Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Indenture and New Secured Notes

On August 16, 2016, TRU Taj LLC (the Issuer), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, closed its previously announced private offers to exchange (the Exchange Offers) 10.375% Senior Notes due 2017 (the 2017 Notes) of Toys R Us, Inc. (the Company) and 7.375% Senior Notes due 2018 (the 2018 Notes) of the Company for newly issued 12% Senior Secured Notes due 2021 (the New Secured Notes) of the Issuer and TRU Taj Finance, Inc. (the Co-Issuer and, together with the Issuer, the Issuers) and, in the case of the 2017 Notes, up to $150.0 million in cash.

Pursuant to the Exchange Offers, $344,921,000 in aggregate principal amount of the 2017 Notes and $191,660,000 in aggregate principal amount of the 2018 Notes were accepted for payment and subsequently cancelled. The Issuers have issued $407,394,000 in aggregate principal amount of New Secured Notes, and paid approximately $110,095,650 in cash consideration, in the Exchange Offers. An additional $33,806,000 in aggregate principal amount of New Secured Notes were issued in concurrent private placements, of which $26,057,000 were issued for cash, with the remainder issued as payment to certain noteholders in connection with the Exchange Offers. Altogether, $441,200,000 in aggregate principal amount of New Secured Notes have been issued, and $105,079,000 in aggregate principal amount of the 2017 Notes and $208,340,000 in aggregate principal amount of the 2018 Notes remain outstanding.

The New Secured Notes were issued pursuant to an indenture, dated as of August 16, 2016 (the Indenture), among the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the Company, the other guarantors party thereto and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee) and collateral trustee (the Collateral Trustee).

The New Secured Notes bear interest at a rate of 12% per annum, which is payable semi-annually on February 15 and August 15 of each year, beginning on February 15, 2017. The New Secured Notes mature on August 15, 2021.

At any time prior to February 15, 2018, the Issuers may redeem all or a part of the New Secured Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the New Secured Notes redeemed, plus a make-whole premium and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding the date of redemption.

Additionally, prior to February 15, 2018, the Issuers may redeem during each 12-month period commencing with the issue date, up to 10% of the aggregate outstanding amount of the New Secured Notes at its option, from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 103% of the principal amount of the New Secured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to, but excluding the applicable redemption date; provided that if less than 10% of the aggregate principal amount of the New Secured Notes are redeemed during the first 12-month period after the issue date, unused amounts may be carried over, but in no event will more than 15% of the aggregate principal amount of the New Secured Notes issued on or after the Issue Date be redeemed as described in this paragraph.

On and after February 15, 2018, the Issuers may redeem the New Secured Notes, in whole or in part, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the New Secured Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to, but excluding the applicable redemption date.

If certain kinds of change of control occur, the Issuers must offer to purchase the New Secured Notes at 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to, but excluding the purchase date. In addition, if the Company or its restricted subsidiaries (including the Issuer and its restricted subsidiaries) sells assets or incurs certain types of indebtedness, under certain circumstances the Issuers must offer to repurchase the New Secured Notes at a price equal to par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to, but excluding the repurchase date on the terms set forth in the Indenture.

The Indenture contains covenants that, among other things, limit the Company's and the Issuers' ability and the ability of their respective restricted subsidiaries to: (i) incur or assume additional debt or provide guarantees in respect of obligations of other persons; (ii) issue redeemable stock and preferred stock; (iii) prepay, redeem or repurchase subordinated debt; (iv) make loans and investments; (v) incur certain liens; (vi) impose limitations on dividends, loans or asset transfers from subsidiaries; (vii) sell or otherwise dispose of assets, including capital stock of subsidiaries; (viii) consolidate or merge with or into, or sell substantially all of its assets to, another person; and (ix) enter into transactions with affiliates (including Toys R Us-Delaware, Inc.). These covenants are subject to a number of important limitations and exceptions.

The Indenture also contains customary events of default (with customary grace periods, as applicable) and provides that, upon the occurrence of an event of default arising from certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency with respect to the Issuer or any guarantor, all outstanding New Secured Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other type of event of default occurs and is continuing, then the Trustee or the holders of at least 30% in principal amount of the then outstanding New Secured Notes may declare all such New Secured Notes to be due and payable immediately.

Collateral Trust Agreement and Intercreditor Agreement

The obligations under the New Secured Notes are guaranteed by the Company, certain parent companies of the Issuer and certain direct and indirect subsidiaries of the Issuer, including certain obligors of the Company's European subsidiaries' asset-based lending facility (the European ABL Facility). The direct and guaranteed obligations under the New Secured Notes (other than the guarantee provided by the Company) are secured by the pledge of equity interests of certain foreign subsidiaries of the Company (the Collateral), including (i) a first priority pledge by an indirect parent company of the Issuer, (ii) certain first-priority pledges by intermediate holding companies of equity interests of the subsidiaries comprising the Company's Europe operations and (iii) certain second-priority pledges of certain of the equity interests currently pledged in favor of the collateral agent (the ABL Collateral Agent) under the European ABL Facility (such second-priority pledges, the Second-Lien Collateral).

The Collateral is subject to the terms of the collateral trust agreement, entered on August 16, 2016 (the Collateral Trust Agreement), among the Issuer, the Co-Issuer, the subsidiaries of the Company that have granted Collateral, the Trustee and the Collateral Trustee. The Collateral Trust Agreement sets forth the terms on which the Collateral Trustee will accept, hold, administer and enforce and will distribute the proceeds of all liens on the Collateral held by it in trust for the benefit of holders of the New Secured Notes and all other obligations secured on an equal and ratable basis with the New Secured Notes (collectively with the obligations under New Secured Notes, the Parity Lien Obligations).

The Collateral is also subject to the terms of the intercreditor agreement, entered on August 16, 2016 (the Intercreditor Agreement), among the Collateral Trustee, the ABL Collateral Agent and certain subsidiaries of the Company. The Intercreditor Agreement provides for, among other things, the junior and subordinate nature of the liens securing the Parity Lien Obligations granted on the Second-Lien Collateral.

The New Secured Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws. The New Secured Notes may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and accordingly, are subject to significant restrictions on transfer and resale. Neither this Report on Form 8-K nor the attached Indenture constitute an offer to purchase or sell any securities or the solicitation of an offer to buy or exchange any New Secured Notes, 2017 Notes, 2018 Notes or any other security, nor will there be any purchase, sale or exchange of any securities in any state or other jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale or exchange would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification of any such securities or offer under the securities laws of any such state or other jurisdiction.

The foregoing descriptions of the Indenture, the Collateral Trust Agreement and the Intercreditor Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, copies of which are attached as Exhibits 4.1, 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference.
