc. in February 2007, the Company re-evaluated the manner in which it designates division or subsidiary presidents as executive officers of the Company and determined in April 2007 that Mr. Skurka would not be deemed to be an executive officer on a going forward basis. Mr. Skurka retired as President of Skurka Aerospace effective September 30, 2007. The non-equity incentive compensation of $850,000 was paid to Mr. Skurka pursuant to the Retention Agreement entered into with Mr. Skurka in connection with the Company's purchase of the assets of Skurka Engineering on December 31, 2004 in consideration for services to be rendered in causing Skurka Aerospace to achieve certain specified performance goals.

Option Exercises in 2007 and 2007 Realized Values

The following table sets forth information with respect to the number of shares acquired by the named executive officers upon exercise of options and the value realized through such exercise during fiscal 2007. None of the named executive officers had any stock awards outstanding during the fiscal year.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

The Company does not have a severance policy for the named executives, with the exception of Messrs. Howley, Laubenthal and Rufus, whose severance is governed by their employment agreements, and the Company has no experience of terminating executive officers.

Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, if Mr. Howley is terminated for cause (as defined in his agreement and described under Employment Agreements below), he will receive only any unpaid but accrued base salary and benefits. As of September 30, 2007, Mr. Howley had no unpaid and accrued salary and benefits. If Mr. Howley is terminated for death or disability (as defined in his agreement and described under Employment Agreements below) or without cause by the Company or voluntarily resigns for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described under Employment Agreements below), his salary will continue for 18 months and he will receive the bonus he would have otherwise received. In addition, for such 18-month period, the Company will continue Mr. Howley's car allowance, club membership and tax and financial planning assistance and will continue to provide him and his dependents with medical insurance coverage. Thus, if Mr. Howley had died, become disabled, had been terminated by the Company without cause or had resigned his employment for good reason on September 30, 2007, he would have received approximately $1,275,073 in base salary, bonus and benefits.

Pursuant to the terms of their respective employment agreements, if Mr. Laubenthal or Rufus is terminated for cause (as defined in the applicable agreement and described under Employment Agreements below), he will receive only any unpaid but accrued base salary and benefits. As of September 30, 2007, neither Mr. Laubenthal nor Mr. Rufus had unpaid any accrued base salary or benefits. If Mr. Laubenthal or Mr. Rufus is terminated for death or disability (as defined in each agreement and described under Employment Agreements below) or without cause by the Company or voluntarily resigns for good reason (as defined in each agreement and described under Employment Agreements below), his salary will continue for 12 months and he will receive the bonus he would have otherwise received. In addition, for such 12-month period, the Company will continue his car allowance and club membership and will continue to provide him and his dependents with medical insurance coverage. Thus, if Mr. Laubenthal had died, become disabled, had been terminated by the Company without cause or had resigned his employment for good reason on September 30, 2007, he would have received approximately $480,683 in base salary, bonus and benefits and if Mr. Rufus had died, become disabled, had been terminated by the Company without cause or had resigned his employment for good reason on September 30, 2007, he would have received approximately $401,310 in base salary, bonus and benefits.

Assuming the original investors who purchased the Company in 2003 had achieved an annualized net rate of return in excess of 25% on their original investment, all performance vested options under our 2003 stock option plan would vest on a change in control. As defined in the 2003 stock option plan, a change in control means a change in ownership or control of the Company effected through a transaction or series of transactions (other than a registered public offering) whereby any person or related group of persons (other than the Company, any of its subsidiaries, an employee benefit plan maintained by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, Warburg Pincus Private Equity VIII, L.P. or its permitted assignees or a person that, prior to such transaction, directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Company or Warburg Pincus Private Equity VIII, L.P. or its permitted assignee) directly or indirectly acquires beneficial ownership of securities of the Company possessing more than 50% of the total combined voting power of the Company's securities outstanding immediately after such acquisition. If a change in control occurred on September 30, 2007, Messrs. Howley, Laubenthal, Rufus, Henderson, Iversen and Skurka would have had options vest valued at $12,789,467, $3,147,950, $2,078,679, $2,078,679, $1,661,121 and $752,279, respectively, based on the closing price of the Company's stock of $45.71 on September 28, 2007.

Under our 2005 deferred compensation plan, the full amount of a participant's account is due upon a change in control. If a change in control (as defined in the plan to be the same definition described in the immediately preceding paragraph) had occurred on September 30, 2007, Messrs. Howley, Laubenthal, Rufus, Henderson, Iversen and Skurka would have been entitled to receive $2,000,051, $1,021,402, $305,661, $407,420, $146,382 and $23,078, respectively. Upon a participant's death; disability (defined as a participant's absence from employment with the Company due to his inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of at least 12 months or a medically determinable physical or mental impairment, which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of at least 12 months, and for which the participant is receiving income replacement benefits for a period of at least three months under an accident and health plan covering the Company's employees); termination for good reason (defined as an employee's voluntary termination of employment from the Company as a result of a material diminution in the employee's title, duties, or responsibilities, without his consent, a reduction in the employee's aggregate cash compensation (including bonus opportunities), benefits or perquisites, without his consent or the Company requiring the employee, without his consent, to relocate his primary place of employment to a location that is 30 miles from the employee's primary work location as of the effective date of the plan) or termination without cause (for those executives without employment agreements, defined as the repeated failure by the executive, after written notice from the Board, substantially to perform his material duties and responsibilities as an officer or employee or director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries [other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to reasonably documented physical or mental illness], or any willful misconduct by the executive that has the effect of materially injuring the business of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, including, without limitation, the disclosure of material secret or confidential information of the Company or any of its subsidiaries), the participant is entitled to receive a pro rata portion of his account based on the number of days elapsed from inception of the plan through the date of termination. If Mr. Howley, Laubenthal, Rufus, Henderson, Iversen or Skurka had been terminated for death, disability, good reason or without cause on September 30, 2007, he would have been entitled to receive $1,164,263, $594,576, $177,930, $237,166, $85,212 and $13,434, respectively. Upon a participant's termination for cause, all account balances are forfeited.

In sum, had a change in control or termination for the various reasons set forth below occurred on September 30, 2007, the named executive officers would have been entitled to receive the following aggregate amounts:

	Change in Control ($)	Termination for Cause ($)	Termination Without Cause ($) ⁽²⁾	Termination for Death/ Disability ($) ⁽²⁾	Voluntary Termination for Good Reason ($) ⁽²⁾	Voluntary Termination without Good Reason ($)
W. Nicholas Howley	16,064,591 ⁽¹⁾		2,439,336	2,439,336	2,439,336
Raymond F. Laubenthal	4,169,352		1,075,259	1,075,259	1,075,259
Gregory Rufus	2,384,340		579,240	579,240	579,240
Robert Henderson	2,486,099		237,166	237,166	237,166
Bernt G. Iversen, II	1,807,503		85,212	85,212	85,212
Howard Skurka	775,357		13,434	13,434	13,434

- (1) Mr. Howley would receive salary, bonus and perquisite continuation in the event of a change in control only if it was coupled with a voluntary termination by Mr. Howley.
- (2) Amounts were calculated based on 2007 salary and bonus paid with respect to fiscal 2006. A different salary or bonus rate might be applied by the Compensation Committee if Mr. Howley, Mr. Rufus or Mr. Laubenthal were actually terminated on September 30, 2007. Amounts for Messrs. Howley's, Rufus's and Laubenthal's car allowance and country club dues were based on actual amounts paid in fiscal 2007, but actual amounts paid upon a termination could differ.

However, unless we or Mr. Howley elect not to renew the initial term, upon the expiration of the initial term, Mr. Howley's employment agreement will automatically be extended for an additional two-year period. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Howley is entitled to receive an annual base salary of no less than $380,000, which annual base salary is subject to annual review. As of September 30, 2007, Mr. Howley's annual base salary was $525,000. Pursuant to an amendment to Mr. Howley's employment agreement, Mr. Howley is entitled to use the Company's airplane for personal use up to 14 times per year, so long as such use does not interfere with Company use. Mr. Howley will have imputed income with respect to such use at the Standard Industry Fare Level (SIFL) rate, as published by the Internal Revenue Code.

Mr. Howley's employment agreement provides that if he is terminated for any reason, he will be entitled to payment of any accrued but unpaid base salary through the termination date, any unreimbursed expenses, an amount for accrued but unused sick and vacation days, and benefits owing to him under the benefit plans and programs sponsored by us. In addition, if Mr. Howley's employment is terminated:

without cause (which is defined as the repeated failure by Mr. Howley, after written notice from the Board, substantially to perform his material duties and responsibilities as an officer or employee or director of the Company or any of its subsidiaries [other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to reasonably documented physical or mental illness], or any willful misconduct by Mr. Howley that has the effect of materially injuring the business of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, including, without limitation, the disclosure of material secret or confidential information of the Company or any of its subsidiaries), if Mr. Howley terminates his employment for certain enumerated good reasons, which include:

a material diminution in Mr. Howley's title, duties or responsibilities, without his prior written consent, a reduction of Mr. Howley's aggregate cash compensation (including bonus opportunities), benefits or perquisites, without his prior written consent, a change in ownership or control of the Company effected through a transaction or series of transactions (other than a public offering) whereby any person or related group of persons other than the Company, any of its subsidiaries, an employee benefit plan maintained by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, Warburg Pincus Private Equity VIII, L.P. or any of its permitted assignees or a person that, prior to such transaction, directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Company or Warburg Pincus Private Equity VIII, L.P. or any of its permitted assignees directly or indirectly acquires beneficial ownership of securities of the Company possessing more than 50% of the total combined voting power of the Company's securities outstanding immediately after such acquisition, the Company requires Mr. Howley, without his prior written consent, to be based at any office or location that requires a relocation greater than 30 miles from Richmond Heights, Ohio, or any material breach of this Agreement by the Company), or in the event of Mr. Howley's termination due to his death or disability (which is defined as the inability of Mr. Howley to perform his duties and responsibilities as an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries on a full-time basis for more than six months within any 12-month period because of a physical, mental or emotional incapacity resulting from injury, sickness or disease), we will, in addition to the amounts described in the preceding sentence, for a period of eighteen months, (i) continue Mr. Howley's salary and pay the cash bonus he would have been entitled to receive had he continued his employment, (ii) continue to provide Mr. Howley with certain perquisites he was receiving immediately prior to his termination and (iii) continue his (and his then eligible dependents) participation under the medical benefit plans sponsored by us.

During the term of Mr. Howley's employment and following any termination of his employment, for a period of 18 months in the case of a termination without cause or for enumerated good reasons, or 24 months in the event of his voluntary termination without enumerated good reasons or termination for cause, Mr. Howley will be prohibited from engaging in any business that competes with any business of TransDigm Inc. or any entity owned by TransDigm Inc. In addition, during the term of his employment and for the two-year period following the termination of Mr. Howley's employment for any reason, he will be prohibited from soliciting or inducing any person who is or was employed by, or providing consulting services to, us during the 12-month period prior to the date of the termination of his employment, to terminate their employment or consulting relationship with us. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Howley is also subject to certain confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations, and we have agreed, so long as Mr. Howley is not in breach of certain of his obligations under his employment agreement, to, among other things, indemnify him to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of ours or his serving or having served any other enterprise as a director, officer or employee at our request.

However, unless we or Mr. Laubenthal elect not to renew the initial term, upon the expiration of the initial term, Mr. Laubenthal's employment agreement will automatically be extended for an additional two year period. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Laubenthal is entitled to receive an annual base salary of no less than $280,000, which annual base salary is subject to annual review. if Mr. Laubenthal terminates his employment for certain enumerated good reasons (which include:
