Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On October 21, 2015, Duke Energy Corporation (the “Corporation”) and Duke Energy Ohio, Inc. (“Duke Energy Ohio”) announced that they had entered into a settlement agreement in which the Corporation agreed to pay approximately $81 million (the “Settlement Amount”) out of shareholder funds to end a class action lawsuit, Anthony Williams et al. v. Duke Energy Corp. et al., in which the plaintiffs asserted that contracts between Duke Energy Retail Sales, LLC, a former subsidiary of the Corporation, and certain large industrial and business customers of the Corporation violated state and federal antitrust and other laws by providing financial benefits through those contracts that other customers did not receive. The Corporation and Duke Energy Ohio denied the allegations and maintained that they had complied with all state and federal laws but agreed to settle the case to avoid the costs and uncertainties of continued litigation.

Under the agreement, the Settlement Amount would be allocated as follows:

• Up to $25 million to Duke Energy Ohio’s residential customers who were customers at any time during the period beginning January 1, 2005, and ending December 31, 2008;

• Up to $25 million to Duke Energy Ohio’s non-residential customers (such as businesses and local governments) who were customers at any time during the period beginning January 1, 2005, and ending December 31, 2008;

• $8 million to fund energy-related programs to benefit Duke Energy Ohio’s customers who were customers at any time during the period beginning January 1, 2005, and ending December 31, 2008; and

• Remaining funds to pay plaintiffs’ legal fees, settlement fund distribution costs and other expenses.

The Corporation previously recognized cumulative pre-tax charges of $81 million to account for the settlement of this matter. As a result, no additional charges will be recognized due to the final settlement provisions.

The settlement agreement is subject to approval by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio.
