MOORESTOWN, N.J., May 14, 2018 Destination Maternity Corporation (NASDAQ: DEST), the world's leading maternity apparel retailer, today announced that it has sent a letter to its stockholders. A full copy of the letter can be found below:

VOTE FOR ALL OF DESTINATION'S HIGHLY QUALIFIED DIRECTOR NOMINEES

ON THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY!

May 14, 2018

Dear Fellow Stockholders:

With the 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders coming up quickly, we urge you to vote in line with the Director recommendations of leading proxy advisory firm Glass Lewis & Co. (Glass Lewis) by using the enclosed WHITE proxy card to vote FOR ALL FOUR of the Board's directors:

Pierre-André Mestre Recently appointed Director, Chairman of our largest stockholder

Peter Longo Recently appointed Director, substantial retail, e-commerce, and omni-channel experience

Barry Erdos Recently appointed Chairman of the Board, substantial retail experience as a member of the C-Suite and Board

Melissa Payner-Gregor Recently appointed interim CEO, with substantial experience in merchandising, marketing, and e-commerce.

Your Board feels strongly that the most qualified individuals to execute the Company's ongoing initiatives are the incumbent Director nominees (the Destination Nominees).

When conducting a side by side evaluation across a number of important metrics, we believe it is apparent that the Destination Nominees are far and away the most qualified individuals to execute the Company's ongoing initiatives, with the dissident nominees lacking any public company Board or C-Suite experience:

Highly Qualified

Destination

Nominees

(WHITE Proxy Card):

Miller Group

Nominees

(Gold Proxy Card):

You should IGNORE AND THROW OUT any proxy materials you receive from a dissident group of stockholders led by Nathan G. Miller and Peter O. Malley (the Miller Group). Both proxy advisory firms, Institutional Stockholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis, have independently recommended that Destination stockholders vote on the Company's WHITE proxy card.

STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD IGNORE THE MILLER GROUP'S DESPERATE ATTACKS AND VOTE FOR ALL FOUR OF THE COMPANY'S HIGHLY QUALIFIED NOMINEES

Sadly, the Miller Group is desperately attempting to compensate for its nominees' deficiencies in skills and experience and its lack of a plan and an articulated vision for the Company, by resorting to personal attacks and spreading innuendo, particularly respecting Barry Erdos and Melissa Payner-Gregor in matters unrelated and of no relevance to the Company.

The desperate Miller Group has also gone so far as to contradict its own public statements in attacking the candidacy of Pierre-André Mestre, Chairman of Orchestra-Prémaman, as a Board nominee even after stating publicly less than 2 months ago that the Miller Group and its Nominees:

would support expanding the Board and adding representatives of Orchestra-Prémaman S.A. ( Orchestra ) to the Board, if Orchestra desires such representation, so that the Board will include additional stockholder representation.

Your Board, on the contrary, has chosen to focus on substance and the best interests of our stockholders, and not to waste our stockholders' time and attention by such personal attacks.

THE COMPANY HAS A HIGHLY QUALIFIED AND REFRESHED BOARD,
AND A CLEAR GO-FORWARD PLAN THAT IS ALREADY YIELDING RESULTS

Destination has actively added new members to expand the skills and experience on your Board to accelerate the Company's path to profitable growth. The result is that half of Destination's nominees have joined the Board in the last four months, including the addition of the chair of the Company's largest stockholder. Mr. Erdos, as Board Chairman since September 7, 2017, and Ms. Payner-Gregor, as interim CEO since January 3, 2018, have been instrumental in leading this refresh of the Board, as well as the formulation of our go-forward strategic plan which includes significant growth initiatives such as product extensions into baby soft and hard goods, capitalizing on the immediate opportunity in the market created by the Toys R Us / Babies R Us bankruptcy.

Your Board nominees include a strong mix of newly appointed and long-tenured directors which offers both governance continuity as well as new viewpoints within the Boardroom. Your Board nominees collectively possess a deep knowledge of the retail and apparel landscape and their various distribution channels, along with significant related experience serving in the C-suite and the boardroom of public companies, both international and domestic. This stands in stark contrast with the Miller Group nominees, who lack the expertise and experience required to oversee the change already underway at the Company.

Furthermore, the Miller Group has offered no roadmap, no turnaround plan, and no detailed plan of any kind to drive profitable growth, and has not offered any strategic or constructive ideas to increase stockholder value. As ISS remarked in its report, the dissident has not presented a strong enough business plan to justify election of a majority slate, which could bring additional risk to shareholders.

In contrast to the Miller Group's lack of a business plan, your Board and management team are working diligently to capitalize on the progress made to date with a newly revised go-forward plan which is already yielding results.

Despite significant challenges, your Board and management team made progress in fiscal 2017 including:

Improving sales sequentially throughout the year with improved day-to-day channel and merchandising management

Relaunching its web platform, driving an increase in comparable sales in the channel of over 40%, with much of that improvement driven by major conversion improvements on all devices, particularly mobile; The digital platform helped to deliver a 5.2% total comp increase in the fourth quarter

Reducing SG&A by over $5.2MM for the partial year, with annualized run-rate savings in excess of $10MM in fiscal 2018

Refinancing the Company's outstanding term loan to provide greater liquidity

Indeed, independent proxy advisory firm, Glass Lewis, in supporting ALL of the Destination Nominees, noted that this progress (measured from September 22, 2017 to the day immediately prior to the Miller Group publicly launching its campaign on March 23, 2018), offers some cause to suggest the tides may be turning. In particular, we note Destination generated total shareholder returns of 57.6% for this shorter window, while a peer composite comprised of companies identified in materials published by both the Dissident and the Company offered dividend-adjusted returns of just 19.4%. Moreover, the S&P/TSX Smallcap Specialty Retail Index lost 0.8% over the same period. On balance, these values seem to indicate there could be buy-in to the board's strategy, particularly given a partial recomposition of Destination's oversight architecture in the period since the Orchestra contest.

we recommend shareholders vote FOR all nominees using management's WHITE proxy card.

Building on this success, your Board and management team have worked closely together to not only develop our Company's new go-forward strategy (which is summarized here), but also to make tangible progress in only a short time:

Go Forward Strategy

Creating a more seamless and relevant omni-channel experience to lift performance in all channels leveraging our strengths in each channel to benefit all channels

Increasing distribution points to increase market share as well as profit to gain leverage on expenses

Expanding product offerings beyond our customer's pregnancy to her life as a new-mom

Protecting and expanding the revenue from marketing partnerships

Capitalizing on the Company's investments in

Progress to Date

Fulfill from store launched in Fall 2017 to enable greater inventory productivity and fuel ecommerce growth

Pickup from store launched in early 2017 to drive traffic to stores

Scoping and planning for implementation of in-store appointment scheduling and live chat

Transitioning to Amazon Retail platform (set to launch in late Summer / early Fall this year) which will provide Prime fulfillment and other benefits for the Company's products sold on Amazon

Implementation work underway to offer Destination products through at least one additional online marketplace in fiscal 2018 with more to follow

Currently scoping development of an online marketplace for the offer or extension of products through Destination's websites with active negotiations ongoing with multiple interested third parties

Actively working to secure existing partnerships, with new partnerships (which will be incrementally additive to earnings) in negotiation

Working to develop enhanced reporting through a newly developed business intelligence toolset which will enable insights into by-channel, by-category, and planning, buying and allocation

by-size performance to leverage the Company's prior investments

Improving profitability
through a stringent profit focused philosophy

Continued, rigorous review and leveraging of our highly liquid real estate portfolio

Actively re-negotiating contracts with key partners to increase profitability

Bringing each of their unique skillsets and deep experience to the table, each Destination Nominee (Barry, Melissa, Pierre and Peter) have been integral to the development of the go-forward plan and the results to date. Any changes at the Board level, including the Miller Group's attempt to replace your entire Board with nominees who lack experience with the Company or in any business which focuses on apparel and related services for the pregnant customer and new mom risks a loss of continuity and a potential deviation from this strategy which could be highly detrimental to you and all of our stockholders.

HAVING REJECTED FIVE SETTLEMENT OFFERS, THE MILLER GROUP APPEARS TO ONLY BE INTERESTED IN TAKING CONTROL OF THE COMPANY

The election of the Miller Group's nominees would turn over control of your Board, unseating your interim CEO Melissa Payner-Gregor, and removing the representative of our largest stockholder in Pierre-André Mestre. The Miller Group's nominees lack institutional knowledge of your Company and other requisite skills for effective service on your Board.

Destination has made multiple attempts to reach a settlement with the Miller Group in the best interests of all Company stockholders, and yet the dissident has rejected every settlement offer. This unnecessary proxy battle launched by the Miller Group appears to be another attempt to gain complete control of the Company for its own benefit. First, the Miller Group offered an inadequate proposal to purchase the Company (at a discount to the Company's trading price). Next, the Miller Group followed-up with an inadequate proposed private investment that would enable it to acquire effective control of the Company while significantly diluting your ownership in the Company (again, at a bargain price). This proxy battle is just the latest attempt by the Miller Group to gain control of your Company, this time by replacing your entire Board with the dissident's own hand-selected candidates. We believe it is abundantly clear that the Miller Group's top priority is to take over your Company, not to create value for all stockholders.

Glass Lewis also called into question the Miller Group's true motivations in its report:

we are concerned the Dissident's pattern of practice indicates a principal focus on control, rather than the expansion and protection of shareholder value.

we believe the Miller Group's bona fides as a shareholder advocate are dwarfed by its apparent interest in exercising unilateral influence over the Company.

PROTECT THE VALUE OF YOUR INVESTMENT IN DESTINATION: VOTE THE WHITE

PROXY CARD FOR ALL OF THE PROPOSALS TODAY

Your Board is comprised of individuals who bring valuable perspectives and highly relevant experience, and they have recently overseen the successful recruitment of two highly qualified independent directors to further diversify opinions in the Boardroom. With a strong team in place and a solid infrastructure upon which to grow, the Company is focused on improving performance, achieving profitable growth and maximizing stockholder value. Do not turn over control of your Company to a group of individuals with no public company board experience, limited executive management experience and limited relevant industry experience.

Vote on the WHITE proxy card FOR all of our highly qualified slate of nominees:

Barry Erdos, Melissa Payner-Gregor, Peter Longo and Pierre-André Mestre.

Your vote is extremely important, no matter how many or how few shares you own. We urge you to vote today by telephone, online or by signing and dating the enclosed WHITE proxy card and returning it in the postage-paid envelope.

If you have previously returned a gold proxy card you received from the Miller Group, you have every right to change your vote by using the WHITE proxy card to support the Destination Board. Only your latest dated validly executed proxy card will count.

Please DO NOT send back any gold proxy cards, even as a protest vote. Doing so will cancel out any previously submitted WHITE proxy cards.

Please vote today by telephone, online or by signing, dating and returning your WHITE proxy card today.

We are extremely honored to serve on behalf of you, our stockholders. Your Board and management team are committed to constructive engagement with our stockholders and maximizing the value of your investment.

On behalf of the Board, thank you for your continued support.

Very truly yours,

The Destination Maternity Board
