(c) On January 23, 2014, the Board of Directors of H.B. Fuller Company (the Company) appointed Robert J. Martsching as Vice President and Corporate Controller, effective as of February 3, 2014. In this position, Mr. Martsching will serve as the principal accounting officer for the Company. As Vice President and Corporate Controller, Mr. Martsching will receive an annual base salary of $270,300. Also, he will be entitled to receive a target incentive opportunity of 38% of his base salary with a maximum incentive opportunity of up to 57% of his base salary under the Company's short-term incentive plan for the fiscal year ending November 29, 2014. Commencing in the Company's 2014 fiscal year, Mr. Martsching will be eligible to receive stock-based incentive awards with an annual target value of $160,000 under the Company's long-term incentive plan.

(e) On January 23, 2014, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of H.B. Fuller Company (the Company) approved changes to the design of the H.B. Fuller Company Management Short-Term Incentive Plan (the STIP) applicable to executive officers as attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1. The changes made relating to executive officers were to include revenue and profit metric for a specific global business for each executive officer who has responsibility for a global business. The changes to the STIP will be effective for any short-term incentive awards related to the Company's 2014 fiscal year and thereafter. The STIP provides an annual performance-based cash incentive opportunity for eligible employees. In general, the STIP design is based on financial metrics. The metrics will vary based on position and will generally include (i) operating income, (ii) organic revenue and (iii) earnings per share. Each metric will have a target level of performance. Threshold, superior, and superior stretch performance levels will be set for each metric. Payout will be determined for each metric based on performance relative to target. The target, threshold, superior and superior stretch levels of performance will be established at the beginning of each fiscal year. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the STIP, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
