Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 21, 2011, H.B. Fuller Company (the Company) and Forbo Holding AG (Forbo) entered into a Master Purchase Agreement (the Master Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which the Company will acquire Forbo's global industrial adhesives and synthetic polymers business (the Business). The Company or its designated subsidiaries will purchase Forbo's subsidiaries that operate the Business and will directly purchase certain assets used in the Business that are not owned by such subsidiaries. Pursuant to the Master Purchase Agreement, the Company will pay Forbo 370 million Swiss Francs, or approximately $395 million at current exchange rates, to purchase the Business on a cash-free and debt-free basis. The purchase price will be paid in cash at closing and the Company intends to finance the purchase price through a private placement and syndicated bank loan markets prior to closing.

The boards of directors of the Company and Forbo have separately adopted resolutions approving the Master Purchase Agreement and related transactions. Consummation of the transactions, which is currently anticipated to occur in March 2012, is subject to certain closing conditions, including the absence of a material adverse change to the Business (as defined in the Master Purchase Agreement) and regulatory approvals.

The foregoing summary of the Master Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Master Purchase Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
