Introduction

This Current Report on Form 8-K is being filed in connection with the closing on April 6, 2018 (the Closing) of a transaction between Invesco Ltd. (Invesco) and Guggenheim Capital, LLC (Guggenheim) pursuant to a certain Transaction Agreement dated September 28, 2017 (the Transaction Agreement).

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Agreement, Guggenheim, among other things, agreed to transfer and sell to Invesco PowerShares Capital Management LLC (PowerShares Capital Management) all of the membership interests of Guggenheim Specialized Products, LLC (the Sponsor) at the Closing. Immediately following the Closing, PowerShares Capital Management, as the sole member of the Sponsor, changed the name of the Sponsor to Invesco Specialized Products, LLC by filing an amendment to the Sponsor's Certificate of Formation. See Item 5.03 below.

The foregoing description of the Transaction is necessarily incomplete. For further details about the Transaction, see the full text of the Transaction Agreement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on October 26, 2017 as Exhibit 10.2 to Invesco's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

License Agreement

Effective April 6, 2018, immediately prior to the Closing, the Sponsor, as sponsor of the CurrencyShares® Swedish Krona Trust (the Trust), entered into a License Agreement (the New License Agreement) with The Bank of New York Mellon (BONY) granting the Sponsor a non-exclusive, personal and non-transferable license to certain patent applications made by BONY covering systems and methods for securitizing a commodity for the life of such patents and patent applications. The license grant is solely for the purpose of allowing the Sponsor to establish, operate and market a currency-based securities product based solely on the securitization, in whole or in part, of a single non-U.S. currency. As consideration for the license, BONY has been appointed as trustee of the Trust. The New License Agreement provides that either party may provide notice of intent to terminate the New License Agreement in the event the other party commits a material breach. If the New License Agreement is terminated and one or more of BONY's patent applications issue as patents, then BONY may claim that the operation of the Trust violates its patent or patents and seek an injunction forcing the Trust to cease operation and trading of the Trust's shares. In that case, the Trust might be forced to terminate and liquidate, which would adversely affect the shareholders of the Trust.

The foregoing description of the New License Agreement is necessarily incomplete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the New License Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Sub-License Agreement

Effective April 6, 2018, immediately prior to the Closing, the Sponsor, as sponsor of the Trust, terminated that certain Sublicense Agreement (the Sublicense Agreement) dated June 9, 2006 between PADCO Advisors II, Inc. (PADCO) and the Sponsor in accordance with the terms of the Sublicense Agreement.

PADCO and BONY entered into a License Agreement dated December 5, 2005 (the Old License Agreement) whereby BONY granted PADCO a license to certain patent applications made by BONY for the purposes of establishing, operating and marketing certain investment products based on the securitization of a single non-U.S. currency. PADCO subsequently sublicensed such rights to the Sponsor pursuant to the Sublicense Agreement. In connection with the Closing, PADCO and the Sponsor terminated the Sublicense Agreement, PADCO and BONY terminated the Old License Agreement, and BONY and the Sponsor entered into the New License Agreement. Pursuant to the New License Agreement, the Sponsor continues to hold a license to the same patents and patent applications that were previously licensed to the Sponsor pursuant to the Sublicense Agreement.

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) On April 8, 2018, Ernst & Young LLP (EY) resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Trust as EY is no longer independent of the Trust under the applicable independence standards. Neither the Board of Managers of the Sponsor (the Board) nor any Board committee recommended or approved EY's decision to resign.

The reports of EY on the Trust's financial statements as of and for the two most recent fiscal years (ending October 31, 2017 and October 31, 2016) did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the Trust's two most recent fiscal years (ending October 31, 2017 and October 31, 2016) and during the period from the end of the most recently completed fiscal year through the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K, there was no disagreement between the Trust and EY on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of EY, would have caused it to make a reference to the subject matter thereof in its report on the financial statements of the Trust for any such period.

During the Trust's two most recent fiscal years (ended October 31, 2017 and October 31, 2016) and during the period from the end of the most recently completed fiscal year through the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K, there were no reportable events as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC.

The Sponsor, on behalf of the Trust, has provided EY with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and has requested that EY furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Trust set forth above and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of EY's letter dated April 9, 2018 is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
