PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED DECEMBER 6, 2013

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholder:

On October 21, 2013, Alaska Pacific Bancshares, Inc. (Alaska Pacific) and Northrim BanCorp, Inc. (Northrim) agreed to a strategic business combination in which through a series of transactions, Alaska Pacific will be merged into Northrim. Under the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger entered into between Northrim, Northrim Merger Sub, Inc., Northrim Bank, Alaska Pacific and Alaska Pacific Bank, dated as of October 21, 2013 (the merger agreement), Alaska Pacific will initially merge with a wholly owned subsidiary of Northrim, Northrim Merger Sub, Inc., with Alaska Pacific as the surviving corporation (the merger).

We are sending you this proxy statement/prospectus to notify you of and invite you to attend the special meeting of Alaska Pacific shareholders being held to consider the merger agreement, as it may be amended from time to time, and related matters and to ask you to vote at the special meeting in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

The special meeting of Alaska Pacific shareholders will be held on [] [], 2014 at [].

At the special meeting, you will also be asked to approve the advisory (non-binding) proposal on specified compensation payable to Alaska Pacific s executive officers in connection with the merger as well as the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

If the merger agreement is approved by Alaska Pacific shareholders, subject to the terms and subject to the conditions described in the merger agreement, upon the effectiveness of the merger, Alaska Pacific shareholders will receive merger consideration for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock based on the trading volume weighted average closing price of Northrim s common stock for the 15 trading days ending on the fifth trading day before the completion of the merger. The maximum merger consideration payable by Northrim in the merger is $13,869,274, while the minimum amount of merger consideration to be paid by Northrim is $12,513,666. An Alaska Pacific shareholder who prefers to receive the merger consideration in either cash or shares must submit a properly completed election form prior to the deadline as described in this proxy statement/prospectus. The number of shares of Northrim s common stock that you receive as a result of your stock election, or the amount of cash you receive as a result of your cash election, may be less than the number of shares or cash you requested, as the allocation of the merger consideration between stock and cash are subject to proration to ensure that the maximum amount of cash Northrim will pay in the merger does not exceed $6,418,000.

The market value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Northrim's common stock. The following table shows the closing sale prices of Northrim's common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock as reported on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board, on October 21, 2013, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, and on [], the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Northrim and Alaska Pacific common stock.

At October 21, 2013	$ 23.64	$ 11.65
At []	$ []	$ []

If $[] were the Northrim volume weighted average closing price, an Alaska Pacific shareholder would have the option to elect to receive $[] in cash or [] shares of Northrim common stock (plus $[] in lieu of fractional share) per share of Alaska Pacific common stock, subject to the proration provisions discussed above.

Shareholders who neither elect to receive stock nor to receive cash will not have a choice as to the type of consideration they will receive in the merger and consequently will be issued either cash or shares of Northrim common stock depending on the amount of cash or stock issued to other Alaska Pacific shareholders in the merger. In order for your election to receive cash or stock consideration to be valid, you must submit a properly completed election form by the election deadline. The election form and instruction for its completion will be mailed no later than 35 days prior to the closing of the merger. None of Northrim (or any of its subsidiaries), Alaska Pacific (or any of its subsidiaries) or the Alaska Pacific board of directors is making any recommendation as to whether any Alaska Pacific shareholder should make an election to receive cash or Northrim common stock or, no election. Your vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement does not constitute an election to receive stock or cash in the merger, and an election to receive stock or cash in the merger does not constitute a vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

Your vote is important. We cannot complete the merger unless Alaska Pacific's shareholders approve the merger agreement. In order for the merger to be approved, the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock outstanding and entitled to vote must vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement. Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. Failing to vote will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

Alaska Pacific's board of directors recommends that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement, FOR approval of the advisory (non-binding) proposal on specified compensation payable to Alaska Pacific's executive officers in connection with the merger, and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

This proxy statement/prospectus describes the special meeting, the merger, the documents related to the merger and other related matters. Please carefully read this entire document, including Risk Factors beginning on page 21 for a discussion of the risks relating to the proposed merger. You also can obtain information about our companies from documents that each of us has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

If you have any questions concerning the merger, please contact Alaska Pacific's proxy solicitor, [].

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE ALASKA PACIFIC SPECIAL MEETING

*The following provides answers to certain anticipated questions that you may have regarding the merger and the Alaska Pacific special meeting. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the Alaska Pacific special meeting. Additional important information is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page [].*

Q. What am I being asked to vote on at the Alaska Pacific special meeting?

A: Northrim and Alaska Pacific have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 21, 2013 (the merger agreement), pursuant to which Northrim has agreed to acquire Alaska Pacific through the Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrim formed solely for the purposes of giving effect to the merger. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Alaska Pacific will merge with the Merger Sub (the merger), with Alaska Pacific continuing as the surviving entity and wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrim. Subsequent to the merger, Northrim will merge Alaska Pacific into Northrim (the subsidiary merger). Immediately following the subsidiary merger, Alaska Pacific Bank will be merged into Northrim Bank, with Northrim Bank as the surviving bank (the bank merger). Alaska Pacific shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates, including the merger.

Alaska Pacific shareholders are also being asked to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, such specified compensation that may become payable to the executive officers of Alaska Pacific in connection with the merger, which is referred to as the compensation proposal.

Finally, Alaska Pacific shareholders are being asked to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, which is referred to as the adjournment proposal.

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A. Holders of record of Alaska Pacific common stock at the close of business on [], which is the date that the Alaska Pacific board of directors has fixed as the record date for the Alaska Pacific special meeting, are entitled to vote at the Alaska Pacific special meeting.

Q. How does Alaska Pacific's board of directors recommend that I vote at the special meeting?

A: Alaska Pacific's board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, FOR the compensation proposal, and FOR the adjournment proposal. As described in this proxy statement/prospectus, the directors and executive officers of Alaska Pacific have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement and such persons own 10.4% of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock.

Q. When and where is the Alaska Pacific special meeting?

A: The Alaska Pacific special meeting will be held at [], Juneau, Alaska on [], at [].

Q. What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting. If you hold stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you must complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible, or call the toll-free telephone number or use the Internet as described in the instructions included with your proxy card or voting instruction card. If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker. Street name shareholders who wish to vote at the special meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares.

Q. What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A: The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker is not permitted to vote on a matter without instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and no instruction is given.

Q. What is the vote required to approve each proposal at the Alaska Pacific special meeting?

A: Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock as of the close of business on [[]], the record date for the special meeting.

Approval of the compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Alaska Pacific special meeting and entitled to vote on the compensation proposal.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Alaska Pacific special meeting and entitled to vote on such proposal at the special meeting.

Q. Why is my vote important?

A: If you do not vote, it will be more difficult for us to obtain the necessary quorum to hold our special meeting. In addition, your failure to vote or failure to instruct your bank or broker how to vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement. The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Alaska Pacific's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the compensation proposal.

Q. If my shares of common stock are held in street name by my bank or broker, will my bank or broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your bank or broker cannot vote your shares without instructions from you. If your shares are held in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, you must provide your bank, broker or other nominee with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instruction form provided by your bank, broker or other nominee. The effects of failing to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote your shares of Alaska Pacific common stock on each of the proposals to be considered at the special meeting are described below.

Q. What if I abstain from voting or fail to instruct my bank or broker?

A: If you fail to vote or mark ABSTAIN on your proxy, or fail to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal.

Table of Contents

If you mark ABSTAIN on your proxy with respect to either the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal. The failure to vote or failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to either the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal, however, will have no effect on either proposal.

Q. Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All shareholders, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Holders of record of Alaska Pacific common stock can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership.

Q. Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Alaska Pacific's corporate secretary, (3) voting again by telephone or the Internet or (4) attending the special meeting in person, notifying the corporate secretary and voting by ballot at the special meeting. Attendance at the special meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by Alaska Pacific after the vote will not affect the vote. The Alaska Pacific corporate secretary's mailing address is Corporate Secretary, Alaska Pacific Bancshares, Inc., 2094 Jordan Avenue, Juneau, Alaska 99801. If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you should contact your bank or broker to revoke your proxy.

Q. What will happen if the Alaska Pacific shareholders do not approve the advisory (non-binding) proposal on compensation?

A: The vote to approve the compensation proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the merger agreement and other related proposal. You may vote for this proposal and against the merger agreement and other related proposal, or vice versa. Because the vote on this proposal is advisory only, it will not be binding on Northrim or Alaska Pacific and will have no impact on whether the merger is consummated or on whether any contractually obligated payments are made to Alaska Pacific's named executive officers. We are seeking your approval of these payments, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, in order to comply with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and related SEC requirements.

Q. If I am an Alaska Pacific shareholder, should I send in my Alaska Pacific stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your Alaska Pacific stock certificates with your proxy. You will receive instructions from Northrim's exchange agent as to how to exchange your common stock certificate for merger consideration. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Shares; Exchange Procedures beginning on page [].

Q. Who may I contact if I cannot locate my Alaska Pacific stock certificate(s)?

A: If you are unable to locate your original Alaska Pacific stock certificate(s), you should contact [[]] at [[]].

Q. What risks should I consider in deciding how to vote?

A: You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, and pay specific attention to the section entitled Risk Factors, which sets forth certain risks and uncertainties related to the merger and the business of Northrim.

About the Merger

Q. What will Alaska Pacific Shareholders receive in the merger?

A: Upon consummation of the merger, Alaska Pacific shareholders will receive consideration for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in either cash or Northrim common stock, based on the trading volume weighted average closing price of Northrim's common stock for the 15 trading days ending on the fifth trading day before the completion of the merger (the Northrim Average Share Price). The maximum consideration payable by Northrim in the merger is $13,869,274, while the minimum amount of consideration to be paid by Northrim is $12,513,666. The terms of the merger agreement allow Alaska Pacific's shareholders to elect to receive the merger consideration in the form of either cash or shares of Northrim's common stock, subject to proration provisions in the merger agreement, which will ensure that the maximum amount of cash paid by Northrim in the merger does not exceed $6,418,000 and the number of shares of Northrim's common stock issued in the merger does not exceed 322,522 shares. However, in the event that the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90 per share, the merger agreement provides that Northrim may, in its sole discretion, adjust the ratio of cash and shares of Northrim's common stock to be issued in the merger such that the aggregate merger consideration is not less than $12,513,666 or terminate the merger.

Q. What will each Alaska Pacific Shareholder receive in the merger?

A: Each Alaska Pacific shareholder may elect to receive either cash or shares of Northrim common stock in exchange for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock. However, if too many shareholders elect one form of consideration over the other, in order to ensure that the cash merger consideration or the share merger consideration do not exceed their respective maximum amounts outlined in the merger agreement, such elections may be subject to the proration procedures described in this proxy statement/prospectus. As a result, Alaska Pacific's shareholders who elect to receive cash as merger consideration may receive shares of Northrim's common stock and shareholders who elect to receive shares of Northrim common stock may receive cash based on the elections of other Alaska Pacific shareholders. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Shares; Exchange Procedures Proration Procedures beginning on page []

Q. What amount of cash or number of shares of Northrim common stock will each shareholder of Alaska Pacific receive for his or her shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock?

A. The actual number of shares of Northrim's common stock or cash to be received by Alaska Pacific's shareholders in the merger will not be determined until the fifth trading day prior to the completion of the merger, and will be based on the Northrim Average Share Price for the 15-trading day period prior to such date.

For illustration purposes only, based on the 15-trading day weighted closing price of Northrim's common stock as of December 3, 2013, of $25.30, per share, if the merger were to close five trading days after such date, an Alaska Pacific shareholder holding 100 shares of Alaska Pacific common stock would have the option to elect to receive $1,756.82 in cash or 69 shares of Northrim's common stock (plus $11.12 in lieu of fractional shares), subject to the proration provisions discussed above.

Q. Is there a maximum number of Northrim shares that can be issued in the merger?

- A. No. Under the terms of the merger agreement, if the Northrim Average Share Price is $18.90, the maximum aggregate share consideration will be 322,522 shares of Northrim common stock. However, in the event that the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90 per share, the merger agreement provides that Northrim may, in its sole discretion, adjust the ratio of cash and shares of Northrim s common stock to be issued in the merger such that the aggregate merger consideration is not less than $12,513,666 or terminate the merger. As a result, if the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90, the number of shares of Northrim common stock issued in connection with the merger may be greater than 322,522 shares.

Table of Contents

Q. When and how does an Alaska Pacific shareholder elect the form of consideration he or she prefers to receive?

- A. No less than 35 days prior to the anticipated effective time of the merger, an election form and other transmittal materials will be mailed by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, Northrim's exchange agent for the merger (the Exchange Agent), to each Alaska Pacific shareholder of record on the date that is five (5) business days prior to such mailing date, which shall permit such shareholders to elect to receive either cash or stock as merger consideration. To make an election, an Alaska Pacific shareholder must submit a properly completed election form, along with one or more share certificates (for shares held in certificate form) or a book-entry transfer confirmation (for shares held in book-entry form) representing all shares covered by such election form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included in or required by the election form, to the Exchange Agent before 5:00 p.m., Alaska Time, on [] (the Election Deadline). Once you have made a valid election, you will not be able to transfer your shares of Alaska Pacific common stock subject to such election unless and until you have validly revoked your election. Any transferee of such shares (if the Election Deadline has not occurred) must make a new election with respect to such shares if such transferee does not wish the shares to be considered undesignated shares. If you have made a valid election (that has not been revoked prior to the Election Deadline) with respect to shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, after the Election Deadline you will not be able to revoke such election or transfer your shares prior to the effective time of the merger. Election choices and election procedures are described more fully under The Merger Agreement Conversion of Shares; Exchange Procedures commencing on page [[]].

Q. What happens if an election is not made prior to the Election Deadline?

- A. If an Alaska Pacific shareholder fails to submit a properly completed election form to the Exchange Agent or revokes a properly completed election form prior to the Election Deadline, then the Alaska Pacific shares held by such shareholder will be deemed to be undesignated shares and the Alaska Pacific shareholder will not have a choice as to the type of consideration they will receive in the merger and consequently will be issued either cash or shares of Northrim common stock depending on the amount of cash or stock issued to other Alaska Pacific shareholders in the merger.

Each Alaska Pacific shareholder who did not submit a properly completed election form or who revoked a properly completed election form prior to Election Deadline will receive, after the effective time of the merger, a separate transmittal form with instructions on how to exchange their Alaska Pacific stock certificates or transfer their shares held in book-entry form for the merger consideration.

Q. May an Alaska Pacific shareholder change his or her election once it has been submitted?

- A. Yes. An Alaska Pacific shareholder may revoke or change any previously submitted election form at or prior to the Election Deadline. In the event that an election form is revoked prior to the Election Deadline, the Alaska Pacific shares represented by such election form will automatically become undesignated shares until a new election form is properly completed and made with respect to such shares on or before the Election Deadline. Alaska Pacific shareholders who have revoked a previously submitted election form also, upon written request to the Exchange Agent, are entitled to have the share certificates representing their previously submitted shares, as well as any shares held in book-entry form previously transferred the Exchange Agent, promptly returned to them without charge.

Q. Is the value of the per share consideration that an Alaska Pacific shareholder receives in the merger substantially equivalent regardless of which election he or she makes?

A. Yes. Alaska Pacific will receive the same value of merger consideration whether they elect to receive cash or shares of Northrim's common stock in the merger. The formula used to calculate the amount of cash or Northrim common stock issued per share of Alaska Pacific common stock is intended to substantially equalize the value of the consideration to be received for each share of Alaska Pacific common stock that is exchanged in the merger, regardless of whether an Alaska Pacific shareholder elects to receive cash or stock. However, since the value of Northrim's shares of common stock fluctuates with its trading price, the value of the stock that an Alaska Pacific shareholder receives in the merger will likely not be the same as the cash received in the merger on any given day after the merger.

Q. Do I have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger?

A: Yes. Under Alaska law, holders of Alaska Pacific common stock are entitled to dissenters' rights under the Alaska Corporations Code in connection with the merger. In order to exercise such dissenters' rights, Alaska Pacific's shareholders must generally notify Alaska Pacific of their intent to dissent, at or prior to the special meeting, and must not vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting. Note that if you return a signed proxy card [without voting instructions] or with instructions to vote FOR the merger agreement, your shares will be automatically voted in favor of the merger agreement and you will lose all dissenters' rights available under Alaska law. See The Merger Dissenters' Rights on page [[]] for further information.

Q. What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to Alaska Pacific shareholders?

A: The merger and subsidiary merger are intended to be treated as a single integrated transaction qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Assuming such treatment applies, a holder of Alaska Pacific common stock generally will recognize gain, if any, in the merger in an amount equal to the lesser of the gain realized in the merger or the amount of cash received in the merger. A holder of Alaska Pacific common stock generally will recognize a loss in the merger only if the holder receives only cash in the merger. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger on page [[]] for further information.

Q. Who will be the directors of Northrim following the merger?

A: The current directors of Northrim intend to remain on the Northrim board of directors following the merger. Additionally, at the effective time of the merger, Northrim intends to appoint up to one current member of the Alaska Pacific board of directors to serve as a director on the Northrim board of directors until the next annual meeting of Northrim's shareholders, at which time such appointee will stand for election for a term equal to the term of the other Northrim directors.

Q. What will happen to Alaska Pacific's Series A preferred stock issued to the U.S. Treasury Department as part of the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP)?

A: Under the terms of the merger agreement, Alaska Pacific has agreed to either repurchase or redeem all of its outstanding series A preferred stock originally issued to the U.S. Treasury Department under TARP (the TARP Stock) prior to the consummation of the merger.

Q. What will happen to outstanding stock options to acquire or receive Alaska Pacific's common shares?

A: Since the per share exercise price of each outstanding option to acquire shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock is greater than the highest potential per share merger consideration in the merger, under the terms of the merger agreement, each such option shall be cancelled and terminated at the effective time of the merger and the holders of such stock options shall not be entitled to receive any consideration in the merger.

Q. What will happen to Alaska Pacific's Outstanding Warrant issued to the Department of Treasury?

A. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Northrim is not obligated to complete the merger unless the warrant to acquire 175,772 shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock issued to the U.S. Department of Treasury on February 6, 2009 under TARP (the TARP Warrant) is converted into shares of Alaska Pacific common stock prior to the effective date of the merger or the terms of the warrant agreement are amended to ensure that the TARP Warrant is converted solely into cash in connection with the merger.

Table of Contents

Q. When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We currently expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2014. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. Prior to the closing of the merger, we must obtain the approval of the merger agreement by the Alaska Pacific shareholders at the special meeting, the necessary regulatory approvals, and the other closing conditions must be satisfied or waived.

Q. How soon after the merger is completed can I expect to receive my cash or shares of Northrim common stock?

A: Northrim will work with the Exchange Agent to distribute the consideration payable in the merger as promptly as practicable following the completion of the merger.

Q. Will the shares of Northrim that I receive in the merger be registered and listed on an exchange?

A: Yes. The shares of Northrim common stock issued in the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) and upon completion of the merger are expected to be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol NRIM .

Q. What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, holders of Alaska Pacific common stock will not receive any consideration for their shares in connection with the merger. Instead, Alaska Pacific will remain an independent public company and its common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the Over-the Counter Bulletin Board. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by Alaska Pacific's board of directors, Alaska Pacific will be required to pay Northrim a termination fee of $600,000. See The Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page [] for a complete discussion of the circumstances under which termination fees will be required to be paid.

Q. Whom should I call with questions?

A: If you have any questions concerning the merger or this proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or need help voting your shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, please contact:

The Merger (page [])

The merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, the Merger Sub will merge with and into Alaska Pacific, with Alaska Pacific continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrim. Immediately following the merger, Alaska Pacific will be merged into Northrim, followed by the merger of Alaska Pacific Bank into Northrim Bank. The merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, have been approved unanimously by the boards of directors of Northrim and Alaska Pacific. No shareholder approval of the merger is required to be obtained by Northrim. The merger agreement governs the merger. The merger agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. Please read the merger agreement carefully. All descriptions in this summary and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus of the terms and conditions of the merger are qualified by reference to the merger agreement.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the total consideration to be paid by Northrim for all of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock (including shares subject to the TARP Warrant) will be based on the Northrim Average Share Price. The maximum aggregate consideration to be paid by Northrim in connection with the merger is $13,869,274 while the minimum aggregate consideration payable is $12,513,666. Shareholders of Alaska Pacific will be able to elect to receive the merger consideration for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in the form of either cash or shares of Northrim's common stock, subject to proration procedures under the merger agreement. According to the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate cash consideration will be $6,418,000 and the maximum aggregate share consideration will be 322,522. However, in the event that Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90 per share, the merger agreement provides that Northrim may, in its sole discretion, adjust the ratio of cash and/or shares of Northrim common stock to be issued in the merger such that the aggregate merger consideration is not less than $12,513,666 or terminate the merger.

The market value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of the shares of Northrim common stock. The following table shows the closing sale prices of the shares of Northrim common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock as reported on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board, on October 21, 2013, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, and on [], the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Northrim and Alaska Pacific.

Alaska Pacific's Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends that Alaska Pacific Shareholders Vote FOR Approval of the Merger Agreement (page [])

Alaska Pacific's board of directors determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Alaska Pacific and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. Alaska Pacific's board of directors recommends that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. For the factors considered by Alaska Pacific's board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, see the section entitled The Merger Alaska Pacific's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Alaska Pacific Board of Directors beginning on page [].

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. Has Provided an Opinion to Alaska Pacific's Board of Directors Regarding the Merger Consideration (page [] and Annex B)

On October 21, 2013, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., or KBW, Alaska Pacific's financial advisor in connection with the merger, rendered an opinion to Alaska Pacific's board of directors, that as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, procedures, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration payable to Alaska Pacific's shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock.

The full text of KBW's opinion, dated October 21, 2013, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. You should read the opinion in its entirety for a discussion of the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations upon the review undertaken by KBW in rendering its opinion.

KBW's opinion is directed to Alaska Pacific's board of directors, addresses only the fairness of the merger consideration payable to Alaska Pacific's shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement from a financial point of view to the holders of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, and does not address any other aspect of the merger or constitute a recommendation as to how any shareholders of Alaska Pacific should vote at the special meeting held in connection with the merger.

For further information, please see the discussion under the caption The Merger Opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., commencing on Page [].

Treatment of Alaska Pacific's TARP Stock and TARP Warrant (page [])

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Alaska Pacific has agreed to either repurchase or redeem all of its TARP Stock prior to consummation of the merger. In addition, under the terms of the merger agreement, Northrim is not obligated to complete the merger unless the TARP warrant is converted into shares of Alaska Pacific common stock prior to the effective date of the merger or the terms of the warrant agreement are amended to ensure that the TARP warrant is converted solely into cash in connection with the merger.

For further information, please see the discussion under the caption "The Merger Agreement Treatment of Options, the TARP Warrant and TARP Stock" commencing on Page [10].

Alaska Pacific will Hold its Special Meeting on [] (page [])

The special meeting will be held on [], at [] local time, at []. At the special meeting, Alaska Pacific shareholders will be asked to:

approve the merger agreement;

approve the advisory (non-binding) proposal on specified compensation; and approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

Only holders of record of Alaska Pacific common stock at the close of business on [], will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of Alaska Pacific common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal to be considered at the special meeting. As of the record date, there were [] shares of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Alaska Pacific and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote [] shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, representing approximately [] of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock outstanding on that date. Each director and executive officer has entered into a voting support agreement with Northrim, whereby each such director or executive officer has agreed to, among other things, vote all of their shares in favor of the merger agreement and the adjournment proposal. As of December 6, 2013, Northrim and its subsidiaries held no shares of Alaska Pacific common stock and its directors and executive officers or their affiliates held no shares of Alaska Pacific common stock.

To approve the merger agreement, holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must vote in favor of approving the merger agreement. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shares outstanding, your failure to vote, failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, or abstention will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Approval of the compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Alaska Pacific special meeting and entitled to vote on the compensation proposal.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Alaska Pacific special meeting and entitled to vote on such proposal at the special meeting.

Because approval of both the compensation proposal and the adjournment proposal is based on the affirmative vote of a majority of shares voting at the special meeting, abstentions will have the same effect as voting against either proposal. However, the failure to vote or failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to either the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal will have no effect on the outcome of either proposal.

The Merger Is Intended to Be Tax-Free to Holders of Alaska Pacific Common Stock as to the Shares of Northrim Common Stock They Receive (page [])

The merger and subsidiary merger are intended to be treated as a single integrated transaction qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Assuming such treatment applies, a holder of Alaska Pacific common stock who receives only Northrim common stock in the merger generally will not recognize gain in the merger. A holder of Alaska Pacific common stock who receives cash in the merger will recognize gain up to the amount of cash received. In addition, a holder of Alaska Pacific common stock may recognize gain or loss from the receipt of cash instead of fractional shares of Northrim common stock that such holder of Alaska Pacific common stock would otherwise be entitled to receive. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

The United States federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Alaska Pacific common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Alaska Pacific's Officers and Directors Have Financial Interests in the Merger That Differ from Your Interests (page [])

Alaska Pacific shareholders should be aware that some of Alaska Pacific's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Alaska Pacific shareholders generally.

The merger agreement provides that at the effective time of the merger, Northrim will terminate the employment of Alaska Pacific's executive officers who have change in control severance agreements and will pay them at such time the change in control benefits owed to each such executive officer under the terms of his or her change-in control severance agreement. In addition to receiving severance benefits in connection with the completion of the merger, most of the executive officers of Alaska Pacific have entered into retention agreements with Northrim whereby such executive officers will work for Northrim for a specified period of time after the completion of the merger at their current salary.

Northrim has also agreed, for a period of four years, to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of Alaska Pacific against all liabilities arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger. Northrim has also agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain Alaska Pacific's directors' and officers' liability insurance for a period two years after the closing of the merger, subject to certain conditions.

These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. The Alaska Pacific board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending that Alaska Pacific's shareholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

For a more complete description of these interests, see "The Merger - Interests of Alaska Pacific's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page [].

Alaska Pacific's Shareholders Have Dissenters' Rights in the merger (page [])

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from a fundamental business transaction, such as a merger, and demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the fundamental business transaction. Dissenters' rights are available under the Alaska Corporations Code, and upon complying with the procedures described in the Alaska Corporations Code, Alaska Pacific shareholders are entitled to such rights in connection with the merger. For more information on dissenters' rights in connection with the merger and the procedures required under the Alaska Corporations Code, see "The Merger - Dissenters' Rights." The relevant portions of the Alaska Corporations Code are also attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex C.

Table of Contents

Conditions That Must Be Satisfied or Waived for the Merger to Occur (page [])

Currently, we expect to complete the merger by the first quarter of 2014. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. These conditions include, among others, approval of the merger agreement by Alaska Pacific's shareholders, redemption of the TARP Stock, exercise of the TARP Warrant or its conversion to a right to receive solely cash in the merger, receipt of required regulatory approvals, receipt of a tax opinion relating to the merger and the subsidiary merger taken together qualifying as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes, and the satisfaction of specific financial conditions by Alaska Pacific.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page [])

The merger agreement contains certain termination rights for Northrim and Alaska Pacific, as the case may be, applicable upon:

the parties mutual agreement to terminate the merger agreement in writing;

April 28, 2014, if the merger has not been completed by that date;

any required governmental approvals shall have been denied without further action on the part of the terminating party;

Alaska Pacific's shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement;

the board of directors of Alaska Pacific fails to recommend the merger to its shareholders or fails to reconfirm its favorable recommendation or supports another acquisition proposal, or Alaska Pacific breaches its non-solicitation obligations, or its obligations to call and hold its special shareholder meeting to vote on the merger agreement;

the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90 per share and Northrim does not agree to increase the aggregate merger consideration to a minimum amount of $12,513,666; and the election by one party when representations and warranties of the other party have become inaccurate in any material respect or the other party has failed to comply with its covenants in any material respect.

Termination Fee (page [])

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by Alaska Pacific's board of directors, Alaska Pacific will be required to pay Northrim a termination fee of $600,000. The termination fee could discourage other companies from seeking to acquire or merge with Alaska Pacific.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Northrim will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the newly issued shares of Northrim common stock issuable in the merger to be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market upon completion of the merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page [])

We have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and the Alaska Division of Banking and Securities, among others. Northrim and Alaska Pacific have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications and notifications to obtain the required regulatory approvals.

Although we do not know of any reason why we cannot obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain them.

Board of Directors and Executive Officers of Northrim following Completion of the Merger (page [])

The directors of Alaska Pacific and its subsidiaries will resign as of the effective time of the merger. At the effective time of the merger, Northrim has agreed to appoint one current director of Alaska Pacific to serve on the Northrim board of directors until the next annual meeting of Northrim's shareholders, where such director shall stand for re-election to the Northrim board of directors. With the exception of the addition of this new director at the effective time of the merger, the composition of Northrim's board of directors and executive officers is not anticipated to change in connection with the completion of the merger.

The Rights of Alaska Pacific Shareholders will Change as a Result of the Merger (page [])

Since both Northrim and Alaska Pacific are incorporated under the Alaska Corporations Code, such statute will continue to govern Alaska Pacific shareholders after the completion of the merger. However, shareholder rights under the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Northrim, differ from those in Alaska Pacific's governing documents. This proxy statement/prospectus contains descriptions of the material differences in shareholder rights under each of the Northrim and Alaska Pacific governing documents.

Table of Contents

- 1 Tangible book value per share is a non-GAAP ratio that represents shareholders equity, less intangible assets, divided by common stock outstanding. Northrim's management believes tangible book value is a useful measurement of the value of Northrim's equity. See reconciliation to comparable GAAP measurement below.
- 2 Tax-equivalent net interest margin is a non-GAAP performance measurement in which interest income on non-taxable investments and loans is presented on a tax-equivalent basis using a combined federal and state statutory rate of 41.11% in all years presented. Northrim's management believes that tax-equivalent net interest margin is a useful financial measure because it enables investors to evaluate net interest margin excluding tax expense in order to monitor our effectiveness in growing higher interest yielding assets and managing Northrim's costs of interest bearing liabilities over time on a fully tax equivalent basis. See reconciliation to comparable GAAP measurement below.
- 3 In managing Northrim's business, Northrim's management reviews the efficiency ratio exclusive of intangible asset amortization, which is a non-GAAP performance measurement. Management believes that this is a useful financial measurement because management believes this presentation provides investors with a more accurate picture of Northrim's operating efficiency. The efficiency ratio is calculated by dividing other operating expense, exclusive of intangible asset amortization, by the sum of net interest income and other operating income. Other companies may define or calculate this data differently. For additional information see the "Other Operating Expense" section in Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of Northrim's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012, and in Item 2 Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of Northrim's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013 which are both incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See reconciliation to comparable GAAP measurement below.

Non-GAAP financial measures have inherent limitations, are not required to be uniformly applied, and are not audited. Although Northrim's management acknowledges that these non-GAAP financial measures are frequently used by stakeholders in the evaluation of a company, they have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analyses of results as reported under GAAP.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA*(Unaudited)

Presented below for Northrim and Alaska Pacific is historical, unaudited pro forma combined and pro forma equivalent per share financial data as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012 as well as for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The information presented below should be read together with the historical consolidated financial statements of Northrim and Alaska Pacific, including the related notes, filed by each of them with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, and with the consolidated historical financial data for Northrim and Alaska Pacific appearing elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information on page [].

The pro forma and pro forma per equivalent share information give effect to the merger as if the merger had been effective on December 31, 2012 and September 30, 2013, respectively, in the case of the book value data, and as if the merger had been effective as of January 1, 2012 and January 1, 2013, respectively, in the case of the earnings per share and the cash dividends data. The pro forma data combine the historical results of Alaska Pacific into Northrim's consolidated statement of income and are not indicative of what could have occurred had the acquisition taken place on January 1, 2012 or January 1, 2013.

The pro forma data, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the impact of factors, including the estimated impact of certain fair value adjustments and other acquisition related-activities that may result as a consequence of the merger or consider any potential impacts of current market conditions or the merger on revenues, expense efficiencies, asset dispositions, and share repurchases, among other factors, nor the impact of possible business model changes. As a result, pro forma data is presented for illustrative purposes only and does not represent an attempt to predict or suggest future results. Additionally, the Alaska Pacific pro forma equivalent per share data is based on the 15-trading day weighted average closing price of Northrim's common stock, as of December 3, 2013, which will likely be different from the Northrim Average Share Price, used to calculate the actual per share common stock exchange ratio.

- (1) Pro forma combined cash dividend amounts are the same as historical because no change in Northrim's dividend policy is expected as a result of the merger.
- (2) Business day immediately preceding announcement of proposed transaction.
- (3) The Alaska Pacific unaudited pro forma equivalent per share financial information is computed by multiplying the Northrim pro forma combined amounts by a per share common stock exchange ratio of 0.6944, based on the 15-trading day weighted average closing price of Northrim's common stock as of December 3, 2013, subject to the price collars set forth in the merger agreement. Additionally, these calculations assume that the TARP Warrant is converted into the right of the holder to receive an amount in cash equal to the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, less $4.08 per share for each share of Alaska Pacific common stock underlying the TARP Warrant.

RISK FACTORS

This information should be read in conjunction with Northrim's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012, and its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q filed subsequent thereto and the other documents which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Upon completion of the merger, in exchange for your shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock, you may elect to receive shares of Northrim common stock. Prior to deciding whether or not to approve the merger agreement, you should be aware of and consider the following risks and uncertainties that are applicable to the merger and Northrim, in addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including the matters addressed under the heading Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, beginning on page []].

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

The merger consideration will fluctuate prior to the completion of the merger and Alaska Pacific shareholders cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive.

Because the consideration to be received by Alaska Pacific's shareholders in the merger is based on the Northrim Average Share Price, the actual amount of consideration you will receive in the merger will vary based on the market price of Northrim's shares of common stock. As a consequence, the total amount of consideration you will receive in the merger is not known as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and will not be known at the date of the special meeting. Since the merger consideration will vary due to various factors that are beyond the control of Northrim and Alaska Pacific, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations, there is no guarantee that the price per share of Northrim common stock will not drop prior to the completion of the merger, resulting in Alaska Pacific shareholders receiving the minimum amount of consideration in the merger.

The market price of Northrim common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Alaska Pacific or Northrim currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Alaska Pacific common stock who receive shares of Northrim common stock in the merger will become shareholders of Northrim. Northrim's business differs from that of Alaska Pacific, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Northrim and Alaska Pacific. For a discussion of the businesses of Northrim and Alaska Pacific and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page [].

Alaska Pacific shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elected.

Although each Alaska Pacific shareholder may elect to receive either cash or shares of Northrim's common stock in the merger as consideration for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, the terms of the merger agreement limit the total amount of either cash or shares of Northrim common stock that are payable to Alaska Pacific's shareholders. As a result, if either the aggregate cash or stock elections exceed the maximum available under the merger agreement, and you choose the consideration election that exceeds the maximum available, your merger consideration will be in a form that you did not choose.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Before the merger may be completed, we must obtain various approvals or consents from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency the Alaska Division of Banking and Securities, the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and various other bank regulatory and other authorities. These authorities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Northrim following the merger. See The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger beginning on page [].

Alaska Pacific may not be able to repurchase or redeem the TARP Stock or convert the TARP Warrant into either shares of Alaska Pacific common stock or into the right to receive solely cash in connection with the merger.

The merger agreement requires that Alaska Pacific use its reasonable best efforts to cause or facilitate the repurchase or redemption of all of the issued and outstanding shares of TARP Stock from the holders thereof before the effective time of the merger on terms deemed satisfactory by Alaska Pacific and Northrim. Further, it is a condition to the closing of the merger agreement that Alaska Pacific shall have caused either the TARP Warrant to be converted into shares of Alaska Pacific common stock or have caused the terms of the TARP Warrant to be amended to provide for the TARP Warrant to be converted solely into cash. Northrim cannot assure you that that Alaska Pacific will be able to satisfy these conditions. If the conditions are not satisfied by Alaska Pacific or waived by Northrim, the merger may not be completed or will be delayed, which would result in the loss of some or all of the expected benefits of the merger.

If the conditions contained in the merger agreement are not met or waived the merger cannot be completed.

Even if the merger agreement is approved by the shareholders of Alaska Pacific, specified conditions must be satisfied or waived to complete the merger. These conditions are described in the merger agreement. Northrim cannot assure you that all of the conditions will be satisfied. If the conditions are not satisfied or waived, the merger may not be completed or will be delayed, which would result in the loss of some or all of the expected benefits of the merger.

The fairness opinion obtained by Alaska Pacific from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between signing the merger agreement and the completion of the merger.

Alaska Pacific has not obtained an updated fairness opinion as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus from Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc., Alaska Pacific's financial advisor. Changes in the operations and prospects of Alaska Pacific or Northrim, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Alaska Pacific and Northrim, and on which the fairness opinion was based, may alter the value of Alaska Pacific or Northrim or the prices of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock or Northrim common stock by the time the merger is completed. The opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Because Alaska Pacific does not anticipate asking its financial advisor to update its opinion, the October 21, 2013 opinion does not address the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, at the time the merger is completed. The opinion is included as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinion that Alaska Pacific received from its financial advisor, please refer to The Merger Opinion of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. on page []. For a description of the other factors considered by Alaska Pacific's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, please refer to The Merger Alaska Pacific's Reasons for the merger; Recommendation of the Alaska Pacific Board of Directors on page [].

Some of the directors and executive officers of Alaska Pacific may have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support or recommend that you approve the merger agreement.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Alaska Pacific may be different from those of Alaska Pacific common shareholders, and directors and officers of Alaska Pacific may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Alaska Pacific common shareholders. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. Alaska Pacific's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement, and in recommending that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote in favor of approving the merger agreement. These interests are described in more detail in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Interests of Alaska Pacific's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page [].

Termination of the merger agreement could negatively impact Alaska Pacific.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, Alaska Pacific's business may have been impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of its management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger, or the market price of Alaska Pacific common stock could decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger agreement is terminated and Alaska Pacific's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Alaska Pacific shareholders cannot be certain that Alaska Pacific will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent consideration than that which Northrim has agreed to pay in the merger. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by Alaska Pacific's board of directors, Alaska Pacific may be required to pay Northrim a termination fee of $600,000.

Alaska Pacific will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Alaska Pacific. These uncertainties may impair Alaska Pacific's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Alaska Pacific to seek to change existing business relationships with Alaska Pacific.

Alaska Pacific shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Alaska Pacific shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Alaska Pacific board of directors and on other matters affecting Alaska Pacific. When the merger occurs, each Alaska Pacific shareholder that receives shares of Northrim common stock will become a shareholder of Northrim with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Alaska Pacific. Because of this, Alaska Pacific shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Northrim than they now have on the management and policies of Alaska Pacific.

Additional Risks related to Northrim upon the Successful Completion of the Merger

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than expected.

Northrim and Alaska Pacific have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. The success of the merger will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully combine the businesses of Northrim and Alaska Pacific. To realize these anticipated benefits, after the completion of the merger, Northrim expects to integrate Alaska Pacific's business into its own. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the combined company's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. The loss of key employees could adversely affect Northrim's ability to successfully conduct its business in the markets in which Alaska Pacific now operates, which could have an adverse effect on Northrim's financial results and the value of its common stock. If

Northrim experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause Alaska Pacific to lose customers or cause customers to remove their accounts from Alaska Pacific and move their business to competing financial institutions. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Alaska Pacific and Northrim during this transition period and for an undetermined period after consummation of the merger.

Integrating Alaska Pacific may divert Northrim's management's attention away from our operations.

Successful integration of Northrim's and Alaska Pacific's operations and personnel will place an additional burden on our management and internal resources. This additional burden could lead to significant diversion of management attention and resources, which could lead to a decrease in Northrim's future operating results and thereby impact its share price.

Risk Factors Relating to Northrim's Business

Northrim is, and will continue to be subject to the risks described in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, as updated by its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2013, June 30, 2013 and September 30, 2013, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page [] for instructions on how to obtain the information that has been incorporated by reference.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated herein contain forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties. These statements include, but are not limited to, descriptions of Northrim's and Alaska Pacific's financial condition, results of operations, asset and credit quality trends and profitability and statements about the expected timing, completion, financial benefits and other effects of the merger. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, regarding the financial position, business strategy and respective management's plans and objectives for future operations of each of Northrim and Alaska Pacific are forward-looking statements. Readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect management's views only as of the date hereof. When used in this proxy statement/prospectus, the words anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, and intend and words or phrases of similar meaning, as they relate to Northrim, Northrim's management, Alaska Pacific, or Alaska Pacific's management are intended to help identify forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Although we believe that management's respective expectations as reflected in forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot assure readers that those expectations will prove to be correct.

Forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially and adversely from expectations as indicated in the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include:

expected cost savings, synergies and other financial benefits from the merger might not be realized within the expected time frames and costs or difficulties relating to merger integration matters might be greater than expected;

the requisite shareholder and regulatory approvals for the merger and the merger bank merger and/or the approval of the merger agreement by shareholders of Alaska Pacific might not be obtained or other conditions to the completion of the merger might not be satisfied or waived;

the ability of Northrim and Alaska Pacific to execute their respective business plans during the period between now and the completion of the merger;

actual results may be affected by competition with other financial institutions;

customer acceptance of new products and services;

the regulatory environment in which we operate;

changes in general trends in the local, regional and national banking industry and economy as those factors relate to the cost of funds and return on assets;

risks inherent in the banking industry relating to collectability of loans and changes in interest rates;

adverse changes in the securities markets; and the inability of key third-party providers to perform their obligations.

Many of these risks, as well as other risks that may have a material adverse impact on our operations and business, are identified in other filings of Northrim and Alaska Pacific made with the SEC. However, you should be aware that these factors are not an exhaustive list, and you should not assume these are the only factors that may cause our actual results to differ from our expectations. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and neither Northrim nor Alaska Pacific undertakes an obligation to release revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or conditions after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus.

THE ALASKA PACIFIC SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information for Alaska Pacific shareholders about the special meeting that Alaska Pacific has called to allow its shareholders to consider and approve the merger agreement. We are mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to you, as an Alaska Pacific shareholder, on or about []. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, we are also sending to you a notice of the special meeting of Alaska Pacific shareholders and a form of proxy card that Alaska Pacific's board of directors is soliciting for use at the special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

This proxy statement/prospectus is also being furnished by Northrim to Alaska Pacific shareholders as a prospectus in connection with the issuance of shares of Northrim common stock in the merger.

Date, Time and Place of Meeting

The special meeting will be held at [] Juneau, Alaska on [], 2014, at [] p.m. local time.

Matters to be Considered

At the special meeting of shareholders, you will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

a proposal to approve the merger agreement;

approve the advisory (non-binding) proposal on specified compensation; and a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Alaska Pacific Board of Directors

Alaska Pacific's board of directors determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Alaska Pacific and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. Alaska Pacific's board of directors recommends that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement, FOR the compensation proposal, and FOR the adjournment proposal. See The Merger Alaska Pacific's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Alaska Pacific Board of Directors on page [] for a more detailed discussion of the Alaska Pacific board of directors recommendation.

Record Date and Quorum

Alaska Pacific's board of directors has fixed the close of business on [], as the record date for determining the holders of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Alaska Pacific special meeting.

As of the record date, there were [] shares of Alaska Pacific common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Alaska Pacific special meeting held by approximately [] holders of record. Each share of Alaska Pacific common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the Alaska Pacific special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the Alaska Pacific special meeting.

The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. All shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, whether present in person or represented by proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the Alaska Pacific special meeting. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker is not permitted to vote on a matter without instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and no instruction is given.

Vote Required; Treatment of Abstentions and Failure to Vote

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of Alaska Pacific common stock you held as of the record date. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of shares outstanding, your failure to vote, failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Approval of the compensation proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Alaska Pacific special meeting and entitled to vote on the compensation proposal.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented in person or by proxy at the Alaska Pacific special meeting and entitled to vote on such proposal at the special meeting.

Because approval of both the compensation proposal and the adjournment proposal is based on the affirmative vote of a majority of shares voting at the special meeting, abstentions will have the same effect as voting against either proposal. However, the failure to vote or failure to instruct your bank or broker with respect to either the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal will have no effect on the outcome of either proposal.

Shares Held by Officers and Directors

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Alaska Pacific and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote [] shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, representing approximately [] of the total shares of Alaska Pacific common stock outstanding on that date. Each director and executive officer of Alaska Pacific has entered into a voting support agreement with Northrim, whereby each such director or executive officer has agreed to, among other things, vote all their shares in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement. As of December 3, 2013, Northrim and its subsidiaries held no shares of Alaska Pacific common stock and its directors and executive officers or their affiliates held no shares of Alaska Pacific common stock.

Voting of Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Each copy of this proxy statement/prospectus mailed to holders of Alaska Pacific common stock is accompanied by a form of proxy with instructions for voting. If you hold stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you should complete and return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus, or call the toll-free telephone number or use the Internet as described in the instructions included with your proxy card or voting instruction card, regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting.

If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker.

Alaska Pacific shareholders should not send Alaska Pacific stock certificates with their proxy cards.

All shares represented by valid proxies (including those given by telephone or the Internet) that we receive through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. If you make no specification on your proxy card as to how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement, FOR the compensation proposal, and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal. No matters other than the matters described in this proxy statement/prospectus are anticipated to be presented for action at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. However, if other business properly comes before the Alaska Pacific special meeting, the proxy agents will, in their discretion, vote upon such matters in their best judgment.

Shares Held in Street Name; Broker Non-Votes

Banks, brokers and other nominees who hold shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, banks, brokers and other nominees are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to the approval of matters determined to be non-routine, such as approval of the merger agreement, without specific instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes are shares held by a broker, bank or other nominee that are represented at the Alaska Pacific special meeting, but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not instructed by the beneficial owner of such shares to vote on the particular proposal and the broker does not have discretionary voting power on such proposal. It is expected that brokers, banks and other nominees will not have discretionary authority to vote on any proposal at the special meeting and, as a result, Alaska Pacific anticipates that there will not be any broker non-votes cast in connection with any proposal at the special meeting. Therefore, if your broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in street name, your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares of Alaska Pacific common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a Alaska Pacific Shareholder's Vote

If you hold stock in your name as a shareholder of record, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Alaska Pacific's corporate secretary, (3) voting again by telephone or the Internet, or (4) attending the special meeting in person, notifying the corporate secretary, and voting by ballot at the special meeting.

Any shareholder entitled to vote in person at the special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, but the mere presence (without notifying Alaska Pacific's corporate secretary) of a shareholder at the special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy should be addressed to:

Alaska Pacific Bancshares, Inc.

2094 Jordan Avenue

Juneau, Alaska 99801

Attention: Corporate Secretary

If your shares are held in street name by a bank or broker, you should follow the instructions of your bank or broker regarding the revocation of proxies.

Solicitation of Proxies

Alaska Pacific will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from you. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, Alaska Pacific will request that banks, brokers, and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of Alaska Pacific common stock and secure their voting instructions. Alaska Pacific will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. Alaska Pacific has also made arrangements with Georgeson Inc. to assist it in soliciting proxies and has agreed to pay them $6,500 plus reasonable expenses for these services. If necessary, Alaska Pacific may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from the Alaska Pacific shareholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile, letter or other electronic means.

Attending the Meeting

All holders of Alaska Pacific common stock, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Shareholders of record can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. THE MERGER

The following discussion contains material information about the merger. The discussion is subject, and qualified in its entirety by reference, to the merger agreement included as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement included as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

Terms of the Merger

The merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, the Merger Sub will merge with and into Alaska Pacific, with Alaska Pacific initially continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrim. Immediately following the merger, the surviving entity will be merged into Northrim and Alaska Pacific Bank will be merged into Northrim Bank.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the total consideration to be paid by Northrim for all of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock (including shares subject to the TARP Warrant) will be based on the volume weighted average closing price of Northrim's common stock for the 15 trading days ending on the fifth trading day before the completion of the merger. The maximum aggregate consideration to be paid by Northrim in connection with the merger is $13,869,274 and the minimum aggregate consideration payable is $12,513,666. Shareholders of Alaska Pacific will be able to elect to receive the merger consideration for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in the form of either cash or shares of Northrim's common stock, subject to proration procedures under the merger agreement. According to the merger agreement, the maximum aggregate cash consideration to be issued in the merger is $6,418,000, while the maximum aggregate share consideration is 322,522 shares of Northrim common stock. However, in the event that Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90 per share, the merger agreement provides that Northrim may, in its sole discretion, adjust the ratio of cash and shares of Northrim common stock to be issued in the merger such that the aggregate merger consideration is not less than $12,513,666 or terminate the merger.

The merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, have been approved unanimously by the boards of directors of Northrim and Alaska Pacific.

Alaska Pacific shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement" beginning on page [] for additional and more detailed information regarding the legal documents that govern the merger, including information about the conditions to the completion of the merger and the provisions for terminating or amending the merger agreement.

Background of the Merger

Alaska Pacific from time to time has met with other financial institutions and engaged with its senior management in reviews and discussions of potential strategic alternatives, and considered ways to enhance Alaska Pacific's performance and prospects in light of competitive, regulatory and other relevant developments. These reviews have included periodic discussions and analysis with respect to capital planning, potential transactions that would further Alaska Pacific's strategic objectives, and the potential benefits and risks of those capital plans and transactions.

In May and June 2010 the Alaska Pacific board had board meetings and strategic planning sessions on the capital markets and banking industry issues and also discussed going private, reviewed a peer group analysis and had an update on the merger and acquisition market.

Alaska Pacific's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Alaska Pacific Board of Directors

After careful consideration, at its meetings on October 18, 2013 and October 21, 2013, Alaska Pacific's board determined that the merger agreement is in the best interests of Alaska Pacific and its shareholders and that the consideration to be received in the merger is fair to the common shareholders of Alaska Pacific. Accordingly, Alaska Pacific's board, by a unanimous vote, adopted the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and recommend the merger to its shareholders, Alaska Pacific's board of directors consulted with Alaska Pacific's management, as well as its legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of positive factors, including the following material factors:

Its knowledge of Alaska Pacific's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and of Northrim's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of Alaska Pacific's due diligence review of Northrim.

Its knowledge of the current environment in the financial services industry, including national and regional economic conditions, continued consolidation, increased regulatory burdens, evolving trends in technology and increasing nationwide and global competition, the current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on the companies' potential growth, development, productivity, profitability and strategic options, and the historical market prices of Alaska Pacific's common stock.

The careful review undertaken by Alaska Pacific's board of directors and management, with the assistance of Alaska Pacific's legal and financial advisors, with respect to the strategic alternatives available to Alaska Pacific.

The complementary aspects of the Alaska Pacific and Northrim businesses, including customer focus, geographic coverage and business orientation and compatibility of the companies' management and operating styles.

Northrim's commitment to enhancing its strategic position in Southeastern Alaska.

The fact that the stock component of the merger consideration would allow former Alaska Pacific shareholders the option to participate as Northrim shareholders in the benefits of the future performance of the combined company generally.

Since Northrim's common shares are listed and traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, Alaska Pacific shareholders who elect to receive stock in the merger shareholders will have access to a larger, more liquid trading market for their securities;

The respective presentations by Alaska Pacific management and its financial advisors concerning the operations, financial condition and prospects of Alaska Pacific and the expected financial impact of the merger on the combined company.

The opinion of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc., Alaska Pacific's financial advisor, that the merger consideration is fair from a financial point of view to Alaska Pacific's shareholders.

The terms of the merger agreement, and the respective presentations by Alaska Pacific's legal advisors regarding the merger and the merger agreement.

A business combination with Northrim would ensure that the front line employees and retail offices of Alaska Pacific would continue to serve its current customers with the same community bank commitment.

The determination that a business combination with Northrim would extend Alaska Pacific's lending capabilities and increase the range of financial products and services available to Alaska Pacific's customers.

Northrim's successful track record and Alaska Pacific's board's belief that the combined enterprise would benefit from application of Northrim's asset and liability management techniques to Alaska Pacific's operations.

The opinion delivered to Alaska Pacific by Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. on October 21, 2013, to the effect that, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, procedures, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration payable to Alaska Pacific's shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock.

The value, form and types of consideration to be received by Alaska Pacific shareholders in the merger.

The financial terms of the merger, including the fact that, based on the closing price of Northrim common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market as of market close on the trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger, the implied value of the per share merger consideration represented an approximate 48% premium to the closing price of Alaska Pacific common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board on the same date. The value of the transaction at the announcement of the merger also (assumes full exercise of Alaska Pacific TARP Warrant at the current transaction price) represented 87% of Alaska Pacific's adjusted book value per common share based on full exercise of warrants and options.

Alaska Pacific's board of directors' belief that a merger with Northrim would allow Alaska Pacific shareholders to participate in the future performance of a combined company that would have better future prospects than Alaska Pacific was likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis or through other strategic alternatives, including a combination with other potential merger partners.

Alaska Pacific's board of directors' belief that Alaska Pacific and Northrim shared a similar strategic vision, as compared to the other bidder.

The regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the likelihood that the approvals needed to complete the merger will be obtained without unacceptable conditions.

The factors listed above under "Background of the Merger" relating to the other merger proposal that Alaska Pacific had received.

The expected treatment of the merger as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, which would generally not be taxable to Alaska Pacific shareholders exchanging their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock for shares of Northrim common stock.

Alaska Pacific's board of directors also considered potential risks and potentially negative factors concerning the merger in connection with its deliberations of the proposed transaction, including the following material factors:

The actual merger consideration to be received by Alaska Pacific shareholders may vary (and possibly decrease) from the time the merger agreement is approved to the time the merger is completed based on the volume weighted average closing price of Northrim's common stock.

The challenges of combining the businesses, assets and workforces of two financial institutions.

The potential risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the merger.

The provisions of the merger agreement restricting Alaska Pacific's solicitation of third party acquisition proposals, requiring Alaska Pacific to hold a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on approval of the merger agreement and providing for the payment of a termination fee of $600,000 in certain events, which Alaska Pacific's board of directors understood, while potentially limiting the willingness of a third party to propose a competing business combination transaction with Alaska Pacific, were a condition to Northrim's willingness to enter into the merger agreement.

The fact that some of Alaska Pacific's directors and executive officers have other interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as Alaska Pacific shareholders. See "Interests of Alaska Pacific Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page [] of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by Alaska Pacific's board is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include all material factors considered by Alaska Pacific's board. In view of the wide variety of the factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, Alaska Pacific's board of directors did not find it useful, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In considering the factors described above, the individual members of Alaska Pacific's board may have given different weight to different factors. Alaska Pacific's board of directors conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, Alaska Pacific management and Alaska Pacific's legal and financial advisors, and considered the factors overall to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

It should be noted that this explanation of Alaska Pacific's board of directors' reasoning and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" on page [].

Opinion of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

On March 1, 2013, AKPB entered into an engagement agreement with Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. to render financial advisory and investment banking services to Alaska Pacific. As part of its engagement, KBW agreed to provide the Alaska Pacific board of directors with an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration in the proposed merger with Northrim, to the shareholders of Alaska Pacific. Alaska Pacific engaged KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with AKPB and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

Representatives of KBW participated in the meeting of the Alaska Pacific board of directors held on October 21, 2013, at which the Alaska Pacific board evaluated the proposed merger with Northrim. At this meeting, KBW rendered an opinion to the Alaska Pacific board that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Alaska Pacific common stock. The Alaska Pacific board of directors approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

KBW's opinion was directed solely to the Alaska Pacific board and addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of Alaska Pacific common stock. It does not address the underlying business decision of the Alaska Pacific board to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement, or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternatives that are or may have been available to Alaska Pacific. Further, KBW's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any Alaska Pacific shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the Alaska Pacific special meeting on the merger or on any related matter. The opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Annex B to this document and is incorporated herein by reference and describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in preparing its opinion.

In connection with its opinion, KBW reviewed, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement dated October 15, 2013 (the most recent draft made available to KBW);

the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Alaska Pacific; the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Northrim; certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports of Alaska Pacific, including the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of Alaska Pacific for the quarters ended March 31 and June 30, 2013; and certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports of Northrim, including the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of Northrim for the quarters ended March 31 and June 30, 2013.

Table of Contents

In addition, KBW reviewed and considered such other information as it deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Alaska Pacific and Northrim, (ii) the assets and liabilities of Alaska Pacific and Northrim, (iii) the nature and financial terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry, and (iv) a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for Alaska Pacific and Northrim with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded. KBW also performed such other studies and analyses and reviewed such other financial information as it considered appropriate and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. In addition, KBW held discussions with members of senior management of Alaska Pacific and Northrim regarding past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies, and other matters KBW deemed relevant. KBW's opinion was necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of such opinion and the information made available to KBW through the date of such opinion.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to it or publicly available, and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assume any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. KBW relied upon the management teams of Alaska Pacific and Northrim as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and assumptions and bases therefor, including without limitation, potential cost savings and operating synergies) prepared by such management teams and provided to KBW. KBW assumed at the direction of the management teams of Alaska Pacific and Northrim, that such forecasts and projections were reasonably prepared on a basis that reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management teams and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods that were estimated by such management teams and that they provided a reasonable basis upon which KBW could form its opinion. As stated in its opinion, KBW is not an expert in the independent valuation of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and, without independent verification, assumed that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Alaska Pacific and Northrim were adequate to cover those losses. In rendering its opinion, KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the property, assets or liabilities of Alaska Pacific or Northrim, nor did KBW examine or review any individual credit files.

The projections and associated assumptions furnished to and used by KBW in certain of its analyses were prepared by Alaska Pacific's and Northrim's senior management teams. Alaska Pacific and Northrim do not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to KBW in connection with its review of the merger. As a result, such projections were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections. Any estimates or projections contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses.

Additionally, estimates or projections of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. KBW was not asked to, and it did not, offer any opinion as to the terms of the merger agreement or the form of the merger or any aspect of the merger, other than to the extent expressly specified in KBW's opinion. For purposes of its opinion and analyses, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger would be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement (the final terms of which would not differ in any respect material to KBW's analyses from the draft reviewed) with no additional payments or adjustments to the merger consideration;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement were true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement and all related documents would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

all conditions to the completion of the merger would be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the merger agreement;

in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the merger;

the merger would be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations; and

Alaska Pacific relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than KBW) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to Alaska Pacific, the merger, and the merger agreement.

KBW further assumed that the merger will be accounted for as an acquisition by Northrim using the acquisition method of accounting under generally accepted accounting principles. KBW's opinion was not and is not an expression of an opinion as to: (i) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be received by any of Alaska Pacific's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, in connection with the merger relative to the consideration to be received by the public shareholders of Alaska Pacific, (ii) the prices at which shares of Alaska Pacific common stock or shares of Northrim common stock would trade following the announcement of the proposed merger, (iii) the actual value of the shares of common stock of Northrim to be issued as a portion of the merger consideration in connection with the merger, or (iv) the prices at which the shares of common stock of Northrim will trade following the completion of the merger.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, Alaska Pacific and Northrim. Any implied value reference ranges indicated by KBW's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, any analyses relating to estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The merger consideration was determined through negotiation between Alaska Pacific and Northrim and Alaska Pacific's decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of Alaska Pacific's board of directors. KBW's opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the Alaska Pacific board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the merger consideration provided for in the merger or the decision of the Alaska Pacific board with respect to the approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

Summary of Analysis by KBW. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by KBW and reviewed with the Alaska Pacific board at its meeting on October 21, 2013 in connection with KBW's rendering of its fairness opinion. The following summary is not a complete description of the financial analyses performed by KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the Alaska Pacific board and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of KBW attached as Annex B to this document. The preparation of an opinion of this nature is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analysis or of the summary set forth herein, without considering the analysis as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying KBW's opinion. The order of analysis described in this summary does not represent relative importance or weight given to any particular analysis by KBW. In arriving at its opinion, KBW considered the results of its entire analysis and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, KBW made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of its entire analysis. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format.

Accordingly, KBW's analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. No company, transaction or business used in KBW's analyses for comparative purposes is identical to Alaska Pacific, Northrim or the proposed merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Summary of Proposal. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Northrim will pay approximately $14.3 million to the shareholders of Alaska Pacific consisting of $6.4 million in cash and shares of Northrim based on an exchange ratio that depends on the value of Northrim common stock as measured by the 15 day volume weighted average for the period ending five days prior to the close of the transaction, subject to the complete terms as described in the merger agreement. As of the date of the Alaska Pacific board meeting to consider the merger, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Alaska Pacific, will be converted into the right to receive 0.4655 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Northrim (Stock Consideration) and cash in the amount of $6.26 (Cash Consideration) or a combination of Stock and Cash consideration as more fully described in the merger agreement. Based on Northrim's closing price on October 18, 2013 of $23.68, the consideration represented a price of $17.28 per share to Alaska Pacific's shareholders, or an adjusted tangible book value per share of $19.96 which was derived by taking Alaska Pacific's tangible common equity ($16.1 million) minus the TARP warrant value which is included in the Cash Consideration ($2.3 million) minus adjustment for certain liabilities related to the transaction ($714,000) divided by Alaska Pacific common shares outstanding (654,486).

Transaction multiples for the merger were derived from an offer price of $17.28 per share for Alaska Pacific as well as an adjusted tangible book value per share of $19.96 which equates to Alaska Pacific's tangible common equity ($16.1 million) minus the implied TARP warrant value included in the cash portion of the Consideration ($2.3 million) and further minus certain liabilities related to the transaction ($714,000) divided by Alaska Pacific common shares outstanding (654,486). For each transaction referred to above, KBW derived and compared, among other things, the following implied ratios:

price per common share paid for the acquired company to tangible book value per share of the acquired company based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition shown both for the $17.28 price and the $19.96 full merger consideration.

price per common share paid for the acquired company to last twelve months earnings per share of the acquired company; price per common share paid for the acquired company to closing price of the acquired company 30 days prior to the announcement of the acquisition (expressed as a percentage and referred to as the 30-day market premium).

Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that Alaska Pacific could provide to equity holders through 2018 on a stand-alone basis. In performing this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Alaska Pacific for 2013 and 2014 provided by management, and an earnings growth rate ranging from 20% in 2015 declining to 14% in 2018, from Company management, and assumed discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 16.0%. The range of values was determined by adding (1) the present value of projected cash flows to Alaska Pacific shareholders from 2013 to 2018 and (2) the present value of the terminal value of Alaska Pacific's common stock. In determining cash flows available to shareholders, KBW assumed balance sheet growth post-2013 of 3.0% per year, per Alaska Pacific management and assumed that Alaska Pacific would maintain a tangible common equity / tangible asset ratio of at least 8.90%, and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain these levels. Any earnings in excess of what would need to be retained represented dividendable cash flows for Alaska Pacific. In calculating the terminal value of Alaska Pacific, KBW applied multiples ranging from 10.0 times to 14.0 times 2018 forecasted earnings. This resulted in a range of values of Alaska Pacific from $7.02 to $11.26 per share. And applying the same metrics to terminal multiple to projected 2017 tangible book value per share applying multiples ranging from 0.70x to 1.10x resulted in a range of values of Alaska Pacific from $10.36 to $18.73. The discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology that relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Alaska Pacific.

Relative Contribution Analysis. KBW prepared a contribution analysis showing percentages of total assets, total loans, total deposits, and tangible common equity, and net income as of the most recently available period for Alaska Pacific and for Northrim to be contributed to the combined company on a pro forma basis. Alaska Pacific shareholders will receive merger consideration of 64% stock (a total issuance of approximately 304,631 Northrim shares subject to the complete terms as described in the merger agreement) and 36% cash.

Financial Impact Analysis. KBW performed pro forma merger analyses that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Alaska Pacific and Northrim. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments and cost savings were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of Northrim. In the course of this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Northrim for 2014 and 2015 per First Call consensus and used earnings estimates for Alaska Pacific for 2014 and 2015 from Alaska Pacific management. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to Northrim's estimated earnings per share in 2014. The analysis also indicated that the merger is expected to be slightly dilutive to book value per share and tangible book value per share for Northrim and that Northrim would maintain well capitalized capital ratios. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Northrim following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

The Alaska Pacific board retained KBW as financial adviser to Alaska Pacific regarding the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, KBW may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Alaska Pacific and Northrim. As a market maker in securities KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Alaska Pacific and Northrim for KBW's own account and for the accounts of its customers. To the extent KBW held any such positions, it was disclosed to the Alaska Pacific board of directors.

KBW has acted exclusively for the Alaska Pacific board of directors in rendering its fairness opinion in connection with the merger. Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, Alaska Pacific agreed to pay to KBW a cash fee of $75,000 at the time of signing of the merger agreement as well as a cash fee of $325,000 to be paid at the time of the closing of the merger. In addition, pursuant to the engagement agreement, Alaska Pacific also agreed to reimburse KBW for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the engagement up to $10,000 and to indemnify KBW and related parties against certain liabilities, including liabilities related to or arising out of KBW's engagement or KBW's role in connection with such engagement. . During the two years preceding the date of its opinion to Alaska Pacific's board of directors, KBW has provided investment banking and financial advisory services to Alaska Pacific and received fees of $10,000, and during such time KBW did not perform investment banking and financial advisory services to Northrim. KBW may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Northrim and receive compensation for such services.

Northrim's Reasons for the Merger

Northrim believes that the acquisition of Alaska Pacific will complement Northrim's footprint and its strategy of growth and balance. In particular, the acquisition of Alaska Pacific's branch network will expand Northrim's market into the southeastern region of Alaska, and provide entry into the Juneau, Sitka and Ketchikan markets, which Northrim believes will complement Northrim's existing branch network in other parts of Alaska. The board of directors of Northrim approved the merger agreement after discussing with Northrim's senior management a number of factors, including those described above and the business, assets, liabilities, results of operations, financial performance, strategic direction and prospects of Alaska Pacific. Northrim's board of directors did not consider it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination. Northrim's board of directors viewed its position as being based on all the information and the factors presented to and considered by it. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different information and factors.

Management and Board of Directors of Northrim After the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, the current directors and officers of Northrim are expected to continue in their current positions. In addition, upon completion of the merger, Northrim will appoint one current director of the Alaska Pacific board of directors to serve as a director on the Northrim board of directors until the next annual meeting of Northrim's shareholders at which time such appointee will stand for election for a term equal to the terms of Northrim's other directors. Compensation for such director (including compensation for committee assignments and like duties) will be consistent with Northrim's compensation practices for non-employee directors. The selection of such director will be at Northrim's sole discretion and is intended to occur at or immediately after the effective date of the merger. Information about the current Northrim directors and executive officers as well as Alaska Pacific's current directors can be found in the documents listed under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page [].

Interests of Alaska Pacific's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of Alaska Pacific's board of directors that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote for the approval of the merger agreement, Alaska Pacific shareholders should be aware that some of Alaska Pacific's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger and have arrangements that may be different from, or in addition to, those of Alaska Pacific shareholders generally. These interests and arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. Alaska Pacific's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger and recommend that Alaska Pacific shareholders vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

Change in Control Severance Agreements

Alaska Pacific previously entered into change in control severance agreements with the following Alaska Pacific executive officers: Christopher P. Bourque, Julie M. Pierce, Craig E. Dahl, Jay Halverson, Thomas Sullivan and Tammi Whistler. The agreements for Mr. Dahl, Ms. Pierce and Mr. Bourque, provide that in the event of an involuntary termination after a change in control of Alaska Pacific each such executive is entitled to receive within 25 days after the date of termination a lump sum amount equal to 299% of their base salary and receive for 36 months following the termination date, the same life, health and disability coverage they had at such termination date. The agreements for Mr. Sullivan and Ms. Whistler provide that in the event of an involuntary termination after a change in control of Alaska Pacific each such executive is entitled to receive within 25 days after the date of termination a lump sum amount equal to 100% of their base salary and receive for 12 months following the termination date, the same life, health and disability coverage they had as at such termination date. Finally, the change in control severance agreement for Jay Halverson provides that in the event of an involuntary termination after a change in control of Alaska Pacific Mr. Halverson is entitled to receive within 25 days after the date of termination a lump sum amount equal to six months of his base salary plus $32,000, and receive for six months following the termination date, the same life, health and disability coverage he had as at such termination date.

The merger agreement provides that upon consummation of the merger, Northrim and/or Northrim Bank will honor each of the change in control severance agreements with Alaska Pacific's executive officers discussed above. Further, Northrim acknowledged in the merger agreement that the merger constitutes a change in control as defined in each such change in control severance agreement, and agreed to terminate at the effective time of the merger, the employment of each of the executive officers of Alaska Pacific who is subject to a change in control severance agreement. In connection with such termination, Northrim will pay to each applicable Alaska Pacific executive officer, at the effective time, the change in control benefits owed to them under the terms of their respective change in control severance agreement.

Alaska Pacific Retention Agreements

On October 21, 2013, in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Northrim Bank executed retention agreements (the Retention Agreements) with the following executive officers of Alaska Pacific: Christopher P. Bourque, Julie M. Pierce, Craig E. Dahl and Jay Halverson, in order help facilitate the post-merger integration of Alaska Pacific Bank's operations into Northrim Bank. The Retention Agreements all provide that upon the closing of the merger these executive officers would continue to work at their current location, perform generally similar duties as to what they are currently performing and would continue to receive their current base salary and other benefits through the term of their respective Retention Agreement. The Retention Agreements also all provide that the employment of each former Alaska Pacific executive officer may be terminated by Northrim Bank at any time, and for any reason, during the term of the Retention Agreement.

With the exception of the Retention Agreement with Julie M. Pierce, the Retention Agreements have a fixed term beginning upon the closing of the merger and ranging between one and three months and contain a provision whereby each executive officer would be required to pay Northrim Bank an amount equal to 25 percent of their lump sum change in control severance payment amount if they are either terminated for cause (as defined in the relevant Retention Agreements) by Northrim Bank or voluntarily terminate their employment with Northrim Bank prior to the expiration of the term of their respective Retention Agreement (the Termination Penalty). The Retention Agreement entered into with Julie M. Pierce has a variable term beginning upon the closing of the merger and lasting for a period of one month after the completion of the integration of Alaska Pacific Bank's systems and operations into Northrim Bank's systems and operations, which is currently expected to continue from completion of the merger through September 30, 2014. Further, the Retention Agreement with Julie Pierce does not contain a Termination Penalty.

The following table summarizes the benefits to be received by Alaska Pacific's executive officers, as well as any potential Termination Penalty such executive officer could become subject to, in accordance with the terms of their respective Retention Agreement:

Executive Officer	Retention Term (Months)	Aggregate Salary	Value of Gym and Automobile Benefits	Termination Penalty Amount
--------------------------	------------------------------------	-------------------------	---	---------------------------------------

Edgar Filing: NORTHRIM BANCORP INC - Form S-4

Christopher P. Bourque	3	$	33,750	$	1,130	$	(89,265)
Julie M. Pierce	8*	$	96,667	$	3,013
Craig E. Dahl	1	$	16,667	$	377	$	(131,514)
Jay Halverson	2	$	22,500	$	753	$	(16,875)

* The term of Julie Pierce's Retention Agreement is variable, but is currently anticipated to last eight months from the completion of the merger.

Employment Agreements

Prior to the completion of the merger, Northrim intends to enter into employment agreements with Tammi Whistler and Thomas Sullivan, whereby both executive officers will become permanent employees of Northrim Bank, serving in similar capacities to their respective positions at Alaska Pacific Bank. Both Ms. Whistler and Mr. Sullivan are currently anticipated to receive a salary and benefit package similar to what they received at Alaska Pacific Bank.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

For a period of four years after the closing of the merger, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and Alaska Pacific's governing documents, Northrim will indemnify and advance expenses to each present and former director and officer of Alaska Pacific against liabilities arising out of that person's services for Alaska Pacific whether occurring before or after the effective time of the merger.

Northrim will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain Alaska Pacific's directors' and officers' liability insurance for a period of two years after the closing of the merger or substitute policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred prior to the effective time of the merger and covering persons who are currently covered by such insurance. However, in no event shall Northrim be required to expend more than 150% of the current amount expended on an annual basis by Alaska Pacific to maintain or procure insurance for its directors and officers. See "The Merger Agreement - Covenants and Agreements - Covenants of Northrim - D&O Indemnification and Insurance" beginning on page [].

Public Trading Markets

Northrim common stock is listed and traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol NRIM. Alaska Pacific common stock is quoted and traded on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board (the "OTCBB") under the symbol AKPB. Upon completion of the merger, the Alaska Pacific common stock will no longer be quoted on the OTCBB and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that the shares of Northrim common stock to be issued to Alaska Pacific shareholders in connection with the merger be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and be freely transferable under the Securities Act.

Northrim's Dividend Policy

Northrim's common stock dividend policy reflects Northrim's earnings outlook, desired dividend payout ratios, need to maintain an adequate capital level, legal and regulatory considerations and other factors. Northrim paid a quarterly dividend on its common stock of $0.17 per share in the third quarter of 2013 and a dividend of $0.15 per share of common stock in each of the first and second quarters of 2013. The payment of dividends by Northrim is subject to regulatory limitations, as both Northrim and Northrim Bank are subject to restrictions on the payment of dividends pursuant to applicable federal and state banking regulations. The dividends that Northrim Bank pays to Northrim are limited to the extent necessary for Northrim Bank to meet the regulatory requirements of a well-capitalized bank. Given the fact that the Northrim Bank remains well-capitalized, Northrim currently expects to receive dividends from Northrim Bank in the near to midterm.

For further information, please see "Comparative Market Prices and Dividends" beginning on page [].

Voting Support Agreements

Northrim has entered into voting support agreements (the Voting Support Agreements) with all of Alaska Pacific s directors and executive officers, holding 68,200 shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, which represent approximately 10.4% of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock currently outstanding. Under the Voting Support Agreements, each signing Alaska Pacific director and officer has agreed to, among other things, not sell, dispose, assign or otherwise transfer any shares of Alaska Pacific common stock held or controlled by such officer or director on the date the Voting Support Agreement were executed and to vote all such shares that such officer or director owns or controls in favor of approval of the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Table of Contents

The Voting Support Agreements each terminate upon the earlier of: (i) the date of termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms; or (ii) the completion of the Alaska Pacific special meeting of shareholders to approve the merger agreement.

Non-Competition/Non-Solicitation Agreements

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, each director and executive officer, with the exception of Julie M. Pierce, has entered into a non-competition/non-solicitation agreement with Northrim, whereby each such director and officer has agreed to, among other things: (i) not to compete with Northrim's business in any of the named boroughs within the southeastern region of Alaska for a period of two years from the effective time of the merger, and (ii) not to solicit financial services business in any of the boroughs within the southeast region of Alaska, or former employees of Alaska Pacific (who were employed by Alaska Pacific within the previous two years from the date of the agreement) for a period of three years from the effective time of the merger. Julie Pierce has entered into a separate non-solicitation agreement which, among other things, contains a three-year covenant that she will not solicit financial services business in any of the named boroughs within the southeast region of Alaska, or hire any former employees of Alaska Pacific (who were employed by Alaska Pacific within the previous two years from the date of the agreement) for a period of three years from the effective time of the merger.

Dissenters' Rights

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. The Alaska Corporations Code specifically allows shareholders of Alaska corporations such as Alaska Pacific to dissent from a plan of merger to which such corporation is a party.

A copy of the relevant portions of the Alaska Corporations Code Sections 10.06.574 through 10.06.582 are included as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The following discussion of dissenters' rights is qualified in its entirety by reference to these Sections of the Alaska Corporations Code.

Except in certain circumstances, in order to exercise dissenters' rights under the Alaska Corporations Code in connection with the motion to approve the merger agreement, a dissenting Alaska Pacific shareholder must file with Alaska Pacific, before or at the special meeting of shareholders at which the motion to approve the merger agreement is submitted to a vote, a written objection to the proposed corporate action. The objection must include a notice of election to dissent, the shareholder's name and residence address, the number and class of shares as to which the shareholder dissents, and a demand for payment of the fair value of the shares if the action is taken.

If the merger agreement is approved by Alaska Pacific's shareholders, within 10 days after such shareholder vote, Northrim as the surviving corporation in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement shall give written notice of the authorization to each shareholder who filed written objection or to whom a written objection was not required. Under the Alaska Corporations Code, Northrim may consider that an Alaska Pacific shareholder who voted for approval of the merger agreement has elected not to enforce a right of dissent under the statute, and need not give notice to such shareholder.

If it is determined that proper notice of the special meeting under the Alaska Corporations Code was not given, shareholders of Alaska Pacific who voted against the proposal to approve the merger agreement may also exercise dissenters' rights in lieu of providing written notice prior to the special meeting by providing written notice of such dissent to Northrim within 20 days after receiving notice of dissenters' rights from Northrim.

At the time of filing the notice of election to dissent, or within 30 days thereafter, an Alaska Pacific shareholder who wishes to exercise their dissenter's rights must submit the share certificates representing the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock for which payment is claimed to Northrim or Northrim's transfer agent, who will note on such certificates that a notice of election of dissenter's rights has been filed, and will return the certificates to the respective dissenting shareholders.

Within 15 days after the approval of the merger agreement by Alaska Pacific's shareholders, or the 15 days after the expiration of the period in which Alaska Pacific's shareholders must file their notice of dissent, whichever is later, Northrim shall make a written offer by certified mail to each Alaska Pacific shareholder who has filed a notice of dissent, to pay the amount Northrim estimates to be a fair value of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock. This offer by Northrim will be accompanied by, among other things:

1. Alaska Pacific's most recent balance sheet produced in the 12 months before the merger;
2. Alaska Pacific's profit and loss statement or statements for at least 12 months preceding the date of the balance sheet; and
3. a statement containing the total number of shares with respect to which notices of election to dissent have been received and the total number of holders of these shares.

Additionally, if the merger agreement has been approved by the shareholders of Alaska Pacific then Northrim will also provide any dissenting Alaska Pacific shareholders with:

1. advance payment to each dissenting shareholder who submitted their share certificates to Alaska Pacific or Northrim, or to whom notice was sent if their shares were uncertificated; or
2. a statement to dissenting shareholders who have not submitted their share certificates, that advance payment for dissenting Alaska Pacific shares will be made by Alaska Pacific or Northrim promptly upon submission of their certificates.

Upon completion of the merger, Alaska Pacific shareholders shall cease to have rights of a shareholder of Alaska Pacific except the right to be paid the fair value of the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock as to which dissenter's rights were perfected in the method described herein.

If Northrim fails to make the written offer described above or the dissenting shareholder rejects Northrim's fair value estimate of their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock within 30 days of the mailing by Northrim of the statement containing such fair value estimate, then Northrim shall, or a dissenting shareholder may if Northrim fails to do so, within 20 days of the expiration of such 30 day period, file a petition with the relevant Alaska state court in the City of Anchorage Alaska, requesting that the fair value of Alaska Pacific's shares of common stock be determined (as of the close of business on the last business day prior to the special meeting approving the merger agreement). In making such determination, the Alaska Corporations Code requires that the court consider the nature of the transaction giving rise to the right to dissent, its effects on Alaska Pacific and its shareholders, the concepts and methods customary in the relevant securities and financial markets for determining fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances, and other relevant factors including the report of any court appointed appraiser. Within 60 days after the court's fair value determination, Northrim will pay to each dissenting shareholder who objected to Northrim's fair value estimate of Alaska Pacific's shares, the amount determined by the court in exchange for the surrender of the certificates representing the dissenter's shares or the dissenter's actual Alaska Pacific shares, if such shares are uncertified. Upon payment of such judgment, all dissenting shareholders cease to have any interest in shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock. Unless the court finds that: (i) the fair value of the Alaska Pacific shares of common stock materially exceed the amount that Northrim offered to pay dissenting shareholders; (ii) Northrim had acted in bad faith when dealing with dissenting shareholders, or (iii) Northrim did not offer an advance payment or institute judicial proceedings as required under the Alaska Corporations Code, dissenting shareholders shall bear their own costs and expenses regarding any judicial proceedings.

Regulatory Requirements for the Merger

Northrim and Alaska Pacific have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to make and obtain all regulatory approvals and notices required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These include approvals from or notices with the FDIC, the Alaska Division of Banking and Securities, the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Northrim and Alaska Pacific have filed, or are in the process of filing, applications and notifications to meet the applicable regulatory requirements.

We cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the timing of any such approvals, our ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals. We also cannot assure you that any third party will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, and, if such a challenge is made, we cannot assure you as to its result.

Northrim and Alaska Pacific believe that the merger does not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that we will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals on a timely basis without the imposition of any condition that would have a material adverse effect on Northrim or Alaska Pacific. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above. It is currently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This section contains a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. Because it is a summary, it does not include all the information that may be important to you. The following summary is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing this merger.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, the Merger Sub will merge with and into Alaska Pacific, with Alaska Pacific initially continuing as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northrim. The directors and executive officers of the surviving entity immediately after the merger shall be the directors and executive officers of the Merger Sub immediately prior to the merger. Further, at the effective time of the merger, all property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of Alaska Pacific shall vest in the surviving entity and all debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, disabilities and duties of Alaska Pacific shall become the debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, disabilities and duties of the surviving entity.

Immediately after the completion of the merger, Alaska Pacific will be merged into Northrim in the subsidiary merger, followed immediately by the merger of Alaska Pacific Bank into Northrim Bank, with Northrim Bank as the surviving bank.

It currently is anticipated that the completion of the merger will occur in the first quarter of 2014. However, the merger will be completed only if all conditions to the merger discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus and set forth in the merger agreement are either satisfied or waived. See Conditions to Complete the Merger beginning on page []. We cannot guarantee when or if the merger will be completed.

Aggregate Merger Consideration and Thresholds

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the total consideration to be paid by Northrim for all the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock (inclusive of shares subject to the TARP Warrant) will be based on the Northrim Average Share Price, which is volume weighted average closing price of Northrim's common stock for the 15 trading days ending on the fifth trading day before the completion of the merger. The maximum aggregate consideration to be paid by Northrim in connection with the merger is $13,869,274 and the minimum aggregate consideration payable is $12,513,666. Shareholders of Alaska Pacific will be able to elect to receive the merger consideration for their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in the form of cash or shares of Northrim's common stock, subject to the proration procedures under the merger agreement. According to the merger agreement, subject to adjustment in limited circumstances, the maximum aggregate share consideration for all Alaska Pacific's outstanding shares of common stock (inclusive of shares subject to the TARP Warrant) will be 322,522 shares of Northrim's common stock (the Maximum Share Consideration) and the maximum aggregate cash consideration will be $6,418,000 (the Total Cash Amount). The total number of shares of Northrim's common stock issued in the merger is intended to be 304,631 (the Total Stock Amount), provided however, that (i) if the Northrim Average Share Price is greater than $24.46 then the Total Stock Amount shall equal the quotient of (x) $7,451,274, divided by (y) the Northrim Average Share Price, and (ii) if the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $20.01, but not less than $18.90, then the Total Stock Amount shall equal the quotient of (x) $6,095,666, divided by (y) the Northrim Average Share Price. If the Northrim Average Share Price is $18.90 then the Total Stock Amount equals the Maximum Share Consideration.

In the event that the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90, then Northrim has the option to either terminate the merger agreement or increase either the Total Cash Amount or the Total Stock Amount subject to the limitations in the merger agreement so that the aggregate merger consideration is not less than $12,513,666. See Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page [], for further details.

Table of ContentsFractional Shares

Northrim will not issue any fractional shares of Northrim common stock in the merger. Instead, an Alaska Pacific shareholder who otherwise would have received a fraction of a share of Northrim common stock will receive an amount in cash rounded to the nearest cent. This cash amount will be determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of Northrim common stock to which the holder would otherwise be entitled by the Northrim Average Share Price.

Per Share Merger Consideration Calculations

For the purposes of calculating the merger consideration to be received by each shareholder of Alaska Pacific, the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio equals the quotient of: (i)(a) the Aggregate Common Stock Consideration which is equal to $6,418,000 plus $717,149.76 (the aggregate TARP Warrant exercise price) plus the product of the Total Stock Amount multiplied by the Northrim Average Share Price, divided by (b) the Northrim Average Share Price divided by (ii) the sum of (a) the number of outstanding Alaska Pacific shares of common stock outstanding at the closing date of the merger plus (b) the number of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock underlying the TARP Warrant on such date.

Further, the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount equals the quotient, expressed as a dollar amount, of: (i) the Aggregate Common Stock Consideration divided by (ii) the sum of (a) the number of Alaska Pacific shares of common stock outstanding at the closing date of the merger plus (b) the number of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock underlying the TARP Warrant on such date.

For example, if the Northrim Average Share Price were $22.24 then the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount would equal $16.748 and the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio would be 0.7534, which would mean that if an Alaska Pacific shareholder held 100 shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, such shareholder would be entitled to either $1,674.80 or 75 shares of Northrim common stock plus $7.60 in cash (as payment for a fractional share).

Alternatively, if the Northrim Average Share Price were $25.58 then the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount would equal $17.5694 and the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio would be 0.688, which would mean that same Alaska Pacific shareholder would be entitled to either $1,756.94 in cash or 68 shares of Northrim's common stock plus $20.46 of cash in lieu of a fractional share.

Finally, if the Northrim Average Share Price were $18.90 then the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount would equal $15.9365 and the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio would be 0.8432, which would mean that same Alaska Pacific shareholder would be entitled to either $1,593.65 in cash or 84 shares of Northrim's common stock plus $6.05 of cash in lieu of a fractional share.

It is important to note that if the Northrim Average Share Price is less than $18.90 and Northrim elects to increase either the Total Cash Amount or the Total Stock Amount, then both the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount and the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio will be subject to the possibility of further adjustment under the terms of the merger agreement. See Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page [] for further details.

Effective Time of the Merger and Subsequent Mergers

Subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement, the parties to the merger agreement will cause the articles of merger relating to the merger to be filed with the Division of Corporations and Professional Licensing of the State of Alaska pursuant to the Alaska Corporations Code on a date selected by Northrim, and at such effective time, Merger Sub will merge with and into Alaska Pacific, completing the merger.

Table of Contents

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, Alaska Pacific will merge with and into Northrim, with Northrim being the surviving corporation. The terms and conditions of this subsidiary merger will be governed solely by the plan of merger attached to the merger agreement and not subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

Following the completion of the subsidiary merger Northrim and Northrim Bank shall cause the merger of Alaska Pacific Bank with and into Northrim Bank, with Northrim Bank being the resulting bank in such merger and on such terms and conditions as may be appropriate in the sole discretion of Northrim Bank and subject to such requirements as may be imposed by the relevant bank regulatory authorities. The terms, conditions and effect of this bank merger shall be governed solely by the bank merger agreement attached as an exhibit to the merger agreement, and such transaction shall not be subject to the terms or conditions of the merger agreement.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange Procedures

Merger Consideration Election

No less than 35 days prior to the anticipated effective time of the merger, an election form and other transmittal materials will be mailed by the Exchange Agent to each Alaska Pacific shareholder of record on the date that is five (5) business days prior to such mailing date, which shall permit such shareholders to elect to receive either cash or shares of Northrim's common stock as merger consideration. In order to properly select the type of merger consideration it wishes to receive, an Alaska Pacific shareholder must submit a completed election form, along with either one or more share certificates (for shares held in certificate form) or a book-entry transfer confirmation form (evidencing the transfer of book-entry shares to an account specified by the Exchange Agent), representing all shares covered by such election form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included in or required by the election form, to the Exchange Agent before the Election Deadline. If an Alaska Pacific shareholder fails to submit a properly completed election form to the Exchange Agent by the Election Deadline, then the Alaska Pacific shares held by such shareholder will be deemed to be undesignated shares and the Alaska Pacific shareholder will not have a choice as to the type of consideration it will receive in the merger and consequently will be issued either cash or shares of Northrim common stock depending on the amount of cash or stock issued to other Alaska Pacific shareholders in the merger.

An Alaska Pacific shareholder may revoke or change any previously submitted election form at or prior to the effective time of the merger. In the event that an election form is revoked prior to the Election Deadline, the Alaska Pacific shares represented by such election form will automatically become undesignated shares until a new election form is properly completed and made with respect to such shares on or before the Election Deadline. Alaska Pacific shareholders who have revoked a previously submitted election form also, upon written request to Northrim, are entitled to have the share certificates representing their previously submitted shares promptly returned to them without charge. The Election Deadline will be set forth in the election form and is expected to be 5:00 p.m. on the 30th day following the mailing date of the election forms to Alaska Pacific shareholders.

Exchange and Payment

At or prior to the effective time of the merger, Northrim will deposit with the Exchange Agent the certificates representing the shares of Northrim common stock representing the Total Stock Amount and the amount of cash equal to the Total Cash Amount. Within five business days after the effective time of the merger, the Exchange Agent will mail to each Alaska Pacific shareholder who did not submit a properly completed election form, or who revoked a properly completed election form prior to the Election Deadline (i) a form of letter of transmittal, and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Alaska Pacific share certificates or instructions for effecting the transfer of Alaska

Pacific shares held in book-entry form to the Exchange Agent. Upon surrender of a Alaska Pacific share certificate to the Exchange Agent (for shares held in certificate form) or a confirmation of transfer to the Exchange Agent of shares held in book-entry form, together with a properly executed letter of transmittal, or in the case of a holder who timely submitted a properly completed election form (and had not revoked such election form) by the Election Deadline, the holder of such share certificate or book entry shares shall be entitled to promptly receive in exchange therefor the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount or the number of Northrim shares of common stock equal to the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio for each share of Alaska Pacific common stock formerly represented by such certificate or book-entry account (subject to proration procedures described below and any deduction for any required withholding tax), and the certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of such Alaska Pacific share certificates on the merger consideration. If the merger agreement is terminated, all share certificates will be returned to shareholders.

Conversion of Alaska Pacific Shares

At the effective time of the merger each issued and outstanding share of Alaska Pacific's common stock shall be automatically converted to the right to receive at the election of the holder the merger consideration outlined above in the form of either cash or shares of Northrim's common stock, subject to proration to ensure that the neither the Total Stock Amount, nor the Total Cash Amount limitations of 322,522 shares of Northrim's common stock and $6,418,000, respectively, are exceeded. All shares of Alaska Pacific common stock converted into such merger consideration shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled, and the holder of a certificate previously representing such shares shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such securities, except to receive: the merger consideration, dividend's declared on Northrim's common stock after the effective time of the merger and any cash to be paid in lieu of a fractional share.

An Alaska Pacific shareholder also has the right to obtain the fair value of his or her Alaska Pacific shares in lieu of receiving the merger consideration under the merger agreement by strictly following the procedures under the Alaska Corporations Code, as discussed under The Merger Dissenters' Rights

Proration Procedures

In the event that Alaska Pacific shareholders in aggregate elect to receive shares of Northrim's common stock in excess of the Total Stock Amount then to the extent necessary to ensure that the aggregate shares of Northrim's common stock to be issued in the merger equal the Total Stock Amount, the Exchange Agent shall make the following allocations:

All shareholders who have made an effective cash election will have their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount for each share of Alaska Pacific common stock held.

All undesignated shares shall be allocated on a pro rata basis cash as necessary to ensure that the number Northrim shares of common stock issued in the merger does not exceed the Total Stock Amount;

If the number of shares of Northrim common stock to be issued in the merger still exceeds the Total Stock Amount after allocating cash to all holders of undesignated shares, then each holder who made an effective stock election will receive:

the number of shares of Northrim's common stock equal to the (i) Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by the (ii) number of shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock covered by such stock election, multiplied by the (iii) Stock Proration Factor which is defined as the Total Stock Amount divided by the product of the total number of Alaska Pacific shares subject to which effective stock elections were made, multiplied by the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio; and cash in an amount equal to the product of the (i) Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, multiplied by the (ii) number of Alaska Pacific shares of common stock covered by such stock election, multiplied by (iii) one minus the Stock Proration Factor.

In the event that Alaska Pacific shareholders in aggregate elect to receive shares of Alaska Pacific Common Stock in an amount that is less than the Total Stock Amount then to the extent necessary to ensure that the aggregate shares of Northrim's common stock to be issued in the merger equal the Total Stock Amount, the Exchange Agent shall make the following allocations:

All shareholders who have made an effective stock election will have their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock converted into the right to receive shares of Northrim's common stock in an amount equal to the product of Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio multiplied by the number of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock covered by such stock elections.

All undesignated shares shall be allocated on a pro rata basis shares of Northrim common stock as necessary to ensure that the number of Northrim shares of common stock issued in the merger equals the Total Stock Amount;

If the number of shares of Northrim common stock to be issued in the merger is still less than the Total Stock Amount after allocating shares of Northrim common stock to all holders of undesignated shares, then each holder who made an effective cash election will receive:

cash equal to the (i) Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, multiplied by the (ii) the number of shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock covered by such cash election, multiplied by (iii) one minus the Cash Proration Factor which is defined as the Total Stock Amount (less shares subject to effective stock elections or to be received by holders of undesignated shares) divided by the product of the total number of Alaska Pacific shares subject to which effective cash elections were made, multiplied by the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio; and a number of shares of Northrim common stock equal to the product of the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by the number of Alaska Pacific shares of common stock covered by such cash election, multiplied by the Cash Proration Factor.

In the event that Alaska Pacific shareholders in aggregate elect to receive shares of Alaska Pacific common stock in an amount that is equal to the Total Stock Amount then:

the Alaska Pacific shares for which effective stock elections have been made shall be converted into the right to receive shares of Northrim's common stock equal to the product of the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by the number of Alaska Pacific shares of common stock covered by such stock elections;

the Alaska Pacific shares of common stock for which effective cash elections have been made shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount; and the undesignated shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount.

Withholding

Northrim and the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any Alaska Pacific shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any applicable federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If any such amounts are withheld, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

Dividends and Distributions

Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Northrim on Northrim common stock, the record date for which is at or after the effective time of the merger, the declaration will include dividends or other distributions on all shares of Northrim common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement, but such dividends or other distributions will not be paid to the holder of Alaska Pacific common stock until such holder has duly surrendered its Alaska Pacific stock certificates or book-entry shares.

Table of Contents*Dissenting Shares*

Each outstanding share of Alaska Pacific's common stock, the holder of which has perfected his, her or its dissenters rights under the Alaska Corporations Code and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the effective time of the merger shall not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the Alaska Corporations Code and will receive payment for its shares of Alaska Pacific common stock based on the terms of such statute. See The Merger Dissenters Rights beginning on page [] for more information on procedures governing the treatment of shares where dissenters rights have been properly perfected.

Treatment of Options, the TARP Warrant and TARP Stock*Treatment of TARP Stock*

The merger agreement requires that Alaska Pacific use its reasonable best efforts to cause or facilitate the repurchase or redemption of all of the issued and outstanding shares of TARP Stock from the holders thereof before the effective time of the merger on terms deemed satisfactory by Alaska Pacific and Northrim. Further, it is a condition to the closing of the merger agreement that Alaska Pacific shall have caused, or shall have entered into one or more definitive agreements to effect, the repurchase or redemption by Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank of all of the issued and outstanding shares of TARP Stock from the holders thereof, before the consummation of the merger.

Treatment of TARP Warrants

The merger agreement states that in the event the TARP Warrant has not been converted into shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock on or before the effective time of the merger, the TARP Warrant shall, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of Northrim, be converted automatically into the right of the U.S. Department of Treasury to receive an amount in cash equal to the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, less $4.08 (the exercise price per share of the TARP Warrant) multiplied by the number of shares of Alaska Pacific common stock represented by the TARP Warrant. Further, it is a condition to the closing of the merger agreement that Alaska Pacific shall have caused either the TARP Warrant to be converted into shares of Alaska Pacific common stock or have caused the terms of the TARP Warrant to be amended to provide for the TARP Warrant to be converted solely into cash.

Treatment of Options

Under the merger agreement each right or option to acquire shares of Alaska Pacific's common stock (the Alaska Pacific Stock Options) which is then outstanding and has not expired by its terms (whether or not such Alaska Pacific Stock Option is then vested or exercisable) granted by Alaska Pacific under a stock option plan shall cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Alaska Pacific common stock and shall be cancelled and terminated and the holders of the Alaska Pacific Stock Options shall not be entitled to receive any consideration with respect to any Alaska Pacific Stock Option because the per share exercise price of each Alaska Pacific Stock Option is greater than the maximum potential Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount. Alaska Pacific is required to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the written acknowledgement of each holder of a then-outstanding Alaska Pacific Stock Option which has not expired by its terms with regard to the cancellation of such Alaska Pacific Stock Option on, or prior to, the effective time of the merger. Alaska Pacific is also required to terminate all of its stock plans.

Superior Proposal means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal not solicited or initiated in violation of the merger agreement that (1) relates to (A) the issuance by Alaska Pacific of securities representing a majority of its outstanding voting securities (including upon the conversion, exercise or exchange of securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for such voting securities) or (B) the acquisition by any person of any of (i) a majority of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific common stock, by tender or exchange offer, merger or otherwise, or (ii) all or substantially all of the consolidated total assets of Alaska Pacific, (2) is otherwise on terms that the Alaska Pacific board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with Alaska Pacific's financial and legal advisors and taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and the merger agreement, are more favorable to Alaska Pacific and its shareholders than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and (3) is, in the reasonable judgment of the Alaska Pacific board of directors, reasonably capable of being completed on its stated terms, taking into account the material financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of such inquiry, proposal or offer; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall the Alaska Pacific board of directors determine that an Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal on the basis of anything other than the amount of cash and the then-current fair value of any securities or other consideration to be issued or paid to the holders of Alaska Pacific common stock, (but the Alaska Pacific board of directors may consider the impact of any tax laws upon the holders of Alaska Pacific common stock in connection with such Acquisition Proposal) or any earn-out, holdback, escrow, performance award, contingent value right or any other payment of any kind or nature whatsoever.

The merger agreement requires Alaska Pacific to submit the merger agreement to a shareholder vote even if its board of directors effects a change in its recommendation, subject to the right of Alaska Pacific to terminate the merger agreement prior thereto to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal.

Additionally, neither Northrim nor Alaska Pacific will be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of fraud or a willful breach.

Termination Fee

The merger agreement provides that Alaska Pacific would be required to pay Northrim a termination fee of $600,000 upon termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances, including Alaska Pacific entering into an agreement with respect to a competing offer or entering into an alternative acquisition within 18 months of the termination of the merger agreement due to Alaska Pacific's shareholders failing to approve the merger after the prior announcement of another Acquisition Proposal or Alaska Pacific committing a willful intentional breach of the merger agreement. Alternatively, Northrim would be required to pay a termination fee to Alaska Pacific of $600,000 in the event that Alaska Pacific terminates the merger agreement due to a willful intentional breach by Northrim.

Expenses

Each of Northrim and Alaska Pacific will be responsible for all expenses incurred by it in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel, provided that either party may still recover any liabilities or damages arising out of the other party's fraud or willful breach.

However, upon any termination of the merger agreement (i) by Northrim upon the occurrence of any material breach of the merger agreement by Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank, or (ii) by Alaska Pacific upon the occurrence of any material breach of the merger agreement by Northrim or Northrim Bank, then the terminating party shall, within ten (10) business days after receipt of documentation therefor, pay to the non-terminating party an amount in cash equal to the out-of-pocket costs and expenses, including without limitation the attorney, accountants and financial advisors' fees and other costs and expenses of any kind and nature whatsoever incurred by the terminating party in the course of such party's negotiation, investigation, and documentation of the merger agreement and its performance in pursuit of the transactions contemplated thereunder. Additionally, subject to applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended by written agreement of the parties. ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition by Northrim using the acquisition method of accounting. The result of this is that (1) the recorded assets and liabilities of Northrim will be carried forward at their recorded amounts, (2) Northrim's historical operating results will be unchanged for the prior periods being reported on and (3) the assets and liabilities of Alaska Pacific will be adjusted to fair value at the date Northrim assumes control of the combined entities (the merger date). In addition, all identifiable intangibles will be recorded at fair value and included as part of the net assets acquired. The amount by which the purchase price, consisting of the fair value of cash and shares of Northrim common stock to be issued to former Alaska Pacific shareholders, exceeds the fair value of the net assets including identifiable intangibles of Alaska Pacific at the merger date will be reported as goodwill. In accordance with current accounting guidance, goodwill is not amortized and will be evaluated for impairment at least annually. Identified intangibles will be amortized over their estimated lives. Further, the acquisition method of accounting results in the operating results of Alaska Pacific being included in the operating results of Northrim from the merger date forward.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following is a general discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Alaska Pacific common stock. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or under any United States federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, the regulations promulgated under the Code and court and administrative rulings and decisions, all as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. These authorities may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion.

This discussion addresses only those U.S. holders of Alaska Pacific common stock that hold their shares of Alaska Pacific common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. Further, this discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular U.S. holders in light of their individual circumstances or to U.S. holders that are subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws, including:

financial institutions;

tax-exempt organizations;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

S corporations or other pass-through entities (or investors in an S corporation or other pass-through entity);

insurance companies;

mutual funds;

dealers or brokers in stocks and securities, or currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use mark-to-market method of accounting;

holders of Alaska Pacific common stock subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;

holders of Alaska Pacific common stock that received Alaska Pacific common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, through a tax qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation;

holders of Alaska Pacific common stock that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

holders of Alaska Pacific common stock that hold Alaska Pacific common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion or other integrated transaction; or

United States expatriates or certain former citizens or long-term residents of the United States.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Alaska Pacific common stock that is for United States federal income tax purposes (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) a trust if (a) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) such trust has made a valid election to be treated as a U.S. person for United States federal income tax purposes or (iv) an estate, the income of which is includible in gross income for United States federal income tax purposes regardless of its source.

Table of Contents

If an entity or an arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Alaska Pacific common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes that holds Alaska Pacific common stock, and any partners in such partnership, should consult their own tax advisors.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to a holder of Alaska Pacific common stock may be complex and will depend upon the holder's specific situation and on factors that are not within our control. Each holder of Alaska Pacific common stock should consult with its own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in light of the holder's particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local, foreign or other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the merger and the subsidiary merger (together, the merger transactions) to be treated as a single integrated transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that the merger transactions taken together will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the parties' obligations to complete the merger that Alaska Pacific receive an opinion from Silver, Freedman & Taff, LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger transactions will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. A copy of this opinion, along with an opinion of Davis Wright Tremaine LLP delivered to Northrim that the merger transactions will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, have been filed as exhibits to the registration statement to which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. Neither of the opinions described above will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service or any court. Northrim and Alaska Pacific have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matters relating to the merger transactions, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which those opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger transactions could be adversely affected.

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of Alaska Pacific common stock, assuming the merger transactions are treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a single integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

A U.S. holder will not recognize any gain or loss as a result of exchanging Alaska Pacific common stock solely for Northrim common stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement;

A U.S. holder who exchanges Alaska Pacific common stock for both Northrim common stock and cash (not including cash received in lieu of the issuance of a fractional share of Northrim common stock) in the merger, will generally recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of cash received in exchange for Alaska Pacific common stock in the merger (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Northrim common stock) plus the fair market value of Northrim common stock (including the fair market value of any fractional share) received in the merger, over (b) the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged in the merger or (ii) the amount of cash (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional share) received in the merger. Depending on the U.S. holder's particular circumstances, any such gain will be treated as a dividend or as capital gain, which will be long-term capital gain if as of the effective date of the merger the U.S. holder had a holding period of more than one year for the Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged in the merger. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of Alaska Pacific common stock at different times or at different prices, such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis and holding period in its shares of Northrim common stock may be determined with reference to each block of Alaska Pacific common stock. Such U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss as well as adjusted tax basis and holding periods should be determined. If, however, the cash received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend (as discussed below), the gain will be treated as a dividend to the extent of the U.S. holder's ratable share of accumulated earnings and profits as calculated for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

A U.S. holder who receives cash in lieu of the issuance of a fractional share of Northrim common stock will generally be treated as having received such fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share. Gain or loss generally will be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received instead of the fractional share and the portion of the U.S. holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the Alaska Pacific shares exchanged in the merger which is allocable to the fractional share of Northrim common stock. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shares of Alaska Pacific common stock is more than one year.

The aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Northrim common stock (including a fractional share deemed received and sold for cash as described above) received in the merger will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged therefor, decreased by the amount of any cash received (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Northrim common stock), and increased by the amount of any gain recognized in the merger, including any gain that is treated as a dividend, but excluding any gain resulting from a fractional share deemed received and sold for cash as described above;

The holding period of any shares of Northrim common stock received in the merger will include the holding period of the Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged therefor;

There are certain circumstances in which all or part of the gain recognized by a U.S. holder of Alaska Pacific common stock will be treated as a dividend rather than capital gain. In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the exchange (other than gain with respect to a fractional share) will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether, and to what extent, the exchange reduces the U.S. holder's deemed percentage stock ownership in Northrim. These rules are complex and dependent upon the specific factual circumstances particular to each U.S. holder, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules. Consequently, each U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to such holder; and

A U.S. holder who receives in the merger only cash in exchange for such holder's Alaska Pacific common stock, including as a result of exercising dissenter's rights, will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged in the merger. Each U.S. holder of Alaska Pacific common stock is urged to consult its tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be calculated among different blocks of Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged in the merger. Such gain or loss will generally be treated as capital gain or loss, either long-term or short-term, depending on the U.S. holder's holding period in the shares exchanged.

If the merger transactions are not treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a single integrated transaction that qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the merger will be a fully taxable transaction to the holders of Alaska Pacific common stock. In such case, U.S. holders will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference between the total consideration received in the merger and such holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged in the merger. Each U.S. holder of Alaska Pacific common stock is urged to consult its tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be calculated among different blocks of Alaska Pacific common stock exchanged in the merger. The aggregate adjusted tax basis in the shares of Northrim common stock received in the merger will equal the fair market value of such Northrim common stock as of the closing date of the merger. The holding period of such shares of Northrim common stock will begin on the date immediately following the closing date of the merger.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Non-corporate holders of Alaska Pacific common stock may be subject, under certain circumstances, to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) on any cash payments they receive in the merger. Backup withholding will not apply, however, if the holder of Alaska Pacific common stock:

furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number, certifying that the holder is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the election form/letter of transmittal provided to such holder and otherwise complies with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or provides proof that the holder otherwise is exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the holder timely furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service.

This discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information only and is not tax advice. Holders of Alaska Pacific common stock are urged to consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of United States federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate, gift, alternative minimum and Medicare contribution tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, the acquisition of 10% or more of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as Northrim, would, under the circumstances set forth in the presumption, constitute acquisition of control of the bank holding company.

In addition, a company is required to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, before acquiring 25% (5% in the case of an acquiror that is a bank holding company) or more of any class of outstanding voting stock of a bank holding company, or otherwise obtaining control or a controlling influence over that bank holding company.

Anti-Takeover Provisions and Other Shareholder Protections

Northrim. Northrim's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and bylaws do not contain any anti-takeover provisions or other shareholder protections in addition to those provided to Northrim's shareholders under the Alaska Corporations Code, which are already applicable to Alaska Pacific shareholders.

Alaska Pacific. Alaska Pacific's Articles of Incorporation provide that the approval of the holders of at least 70% of the outstanding shares of each class of voting stock and a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote is required to approve certain business combinations (for example, mergers, share exchanges, significant asset sales and significant stock issuances) involving a related person except in cases where the proposed transaction has been approved in advance by two-thirds of those members of Alaska Pacific's board of directors who are unaffiliated with the related person and who were directors prior to the time when the related person became a related person. The term related person is defined to include any individual, corporation, partnership or other entity (other than Alaska Pacific's tax-qualified benefit plans) which owns beneficially or controls, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the outstanding shares of common stock of Alaska Pacific or an affiliate of such person or entity.

Alaska Pacific's Articles of Incorporation also provide that in evaluating a business combination, Alaska Pacific's board of directors shall in exercising its business judgment as to what is in the best interests of Alaska Pacific and its shareholders, consider all of the following factors and any other factors which it deems relevant. The factors include:

the social and economic effects on Alaska Pacific's employees, depositors, loan and other customers, creditors and other elements of the communities in which Alaska Pacific does business;

the business and financial condition and earnings prospects or operating results of the acquiring person or entity, including, but not limited to, debt service and other existing financial obligations, financial obligations to be incurred in connection with the acquisition, and other likely financial obligations of the acquiring person or entity and the possible effect of such obligations upon Alaska Pacific and the other elements of the communities in which Alaska Pacific does business; and the competence, experience and integrity of the acquiring person or entity and its management.

Alaska Pacific's Articles of Incorporation also provide for restrictions on voting rights of shares owned in excess of 10% of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific from voting shares in excess of this limit. Specifically, the Articles of Incorporation provide that if any person or group acting in concert acquires the beneficial ownership of more than 10% of any class of its common stock without the prior approval by a majority vote of its Whole Board, (as defined in the Articles of Incorporation) then, with respect to each vote in excess of 10% of the voting power of its outstanding shares of voting stock (the Stock Ownership Limit) which such person would otherwise have been entitled to cast, such person shall be entitled to cast additional votes equal to the total number of shares of common stock which a single record owner may cast multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares of common stock which are both beneficially owned and owned of record by such person and the denominator is the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned in excess of the Stock Ownership Limit. Exceptions from this limitation are provided for, among other things, for Alaska Pacific's employee benefit plans. Under the Articles of Incorporation, the restriction on voting shares beneficially owned in violation of the foregoing limitations is imposed automatically, and the Articles of Incorporation provide that Alaska Pacific's directors have the power to construe the foregoing restrictions and to make all determinations necessary or desirable to implement these restrictions.

Preemptive Rights

Northrim. Northrim shareholders are not entitled to preemptive rights to purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire any stock which Northrim may issue or sell, including unissued shares of stock of Northrim.

Alaska Pacific. Holders of Alaska Pacific common stock are not entitled to preemptive rights with respect to any shares which may be issued. Alaska Pacific common stock is also not subject to redemption.

Limitation of Personal Liability of Directors

Northrim. Northrim's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation specify that directors shall have no liability to Northrim or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for (a) conduct that constitutes a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Northrim or the shareholders; (b) acts or omissions that are not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director; (c) willful or negligent conduct by the director in connection with the payment of dividends or the repurchase of stock from other than lawfully available funds; or (d) any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. . If the Alaska Corporations Code is amended in the future to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of Northrim shall be eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by the Alaska Corporations Code, as so amended.

Northrim's bylaws also provide that no director, officer-director, former director or former officer-director of Northrim shall be personally liable to Northrim or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director or officer-director occurring after the effective date of the bylaws unless the conduct is finally adjudged to have been egregious conduct, as defined in the bylaws.

Alaska Pacific. Alaska Pacific's Articles of Incorporation provide that to the fullest extent permitted by the Alaska Corporations Code, a director of Alaska Pacific shall not be personally liable to Alaska Pacific or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for liability of the director for acts that involve (i) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Alaska Pacific or its shareholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) willful or negligent conduct involved in the payment of dividends or the repurchase of stock from other than lawfully available funds; or (iv), a transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. If the Alaska Corporations Code is amended in the future to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by the Alaska Corporations code, as so amended, without any requirement or further action by shareholders.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Northrim. Northrim's bylaws provides that Northrim shall indemnify any person who is; or is threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, and whether by or in the right of Northrim or its shareholders or by any other party, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director or officer-director of Northrim or of any subsidiary corporation against judgments, penalties or penalty taxes, fines, settlements (even if paid or payable to Northrim or its shareholders or to a subsidiary corporation) and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually incurred in connection with such proceeding unless (i) the board of directors determines, after careful deliberation, that there is clear and convincing evidence that such person has engaged in egregious conduct in connection with the matter which gives rise to the claim for indemnification or payment of expenses, or (ii) the liability and expenses were on account of conduct finally adjudged to be egregious conduct. The Articles of Incorporation define egregious conduct as (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (ii) participation in any transaction from which the person will personally receive a benefit in money, property or services to which the person is not legally entitled. The reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, of such person incurred in connection with such proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by Northrim, upon request of such person, in advance of the final disposition or settlement of such proceeding upon receipt by Northrim of a written, unsecured promise by the person to repay such amount if it shall be finally adjudged that the person is not eligible for indemnification or, in the event of a settlement, if Northrim is advised by counsel that, in the opinion of such counsel, the person is not liable for egregious conduct; provided, however, that the board of directors may require collateral to secure such repayment promise if the board determines, in its sole discretion, that the collateral is appropriate under the circumstances. All expenses-incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding shall be considered reasonable unless finally adjudged to be unreasonable.

Alaska Pacific. Under Alaska Pacific's Articles of Incorporation, in all circumstances and to the full extent permitted by the Alaska Corporations Code, Alaska Pacific shall indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer or agent of Alaska Pacific and who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal (including an action by or in the right of Alaska Pacific), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or was serving at the request of Alaska Pacific as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Indemnification may include reimbursement of expenses, attorney fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Alaska Pacific, and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, the person had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and bylaws

Northrim. Northrim's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that Northrim has the right to amend, alter change or repeal any provision of such articles to the extent permitted by the laws of the State of Alaska, and that all rights of shareholders are granted subject to this reservation.

Under the Northrim bylaws, with the exception of the sections dealing with authority, qualifications and size of the board of directors, vacancies on the board of directors, compensation of directors and indemnification of officers and directors, which may be amended only by Northrim's shareholders, the remaining sections of Alaska Pacific's Articles of Incorporation provide that Alaska Pacific's bylaws may be amended only by a vote of not less than 70% of the outstanding shares of Alaska Pacific's capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) cast at a meeting of the shareholders called for that purposes. Section 2.2 Effective Date and Effective Time; Closing.

(a) Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article 9 (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the consummation of the Merger, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions), the parties shall cause articles of merger relating to the Merger (the Articles of Merger) to be filed with the Division of Corporations and Professional Licensing (corporations section) of the State of Alaska pursuant to the ACC on (i) a date selected by Northrim after such satisfaction or waiver which is no later than the later of (A) five (5) Business Days after such satisfaction or waiver or (B) the first month end following such satisfaction or waiver, or (ii) such other date to which the parties may mutually agree in writing. (b) A closing (the Closing) shall take place remotely via electronic exchange of documents and signatures at 9:00 a.m. Pacific Time, or immediately prior to the Effective Time or at such other time as the parties may mutually agree (such date, the Closing Date). Section 2.3 Subsidiary Merger. Immediately following the Effective Time, Northrim shall cause the merger of the Surviving Corporation with and into Northrim, with Northrim being the surviving corporation in such merger (such transaction, the Subsidiary Merger) and on such terms and conditions as may be appropriate in the sole discretion of Northrim. The terms, conditions and effect of the Subsidiary Merger shall be governed solely by the plan of merger attached hereto as Exhibit E, and such transaction shall not be subject to the terms or conditions of this Agreement. From and after the date of this Agreement, Merger Sub shall take such actions and shall execute, deliver, file and furnish such documents and instruments as Northrim may reasonably request in connection with, and for the purpose or with the effect of facilitating, the Subsidiary Merger. Northrim shall cause the Subsidiary Merger to occur on the Closing Date.

Section 2.4 Bank Merger. The terms, conditions and effect of the Bank Merger shall be governed solely by the Bank Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit G, and such transaction shall not be subject to the terms or conditions of this Agreement. From and after the date of this Agreement, Alaska Pacific Bank shall take such actions and shall execute, deliver, file and furnish such documents and instruments as Northrim Bank may reasonably request in connection with, and for the purpose or with the effect of facilitating, the Bank Merger; provided, however, that the effect of any such documents and instruments shall be contingent upon the consummation of the Merger.

ARTICLE 3. EFFECT ON CAPITAL STOCK; EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

Section 3.1 Conversion of Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Northrim, Alaska Pacific or the holders of any shares of capital stock of Alaska Pacific:

(a) Each Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Dissenting Shares) shall thereupon be converted automatically into and shall thereafter represent the right to receive at the election of the holder thereof as provided in Section 3.4 and subject to the provisions of Section 3.4

and this Agreement, either: (1) a number of shares of Northrim Common Stock equal to the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio; or (2) cash in an amount equal to the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount. The Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio and the Per Share Cash Amount are referred to herein collectively as the Common Stock Merger Consideration.

For purposes of this Section 3.1:

(b) All of Shares converted into the Common Stock Merger Consideration pursuant to this Article 3 shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate (each a Certificate) previously representing any such Shares shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such securities, except the right to receive (1) the Common Stock Merger Consideration, (2) any dividends and other distributions in accordance with Section 3.3(g) hereof, and (3) any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional share of Northrim Common Stock in accordance with Section 3.3(f) hereof.

(c) At the Effective Time, and without any action on the part of any Person, each share of common stock of Merger Sub shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 3.2 Treatment of Options, TARP Warrant and Treasury Shares.

(a) At the Effective Time, each Alaska Pacific Stock Option which is then outstanding and has not expired by its terms (whether or not such Alaska Pacific Stock Option is then vested or exercisable) shall cease to represent a right to acquire shares of Alaska Pacific Common Stock and shall be cancelled and terminated and the holders of the Alaska Pacific Stock Options shall not be entitled to receive any consideration with respect to the Alaska Pacific Stock Option because the per share exercise price of each Alaska Pacific Stock Option is greater than the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount. Alaska Pacific shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the written acknowledgement of each holder of a then-outstanding Alaska Pacific Stock Option which has not expired by its terms with regard to the cancellation of such Alaska Pacific Stock Option. On or prior to the Effective Time, Alaska Pacific shall terminate the Alaska Pacific Stock Plans.

(b) In the event the TARP Warrant has not been converted into Shares on or before the Effective Time, the TARP Warrant shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Northrim, be converted automatically into the right of the Treasury Department to receive an amount in cash equal to the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount less $4.08, the exercise price of such TARP Warrant multiplied by the number of Shares represented by the TARP Warrant.

(c) Each Share that is owned immediately prior to the Effective Time by Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries, other than those held in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted, shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist at the Effective Time and no consideration shall be issued in exchange therefor.

Section 3.3 Exchange and Payment.

(a) At or prior to the Effective Time, Northrim shall deposit (or cause to be deposited) with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC (or such other transfer agent as Northrim shall designate in good faith) (the Exchange Agent), in trust for the benefit of holders of Shares, certificates representing the shares of Northrim Common Stock equal to the Total Stock Amount and cash in an amount equal to the Total Cash Amount in accordance with Section 3.1 (collectively hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments due pursuant to Section 3.1, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. At the Closing, Northrim shall deliver to Alaska Pacific a certificate of the Exchange Agent confirming receipt of the Exchange Fund.

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, but not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of an outstanding Certificate or Certificates who did not submit a properly completed Election Form or who had revoked a properly completed Election Form prior to the Election Deadline (i) a form of letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates held by such Person shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent, and which letter shall be in customary form and contain such other provisions as Northrim or the Exchange Agent may reasonably specify), and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of such Certificates. Upon surrender of a Certificate to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as the Exchange Agent may reasonably require, or in the case of a holder who timely submitted a properly completed Election Form (and had not revoked such Election Form) by the Election Deadline, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to promptly receive in exchange therefor the Common Stock Merger Consideration for each Share formerly represented by such Certificate (subject to deduction for any required withholding Tax), and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of Certificates on the Common Stock Merger Consideration.

(c) If payment of the Common Stock Merger Consideration is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition of payment that such Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or shall be otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment shall have paid any transfer and other Taxes required by reason of the payment of the Common Stock Merger Consideration to such Person or shall have established to the satisfaction of Northrim that such Tax either has been paid or is not applicable.

(d) Until surrendered as contemplated herein, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive the Common Stock Merger Consideration payable in respect of Shares theretofore represented by such Certificate, pursuant to Section 3.1, without any interest thereon.

(e) The Common Stock Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Shares formerly represented by such Certificates. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Alaska Pacific shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent for transfer, such Certificates shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article 3, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenting Shares.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no fractional shares of Northrim Common Stock will be issued and any holder of Shares entitled to receive a fractional share of Northrim Common Stock but for this Section 3.3(f) shall be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof, which payment shall be calculated by the Exchange Agent and shall represent such holder's proportionate interest in a share of Northrim Common Stock based on the Northrim Average Share Price.

(g) No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Northrim Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate who is to receive Northrim Common Stock pursuant to the provisions hereof until the holder of record of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate by a holder receiving Northrim Common Stock pursuant to the provisions hereof, there shall be paid to the record holder of the certificates representing whole shares of Northrim Common Stock issued in exchange therefore, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of Northrim Common

Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.3(f) and the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Northrim Common Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender payable with respect to such whole shares of Northrim Common Stock.

(h) The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the shares of Northrim Common Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such shares of Northrim Common Stock for the account of the Persons entitled thereto. Former shareholders of record of Alaska Pacific who are to receive shares of Northrim Common Stock pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be entitled to vote after the Effective Time at any meeting of Northrim shareholders the number of whole shares of Northrim Common Stock into which their respective Shares are converted, regardless of whether such holders have exchanged their Certificates for certificates representing Northrim Common Stock in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(i) Any portion of the Exchange Fund (and any interest or other income earned thereon) that remains undistributed to the holders of Certificates six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, upon demand of Northrim, and any holders of Certificates or who have not theretofore complied with this Article 3 shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws), as general creditors thereof, for payment of such holder's pro rata portion of the Common Stock Merger Consideration with respect to Shares formerly represented by such Certificate, without interest.

(j) None of Northrim, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent, or any other Person shall be liable to any Person in respect of any portion of the Exchange Fund being properly delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(k) If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Northrim, of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Northrim or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such amount as Northrim or the Exchange Agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Common Stock Merger Consideration with respect to shares formerly represented by such Certificate, without interest.

(l) Any portion of the Exchange Fund made available to the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 3.3(a) with respect to any Dissenting Shares shall be returned to Northrim, upon demand.

(m) Northrim shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any other applicable state, local or foreign Tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by Northrim, such withheld amounts (i) shall be remitted by Northrim to the applicable Governmental Entity, and (ii) shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Shares in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Northrim.

(n) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the issued and outstanding shares of Northrim Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into or exercisable for shares of Northrim Common Stock, shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class by reason of any reclassification, stock split (including a reverse stock split), stock dividend or distribution, recapitalization, redenomination, merger, issuer tender or exchange offer, or other similar transaction, then the Total Stock Amount and associated collar prices of Northrim Common Stock, as applicable, shall be equitably adjusted and as so adjusted shall, from and after the date of such event, be the Total Stock Amount and associated collar prices of Northrim Common Stock, as applicable.

Table of ContentsSection 3.4 Election and Proration Procedures.

(a) Election Form and Mailing. An election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass only upon delivery of such Certificates to the Exchange Agent) in such form as Northrim and Alaska Pacific shall mutually agree (Election Form) shall be mailed no less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the anticipated Effective Time or on such other date as Northrim and Alaska Pacific shall mutually agree (Mailing Date) to each holder of record of Shares as of five (5) Business Days prior to the Mailing Date (Election Form Record Date). Northrim shall make available one or more Election Forms as may be reasonably requested by all Persons who become holders (or beneficial owners) of Shares after the Election Form Record Date and prior to the Election Deadline (as defined below), and Alaska Pacific shall provide to the Exchange Agent all information reasonably necessary for it to perform its obligations as specified herein. Each Election Form shall permit the holder (or the beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions) to elect (an Election) to receive their respective Common Stock Merger Consideration in either (i) shares of Northrim Common Stock (a Stock Election) with respect to all of such holder's Shares, or (ii) cash (a Cash Election) with respect to all of such holder's Shares, subject to the provisions contained in this Agreement. Any Shares with respect to which the holder (or the beneficial owner, as the case may be) shall not have submitted to the Exchange Agent, an effective, properly completed Election Form received prior to the Election Deadline shall be deemed to be Undesignated Shares hereunder.

(b) Election Deadline. Any Election shall have been properly made and effective only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form by 5:00 P.M. Alaska time on or before the 30th day following the Mailing Date, or such later time and date as Northrim and Alaska Pacific may mutually agree prior to the Effective Time (the Election Deadline). An Election Form shall be deemed properly completed only if an Election is indicated for each Share covered by such Election Form and if accompanied by one or more Certificates (or customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Certificates or the guaranteed delivery of such Certificates) representing all Shares covered by such Election Form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included in or required by the Election Form. Any Election Form may be revoked or changed by the Person submitting such Election Form at or prior to the Election Deadline. In the event an Election Form is revoked prior to the Election Deadline, the Shares represented by such Election Form shall automatically become Undesignated Shares unless and until a new Election is properly completed and made with respect to such Shares on or before the Election Deadline, and Northrim shall cause the Certificates representing such Shares to be promptly returned without charge to the Person submitting the revoked Election Form upon written request to that effect from the holder who submitted such Election Form. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any Election Form, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the Election Forms, and any decisions of Northrim required by the Exchange Agent and made in good faith in determining such matters shall be binding and conclusive. Neither Northrim nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any Person of any defect in an Election Form. Any termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 10 shall result in a revocation of all Election Forms delivered to the Exchange Agent on or prior to the date of such termination. In the event of any termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 10, the Exchange Agent shall return any Certificates delivered to the Exchange Agent on or prior to the date of such termination.

(c) Allocation. Northrim shall use its best efforts to cause the Exchange Agent to effect the allocation among the holders of Shares of rights to receive Northrim Common Stock or cash in the Merger as follows:

(i) If the conversion of Shares for which Cash Elections shall have effectively been made would result in a number of shares of Northrim Common Stock being issued that is greater than the Total Stock Amount (which shall be determined for this purpose on the assumption that all Shares other than those for which Cash Elections have been made would be entitled to receive shares of Northrim Common Stock in accordance with the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio) then, to the extent necessary so that the number of shares of Northrim

A-15

Table of Contents

Common Stock to be issued in the Merger shall be equal to the Total Stock Amount, the Exchange Agent shall make the following allocations and adjustments in the following order:

(A) Shares for which effective Cash Elections have been made shall be converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount;

(B) the Exchange Agent shall allocate on a pro rata basis to holders of Undesignated Shares so much of the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, as shall be necessary so that the shares of Northrim Common Stock to be received by holders of Undesignated Shares, when combined with the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock for which Stock Elections have been made shall be equal to the Total Stock Amount. If all Undesignated Shares are converted into the right to receive the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount and the Shares for which a Stock Election was made are still greater than the Total Stock Amount, then;

(C) a stock proration factor (the Stock Proration Factor) shall be determined by dividing (x) the Total Stock Amount by (y) the product of (i) the total number of Shares with respect to which effective Stock Elections were made multiplied by (ii) the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio. Each holder of Shares who made an effective Stock Election shall be entitled to receive:

(1) the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by (y) the number of Shares covered by such Stock Election, multiplied by (z) the Stock Proration Factor; and

(2) cash in an amount equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, multiplied by (y) the number of Shares covered by such Stock Election, multiplied by (z) one minus the Stock Proration Factor.

(ii) If the conversion of the Shares for which Stock Elections shall have effectively been made (based upon the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio) would result in a number of shares of Northrim Common Stock being issued that is less than the Total Stock Amount (which shall be determined for this purpose on the assumption that all Shares other than those for which Stock Elections have been made would be entitled to receive the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount), then, to the extent necessary so that the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock to be issued in the Merger shall be equal to the Total Stock Amount, the Exchange Agent shall make the following allocations and adjustments in the following order:

(A) each holder of Shares who made an effective Stock Election shall receive the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock equal to the product of the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by the number of shares of Shares covered by such Stock Election;

(B) the Exchange Agent shall allocate on a pro rata basis to holders of Undesignated Shares so much of the Northrim Common Stock as shall be necessary so that the shares of Northrim Common Stock to be received by those holders, when combined with the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock for which a Stock Election has been made shall be equal to at least the Total Stock Amount. If all Undesignated Shares plus all Shares as to which Stock Elections have been made together are still less than the Total Stock Amount, then;

(C) a cash proration factor (the Cash Proration Factor) shall be determined by dividing (x) the Total Stock Amount (less the shares of Northrim Common Stock to be received by holders of Shares for which an effective Stock Election has been made, and less all the shares of Northrim Common Stock to be received by Undesignated Shares) by (y) the product of (i) the total number of Shares with respect to which effective Cash Elections were made multiplied by (ii) the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio. Each holder of Shares who made an effective Cash Election shall be entitled to receive:

(1) cash equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount, multiplied by (y) the number of Shares covered by such Cash Election, multiplied by (z) one minus the Cash Proration Factor; and

A-16

Table of Contents

(2) the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock equal to the product of (x) the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by (y) the number of Shares covered by such Cash Election, multiplied by (z) the Cash Proration Factor.

(iii) If the aggregate number of shares of Alaska Pacific Common Stock for which Stock Elections shall have effectively been made would result in a number of shares of Northrim Common Stock being issued that is equal to the Total Stock Amount:

(A) the Shares for which effective Stock Elections have been made shall be converted into the right to receive Northrim Common Stock equal to the product of the Per Share Common Stock Exchange Ratio, multiplied by the number of Shares covered by such Stock Elections;

(B) the Shares for which effective Cash Elections have been made shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount; and

(C) the Undesignated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Common Stock Cash Amount.

(iv) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if, after applying the allocation rules set forth in the preceding subsections of this Section 3.4(c), the aggregate value of the shares of Northrim Common Stock that would be issued pursuant to the Merger (valued at the Northrim Average Closing Price) is less than the Total Stock Amount or more than the Total Stock Amount, Northrim shall be authorized to reallocate shares of Northrim Common Stock and cash among the holders of Alaska Pacific Common Stock in good faith and in such a manner as Northrim reasonably determines to be fair and equitable, or to vary the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, in a manner such that the number of shares of Northrim Common Stock to be issued in the Merger shall be equal to the Total Stock Amount.

(d) The calculations required by this Section 3.4 shall be prepared by Northrim prior to the Effective Time and shall be set forth in a certificate executed by the Chief Financial Officer of Northrim and furnished to Alaska Pacific at least two (2) Business Days prior to the Effective Time showing the manner of calculation in reasonable detail satisfactory to Alaska Pacific. Any calculation of a portion of a share of Northrim Common Stock shall be rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth of a share, and any cash payment shall be rounded to the nearest cent.

Section 3.5 Withholding Rights. Northrim, the Surviving Corporation and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any holder of Shares, pursuant to this Agreement, such amounts as Northrim, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent determines it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Northrim, the Surviving Corporation, or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

Section 3.6 Dissenting Shares. Each outstanding Share the holder of which has perfected his, her or its dissenters rights or appraisal rights under the Alaska Dissenters Rights Laws and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into the right to receive the Common Stock Merger Consideration, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the Alaska Dissenters Rights Laws. Alaska Pacific shall give Northrim prompt notice upon receipt by Alaska Pacific of any such demands for payment of the value of such Shares and of withdrawals of such notice and any other instruments provided pursuant to the Alaska Dissenters Rights Laws, and Northrim shall have the right to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demands. Alaska Pacific shall not, except with the prior written consent of Northrim (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), voluntarily make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demand for payment, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or the taking of any other action by such holder of Dissenting Shares as may be necessary to perfect appraisal rights under the Alaska Dissenters' Rights Laws. All payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by the Surviving Corporation.

ARTICLE 4. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF ALASKA PACIFIC AND ALASKA PACIFIC BANK

(a) Alaska Pacific is an entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Alaska, has all requisite corporate or similar power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now being conducted, and is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its business or the ownership, leasing or operation of its properties makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified or licensed or in good standing, individually or in the aggregate, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Alaska Pacific is registered as a savings and loan holding company under the HOLA.

(b) Alaska Pacific Bank and First Services are the only Subsidiaries of Alaska Pacific. Alaska Pacific Bank is a federally-chartered savings institution duly organized, and validly existing under the Laws of the United States, has all requisite corporate or similar power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now being conducted, and is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing (where such concept is recognized) in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its business or the ownership, leasing or operation of its properties makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified, licensed or in good standing, individually or in the aggregate, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Alaska Pacific Bank's appropriate federal banking agency (as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1813(g)) is the OCC.

All information obtained by Northrim at these meetings shall be treated in confidence as provided in this Section 6.4.

Section 6.5 Certain Policies. Prior to the Effective Date, each of Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries shall, to the extent permitted by and consistent with GAAP, the rules and regulations of the SEC, and applicable banking Laws, use its reasonable best efforts to modify or change its Loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, Tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of Northrim; provided, however, that (a) no such modifications or changes need be made prior to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 9.1, and (b) Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries shall not be required to take such actions more than one day prior to the Effective Time or prior to the time Northrim agrees in writing that all of the conditions to its obligation to close as set forth in Section 9.3 have been satisfied or waived; and further provided that in any event, no accrual or reserve made by Alaska Pacific or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 6.5 shall constitute or be deemed to be a breach, violation of or failure to satisfy any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, condition or other provision of this Agreement or otherwise be considered in determining whether any such breach, violation or failure to satisfy shall have occurred. The recording of any such adjustments shall not be deemed to imply any misstatement of previously furnished financial statements or information and shall not be construed as concurrence of Alaska Pacific or its management with any such adjustments.

Section 6.6 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) Alaska Pacific agrees that

(i) From the date of this Agreement through the Effective Time or the valid termination of this Agreement, Alaska Pacific (or Alaska Pacific Bank) shall not, and shall cause its Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by it) (all of the foregoing, collectively, Representatives) retained by it (or Alaska Pacific Bank) not to, directly or indirectly through another Person, (A) solicit, initiate or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action designed to facilitate or that is likely to result in, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal as defined in paragraph (f) of this Section 6.6, (B) furnish information or access to any Person that has made an Acquisition Proposal to the Alaska Pacific Board or that makes an Acquisition Proposal to the Alaska Pacific Board after the date hereof (C) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal;

(ii) notwithstanding Section 6.6(a)(i) above, prior to the receipt of the Shareholder Approval, Alaska Pacific may, directly or indirectly through its Representatives, (A) furnish information and access to any Person that has made an Acquisition Proposal to the Alaska Pacific Board or that makes an Acquisition Proposal to the Alaska Pacific Board after the date hereof and (B) participate in discussions and negotiate with such Person concerning any such Acquisition Proposal, if and only if, in either such case set forth in clause (A) or (B) of this sentence, (1) such Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach of Section 6.6(a), (2) the Alaska Pacific Board determines in good faith, after consultation with Alaska Pacific's financial and legal advisors, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal, as that term is defined in paragraph (f) of this Section 6.6, and (3) Alaska Pacific receives from the Person making such an Acquisition Proposal an executed confidentiality agreement the material terms of which, as they relate to confidentiality, are in all material respects (x) no less favorable to Alaska Pacific and (y) no less restrictive to the Person making such Acquisition Proposal than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between Northrim and Alaska Pacific and any information provided to such Person has previously been provided to Northrim or is provided to Northrim concurrently with its provision to such Person;

(iii) notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Alaska Pacific shall (A) promptly (but in no event later than two (2) Business Days) advise Northrim, orally and in writing, of (1) the receipt by it (or any of its Representatives) of any Acquisition Proposal, or any inquiry which could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, or any material modification of or material amendment to any Acquisition Proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank or for access to the properties, books or records Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank by any Person or entity that informs the Alaska Pacific Board or the board of directors of Alaska Pacific Bank that it is considering making, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal and (2) the material terms and conditions of such proposal or inquiry (whether written or oral) or modification or amendment to an Acquisition Proposal, and (B) keep Northrim fully informed of the status and material details of any such proposal or inquiry and any material developments with respect thereto; and

(iv) Alaska Pacific shall use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any existing confidentiality or standstill agreements in accordance with the terms thereof, and shall immediately take all steps necessary to terminate any approval that may have been given prior to the date hereof under any such provisions authorizing any Person to make an Acquisition Proposal.

(b) Prior to the date of Alaska Pacific Meeting, Alaska Pacific may terminate this Agreement, if (i) the Alaska Pacific Board authorizes Alaska Pacific, subject to complying with the terms of this Section 6.6, to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal and (ii) immediately prior to or concurrently with the termination of this Agreement, Alaska Pacific enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal.

(c) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 6.6(c), neither the Alaska Pacific Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) fail to make, withdraw, modify, qualify or place any condition on, or propose publicly to withhold, withdraw, modify, qualify or place any condition on, in any manner adverse to Northrim, its favorable recommendation for the approval and adoption of this Agreement, including the Merger, by the shareholders of Alaska Pacific (it being understood that publicly taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal at any time beyond ten (10) Business Days after the first public announcement of such Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the Alaska Pacific Recommendation), or (ii) approve, endorse or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, endorse or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger (any of the foregoing, a Change in Recommendation). In addition to the foregoing, Alaska Pacific shall not submit to the vote of its shareholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to Section 6.6(d), prior to the date of the Alaska Pacific Meeting, the Alaska Pacific Board may effect a Change in Recommendation if it concludes in good faith (and based on the advice of its outside legal advisors) that the failure to do so would breach, or would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of, the Alaska Pacific Board's fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(d) Prior to terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.6(b) or making any Change in Recommendation in connection with an Acquisition Proposal pursuant to Section 6.6(c): (i) Alaska Pacific shall have complied in all respects with Section 6.6(a) and Section 6.6(e); (ii) Alaska Pacific shall have given Northrim written notice of the intention of the Alaska Pacific Board to take such action, with such notice specifying the material terms and conditions of the Acquisition Proposal, including the identity of the Person making such Acquisition Proposal, a copy of all material documents relating thereto and a copy of and all information provided to such Person that had not previously been provided to Northrim, and ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such notice for Northrim to propose revisions to the terms of this Agreement (or make another proposal), and if Northrim proposes to revise the terms of this Agreement, Alaska Pacific shall not have submitted to the vote of its shareholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger during the pendency of any negotiations during such ten (10) Business Day period between Alaska Pacific (including its financial and legal advisors) and Northrim and its Representatives with respect to such proposed revisions; (iii) the Alaska Pacific Board shall have determined in good faith, after considering the results of such negotiations with Northrim, if any, and giving effect to any proposals, amendments or modifications offered or agreed to by Northrim, if any, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; and (iv) Alaska Pacific simultaneously with a termination pursuant to Section 10.3(a) pays to Northrim in immediately available funds any fees required to be paid pursuant to Section 10.5(b). In the event the Alaska Pacific Board does not make the determination referred to in clause (iii) of this paragraph, the Alaska Pacific Board shall not effect such termination or Change in Recommendation and thereafter if the Alaska Pacific Board determines that it proposes or intends to effect a termination of this Agreement or Change in Recommendation, the procedures referred to above shall apply to any subsequent proposed termination of this Agreement or Change in Recommendation. In the event of any material revisions to any Acquisition Proposal subject to the provisions of this Section 6.6(d), Alaska Pacific shall be required to deliver a new written notice to Northrim and to again comply with the requirements of this Section 6.6(d) with respect to such new written notice. For the avoidance of doubt, the right of Northrim to propose revisions to the terms of this Agreement (or make another proposal) in response to an Acquisition Proposal shall not be construed as an obligation to do so, and upon receiving notice of an Acquisition Proposal, Northrim may, in response thereto, take any action that is permitted of Northrim under this Agreement, including without limitation terminating this Agreement and exercising the remedies set forth in Article 10.

(e) Alaska Pacific and Alaska Pacific Bank shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions or negotiations with any Persons (other than Northrim) conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause all Persons other than Northrim who have been furnished confidential information regarding Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank in connection with the solicitation of or discussions regarding an Acquisition Proposal promptly to return or destroy such information.

(f) For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

(i) Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer, filing of any regulatory application or notice (whether in draft or final form) or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing from any Person relating to any (w) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 10% or more of the total revenues, net income, assets or deposits of Alaska Pacific and Alaska Pacific Bank taken as a whole, (x) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of any class of Equity Securities representing 10% or more of the voting power of Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank, (y) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any Person beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of Equity Securities of Alaska Pacific or (z) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(ii) Superior Proposal means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal not solicited or initiated in violation of Section 6.6, that (1) relates to (A) the issuance by Alaska Pacific of securities representing a majority of its outstanding voting securities (including upon the conversion, exercise or exchange of securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for such voting securities) or (B) the acquisition by any Person of any of (i) a majority of the outstanding Shares, by tender or exchange offer, merger or otherwise, or (ii) all or substantially all of the advisors and taking into account all the terms and conditions of such proposal and this Agreement, are more favorable to Alaska Pacific and its shareholders than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (3) is, in the reasonable judgment of the Alaska Pacific Board, reasonably capable of being completed on its stated terms, taking into account the material financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of such inquiry, proposal or offer; provided, however, that under no circumstances shall the Alaska Pacific Board determine that an Acquisition Proposal is a Superior Proposal on the basis of anything other than the amount of cash and the then-current fair value of any securities or other consideration to be issued or paid to the holders of Alaska Pacific Common Stock, (but the Alaska Pacific Board may consider the impact of any Tax Laws upon the holders of Alaska Pacific Common Stock in connection with such Acquisition Proposal) or any earn-out, holdback, escrow, performance award, contingent value right or any other payment of any kind or nature whatsoever.

(g) For avoidance of doubt, this Section 6.6 shall not survive the termination of this Agreement.

Section 6.7 Estoppel and Consent Letters. Alaska Pacific shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain and deliver to Northrim at or prior to the Closing with respect to real estate (a) owned by Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries, an estoppel letter dated as of or before the Closing Date in the form of Exhibit H from all tenants, and (b) leased by Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries, a consent letter dated as on or before the Closing Date in the form of Exhibit I from each lessor whose consent is required to enter this Agreement and to complete the transaction contemplated hereunder.

Section 6.8 Owned Real Property. From the date of this Agreement until the Closing Date, Alaska Pacific shall inform Northrim prior to taking title to any property that would be treated as OREO and shall comply with Northrim's reasonable requests to obtain and deliver to Northrim Phase I environmental reports or other credible evidence of the environmental condition with respect to each parcel of real property, and any and all such Phase I environmental reports or other evidence supplied to Northrim under this section shall be acceptable to Northrim in its reasonable discretion.

Section 6.9 Voting Support Agreements. Each director and executive officer of Alaska Pacific, as a holder of Alaska Pacific Common Stock, shall execute and deliver to Northrim simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement or at such time as the parties may otherwise agree a Voting Support Agreement.

Section 6.10 Change in Control Agreements. Unless otherwise directed by the executive entitled to the benefits of a change in control severance agreement, Alaska Pacific shall accrue, immediately prior to the Effective Time, all sums due and owing to such executives pursuant to such agreements as of the Effective Time.

Section 6.11 Exemption from Liability Under Section 16(b). Alaska Pacific and Northrim agree that, in order to most effectively compensate and retain Alaska Pacific insiders, both prior to and after the Effective Time, it is desirable that Alaska Pacific insiders not be subject to a risk of liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in connection with the conversion of shares of Alaska Pacific Common Stock into shares of Northrim Common Stock in the Merger, and for that compensatory and retentive purposes agree to the provisions of this Section 6.11. Assuming Alaska Pacific delivers to Northrim in a reasonably timely fashion prior to the Effective Time accurate information regarding those officers and directors of Alaska Pacific subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act (the Alaska Pacific Insiders), the board of directors of Northrim and of Alaska Pacific, or a committee of non-employee directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall reasonably promptly thereafter, and in any event prior to the Effective Time, take all such steps as may be required to cause any dispositions of Alaska Pacific Common Stock and Alaska Pacific Stock Options by the Alaska Pacific Insiders, and any acquisitions of Northrim Common Stock, or the stock issued pursuant to Section 3.1 by any Alaska Pacific Insiders who, immediately following the Merger, will be officers or directors of the Surviving Corporation subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to be exempt from liability pursuant to Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

The accounts of all participants and beneficiaries in the ESOP as of the Effective Time shall become fully vested as of the Effective Time. ARTICLE 7. COVENANTS OF NORTHRIM

Section 7.1 Forbearances of Northrim. From the date hereof until the Effective Time, except as expressly contemplated or permitted by this Agreement, without the prior written consent of Alaska Pacific, Northrim will not, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries not to:

(a) Adverse Actions. (i) Take any action that would, or is reasonably likely to, prevent or materially impede or delay the Transactions; or (ii) take any action that is intended or is reasonably likely to result in (A) any of its representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement being or becoming untrue in any material respect at any time at or prior to the Effective Time, (B) any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article 9 not being satisfied, (C) a material violation of any provision of this Agreement, except as may be required by applicable Law or regulation, or (D) a material delay in the ability of Northrim or Alaska Pacific to perform any of their respective obligations under this Agreement on a timely basis.

(b) Extraordinary Dividend. Other than in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any extraordinary dividend to be paid to the shareholders of Northrim; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 7.1(b) shall be construed as limiting the ability of any Northrim Subsidiary to make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend, if permitted by applicable Law, or otherwise by any Bank Regulatory Authority, dividends from any Northrim Subsidiary to Northrim.

(c) Commitments. Enter into any contract with respect to, or otherwise agree or commit to do, any of the foregoing.

Table of ContentsSection 7.2 Indemnification; Director s and Officer s Insurance.

(a) For a period of four (4) years after the Effective Time, Northrim agrees that it will indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of Alaska Pacific (each, an Indemnified Party and, collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against all costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including without limitation, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, to the fullest extent that the Alaska Pacific would have been permitted under the ACC and the Alaska Pacific Articles and the Alaska Pacific Bylaws and the charter and bylaws of Alaska Pacific Bank in effect on the date hereof to indemnify such Person (and Northrim shall also advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, provided, the Person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Person is not entitled to indemnification); provided, further, that any determination required to be made with respect to whether an officer s or director s conduct complies with the standards set forth under the ACC and Alaska Pacific Articles and the Alaska Pacific Bylaws shall be made by independent counsel selected by Northrim. Further, Northrim shall assume, perform and observe the obligations of Alaska Pacific and Alaska Pacific Bank under any indemnity agreements in effect as of the date of this Agreement to indemnify such Persons for their acts and omissions occurring prior to the Closing Date in their capacity as officers or directors.

(b) For a period of two (2) years from the Effective Time, Northrim shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide that portion of director s and officer s liability insurance (D&O Insurance) that serves to reimburse the Indemnified Parties (determined as of the Effective Time) (as opposed to the portion that serves to reimburse Alaska Pacific) with respect to claims against such Indemnified Parties arising from facts or events which occurred at or before the Effective Time, which D&O Insurance shall contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms and conditions no less advantageous, as that coverage currently provided by the Alaska Pacific; provided, however, that in no event shall Northrim be required to expend on an annual basis more than 150% of the current amount expended on an annual basis by Alaska Pacific to maintain or procure such D&O Insurance; provided, further, that if Northrim is unable to maintain or obtain the D&O Insurance called for by this Section 7.2, Northrim shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available; provided, further, that officers and directors of the Alaska Pacific may be required to make application and provide customary representations and warranties to Northrim s insurance carrier for the purpose of obtaining such D&O Insurance.

(c) If Northrim or any of its successors or assigns shall (i) consolidate with or merge into any other corporation or entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any other Person, then, and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Northrim shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.2.

Section 7.3 Nasdaq Stock Exchange. Northrim shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Northrim Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for quotation on the Nasdaq Stock Exchange subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date. Prior to the Closing Date, Alaska Pacific shall cooperate with Northrim and use reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and do or cause to be done all things, reasonably necessary, proper or advisable on its part under applicable Laws to enable the deregistration of the shares of Alaska Pacific Common Stock under the Exchange Act as promptly as practicable after the Effective Time.

Section 8.1 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement; Change of Recommendation.

(a) Alaska Pacific shall promptly prepare the letter to shareholders, notice of meeting, proxy statement and form of proxy and any other soliciting material to be distributed to Alaska Pacific's shareholders in connection with the Merger (including any amendments or supplements) (collectively, the Proxy Statement), and Northrim shall prepare a registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed with the SEC by Northrim in connection with the issuance of shares of Northrim Common Stock in the Merger (the S-4 Registration Statement), which will include the Proxy Statement and materials related to the offering of the Northrim Common stock in the Merger (the Prospectus/Proxy Statement) as promptly as practicable. Northrim and Alaska Pacific each shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the S-4 Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and promptly thereafter Alaska Pacific shall mail the Prospectus/Proxy Statement to the holders of Alaska Pacific Common Stock.

(b) Alaska Pacific and Northrim each agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that (i) the S-4 Registration Statement (including the Prospectus/Proxy Statement) will not, at the time the S-4 Registration Statement becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case with respect to the information supplied or to be supplied by it or its Subsidiaries for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the S-4 Registration Statement, and (ii) the Prospectus/Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will not, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the meeting of shareholders of Alaska Pacific to be held in connection with the Merger, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in each case with respect to the information supplied or to be supplied by it or its Subsidiaries for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Prospectus/Proxy Statement. Alaska Pacific and Northrim will cause the S-4 Registration Statement (including the Prospectus/Proxy Statement) to comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations thereunder. Each of Alaska Pacific and Northrim agrees that if such party shall become aware prior to the Effective Time of any information furnished by such party that would cause any of the statements in the S-4 Registration Statement or the Prospectus/Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or that would result in an omission to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take the necessary steps to correct such information.

Section 8.2 Regulatory Filings.

(a) Each of Northrim and Alaska Pacific and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare all documentation, to effect all filings and notices and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities (including the Bank Regulatory Authorities) necessary to consummate the Transactions, and the Bank Merger; and any initial filings with or notices to the Bank Regulatory Authorities shall be made by Northrim as soon as reasonably practicable after the execution hereof. Each of Northrim and Alaska Pacific shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each shall consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to all written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the Transactions, the Subsidiary Merger and the Bank Merger. In exercising the foregoing right, each of such parties agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party hereto agrees that it shall consult with the other parties hereto with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals, waivers and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the Transactions, the Subsidiary Merger and the Bank Merger, and each party shall keep the other parties apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the Transactions, the Subsidiary Merger and the Bank Merger.

(b) Each party agrees, upon request, to furnish the other parties with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other parties or any of their Subsidiaries to any third party or Governmental Entity.

Section 8.3 Announcements.

(a) Alaska Pacific and Northrim shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to the Transactions or this Agreement and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statements without the prior consent of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party (but after such consultation, to the extent practicable under the circumstances), issue such press release or make such public statements as may upon the advice of outside counsel be required by Law or, as applicable, the rules or regulations of the Nasdaq Stock Exchange. Alaska Pacific and Northrim shall cooperate to develop all public announcement materials and make appropriate management available at presentations related to the Transactions and this Agreement as reasonably requested by the other party. Further, both Alaska Pacific and Northrim shall co-operate to ensure that all public announcement materials and other communication materials regarding the Merger are timely filed with the SEC in accordance with the requirements of both the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

(b) Northrim shall, jointly with Alaska Pacific, as soon as reasonably practicable after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, prepare and mail to each customer of Alaska Pacific Bank a letter describing the proposed Transactions and the anticipated impact of such Proposed Transactions on the customers of Alaska Pacific Bank.

Section 8.4 Investigations; Cooperation.

(a) No investigation by any of the parties or their respective Representatives shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the other parties set forth herein.

(b) Alaska Pacific Bank and Northrim Bank shall cooperate in order to permit Northrim Bank to train Alaska Pacific Bank employees who are expected to continue employment with Northrim Bank, and Alaska Pacific Bank shall, as mutually scheduled by Alaska Pacific Bank and Northrim Bank, use its reasonable efforts to excuse such employees from their duties for the purpose of training and orientation by Northrim Bank. Alaska Pacific Bank and Northrim Bank shall also cooperate in order to allow Northrim Bank to utilize Alaska Pacific Bank employees to assist it in connection with preparing for the conversion of Alaska Pacific Bank's data processing systems. All of the foregoing shall be conducted at the expense of Northrim or Northrim Bank and in a manner that is not disruptive to the normal, usual and regular conduct of business by Alaska Pacific Bank.

Section 8.5 Employment Matters.

(a) No more than ten (10) Business Days following the date of this Agreement, Alaska Pacific will make available to Northrim in writing complete and accurate lists of the employees of Alaska Pacific and each of its Subsidiaries, including Alaska Pacific Bank. Such employee lists shall be updated by Alaska Pacific and provided to Northrim thirty (30) calendar days prior to the Closing Date.

(b) Northrim and Alaska Pacific agree that promptly following the execution of this Agreement, meetings shall be held at such locations as Northrim and Alaska Pacific shall mutually agree, for Northrim and Alaska Pacific to announce the proposed Transactions to the employees of Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries. All employees of Alaska Pacific and Alaska Pacific Bank who are employed immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be continuing employees after the Effective Time at the same compensation with carryover of all accrued vacation and sick days.

(c) As soon as administratively practicable after the Effective Time, Northrim shall take all reasonable action so that employees of Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries who are continuing employees of Northrim shall be entitled to participate in each employee benefit plan, program or arrangement of Northrim of general applicability (the Northrim Benefit Plans) to the same extent as similarly situated employees of Northrim and its Subsidiaries (it being understood that inclusion of the employees of Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries in Northrim Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans), provided that coverage shall be continued under the corresponding Benefit Plans of Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries until such employees are permitted to participate in Northrim Benefit Plans and provided further, however, that nothing contained herein shall require Northrim or any of its Subsidiaries to make any grants to any former employee of Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries under any discretionary equity compensation plan of Northrim. Northrim shall cause each Northrim Benefit Plan in which employees of Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries are eligible to participate to recognize, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting of benefits, and for all other purposes (but not for accrual of pension benefits) under Northrim Benefit Plans, the service of such employees with Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by Alaska Pacific and its Subsidiaries, provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of Northrim to amend or terminate any of Alaska Pacific's Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

(d) At such time as employees of Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of Northrim or its Subsidiaries, Northrim shall cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations and exclusions to the extent such conditions and exclusions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of Northrim, (ii) provide full credit under such plans for any deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation, actively-at-work or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Plan prior to the Effective Time and to the extent permitted under the applicable Northrim Plan.

(e) Each of Alaska Pacific, its Subsidiaries, and Northrim acknowledges and agrees that all provisions contained within this Section 8.5 with respect to Employees are included for the sole benefit of Alaska Pacific and Northrim and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including, Benefit Plans or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with Alaska Pacific, its Subsidiaries, Northrim or any of their respective Affiliates.

(f) Promptly following the Effective Time, Alaska Pacific and Northrim shall cause each employee of Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries who is not employed by Northrim or Northrim Bank following the Merger to be paid for unused vacation time in accordance with Alaska Pacific's past practice. All employees of Alaska Pacific or its Subsidiaries who are terminated by Alaska Pacific, a Alaska Pacific Subsidiary, by Northrim or a Northrim Subsidiary in connection with the Transactions or the Bank Merger or within one year following the Effective Time and who are not covered by specific change in control severance agreements shall be paid in accordance with the terms of the 1999 Alaska Federal Savings Bank Employee Severance Compensation Plan, whether or not such plan has expired, and Northrim agrees to provide them access to outplacement counseling services for a reasonable amount of time after the Effective Time.

(g) Upon consummation of the Merger, Northrim shall, or shall cause Northrim Bank to, honor each change in control severance agreement to which Alaska Pacific or Alaska Pacific Bank is a party with any of its employees. Northrim agrees and acknowledges that the Merger constitutes a change in control as defined in such change in control severance agreements, and agrees to terminate, at the Effective Time, the employment of each of the executive officers of Alaska Pacific who are subject to such change in control severance agreements and to pay at such time the change in control benefits owed to each Alaska Pacific executive officer under the terms of his or her change in control severance agreement.

If the amounts due under Section 10.5(d) are not paid within the time periods specified in Section 10.5(d), the defaulting party shall pay the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by the other party in connection with any action, including the filing of any lawsuit, taken to collect payment of such amounts, provided such other party prevails on the merits, together with interest on the amount of any such unpaid amounts at three percent (3%) in excess of the prime lending rate prevailing during such period as published in The Wall Street Journal, calculated on a daily basis from the date such amounts were required to be paid until the date of actual payment.

kind and nature whatsoever incurred by the terminating party in the course of such party's negotiation, investigation, and documentation of this Agreement and its performance in pursuit of the Transactions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the amount to be paid by either party pursuant to this Section 10.5\(f\) exceed One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) in the aggregate; provided, however, that no amounts shall be paid by either party under this Section 10.5\(f\) if the payments required under Section 10.5\(b\) or Section 10.5\(c\) shall have been paid.

Section 10.6 Specific Performance. The parties to this Agreement acknowledge that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that in any such case any breach of this Agreement could not be adequately compensated by monetary damages alone. Accordingly, prior to the valid termination of this Agreement in accordance with Sections 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 or 10.4, a party shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, or any other appropriate form of specific performance or equitable relief, to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which such party is entitled under the terms of this Agreement, at law or in equity. In pursuing such a claim, a party shall not be obligated to prove damages as a result of such breach or threatened breach, and each party agrees not to raise such a defense. No party shall raise any objections to the availability of the equitable remedy of specific performance to prevent or restrain breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations of a party under this Agreement. In seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement, no party shall be required to post a bond or undertaking in connection with such order or injunction sought in accordance with the terms of this Section 10.6, nor shall any party assert a claim or defense to an action for injunctive relief which claim or defense is based upon the failure to post such a bond or undertaking. Notwithstanding any contrary construction of the foregoing, under no circumstances shall any Northrim Party be entitled to specific enforcement of this Agreement at any time when there exists an Acquisition Proposal that Alaska Pacific Board has advised Northrim it believes in good faith may be or may be negotiated in such a manner as to become a Superior Proposal, or at a time or under circumstances when Alaska Pacific has announced a Change in Recommendation.

Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, no representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to be terminated or extinguished so as to deprive a party hereto or any of its Affiliates of any defense at law or in equity which otherwise would be available against the claims of any Person, including without limitation any shareholder or former shareholder.

Section 11.2 Waiver; Amendment. Prior to the Effective Time, any provision of this Agreement may be (a) waived, by the party benefited by the provision or (b) amended or modified at any time, by an agreement in writing among the parties hereto executed in the same manner as this Agreement, except that after Alaska Pacific Meeting no amendment shall be made which by Law requires further approval by the shareholders of Alaska Pacific without obtaining such approval.

ANNEX B

CONFIDENTIAL

The Board of Directors

October 21, 2013

Alaska Pacific Bancshares, Inc.

2094 Jordan Ave.

Juneau, AK 99801

Members of the Board:

You have requested the opinion of Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW or we) as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Alaska Pacific Bancshares, Inc., Inc. (AKPB) of the Merger Consideration (as defined below) to be received by such shareholders in the proposed merger (the Merger) of AKPB with and into Northrim BanCorp, Inc. (Acquiror). The terms of the Merger are set forth in the draft Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), dated as of October 21, 2013, by and between AKPB and Acquiror. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement) each share of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of AKPB (the Common Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Cancelled Shares (as defined in the Agreement)) shall be converted into the right to receive the following consideration (the Merger Consideration), subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the Agreement: (a) an amount in cash equal to $6,418,000 plus the Aggregate TARP Warrant Exercise Price of $717,149.76 divided by (y) the sum of (1) the number of outstanding Shares as of the date of the Agreement, plus (2) the number of Shares underlying the TARP Warrant as of the date of the Agreement (the Cash Consideration) and (b) a number of shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, of Acquiror (the Acquiror Shares) equal to the quotient of (i) 304,631 Acquiror Shares divided by (y) the sum of (1) the number of outstanding Shares as of the date of the Agreement, plus (2) the number of Shares underlying the TARP Warrant as of the date of the Agreement.). The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

KBW has acted as financial advisor to AKPB and not as an advisor to, or agent of, any other person. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to AKPB and Acquiror, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of AKPB or Acquiror for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to the board of directors of AKPB in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from AKPB for our services. We have acted exclusively for the board of directors of AKPB in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from AKPB for our services. A portion of our fee is contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger. In addition, AKPB has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the past two years, we have provided investment banking and financial advisory services to AKPB. During the past two years, we have not provided investment banking and financial advisory services to Acquiror. We may in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to AKPB or Acquiror and receive compensation for such services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed, and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of AKPB, Acquiror and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) a draft of the Agreement dated September [xx], 2013 (the most recent draft made available to us); (ii) the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of AKPB; (iii) the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2012 of Acquiror; (iv) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports of AKPB, including the Quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013; (v) certain interim reports to stockholders and quarterly reports of Acquiror, including the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013; (vi) certain other communications from AKPB and Acquiror to their respective stockholders; and (vii) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of AKPB and Acquiror furnished to us by AKPB and Acquiror for purposes of our analysis. Our consideration of financial information and other factors that we deemed appropriate under the circumstances or relevant to our analyses included, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of AKPB and Acquiror; (ii) the assets and liabilities of AKPB and Acquiror; (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions and business combinations in the banking industry; (iv) a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for AKPB and Acquiror with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; and (v) financial and operating forecasts and projections of AKPB and Acquiror that were approved for our use by AKPB and Acquiror and that were prepared by and provided to us by their respective management teams (a portion of such forecasts and projections of Acquiror representing publicly available consensus street estimates that we were guided to use by Acquiror management). We have also performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate and have taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. We have also held discussions with senior management of AKPB and Acquiror regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of AKPB and Acquiror and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility or liability for such verification, accuracy or completeness. We have relied upon the management of AKPB and Acquiror as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections prepared by and provided to us by the management teams of AKPB and Acquiror or that we were otherwise directed to use by such management teams (and the assumptions and bases therefore), and we have assumed, at the direction of AKPB, that such forecasts and projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such management and that they provide a reasonable basis upon which we could form our opinion. It is understood that such forecasts and projections were not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure. All such projected financial information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such projected financial information. We have relied on this projected information without independent verification or analysis and do not in any respect assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

We also assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either AKPB or Acquiror since the date of the last financial statements of each such entity that were made available to us. We are not experts in the determination or verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, without independent verification and with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for AKPB and Acquiror are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals or physical inspection of the property, assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of AKPB or Acquiror, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, nor have we examined any individual loan or credit files, nor did we evaluate the solvency, financial capability or fair value of AKPB or Acquiror under any state or federal laws, including those relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or other matters. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, we assume no responsibility or liability for their accuracy.

We have assumed, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) that the Merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement (the final terms of which will not differ in any respect material to our analyses from the draft reviewed) with no additional payments or adjustments to the Merger Consideration; (ii) that the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iii) that each party to the Agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions any necessary regulatory or governmental approval and that all conditions to the completion of the Merger will be satisfied without any waivers or modifications to the Agreement; and (v) that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the Merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the Merger. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. We have further assumed that AKPB has relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than KBW) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to AKPB, the Merger and the Agreement. KBW has not provided advice with respect to any such matters.

This opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, to the holders of the Common Shares of the Merger Consideration in the Merger. We express no view or opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the Merger, including without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, any consequences of the Merger to AKPB, its shareholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects or implications of any voting, support, shareholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in this opinion and that KBW does not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion does not address, and we express no view or opinion with respect to, (i) the underlying business decision of AKPB to engage in the Merger or enter into the Agreement, (ii) the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that are, have been or may be available to or contemplated by AKPB or the board of directors of AKPB, (iii) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of AKPB's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public holders of Common Shares, (iv) the treatment of, the effect of the Merger on, or the fairness of the consideration to be received by, holders of any class of securities of AKPB other than the Common Shares, or any class of securities of any other party to any transaction contemplated by the Agreement, (v) whether Acquiror has sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the Cash Consideration at the closing of the Merger, (vi) the election by holders of Shares of AKPB Common Stock to receive Stock Consideration or the Cash Consideration, or any combination thereof, or the actual allocation of the Merger Consideration between Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration among the holders of Shares of AKPB Common Stock (including, without limitation, any re-allocation of the Merger Consideration pursuant to the Merger Agreement); (vii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to any of the parties to the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by the Agreement, (viii) the prices, trading range or volume at which the securities of either AKPB or Acquiror will trade following the public announcement of the Merger or the prices, trading range or volume at which the securities of Acquiror will trade following the consummation of the Merger, or (ix) any legal, regulatory, accounting, tax or similar matters relating to AKPB, Acquiror, their respective shareholders, or relating to or arising out of or as a consequence of the Merger, including whether or not the Merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes.

This opinion is for the information of, and is directed to, the board of directors of AKPB in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the board of directors of AKPB in connection with the Merger nor does it constitute a recommendation to the shareholders of AKPB as to how to vote in connection with the Merger or on any other matter.

This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with our policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. This opinion may not be published or otherwise used or referred to, nor shall any public reference to KBW be made, without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the Common Shares.

Very truly yours,

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

ALASKA STATUTES CHAPTER 10.06: ALASKA CORPORATIONS CODE

SECTIONS 10.06.574 THROUGH 10.06.582

§10.06.574. Right of shareholders to dissent.

(a) A shareholder may dissent from the following corporate actions:

(1) a plan of merger, consolidation, or exchange to which the corporation is a party; or

(2) a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation not made in the usual and regular course of its business, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale under a court order or a sale for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of sale.

(b) The rights of a shareholder who dissents as to less than all of the shares registered in the name of the shareholder shall be determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the other shares of the shareholder are registered in the names of different shareholders.

(c) This section does not apply to the shareholders of the surviving corporation in a merger if a vote of shareholders of the surviving corporation is not necessary to authorize the merger.

(d) This section does not apply to the holders of shares of a class or series if the shares of the class or series were registered on a national securities exchange on the date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger, consolidation, or exchange or the proposed sale or exchange of property and assets is to be acted upon unless the articles of the corporation provide otherwise.

§10.06.576. Procedures relating to the exercise of a shareholder's right to dissent; completion of corporate action; notice of election; treatment of shares.

(a) A shareholder electing to exercise a right to dissent shall file with the corporation, before or at the meeting of shareholders at which the proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to the proposed corporate action. The objection must include a notice of election to dissent, the shareholder's name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which the shareholder dissents, and a demand for payment of the fair value of the shares if the action is taken. A shareholder to whom the corporation did not give notice of the meeting in accordance with this chapter is not required to make the objection provided in this section.

(b) Within 10 days after the shareholders' vote authorizing the action, the corporation shall give written notice of the authorization to each shareholder who filed written objection or from whom written objection was not required. The corporation may consider that a shareholder who voted for the proposed action has elected not to enforce a right of dissent under this chapter, and need not give notice to the shareholder.

(c) Within 20 days after notice has been given under (b) of this section, a shareholder from whom written objection was not required under (a) of this section and who elects to dissent shall file with the corporation a written notice of the election, stating the shareholder's name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which the shareholder dissents, and a demand for payment of the fair value of the shares. A shareholder who elects to dissent from a merger under AS 10.06.532, a consolidation under AS 10.06.534, a share exchange under AS 10.06.540, a transaction authorized under AS 10.06.562, or a sale of assets under AS 10.06.568 shall file a written notice of the election to dissent within 20 days after the merger plan, consolidation plan, share exchange plan, or sale of assets resolution has been mailed to the shareholder.

(d) A merger, consolidation, or exchange is considered completed within the meaning of this chapter on the effective date determined in accordance with AS 10.06.560; a transaction under AS 10.06.568 is completed within the meaning of this chapter when the corporation has received the consideration specified in the board resolution that was submitted to the shareholders in accordance with that section.

(e) Upon completion of the corporation action, the shareholder shall cease to have the rights of a shareholder except the right to be paid the fair value of the shares as to which the dissenter's rights were perfected under this chapter. A notice of election may be withdrawn by the shareholder at any time before an acceptance under AS 10.06.578(f), but in no case later than 60 days from the date of completion of the corporate action, except that the time for withdrawing a notice of election shall be extended for 60 days from the date an offer is made, if the corporation fails to make a timely offer under AS 10.06.578. After the time for withdrawal has expired, withdrawal of a notice of election requires the written consent of the corporation. In order to be effective, withdrawal of a notice of election must be accompanied by the return to the corporation of an advance payment made to the shareholder as provided in AS 10.06.578. If a notice of election is withdrawn, if the corporate action is rescinded, if a court determines that the shareholder is not entitled to the right to dissent, or if the shareholder otherwise loses the right to dissent, the shareholder shall not have the right to receive payment for the shares and shall be reinstated to all rights as a shareholder that were effective on the date of the completion of the corporate action. The rights to which the shareholder is reinstated include intervening preemptive rights and the right to payment of an intervening dividend or other distribution. If an intervening right has expired or if a dividend or distribution that is not in cash has been completed, the corporation may elect to pay the shareholder the fair value of the shares in cash at the value, as determined by the board, at the time of the expiration or completion. The election to pay the value in cash shall be without prejudice to a corporate proceeding that has occurred in the interim.

(f) At the time of filing the notice of election to dissent, or within 30 days after the shareholder has filed the notice, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation, or to its transfer agent, the certificates representing the shares for which payment is claimed, if certificates have been issued. The corporation or its transfer agent shall note conspicuously on the certificates, or on a separate document if certificates have not been issued for the shares, that a notice of election has been filed, and shall return the certificates or the separate document to the shareholder or to the person who submitted them on the shareholder's behalf. Unless a court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs, a shareholder who fails to comply with this subsection loses the right to dissent granted by this chapter, if the corporation gives written notice that the right to dissent will be lost to the shareholder within 45 days from the date that the shareholder filed the notice of election to dissent. If the corporation fails to exercise this notice option in a timely manner, the shareholder retains the right to dissent granted by this chapter.

(g) When a share of a dissenting shareholder under (f) of this section is transferred, the new certificate must bear a notation similar to that made under (f) of this section and state the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares, or, if the share is an uncertificated share, the corporation must give the transferee a written notice stating that a notice of election to dissent has been filed and giving the name of the original dissenting holder. A transferee acquires only the rights in the corporation that the original dissenting shareholder had at the time of transfer.

§10.06.578. Offer and payment to dissenting shareholders; circumstances where prohibited.

(a) Within 15 days after the expiration of the period within which shareholders may file their notice of election to dissent under AS 10.06.76, or within 15 days after the proposed corporate action is completed, whichever is later, the corporation or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, shall make a written offer by certified mail to each shareholder who has filed the notice of election, to pay the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares. The offer shall be made at the same price for each share to all dissenting shareholders of the same class, or if divided into series, of the same series.

C-2

Table of Contents

(b) The offer required by (a) of this section shall be accompanied by a

(1) balance sheet of the corporation whose shares the dissenting shareholder holds; the date of the balance sheet shall be that of the most recent balance sheet produced in the 12 months before the offer;

(2) profit and loss statement or statements for at least 12 months preceding the date of the balance sheet; if the corporation was not in existence during the entire 12-month period preceding the balance sheet required by (1) of this subsection, then a profit and loss statement for that portion of the 12-month period preceding the balance sheet during which the corporation was in existence;

(3) statement of the total number of shares with respect to which notices of election to dissent have been received and the total number of holders of these shares; and

(4) copy of this section and AS 10.06.580.

(c) If the corporate action has been completed the offer required by (a) of this section shall also be accompanied by

(1) advance payment to each shareholder who submitted the share certificates to the corporation, or to whom notice was sent if the shares were uncertificated, as provided in AS 10.0 6,576(1), of the amount offered under (a) of this section; or

(2) a statement to a shareholder who has not submitted the share certificates, if certificates were issued for the shares, that advance payment of the amount offered under (a) of this section will be made by the corporation promptly upon submission of the certificates.

(d) If the corporate action has not been completed when the offer required by (a) of this section is made, the advance payment or statement about the advance payment shall be sent to each shareholder entitled to the payment or notice, after completion of the corporate action.

(e) The advance payment or statement about the advance payment shall include advice to the shareholder that acceptance of the payment does not constitute a waiver of the shareholder's right to dissent.

(f) The corporation may consider that a shareholder who fails to make written objection to the amount tendered under (c)(1) of this section or to submit shares in response to the statement sent under (c)(2) of this section within 30 days of the date the statement was mailed has agreed that the amount offered represents the fair value of the shares. The shareholder shall have no interest in the shares or the outcome of litigation begun under AS 10.06.580.

(g) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, if the payments otherwise required by (c) and (d) of this section or determined in accordance with AS 10.06.580 would be distributions in violation of AS 10.06.358 - 10.06.365, or 10.06.375, the corporation may not make a distribution to a dissenting shareholder. In that event, a corporation that would otherwise have the payment obligation under (c) and (d) of this section or AS 10.06.580 shall, in addition to complying with (a) and (b) of this section, give written notice within the time limits of (a) and (b) of this section to dissenting shareholders of its inability to make payment. The notice must include

(1) an explanation why the corporation is unable to make the payments otherwise required by this section;

(2) a statement that a dissenting shareholder has an option to

(A) withdraw the shareholder's notice of election to dissent, and that the corporation will consider that the withdrawal was made with the written consent of the corporation; or

C-3

Table of Contents

(B) retain the status of a dissenter, and, if the corporation is liquidated, be subordinated to the rights of the creditors of the corporation, but have rights superior to the nondissenting shareholders, but if the corporation is not liquidated, retain the right to be paid under (c) and (d) of this section or AS 10.06.580 and the corporation must satisfy the obligation when the restrictions on distributions do not apply; and

(3) a statement that if the corporation does not receive the written election provided under (2) of this subsection within 60 days after notice given as required by this section, the corporation will consider that the shareholder has withdrawn the notice of election under (2)(A) of this subsection.

§10.06.580. Action to determine value of shares.

(a) If the corporation fails to make the offer required by AS 10.06.578(a) or the shareholder rejects the offer within the 30-day period specified in AS 10.06.578(f),

(1) the corporation shall, within 20 days after the expiration of the 30-day period specified in AS 10.06.578(f), file a petition in the court of the judicial district where the registered office of the corporation is located, requesting that the fair value of the shares be determined; if, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in the state, the petition shall be filed in the judicial district where the registered office of the domestic corporation was last located; or

(2) if the corporation fails to institute a proceeding as provided in this section, a dissenting shareholder may institute a proceeding in the name of the corporation; if a dissenting shareholder does not institute a proceeding within 30 days after the expiration of the 20-day period granted the corporation under (1) of this subsection, the dissenter loses the dissenter's rights unless the superior court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

(b) All dissenting shareholders who have rejected the corporate offer extended under AS 10.06.578(a), wherever residing, shall be made parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares quasi in rem. The corporation shall serve a copy of the complaint in the proceeding on each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by the Alaska Rules of Civil Procedure, and on each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by certified mail and publication, or in another manner permitted bylaw. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. A dissenting shareholder who is a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount determined under (c) of this section to be the fair value of the shares of that shareholder.

(c) The court shall determine whether a dissenting shareholder who is a party to the court action is entitled to receive payment for the shareholder's shares. If the corporation does not request a determination, or if the court finds that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to a determination, the court shall establish the value of the shares; for the purposes of this section, the value shall be the fair value at the close of business on the day before the date on which the vote was taken approving the proposed corporate action. In fixing the fair value of the shares, the court shall consider the nature of the transaction giving rise to the right to dissent under AS 10.06.576 its effects on the corporation and its shareholders, the concepts and methods customary in the relevant securities and financial markets for determining the fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances, and other relevant factors. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value of the shares. The appraisers have the power and authority specified in the order of appointment or as amended.

(d) The judgment must include an allowance for interest at the rate the court finds to be fair and equitable, from the date on which the proposed corporate action vote was taken to the date of payment. In determining the rate of interest, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest that the corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. If the court finds that the refusal of a shareholder to accept the corporate offer of payment for the shares is arbitrary, vexatious, or otherwise in bad faith, the court shall deny interest to the shareholder.

Table of Contents

(e) A party to the proceeding shall bear its own costs and expenses, including the fees and expenses of its counsel and of any experts employed by it. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or part of the costs, expenses, and fees incurred by the corporation against one or more of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding, if the court finds that a refusal to accept the corporate offer was arbitrary, vexatious, or otherwise in bad faith. The court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or a part of the costs, expenses, and fees incurred by one or more of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding against the corporation if the court finds that

(1) the fair value of the shares materially exceeds the amount that the corporation offered to pay;

(2) an offer or required advance payment was not made by the corporation as provided in AS 10.06.578;

(3) the corporation failed to institute the special proceeding within the period specified under (a) of this section; or

(4) the action of the corporation in complying with its obligations as provided in this chapter was arbitrary, vexatious, or otherwise in bad faith.

(f) Unless prohibited by AS 10.06.578(g), within 60 days after the final determination of the proceeding, the corporation shall pay to each dissenting shareholder who is a party the amount determined under (e) of this section in exchange for the surrender of the certificate representing the dissenter's shares or the dissenter's shares if the shares are uncertificated. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder ceases to have an interest in the shares.

§10.06.582. Status of shares acquired from dissenting shareholders.

Shares acquired by a corporation under AS 10.06.578 and 10.06.580 shall be held and disposed of by the corporation as other shares reacquired under AS 10.06.388, except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they shall be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

Table of ContentsPART II*INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS*Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 10.06.490 of the Alaska Corporations Code provides for permissible, mandatory and court-ordered indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents in certain circumstances. Section 10.06.490(a) provides that a corporation has the power to indemnify a person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a party to an action or proceeding (other a derivative action), by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Indemnification may include reimbursement of expenses, attorney fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, the person had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. Section 10.06.490(b) provides similarly with respect derivative actions; however, no indemnification shall be made if the person seeking indemnification has been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of the person's duty to the corporation except to the extent that the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for expenses that the court considers proper.

Section 10.06.490(c) of the Alaska Corporations Code provides for mandatory indemnification to the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein. Section 10.06.490(d) provides that any indemnification under Sections 10.06.490(a) and (b) may only be made by the corporation upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set out in Section 10.06.490(a) and (b). Section 10.06.490(e) provides that the corporation may pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition if: i) in the case of a director or officer, the director or officer furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of a good faith belief that the standard of conduct described in Section 10.06.450(b); ii) the director, officer, employee, or agent furnishes the corporation a written unlimited general undertaking, executed personally or on behalf of the individual, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that an applicable standard of conduct was not met; and iii) determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the Alaska Corporations Code.

Article 11 of Northrim's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation specify that directors shall have no liability to Northrim or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director, except for (a) conduct that constitutes a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Northrim or the shareholders; (b) acts or omissions that are not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct by the director or a knowing violation of law by the director; (c) willful or negligent conduct by the director in connection with the payment of dividends or the repurchase of stock from other than lawfully available funds; or (d) any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. Further the Northrim Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that if the Alaska Corporations Code is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director shall be eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by the Alaska Corporations Code as so amended.

Finally, according to Northrim's bylaws, no director, officer-director, former director or former officer-director of Northrim, or a subsidiary of Northrim shall be personally liable to the Northrim (or a subsidiary of Northrim) or their respective shareholders, for monetary damages for conduct as a director or officer-director unless the conduct is finally adjudged to have been egregious conduct, as defined in Northrim's corporate bylaws.

Northrim's bylaws further provides that Northrim shall indemnify any person who is; or is threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, and whether by or in the right of Northrim or its shareholders or by any other party, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director or officer-director of Northrim or of any subsidiary corporation against judgments, penalties or penalty taxes, fines, settlements (even if paid or payable to Northrim or its shareholders or to a subsidiary corporation) and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually incurred in connection with such proceeding unless (i) the board of directors determines, after careful deliberation, that there is clear and convincing evidence that such person has engaged in egregious conduct in connection with the matter which gives rise to the claim for indemnification or payment of expenses, or (ii) the liability and expenses were on account of conduct finally adjudged to be egregious conduct. The reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, of such person incurred in connection with such proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by Northrim, upon request of such person, in advance of the final disposition or settlement of such proceeding upon receipt by Northrim of a written, unsecured promise by the person to repay such amount if it shall be finally adjudged that the person is not eligible for indemnification or, in the event of a settlement, if Northrim is advised by counsel that, in the opinion of such counsel, the person is not liable for egregious conduct; provided, however, that the board of directors may require collateral to secure such repayment promise if the board determines, in its sole discretion, that the collateral is appropriate under the circumstances. All expenses-incurred by such person in connection with such proceeding shall be considered reasonable unless finally adjudged to be unreasonable.

The foregoing is only a general summary of certain aspects of Alaska Corporations Code and Northrim's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws dealing with indemnification of directors and officers, and does not purport to be complete. It is qualified in its entirety by reference to the detailed provisions of Section 10.06.490 of the Alaska Corporations Code and the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and the bylaws of Northrim.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act); (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the Registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(6) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to this registration statement and will not be used until such amendment has become effective, and that for the purpose of determining liabilities under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form S-4 Registration Statement, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(8) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.

(9) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
