Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

In connection with the webcast teleconference (January 6 Webcast) to be conducted by American Vanguard Corporation on Thursday, January 6, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. Pacific time, the Company makes the following disclosures:

The Company's acquisition of the Moca®, NemaCur®, Aztec® and Def® product lines in 2010 should serve to increase annual net sales by approximately twenty five percent.

The Company's senior secured lenders, led by Bank of The West, have committed to entering into a new $137 million credit facility (including a working capital revolver and term debt) with the Company to replace the current facility. The commitment is subject to completion of documentation, which should take place within the next several days, at which time the Company will make a disclosure regarding the material terms of the arrangement. The lead lender, Bank of The West, has been the Company's primary lender since 1979. New to the lending group will be Wells Fargo Bank, one of the country's leading agricultural lenders.

A complete transcript of the January 6 Webcast will be posted on the American Vanguard Corporation website (www.american-vanguard.com) within one week after that webcast.
