Section 1 Conflict Minerals Disclosure

Item 1.01 Conflict Minerals Disclosure and Report

Destination Maternity Corporation is the leading designer and retailer of maternity apparel in the United States with 1,906 retail locations, including 578 stores in the United States, Puerto Rico and Canada, and 1,328 leased departments located within department stores and baby specialty stores throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. In addition to the 1,906 retail locations we operate, through an exclusive licensed arrangement we are the exclusive provider of maternity apparel to Kohl [®], which operates approximately 1,158 stores throughout the United States and offers maternity apparel in a significant number of its stores. We also sell merchandise on the Internet, primarily through DestinationMaternity.com and our various brand-specific websites. We have store franchise and product supply relationships in the Middle East, South Korea and Mexico. Throughout this report, Destination Maternity, DMC, we, us or our means Destination Maternity Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries and their predecessors.

We design and contract for the production of over 90% of the products we sell using factories located throughout the world, predominantly outside of the United States. A majority of our products are purchased as finished product made to our design specifications (Company Branded Products). We sometimes arrange for the purchase of certain components of Company Branded Products, which we refer to as Trim, which are then included on such final finished product. Trim includes, without limitation, the following types of products: buttons, zippers, underwire for bras, hooks and eyes, snaps, rivets, buckles and flat hooks. We purchase such Trim from the inventory made available by our suppliers.

As part of our preparation of this report in order to assess the potential presence of conflict minerals¹ in any of our products manufactured in 2013, we conducted a review of all Company Branded Products manufactured in 2013 to determine which, if any, of those products may contain conflict minerals. We concluded that, as a retail apparel company, the only component of our products that could potentially contain conflict minerals would be Trim.

At this time, taking into account our due diligence to date, we are not certain whether any of the Trim pieces incorporated into the Company Branded Products that we manufactured in 2013 contain any conflict minerals that were intentionally added and that are necessary to either the functionality or production of any such products, but we are filing this Form SD in the exercise of caution. We will continue to evaluate whether we are required to file any Forms SD in the future.

Item 1.02 Exhibit

Exhibit 1.02 is hereby incorporated into this Item 1.02 by reference.

¹ For purposes of this item, conflict minerals means:

- (1) Columbite-tantalite (coltan), cassiterite, gold, wolframite, or their derivatives, which are limited to tantalum, tin and tungsten, unless the Secretary of State determines that additional derivatives are financing conflict in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country; or
- (2) Any other material or its derivatives determined by the Secretary of State to be financing conflict in the Democratic Republic of the Congo or an adjoining country (DRC).
