§5. REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

5.1 Discussion and Analysis of the Overall Operation during the Reporting Period

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the unaudited interim financial report of the Group (the Company and its subsidiaries) and the notes in the interim report. The financial data involved hereinafter are extracted from the unaudited interim financial report prepared in accordance with IFRS.

Review and discussion on operating results

Although the global economy continued to maintain recovery momentum in the first half of 2012, the recovery was yet subject to some instability and uncertainty due to a number of factors such as the weak recovery in developed economies, decelerated growth in emerging economies and deteriorating European debt crisis. In particular, since the second quarter, global economic growth continued to fall slightly on the further revelation of the Spanish bank debt problem, significant declines in economic growth in Germany and France, ongoing U.S. fiscal deadlock and overall economic slowdown and lack of significant improvement in the decelerated economic growth in the BRICS nations. In such a complex and severe domestic and global economic environment, China's economy basically remained stable, but production growth continued to slow down, putting an increasing amount of downward pressure on the economy. Gross domestic product (GDP) growth for the first half of the year reached 7.8%, of which growth for the second quarter was 7.6%, representing a decline for the sixth consecutive quarter. The Chinese government has introduced a series of stable growth measures to support the real economy. China's macroeconomic performance showed signs of stabilising amid a slowdown. With respect to China's petroleum and chemical industry in the first half, production growth decelerated and chemical market prices fell, resulting in a decline in the profit for the sector and a slowdown in export growth. The industry experienced a continued slowdown in growth, and faced difficult conditions such as shrinking demand in the external market, a slowdown in the domestic market, higher operating costs and severe policy-related losses.

Table of Contents

In the first half of 2012, amid complex and volatile international situations, decelerating domestic economic growth, low demand for the petrochemicals, substantial volatility in international crude oil prices and sharp declines in the profitability of oil refining and chemical industries, the Group braved challenges with firm confidence by strengthening safety and environmental protection, optimising production and operations, and orderly pushing forward the construction of the Phase 6 Project, thereby maintaining overall stable production and operation. In the first half of the year, no accidents involving material liabilities and serious consequences such as major fires, explosions or environmental pollution were recorded; production plants maintained stable operations; major technical and economic indices improved steadily; system optimisation and the potential tapping achieved certain good results; construction of the Phase 6 Project and technological progress continued to proceed; the managerial system was improved, employee's competence was enhanced and corporate harmony and stability were further strengthened. However, since international crude oil prices fluctuated drastically in the first half of 2012, the prices soared to a record high for recent years in the first quarter and fell to a record low, following some consolidation in April. After this inflection point, the Group's in-transit and inventory costs of crude oil pushed up the Group's average crude oil processing costs in the first half of the year and production costs of semi-products and finished products, such as those of intermediate chemicals. This puts the Company's costs in great contrast to the domestic refined oil prices which went down swiftly along with international crude oil prices, as well as to the market prices of petrochemical products, which fell substantially. The Company's refining business incurred a certain degree of policy-related loss, since domestic refined oil prices were not adjusted promptly and adequately in the first quarter, and were quickly adjusted downwards twice in the second quarter, as a result of a slump of international crude oil prices. With respect to the Company's chemical product business, the prices of petrochemical products, such as intermediate petrochemical products, synthetic resins and synthetic fibres, fell sharply in the second quarter due to a slump of international crude oil prices, remarkable slackened growth in domestic and external demand, a decline in exports, a downturn of downstream production activities and destocking by intermediaries, thus resulting in a substantial impact on the Company's business activities in the short term and losses in the Company's petrochemical product business. During the first half of 2012, the Group's turnover amounted to RMB46,442.1 million, a decrease of RMB3,058.7 million or 6.18% year-on-year; loss before taxation amounted to RMB1,507.2 million, a decrease of RMB3,365.3 million year-on-year; and loss after taxation and non-controlling interests amounted to RMB1,151.5 million, a decrease of RMB2,577.2 million year-on-year.

Table of Contents

During the first half of 2012, the production and operations of the Group remained stable. As the Group adjusted the production plan and arranged turnaround for some plants in a timely manner due to the weak market demand, total volume of goods produced decreased by 4.21% over the corresponding period of the previous year. From January to June 2012, the Group processed 5,518,100 tons of crude oil (including 231,800 tons of crude oil processed on a sub-contract basis), a decrease of 160,300 tons or 2.82% over the corresponding period of the previous year. Specifically, imported crude oil and domestic offshore crude oil processed amounted to 5,292,000 tons and 226,100 tons respectively. Output of refined oil products was 2,866,000 tons, a decrease of 3.45% year-on-year. Specifically, output of gasoline was 437,500 tons, representing a decrease of 14.28% year-on-year. The output of diesel was 2,056,500 tons, representing an increase of 0.04% year-on-year. And output of jet fuel was 372,100 tons, representing a decrease of 7.56% year-on-year. Outputs of ethylene and paraxylene were 479,800 tons and 425,200 tons respectively, representing decreases of 2.51% and 8.28% year-on-year respectively. Output of synthetic resins and plastics (excluding polyester and polyvinyl alcohol) was 565,400 tons, representing a decrease of 0.96% year-on-year. Outputs of synthetic fibre monomers, synthetic fibre polymers and synthetic fibres were 512,800 tons, 326,700 tons and 124,900 tons respectively, representing an increase of 2.63%, an increase of 0.09% and a decrease of 3.26% year-on-year respectively. The Group's output-to-sales ratio and receivable recovery ratio in the first half of the year were 100.14% and 99.96% respectively.

The following table sets forth the Group's sales volume and net sales, net of sales taxes and surcharges, for the Reporting Period:

Table of Contents

In the first half of 2012, the Group realised total net sales of RMB43,604.8 million, representing a decrease of 5.91% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year, of which net sales derived from petroleum products increased by 2.94%; and net sales of intermediate petrochemicals, resins and plastics, synthetic fibres and trading of petrochemical products decreased by 9.42%, 12.00%, 25.63% and 11.89% respectively. Decrease in net sales of products was primarily attributable to weakened market demand, resulting in decreased prices for intermediate petrochemicals, resins and plastics and synthetic fibres, as well as decrease in sales volume for a portion of products as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. Compared to the first half of 2011, the average price (excluding tax) of the Group's petroleum products increased by 7.30% during the Reporting Period; and those of intermediate petrochemicals, resins and plastics and synthetic fibres decreased by 1.41%, 12.14% and 22.88% respectively during the Reporting Period. When comparing to the second half of 2011, the average price (excluding tax) of the Group's petroleum products increased by 3.25%; and those of intermediate petrochemicals, resins and plastics and synthetic fibres decreased by 1.06%, 7.63% and 9.61% respectively. In the first half of the year, net sales of the Group's trading of petrochemical products decreased by 11.89% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year, primarily because the business volume and the commodity price of the trading company controlled by the Group decreased. In the first half of the year, net sales of the Group's other activities decreased by 3.27% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year, primarily because the Group's other activities including sales of water, electricity and gas, and revenues from processing crude oil on a sub-contract basis decreased as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year.

A majority of the Group's products were sold in eastern China.

During the first half of 2012, the Group's cost of sales increased by 0.88% year-on-year to RMB44,737.9 million, accounting for 102.60% of net sales.

Crude oil is the Group's main raw material. International crude oil prices in general showed a falling trend after rising in the first half of 2012. In the first half of the year, Brent crude oil futures closed highest at US$128.17/barrel and lowest at US$88.62/barrel. The average price over the first half was approximately US$113.61/barrel, a year-on-year increase of approximately 2.35%. WTI crude oil futures closed highest at US$109.06/barrel and lowest at US$78.04/barrel. The average price over the first half was approximately US$98.27/barrel, a year-on-year increase of approximately 0.28%. The Group's average unit cost of crude oil processed (the portion traded for the Group's own account) was RMB5,465.53/ton in the first half of 2012, representing an increase of RMB527.62/ton or 10.69% over the corresponding period of the previous year. As a result of the increase in the average price of crude oil and the high cost of crude oil used by the Group, the Group's total costs of crude oil processed during the Reporting Period increased by 5.48% to RMB28,892.1 million year-on-year. The crude oil costs accounted for 64.58% of the Group's cost of sales in the first half of the year.

Table of Contents

Cost of other auxiliary raw materials of the Group amounted to RMB6,563.8 million in the first half of 2012, representing a decrease of 33.57% as compared to the corresponding period of the previous year, primarily attributable to decreases in prices and consumption of auxiliary materials. During the Reporting Period, depreciation and amortisation, and maintenance costs of the Group amounted to RMB838.9 million and RMB480.0 million respectively. Depreciation and amortisation costs increased slightly year-on-year while maintenance cost decreased year-on-year. Fuel and power expenses increased by RMB124.6 million year-on-year to RMB1,412.8 million as a result of the year-on-year increases to various degrees in both purchase volume and purchase price of electricity purchased outside the Group.

The Group's selling and administrative expenses in the first half of 2012 amounted to RMB329.8 million, representing a decrease of 1.67% from RMB335.4 million in the corresponding period of the previous year. The decrease was primarily attributable to the decrease in sales transportation expenses as a result of a decrease in sales volume, and the decrease in sales commission with respect to product sales in ordinary (continuing) connected transactions as a result of a decrease in sales volume during the Reporting Period.

The Group's other operating income in the first half of 2012 increased by RMB138.9 million year-on-year to RMB166.8 million, primarily representing the local education surcharges refund of RMB114.3 million.

Net financing costs of the Group in the first half of 2012 amounted to RMB193.1 million compared with net financing income of RMB14.1 million during the corresponding period of the previous year, primarily because of the appreciation of US dollar against Renminbi during the Reporting Period. As a result, there was an increase in net foreign exchange loss of the Group during the Reporting Period. Furthermore, the Group has extended a substantial amount of short-term borrowings during the Reporting Period, resulting in a rise in interest expenses.

The Group's loss after taxation and non-controlling interests was RMB1,151.5 million in the first half of 2012, representing a decrease of RMB2,577.2 million from the profit of RMB1,425.7 million in the corresponding period of the previous year.

Liquidity and capital resources

The Group's net cash outflow from operating activities amounted to RMB1,285.5 million for the first half of 2012 as compared to net cash inflow of RMB965.6 million in the corresponding period of the previous year, due to the following reasons: (1) due to the decline in the Group's performance during the Reporting Period, net cash outflow from loss before taxation (net of depreciation and share of profit of associates and jointly controlled entities) amounted to RMB680.5 million (as compared to the net cash inflow for the corresponding period of the previous year amounted to RMB2,497.0 million); (2) the increased inventory balance at the end of the period led to a decrease in operating cash flow of RMB2,010.8 million in the Reporting Period (as compared to a decrease in operating cash flow of RMB3,632.6 million due to increased inventory balance at the end of the corresponding period of the previous year); (3) increases in the net balances of amounts due to related parties (trade related) at the end of the period led to an increase in operating cash flow of RMB642.3 million in the Reporting Period (as compared to an increase in operating cash flow of RMB2,747.9 million as a result of an increase in such balances at the end of the corresponding period of the previous year); and (4) the decrease in operating receivables led to an increase in operating cash flow of RMB1,729.2 million in the Reporting Period (as compared to a decrease in operating cash flow of RMB183.6 million as a result of an increase in operating receivables in the corresponding period of the previous year).

Table of Contents

In the first half of 2012, the Group's net cash outflow from investing activities amounted to RMB2,265.4 million compared to a net cash outflow of RMB833.7 million in the corresponding period of the previous year. This was primarily attributable to the year-on-year increase in the Group's capital expenditures during the Reporting Period, resulting in a RMB1,650.6 million increase in net cash outflow from investment activities.

In the first half of 2012, the Group's net cash inflow from financing activities amounted to RMB3,651.4 million, while the net cash inflow amounted to RMB105.2 million in the corresponding period of the previous year, primarily attributable to the Group's obtaining of a substantial amount of short-term borrowings during the Reporting Period.

Borrowings and debts

The Group's long-term borrowings are mainly applied to capital expansion projects. In general, the Group arranges long-term borrowings according to capital expenditure plans and on the whole, there are no seasonal borrowings. Short-term debts are used to replenish the Group's working capital requirements during the normal course of production operation. During the first half of 2012, the Group's total borrowings increased by RMB3,747.7 million to RMB9,419.8 million as at the end of the Reporting Period as compared to the beginning of the Reporting Period. Of such amount, short-term debts increased by RMB3,176.4 million while long-term borrowings increased by RMB571.3 million.

Risks associated with exchange rate fluctuation

A change in the relevant exchange rates will affect the level of the Group's financing expenses since the majority of the Group's debts are denominated in foreign currencies. Accordingly, the Group's profitability will be affected. As at 30 June 2012, the Group's loans denominated in US dollars amounted to RMB7,329.8 million.

Table of Contents

Capital expenditure

In the first half of 2012, in accordance with the Group's fast and effective work requirements, the Group was committed to carrying out the construction of Phase 6 Project with the Refinery Revamping and Expansion Project and technological advancement programme as its focuses. Piling for the Refinery Revamping and Expansion Project commenced on 28 December 2010, and the project has currently entered into the final sprint stage. The first stage of the carbon fiber project with a capacity of 1,500 tons/year has completed the oxidation and carbonisation processes on 18 March and the spinning unit was mechanically completed on 26 April. The Up-grading Project for Optimisation of the System and Reduction in Energy and Feedstock Consumption of the No. 2 PTA Plant was mechanically completed in April and was put into trial operation.

In the first half of the year, the Group's capital expenditure amounted to RMB2,257 million, mainly used for the Refinery Revamping and Expansion Project and the Carbon Fiber Project. In the second half of the year, the Group will continue to actively push forward the above construction projects and other projects regarding technological revamping, safety and environmental protection, energy conservation and consumption reduction. It will commence the retrofitting project for the No. 1 Ethylene Plant and will commence the overall project design and long-cycle equipment orders. The Group plans to fund the capital expenditure with cash from operations and banking facilities.

Liability-to-asset ratio

As at 30 June 2012, the Group's liability-to-asset ratio was 49.64% (31 December 2011: 40.77%). The ratio is calculated using this formula: total liabilities/total assets.

Employees

As at 30 June 2012, the Group's on-record employees totaled 15,256. Among them, there were 8,732 production staff, 5,364 sales representatives, financial personnel and other personnel, and 1,160 administrative staff. There were 40.14% of the employees who had tertiary qualifications or above.

Income tax

Since the official implementation of the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China on 1 January 2008, the enterprise income tax rate has been uniformly adjusted to 25%. Accordingly, the Group's income tax rate was 25% for 2012.

Disclosure required by the Rules Governing The Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (Hong Kong Listing Rules)

Save as disclosed herein, pursuant to paragraph 40 in Appendix 16 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Company confirmed that there have been no material changes in the existing information of the Company relating to the matters as set out in paragraph 32 in Appendix 16 and the information disclosed in the Company's 2011 annual report.

Market outlook and work plans for the second half of the year

In the second half of 2012, the international situation will remain complex and challenging as the possible further escalation of Europe's debt crisis and the dilemma over global monetary policy adjustment will pose a threat to prospects for economic growth across the globe. As prospects for recovery in developed economies like the United States and Europe remain uncertain, most emerging economies have introduced economic stimulus policies, and as a result, the risk of a further slowdown in economic growth has been, to certain extent, minimised, and the world economy will continue to maintain slow growth. The Chinese economy is expected to gradually level off and pick up under the effect of the pre-tuned and fine-tuned policy for maintaining steady growth. Industrial production is anticipated to pick up steadily as destocking by industrial enterprises will be completed gradually in the second half of the year. However, since the pressure from both cyclical and structural problems of the domestic economy's operation have not been fundamentally relieved, and global economic recovery will remain weak, the extent of any upturn in the Chinese economy could be quite limited in the second half of the year. China's petroleum and chemical industry still has a relatively high potential for steady growth, and is expected to rebound from low levels, and to stabilise in the second half of the year. However, the contradiction of structural surplus is still significant in the industry, leading to keener international competition across the industry.

The price trend of international crude oil for the second half of the year will depend on various factors such as the changes in market supply and demand, global economic recovery and the situation in the Middle East. Currently, the market supply and demand of international crude oil is balanced. Although prospects for global economic recovery are still uncertain, the possibility of governments introducing easing policies to stimulate the economy is higher with the situation in the Middle East remains unstable, international crude oil prices for the second half of the year are expected to continue to fluctuate at high level. Although the Chinese government is taking proactive initiatives to explore and improve the pricing mechanism for refined oil products, we cannot rule out the possibility of the Chinese government continuing to regulate the prices of domestic refined oil products if international crude oil prices remain high.

Table of Contents

In conclusion, the overall domestic and international macroeconomic environment has been unfavourable to the Company's production and operations since the beginning of the year. As we currently face an exceptionally challenging production and operational situation, in order to turn challenges into opportunities and pressures into motivational forces, ensure safe and stable production, push forward the construction and development, and strive to improve economic return in the second half of 2012, we will take the following positive measures:

1. Attach great importance to safety and environmental protection, and continue to maintain safe and stable operation of the plants.
2. Continue to enhance the level of production and operational optimisation, and strive to improve economic return.
3. Ensure that the Phase 6 Project be put into operation successfully, and further accelerate the development of new products.
4. Improve business management on an ongoing basis and focus on cost reduction and enhancing efficiency.
5. Strengthen human resource development and create a stable and harmonious environment for development.

Description of the necessity and continuity of connected transactions

The Company purchases crude oil and related materials from China Petroleum & Chemical Corporation (the Sinopec Corp.) and its associates in accordance with the State's regulatory system regarding crude oil operation. The Company uses the crude oil storage tanks and pipeline transportation facilities of Sinopec Corp. and its associates to ensure stable and secured supply of crude oil for the Company, thereby reducing storage and transportation costs of crude oil. The Company sells petroleum products to Sinopec Corp. and its associates in accordance with the State's relevant policies, and also because Sinopec Corp. and its associates possess the widespread sales networks and a fairly high market share. The Company sold petrochemicals to Sinopec Corp. and its associates, and Sinopec Corp. and its associates acted as agents for the sale of petrochemicals, in order to reduce the Company's inventories, to expand its trading, distribution and sales networks, to improve the Company's bargaining power with its customers and to eliminate the competition between the Company and subsidiaries under Sinopec Corp. The Company obtained construction installation and engineering design services, petrochemical industry insurance services and financial services from China Petrochemical Corporation (Sinopec) and its associates in order to secure steady, timely and reliable services at reasonable prices.

For relevant details, please refer to the announcement regarding the continuing connected transactions dated 11 November 2010 and the circular regarding the continuing connected transactions dated 26 November 2010 published on the websites of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Shanghai Stock Exchange.

Note: The gross profit margin is calculated according to the price of petroleum products which includes consumption tax. The gross profit margin of petroleum products after deducting consumption tax amounts to 4.16%. This includes a total amount of RMB26,388.104 million for the connected transactions in respect of the sale of products or the provision of services to the controlling shareholders and its subsidiaries, associates and jointly controlled entities by the Company during the Reporting Period.

5.4 Explanations for the Reason of Material Changes in the Principal Operations Profitability (Gross Profit Margin) as Compared to the Previous Year

In the first half of 2012, the crude oil processing costs of the Group experienced a greater year-on-year growth due to substantial volatility in international crude oil prices, and the prices of the major products of the Group declined under the influences of decelerating domestic economic growth and low demand from the petrochemical industry, resulting in decreases in gross profit margins by segment. For details, please refer to the Review and discussion on operating results of the Report of the Directors.

Explanation of Results Forecast

Loss

Although the Chinese economy is expected to stabilise and pick up gradually given the effects of the pre-tuned and fine-tuned policy for maintaining steady growth in the second half of 2012, the extent of such pick-up will be limited. Given the heavy loss in the first half of 2012, the Group is expected to continue to incur a loss in the operating results for the nine-month period ended 30 September 2012.

6.4 Compliance with Code on Corporate Governance Practices and Corporate Governance Code

During the Reporting Period, the Company has applied the principles and complied with all code provisions of the Code on Corporate Governance Practices during the period from 1 January 2012 to 31 March 2012 and the Corporate Governance Code (CG Code) during the period from 1 April 2012 to 30 June 2012 as set out in Appendix 14 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, except for certain deviations from code provisions A.5.1 (in respect of establishment of nomination committee) and A.6.7 (in respect of attending general meetings by independent non-executive directors and other non-executive directors) of the CG Code as set out below.

For the purpose of compliance with the code provision A.5.1 of the CG Code in respect of establishment of nomination committee, the Board resolved on 29 March 2012 to establish a nomination committee, subject to the approval of shareholders at the annual general meeting of the Company. On 27 June 2012, the 2011 annual general meeting of the Company approved the establishment of the nomination committee.

Mr. Lei Dianwu, Non-executive Director of the Company, and Mr. Jin Mingda, Independent Non-executive Director of the Company, were absent from the 2011 annual general meeting of the Company held on 27 June 2012 due to business engagements.

6.5 Implementation of Model Code

The Directors of the Company confirm that the Company has adopted the Model Code. After making specific enquiries with all the Directors and Supervisors of the Company, the Company is not aware of any information that would reasonably indicate that the Directors and Supervisors of the Company were not in compliance with the requirements of the Model Code for securities transactions during the Reporting Period.
