Item 8.01 Other Events

As disclosed previously, The Charles Schwab Corporation (the Company) has been responding to consolidated class action litigation filed between March and May 2008, relating to the Schwab YieldPlus Fund®, an ultra-short bond fund. On April 23, 2010, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with plaintiffs, and without admitting liability, agreed to a total of $200 million to resolve plaintiffs' federal law claims. On May 14, 2010, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with plaintiffs, and without admitting liability, agreed to resolve plaintiffs' state law claim for $35 million. The settlement agreements were preliminarily approved by the court on May 26, 2010, and remain subject to final court approval. On October 14, 2010, the court issued an opinion holding that federal securities law class members resident outside of California would not be precluded under the preliminary settlement agreements from bringing a further claim under California law against the defendants. The Company is reviewing the court's opinion in order to determine its implications for the tentative settlement.
