Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On February 1, 2018, the Company announced that it entered into a term loan credit agreement (the Term Loan Credit Agreement) with certain lenders party thereto and Pathlight Capital LLC (Pathlight) as administrative and collateral agent (the Term Loan Agent), pursuant to which the Company initially borrowed the principal amount of $22.5 million, with an additional incremental loan of $2.5 million to be available to be borrowed if certain conditions under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are met (collectively, the Term Loan).

Proceeds of the Term Loan were used to repay the entire balance of term loans outstanding under the Company's existing term loan credit agreement with certain lenders party thereto and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent.

Term Loan Credit Agreement

On February 1, 2018, the Company and the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Cave Springs, Inc. (Cave Springs), and together with the Company in their capacity as borrowers under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, the Term Loan Borrowers) entered into the Term Loan Credit Agreement. The obligations of the Term Loan Borrowers under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are guaranteed by Mothers Work Canada, Inc. (Mothers Work Canada), and DM Urban Renewal, LLC (DM Urban Renewal), each a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The principal terms of the Term Loan Credit Agreement are as follows:

Maturity Date: The maturity date of the Term Loan Credit Agreement is the earlier of (i) the date that the Discharge of the ABL Obligations (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement described below) occurs, (ii) February 1, 2023, (iii) the occurrence of specified Events of Default under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, or (iv) the acceleration of the Term Loan and the termination of the Term Loan Commitments (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) in specified circumstances pursuant to the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

Financial Covenants: The Term Loan Borrowers are required to maintain Excess Availability (as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement) at all times of at least the greater of (x) 10% of the Combined Loan Caps (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) or (y) $7,000,000.

Interest Rate: The interest rate on outstanding borrowings is equal to a LIBOR rate plus 9.00%.

Amortization: The Term Loan Borrowers are required to repay the Term Loan in quarterly installments in the amount of $312,500.00, payable on the last business day of each January, April, July and October commencing with July 31, 2018. The entire remaining outstanding balance of the Term Loan is payable on the Maturity Date.

Term Loan Borrowing Base: The Term Loan Credit Agreement establishes a borrowing base with respect to the Term Loan based on a percentage of certain inventory balances, a percentage of the appraised value of intellectual property and the Incentive Program Assets Advance (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement). If the outstanding balance of the Term Loan exceeds this borrowing base, then a reserve is required to be imposed against availability under the ABL Credit Agreement.

Optional Prepayments: The Term Loan Credit Agreement allows for the Term Loan to be prepaid, in whole or in part, subject to the payment of a prepayment premium as described below. Voluntary prepayments are restricted by the terms of the ABL Credit Agreement and Intercreditor Agreement as described below.

Mandatory Prepayments: The Term Loan Borrowers are required to prepay the Term Loan in certain circumstances, including certain dispositions of the Term Priority Collateral (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement described below).

Prepayment Premium: If the Term Loan Borrowers prepay all or a portion of the Term Loan on or before the third anniversary of the closing date, such payment shall be accompanied by the payment of a premium, which premium may be adjusted depending on the timing and nature of the prepayment.

Restricted Payments: The Term Loan Credit Agreement prohibits the payment of dividends or share repurchases by the Company for three years. Thereafter, such payment may be made upon satisfaction of certain conditions including a minimum Excess Availability (as defined in the ABL Credit Agreement).

Covenants; Representation and Warranties: The Term Loan Credit Agreement contains additional affirmative and negative covenants and representations and warranties that are ordinary and customary for similar credit facilities.

Security: The obligations under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are secured by a security interest in substantially all of the assets of the Term Loan Borrowers and the guarantors, including accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, letter of credit rights, cash, intellectual property and other intangibles and certain other assets.

Default and Acceleration: Any Term Loan and other obligations under the Term Loan Credit Agreement may be accelerated and become due and payable immediately upon an event of default and expiration of any applicable cure period. Events of default include: (a) nonpayment and performance defaults under the Term Loan Credit Agreement and related loan documents; (b) cross-defaults to other indebtedness and documents; (c) certain representations and warranties being incorrect or misleading; (d) insolvency; (e) voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy; (f) judgments and attachments; (g) revocation of any guaranty; (h) dissolution; (i) cessation of business; (j) change in control; (k) impairment of a material portion of the security; (l) customary ERISA defaults; (m) actual or asserted invalidity or unenforceability of any loan documents or subordination agreement or liens securing obligations under the loan documents; (n) default under certain material contracts to the extent such termination or default has or could be reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect; (o) certain events with respect to credit card agreements; (p) material uninsured loss; and (q) indictment by any governmental authority under any criminal statute or where forfeiture of collateral is a remedy.
