Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Merger Agreement

On February 15, 2018, LyondellBasell Industries N.V. (LYB), LYB Americas Holdco Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of LYB (Merger Sub), and A. Schulman, Inc. (Schulman), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Schulman (the Merger), with Schulman as the surviving entity. As a result of the Merger, Schulman will become a wholly owned subsidiary of LYB.

Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (the Effective Time), each share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Schulman (Schulman Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be canceled and automatically converted into the right to receive (i) $42.00 in cash, without interest and subject to any applicable withholding taxes (the Per-Share Amount), and (ii) one contractual contingent value right (the CVR), which represents the right to receive a portion of the net proceeds, if any, resulting from certain litigation relating to the acquisition by Schulman of HGGC Citadel Plastics Holdings, Inc.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each Schulman stock option, restricted stock unit, performance stock unit and restricted share, whether vested or unvested, in each case, that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, will be canceled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the Per-Share Amount (or, in the case of Schulman stock options, the excess of the Per-Share Amount over the per-share exercise price for such stock options) for each share of Schulman Common Stock underlying the award, plus one CVR for each share of Schulman Common Stock underlying the award. Each Schulman performance stock unit, restricted stock unit and restricted share that is subject in whole or in part to performance conditions will be deemed to have vested at target achievement levels.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including: (a) absence of any applicable restraining order or injunction prohibiting the Merger, (b) the approval by Schulman's shareholders; (c) obtaining antitrust and other regulatory approvals in the United States and certain other jurisdictions; (d) receipt of CFIUS approval, (e) accuracy of certain representations and warranties of each party, subject to specified materiality qualifiers; (f) performance in all material respects by each party of its covenants; (g) the delivery of an officer's closing certificate by both parties; and (h) in the case of LYB's obligations to complete the Merger, there not having been any material adverse effect on Schulman.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including, among others, covenants: (a) that each of the parties use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to be consummated, (b) that require LYB and Schulman to take actions that may be required in order to obtain required antitrust approvals and (c) that require Schulman (i) subject to certain restrictions, to operate its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, (ii) not to initiate, solicit or knowingly facilitate or encourage the making of any inquiries or proposals relating to alternate transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, engage in any discussions or negotiations with respect thereto, and (iii) to convene a meeting of Schulman's shareholders and to solicit proxies from its shareholders in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including a change in the recommendation of the board of directors of Schulman or a termination of the Merger Agreement by Schulman to enter into an agreement for a superior proposal, Schulman will pay LYB a cash termination fee of $50 million.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide shareholders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about LYB, Merger Sub, Schulman or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. LYB's shareholders, Schulman's shareholders and other investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of LYB, Schulman, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by LYB. Investors should read the Merger Agreement together with the other information concerning LYB and Schulman that each company publicly files in reports and statements with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Contingent Value Rights Agreement

At or immediately prior to the closing date as specified in the Merger Agreement, LYB, Schulman, certain CVR committee members and a paying agent mutually acceptable to LYB and Schulman will enter into a Contingent Value Rights Agreement (the CVR Agreement), which will govern the terms of the CVRs. Each CVR represents the right to receive contingent cash payments from proceeds, if any and subject to certain adjustments and deductions as described in the CVR Agreement, from certain litigation involving Schulman and related governmental investigations. The CVRs will not represent an equity or ownership interest in LYB, any constituent party to the Merger or any of their affiliates.

In order to fund the pursuit of claims and satisfy certain customer claims, Schulman will, simultaneously with the entry into the CVR Agreement, deposit into an escrow account (the Escrow Account) $15 million, subject to certain adjustments resulting from expenses incurred or litigation proceeds received between the execution date of the Merger Agreement and the execution date of the CVR Agreement. Neither LYB nor Schulman will have any additional funding obligations under the CVR Agreement other than making the deposit into the Escrow Account.

A CVR committee will control the management and disposition of the litigation and related governmental investigations, including with respect to the prosecution, negotiation and settlement of claims. The committee will be comprised of one member representing the CVR holders, one member representing LYB and one independent member.

Any proceeds received in respect of the litigation will be deposited into the Escrow Account. The first $38.5 million of litigation proceeds (less customer claims and expenses) will be paid to the CVR holders; thereafter, 85% of the remaining proceeds will be paid to the CVR holders and 15% to Schulman. An interim CVR payment will only be made to the extent an amount equal to at least $15 million remains in the Escrow Account.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement, the CVR Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement and the form of CVR Agreement, which are attached to this report as Exhibits 2.1 and 10.1, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
