However, the Offeror may, in its sole discretion, take such action as it may deem necessary to extend the Offer to Common Shareholders in any such jurisdiction.

NOTICE TO COMMON SHAREHOLDERS IN THE UNITED STATES

The Offer is being made for the securities of a Canadian foreign private issuer that does not have securities registered under Section 12 of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Accordingly, the Offer is not subject to Section 14(d) of the Exchange Act, or Regulation 14D promulgated thereunder. The Offer is being conducted in accordance with Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and Regulation 14E promulgated thereunder as applicable to a tender offer (a) in which less than 40% of the class of securities outstanding that is subject to the tender offer is held by U.S. holders and (b) that is conducted under applicable U.S. Canadian multijurisdictional disclosure system and cross-border tender offer rules that permit the Offeror, a Canadian foreign private issuer, to prepare the Offer and Circular in accordance with the disclosure requirements of Canadian provincial and federal Law, and in accordance with Canadian provincial and federal corporate and takeover offer rules.

The Offeror has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a Registration Statement on Form F-8 and other documents and information concerning the Offer and the proposed acquisition of the Company, and expects to mail this Notice of Extension to Common Shareholders. Pursuant to General Instruction V(D) of Form F-8, the Offeror is exempt from filing a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO. COMMON SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT AND OFFER AND CIRCULAR AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS TO BE FILED WITH THE SEC, BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Investors and Common Shareholders will be able to obtain the documents free of charge at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov.

The Offer is being made for the securities of a Canadian issuer and by a Canadian issuer that is permitted, under a multijurisdictional disclosure system adopted by the United States, to prepare the Offer and Circular in accordance with the disclosure requirements of Canada. Common Shareholders in the United States should be aware that such requirements are different from those of the United States. The financial statements included or incorporated by reference into the Original Offer and Circular have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and may be subject to Canadian auditing and auditor independence standards, and thus may not be comparable to financial statements of U.S. companies.

Common Shareholders in the United States should be aware that the disposition of their Common Shares and the acquisition of Offeror Common Shares by them as described herein may have tax consequences both in the United States and in Canada. Such consequences for investors who are resident in, or citizens of, the United States may not be described fully herein and such Common Shareholders are encouraged to consult their tax advisors. See Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations in Section 25 and Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations in Section 26 of the Original Offer and Circular.

The enforcement by Common Shareholders of civil liabilities under U.S. federal Securities Laws may be affected adversely by the fact that each of the Offeror and the Company is incorporated under the Laws of Canada, that some or all of their respective officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country, that some or all of the experts named herein may be residents of a foreign country and that all or a substantial portion of the assets of the Offeror and the Company and said persons may be located outside the United States.

THESE SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SEC OR ANY U.S. STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION NOR HAS THE SEC OR ANY U.S. STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THE OFFER AND CIRCULAR. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

Common Shareholders should be aware that, during the period of the Offer, the Offeror or its affiliates, directly or indirectly, may bid for or make purchases of Offeror Common Shares or Common Shares, or certain related securities, as permitted by applicable Law or regulations of the United States, Canada or its provinces or territories.

This Notice of Extension and the Original Offer and Circular contain forward-looking statements including, but not limited to, those relating to the Offer, information concerning the Company and the Offeror (and their respective Affiliates), and other statements that are not historical facts. All such forward-looking statements are subject to important risks, uncertainties and assumptions. These statements are forward-looking because they are based on the Offeror's current expectations, estimates and assumptions of anticipated future events and circumstances. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the words assumption, goal, guidance, objective, outlook, project, strategy, target and other similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as aim, anticipate, believe, could, expect, intend, may, plan, seek, should, strive and will. All such forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of applicable Canadian Securities Laws. It is important to know that:

unless otherwise indicated, forward-looking statements in the Offer and Circular describe the Offeror's expectations as at September 22, 2014 and, accordingly, are subject to change after such date;

the Offeror's actual results and events could differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements in the Offer and Circular. As a result, the Offeror cannot guarantee that the results or events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statement will materialize, and accordingly, you are cautioned against relying on these forward-looking statements; and the Offeror disclaims any intention and assumes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement even if new information becomes available, as a result of future events or for any other reason, except in accordance with applicable Canadian Securities Laws.

The Offeror made a number of assumptions in making forward-looking statements in the Offer and Circular.

Certain risk factors could cause actual results or events to differ materially from the results or events expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements in the Offer and Circular. For a discussion regarding such risks, see, in particular, the sections of the Original Circular entitled "Source of Funds", "Purpose of the Offer and Plans for the Company", "Certain Information Concerning the Securities of the Offeror", "Regulatory Matters" and "Risk Factors", as well as section 9, Business Risks, of the Annual MD&A and the other sections of the Annual MD&A referred to in such section 9, as updated in the Offeror's management's discussion and analysis for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 and in the Interim MD&A. The Offeror cautions you that the risks described in the above-mentioned sections and documents are not the only ones that could affect the Offer or the Offeror. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known by the Offeror or that the Offeror currently believes are not material may also materially and adversely impact the successful completion of the Offer or the business, operations, financial condition, financial performance, cash flows, reputation or prospects of the Offeror. Except as otherwise indicated by the Offeror, forward-looking statements do not reflect the potential impact of any special items or of any dispositions, monetizations, mergers, acquisitions, other business combinations or other transactions that may be announced or that may occur after September 22, 2014. The financial impact of these transactions and special items can be complex and depends on the facts particular to each of them. The Offeror, therefore, cannot describe the expected impact in a meaningful way or in the same way it presents known risks affecting its business. Forward-looking statements are presented herein for the purpose of providing information about the Offeror and the Offer and its anticipated impacts.

The Original Offer and Circular also contains forward-looking statements and this cautionary note should be read in conjunction with the Forward-Looking Statements in the Original Offer and Circular, except as amended herein.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED TO BE DELIVERED TO OFFEREES OR PURCHASERS

Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant (the Corporation or BCE) was incorporated in 1970 and was continued under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the CBCA) in 1979.

The directors of the Corporation adopted on May 27, 2003 a resolution providing as follows:

Section 8 INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS AND OTHER INDIVIDUALS

Subject to the limitations contained in the CBCA but without limit to the right of the Corporation to indemnify any person under the CBCA or otherwise, the Corporation shall indemnify a Director or Officer, a former Director or Officer or another individual who acts or acted at the Corporation's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the Corporation or other entity if (a) such individual acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the Corporation's request; and (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, such individual had reasonable grounds for believing that such individual's conduct was lawful. The Corporation shall advance moneys to the Director, Officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to herein provided that the individual shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfill the conditions of subsection 124(3) of the CBCA.

This resolution represents, in general terms, the extent to which directors and officers may be indemnified by the Corporation under the CBCA, the governing Act to which the Corporation is subject. Except in the case of an action taken by the Corporation or of a derivative action taken by a shareholder on behalf of the Corporation, as provided below, the CBCA provides that a director or officer may be indemnified by the Corporation against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by such individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the director or officer is involved because of that association with the Corporation if (i) such individual acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Corporation; and (ii) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, such individual had reasonable grounds for believing that the individual's conduct was lawful. The right of indemnification is more limited where directors or officers are sued by the Corporation or on its behalf by a shareholder. In those cases, the Corporation may, with the approval of a court, indemnify directors and officers against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with such action, but not the amount of the judgment or settlement of an action, provided the individual fulfills the conditions of (i) and (ii) above. A director or officer must be indemnified for costs, charges and expenses if he was not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that such director or officer ought to have done and fulfils the conditions of (i) and (ii) above. The Corporation may advance moneys to a director or officer for the costs, charges and expenses referred to above, provided that such director or officer shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfil the conditions of (i) and (ii) above.

The directors and officers of the Corporation are covered by a directors and officers liability insurance policy indemnifying, subject to its terms and conditions, against certain civil liabilities which might be incurred by them in such capacities.

In addition, each director and certain officers have entered into indemnification agreements with the Corporation generally providing for indemnification of such person for liabilities incurred in connection with his or her service as a director or officer and obliging the Corporation to maintain liability insurance to support their indemnification obligations under such agreement.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Corporation pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Corporation has been informed that in the opinion of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.
