Sprint Communications, Inc. (SCI), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sprint, also announced today that it has commenced a consent solicitation (the SCI Consent Solicitation) with respect to certain proposed amendments to the indenture, dated as of November 20, 2006 (as supplemented and amended, the SCI Indenture), governing SCI's (i) 11.500% Senior Notes due 2021 (CUSIP Nos. 852061AM2 and 852061AH3) (the SCI 2021 Notes), (ii) 7.000% Senior Notes due 2020 (CUSIP No. 852061AR1) (the SCI 2020 Notes) and (iii) 6.000% Senior Notes due 2022 (CUSIP No. 852061AS9) (the SCI 2022 Notes and, collectively with the SCI 2020 Notes and the SCI 2021 Notes, the SCI Notes, and each series of the SCI Notes, a SCI Series).

Each of the Sprint Consent Solicitation and the SCI Consent Solicitation is being conducted in connection with Sprint's previously announced agreement to merge (the Merger) with a wholly-owned subsidiary of T-Mobile US, Inc. (T-Mobile), with Sprint surviving, after which Sprint is expected to become a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of T-Mobile USA, Inc. (T-Mobile USA), pursuant to that certain Business Combination Agreement (the Business Combination Agreement), dated as of April 29, 2018, among Sprint, T-Mobile, SoftBank Corp. (SoftBank), Deutsche Telekom AG (Deutsche Telekom) and the additional parties thereto (the Merger, together with the other transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement, the T-Mobile Transaction).

Sprint Consent Solicitation

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Sprint Solicitation Materials (as defined below), Sprint is soliciting consents from holders (i) to amend the definition of Change of Control to exclude the T-Mobile Transaction (the Sprint Change of Control Amendment), (ii) to amend the definition of Permitted Holder to include SoftBank, T-Mobile, Deutsche Telekom and their affiliates and successors and certain groups of which they are members, (iii) to add a restriction on consolidations, mergers and transfers of all or substantially all property and assets of T-Mobile USA and (iv) to remove the restriction on transfers of all or substantially all property and assets of Sprint (collectively, the Sprint Proposed Amendments).

In addition, at and subject to the consummation of the T-Mobile Transaction, T-Mobile and T-Mobile USA will enter into a supplemental indenture to the Sprint Indenture to provide unconditional and irrevocable guarantees in respect of each Sprint Series of the Sprint Notes, regardless of whether the Sprint Requisite Consents (as defined below) are received (the Sprint T-Mobile Guarantees). No consideration is being, or will be, paid or given by holders in respect of the Sprint T-Mobile Guarantees.

Under the Sprint Indenture, the occurrence of both a Change of Control and a Ratings Decline (which is defined with respect to each Sprint Series as a ratings downgrade from both of Moody's Investor Services, Inc. (Moody's) and Standard & Poor's Ratings Services (S&P)) constitutes a Change of Control Triggering Event requiring Sprint to make an offer to each holder of Sprint Notes to repurchase each holder's Sprint Notes for 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest (a Sprint Change of Control Offer). If the Sprint Change of Control Amendment becomes operative with respect to any Sprint Series, Sprint will not have to make a Sprint Change of Control Offer to holders of such Sprint Series in connection with the T-Mobile Transaction regardless of whether a Ratings Decline occurs.

Sprint is offering to pay each holder who validly delivers and does not validly revoke its consent to the Sprint Proposed Amendments in the manner described in the Sprint Solicitation Materials on or prior to the Sprint Expiration Time (as defined below), in each case on a pro rata basis with all other consenting holders, cash payments to Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (the Payment Agent) of the aggregate consent payments detailed in the table below (each a Sprint Consent Payment and, collectively the Sprint Consent Payments) for the benefit of the applicable holders, subject to satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including the receipt of valid consents, with respect to any Sprint Series, of a majority in aggregate principal amount of each such Sprint Series (the Sprint Requisite Consents). If the Sprint Requisite Consents are not obtained with respect to each Sprint Series, Sprint may, in its sole discretion, accept the Sprint Requisite Consents only with respect to specific Sprint Series of Sprint Notes, in which event only holders of Sprint Notes of such specific Sprint Series will be bound by the Sprint Proposed Amendments and only holders validly delivering consents in respect of such Sprint Series will receive the Sprint Consent Payments with respect to such Sprint Series.

Sprint anticipates that, promptly after receipt of the Sprint Requisite Consents from holders of one or more Sprint Series at or prior to the Sprint Expiration Time, Sprint will give notice to The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. (the Trustee) that the Sprint Requisite Consents with respect to such Sprint Series have been obtained, and Sprint and the Trustee will execute the supplemental indenture to the Sprint Indenture (such time, the Sprint Effective Time), pursuant to which the Sprint Change of Control Amendment will become operative at the Sprint Effective Time and the other Sprint Proposed Amendments will not become operative until immediately prior to the consummation of the T-Mobile Transaction with respect to such Sprint Series. In addition, at and subject to the consummation of the T-Mobile Transaction, T-Mobile and T-Mobile USA will enter into a supplemental indenture to the SCI Indenture to provide unconditional and irrevocable guarantees in respect of each SCI Series of the SCI Notes, regardless of whether the SCI Requisite Consents (as defined below) are received (the SCI T-Mobile Guarantees). No consideration is being, or will be, paid or given by holders in respect of the SCI T-Mobile Guarantees.

Under the SCI Indenture, the occurrence of both a Change of Control and a Ratings Decline (which is defined with respect to each SCI Series as a ratings downgrade from both of Moody's and S&P) constitutes a Change of Control Triggering Event requiring SCI to make an offer to each holder of SCI Notes to repurchase each holder's SCI Notes for 101% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued and unpaid interest (a SCI Change of Control Offer). If the SCI Change of Control Amendment becomes operative with respect to any SCI Series, SCI will not have to make a SCI Change of Control Offer to holders of such SCI Series in connection with the T-Mobile Transaction regardless of whether a Ratings Decline occurs.

SCI is offering to pay each holder who validly delivers and does not validly revoke its consent to the SCI Proposed Amendments in the manner described in the SCI Solicitation Materials on or prior to the SCI Expiration Time (as defined below), in each case on a pro rata basis with all other consenting holders, cash payments to the Payment Agent of the aggregate consent payments detailed in the table below (each a SCI Consent Payment and, collectively the SCI Consent Payments) for the benefit of the applicable holders, subject to satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including the receipt of valid consents, with respect to any SCI Series, of a majority in aggregate principal amount of each such SCI Series (the SCI Requisite Consents). If the SCI Requisite Consents are not obtained with respect to each SCI Series, SCI may, in its sole discretion, accept the SCI Requisite Consents only with respect to specific SCI Series of SCI Notes, in which event only holders of SCI Notes of such specific SCI Series will be bound by the SCI Proposed Amendments and only holders validly delivering consents in respect of such SCI Series will receive the SCI Consent Payments with respect to such SCI Series.

SCI 2022 Notes	852061AS9	$ 2,280,000,000	$ 5,700,000

SCI anticipates that, promptly after receipt of the SCI Requisite Consents from holders of one or more SCI Series at or prior to the SCI Expiration Time, SCI will give notice to the Trustee that the SCI Requisite Consents with respect to such SCI Series have been obtained, and SCI and the Trustee will execute the supplemental indenture to the SCI Indenture (such time, the SCI Effective Time), pursuant to which, with respect to such SCI Series, the SCI Change of Control Amendment will become operative at the SCI Effective Time and the other SCI Proposed Amendments will not become operative until immediately prior to the consummation of the T-Mobile Transaction. Holders should note that the SCI Effective Time with respect to any SCI Series may be prior to the SCI Expiration Time and holders will not be given prior notice of such SCI Effective Time.

The SCI Consent Solicitation will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on May 11, 2018 (as such date may be extended by SCI in its sole discretion) (the SCI Expiration Time). Payment of the SCI Consent Payments with respect to each SCI Series will be made one business day after the SCI Expiration Time, on a pro rata basis.
