Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously announced, on June 12, 2013, Cooper Tire & Rubber Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with wholly owned subsidiaries (the Apollo Parties) of Apollo Tyres Ltd (Apollo). The Merger Agreement provided that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, each shareholder of the Company would receive $35 per share and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Apollo would merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Apollo. It has become clear that the Merger will not be consummated by the Apollo Parties and the Company has been notified that financing for the transaction is no longer available to the Apollo Parties, therefore, the Company terminated the Merger Agreement effective December 30, 2013 (the Termination).

As a result of the Termination, the Merger Agreement is void and of no effect, except that certain miscellaneous provisions of the Merger Agreement will survive. The Apollo Parties, however, will not be relieved or released from liability for damages as a result of the Termination.

On December 30, 2013, the Company issued a press release related to the Termination. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
