News Release: For Immediate Release

CommScope Announces End of Go-Shop Period

HICKORY, NC, December 6, 2010 CommScope, Inc. (NYSE: CTV), a global leader in infrastructure solutions for communications networks, today announced the expiration of the 40 day go-shop period pursuant to the terms of the previously announced merger agreement, entered into on October 26, 2010, by CommScope and global alternative asset manager The Carlyle Group.

Under the merger agreement, CommScope had the right to solicit superior proposals from third parties for a period of 40 calendar days continuing through December 5, 2010. The company noted that it did not receive any alternative acquisition proposals during the go-shop period.

Under terms of the merger agreement between CommScope and Carlyle, funds affiliated with Carlyle will acquire all outstanding shares of CommScope common stock for $31.50 per share in cash. CommScope expects to file shortly with the Securities and Exchange Commission definitive proxy materials related to the special meeting of CommScope stockholders to vote on and approve the proposed merger with an affiliate of Carlyle.

As previously announced, CommScope was granted early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, in connection with the proposed merger with an affiliate of Carlyle. The transaction remains subject to antitrust clearance in certain foreign jurisdictions and approval of CommScope stockholders, as well as other customary closing conditions, and is expected to close in the first quarter of 2011.
