Definitions and Footnotes

EBITDARM Coverage: Represents EBITDARM, which the Company defines as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, rent expense and management fees allocated by the operator to one of its affiliates, of our operators for the applicable period, divided by the rent paid to the Company by its operators during each period.

EBITDAR Coverage: Represents EBITDAR, which the Company defines as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and rent expense, of its operators for the applicable period, divided by the rent paid to Aviv by its operators during such period. Assumes a management fee of 4%.

EBITDAR Margin: Represents the operator's EBITDAR for the applicable period divided by the operator's total revenue for the applicable period.

Enterprise Value: Represents equity market capitalization plus net debt. Equity market capitalization is calculated as the number of shares of common stock and units multiplied by the closing price of the Company's common stock on the last day of the period presented. Net debt represents total debt less cash and cash equivalents.

Portfolio Occupancy: Represents the average daily number of beds at the Company's properties that are occupied during the applicable period divided by the total number of beds at the Company's properties that are available for use during the applicable period.

Property Type: ALF = assisted living facility; LTACH = long-term acute care hospital; MOB = medical office building; TBI = traumatic brain injury facility; SNF = skilled nursing facility

State Average Occupancy: Represents the Nursing Facility State Occupancy Rate as reported by American Health Care Association (AHCA). AHCA occupancy data is calculated by dividing the sum of all facility patients in the state occupying certified beds by the sum of all the certified beds in the state reported at the time of the survey corresponding to the period presented. Aviv occupancy represents the state occupancy for the entire portfolio.

Yield: Represents annualized contractual or projected income to be received in cash divided by investment amount.

Portfolio metrics and other statistics are not derived from Aviv's financial statements but are operating statistics that the Company derives from reports that it receives from its operators pursuant to Aviv's triple-net leases. As a result, the Company's portfolio metrics typically lag its own financial statements by approximately one quarter. In order to determine Aviv's portfolio metrics for the period presented, the metrics are stated only with respect to properties owned by the Company and operated by the same operator for the portion of the period Aviv owned the properties and exclude assets held for sale, closed properties, properties under construction and, with certain exceptions for shorter periods, properties within 24 months of completion of construction. Accordingly, EBITDARM coverage, EBITDAR coverage, EBITDAR margin, portfolio occupancy and quality mix for the twelve months ended September 30, 2014 included 289 core properties of the 313 properties in the Company's portfolio as of September 30, 2014.

When Aviv refers to the total rent of its portfolio, the Company is referring to the total monthly rent due under all of its triple-net leases as of the date specified, calculated based on the first full month following the specified date. Aviv calculates annualized rent for properties during a period by utilizing the amount of rent under contract as of the last day of the period and assume that amount of rent was received in respect of such property throughout the entire period.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to the results of operations presented in this release, we use financial measures in this release that are derived on the basis of methodologies other than in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). We derive these non-GAAP measures as follows:

FFO is defined by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts, or NAREIT, as net income (computed in accordance with GAAP), excluding gains and losses from sales of property (net) and impairments of depreciated real estate, plus real estate depreciation and amortization (excluding amortization of deferred financing costs) and after adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures. Applying the NAREIT definition to our financial statements results in FFO representing net income before depreciation and amortization, loss on impairment, and loss (gain) on sale of assets (net).

Normalized FFO represents FFO before loss on extinguishment of debt, reserve for uncollectible loan receivables, transaction costs and severance costs.

AFFO represents Normalized FFO before amortization of deferred financing costs, non-cash stock-based compensation, straight-line rental income (net) and rental income from intangible amortization (net).

EBITDA represents net income before interest expense (net), amortization of deferred financing costs and depreciation and amortization.

Adjusted EBITDA represents EBITDA before loss on impairment, loss (gain) on sale of assets (net), transaction costs, write-off of straight-line rents, non-cash stock-based compensation, loss on extinguishment of debt and reserve for uncollectible loan receivables.

Aviv REIT, Inc.

Definitions and Footnotes

Our management uses FFO, Normalized FFO, AFFO, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA as important supplemental measures of our operating performance and liquidity. FFO is intended to exclude GAAP historical cost depreciation and amortization of real estate and related assets, which assumes that the value of real estate assets diminishes ratably over time. Historically, however, real estate values have risen or fallen with market conditions. The term FFO was designed by the real estate industry to address this issue and as an indicator of our ability to incur and service debt. Because FFO, Normalized FFO and AFFO exclude depreciation and amortization unique to real estate, impairment, gains and losses from property dispositions and extraordinary items and because EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA exclude certain non-cash charges and adjustments and amounts spent on interest and taxes, they provide our management with performance measures that, when compared year over year or with other REITs, reflect the impact to operations from trends in occupancy rates, rental rates, operating costs, development activities and, with respect to FFO, Normalized FFO and AFFO, interest costs, in each case providing perspective not immediately apparent from net income. In addition, we believe that FFO, Normalized FFO, AFFO, EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are frequently used by securities analysts, investors and other interested parties in the evaluation of REITs.

We offer these measures to assist the users of our financial statements in assessing our financial performance and liquidity under GAAP, but these measures are non-GAAP measures and should not be considered measures of liquidity, alternatives to net income or indicators of any other performance measure determined in accordance with GAAP, nor are they indicative of funds available to fund our cash needs, including our ability to make payments on our indebtedness. In addition, our calculations of these measures are not necessarily comparable to similar measures as calculated by other companies that do not use the same definition or implementation guidelines or interpret the standards differently from us. Investors should not rely on these measures as a substitute for any GAAP measure, including net income, cash flows provided by operating activities or revenues.
