As a condition to closing, the Issuer's current officers and directors will resign effective as of the closing, although certain Issuer officers may be retained by Halcon for an indefinite period. A new Board of Directors will be immediately appointed by Halcon. Completion of the Securities Purchase is also subject to other customary closing conditions.

Following closing, Halcon has agreed, expressly for the benefit of the Issuer's stockholders other than Halcon that, for the two year period following the closing date, Halcon will not vote its shares in favor any transactions that would result in the Issuer going private such as a cash-out or freeze-out merger, a more than 1-for-100 reverse stock split or any other transaction that would constitute a transaction regulated by Rule 13e-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary termination rights for both the Issuer and Halcon, including the right of the Issuer or Halcon to terminate the Purchase Agreement in the event that the Issuer accepts a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) prior to the date that the stockholders execute and deliver the Stockholder Approval. The Stockholders Agreement will terminate upon termination of the Purchase Agreement.

The Shares, the Note and the Warrants will be issued and sold in a private placement exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933. At closing, the Issuer will enter into a registration rights agreement with Halcon which will give Halcon the right to require the Issuer, on up to three occasions, to register for public sale the Shares acquired at the closing and any shares of common stock acquired upon the exercise of the Warrants and conversion of the Note. The registration rights agreement will also provide Halcon with piggyback registration rights with respect to registrations of the offer and sale of any shares of the Issuer's common stock the Issuer may effect for its own account or for the benefit of other selling stockholders.
