On July 23, 2013, the Board of Directors of J. C. Penney Company, Inc. (the Company) approved an amendment to the Company s Bylaws, effective the same date, to add a new Article XVII thereto that provides that, unless the Company consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware will be the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of the Company, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of the Company to the Company or the Company s stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to the Delaware General Corporation Law or the Company s certificate of incorporation or Bylaws, or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine of the State of Delaware. In the event that the Court of Chancery lacks jurisdiction over any such action or proceeding, new Article XVII provides that the sole and exclusive forum for such action or proceeding will be another state or federal court located within the State of Delaware. Article XVII further provides that any person or entity purchasing or otherwise acquiring any interest in shares of capital stock of the Company is deemed to have notice of and consented to the foregoing provision.
