Information on the Company

The business of the Bank is substantially the same as the business of Credit Suisse Group, which is described in “Item 4 –Information on the company” in the Group’s 2006 20-F. Substantially all of the Bank’s operations are conducted through the Investment Banking, Private Banking and Asset Management segments.

Certain other assets, liabilities and results of operations that are associated with the three segments are not included in the Bank’s condensed consolidated balance sheets and statements of income. In 2006 and prior years, these related principally to the activities of Clariden Leu and Neue Aargauer Bank. The results of operations of these entities, which are managed, but not legally owned, by the Bank are included in the Bank’s Private Banking segment but not reflected in the Bank’s consolidated statements of income. The results of operations of BANK-now, which are managed by the Bank and included in the Bank’s Private Banking segment, were included in the Bank’s consolidated financial statements through December 31, 2006. Effective January 3, 2007, BANK-now is a subsidiary of the Group and its results of operations are not included in the Bank’s consolidated financial statements.

Differences between the Group and the Bank businesses

Entity	Principal business activity
--------	-----------------------------

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

Clariden Leu ¹	Banking and securities
Neue Aargauer Bank	Banking (in the Swiss canton of Aargau)
BANK-now ²	Private credit and car leasing (in Switzerland)
Financing vehicles of the Group	Special purpose vehicles for various funding activities of the Group, including for purposes of raising consolidated capital

1 Formed as of January 1, 2007 by the merger of the private banks Clariden Bank, Bank Leu, Bank Hofmann and BGP Banca die Gestione Patrimoniale, and the securities dealer Credit Suisse Fides. 2 Formed as of January 3, 2007 as a subsidiary of Credit Suisse Group. The operations comprising BANK-now were previously recorded in the Bank.

In addition, the Group has certain financing activities that are not in the Bank's consolidated balance sheets and statements of income. All of these activities vary from period to period and give rise to differences between the Bank's aggregate assets, liabilities and results of operations and those of the Group.

Operating and financial review and prospects

The Bank's operating results, cash flows and prospects are substantially the same as the results from continuing operations, cash flows from continuing operations and prospects of the Group. The Bank operates through the same operating segments as the Group and these segment results are included in Core Results. These are described in Core Results in the Group's third quarter 2007 Financial Review (Credit Suisse Financial Review 3Q07), which was filed with the SEC on November 2, 2007 on Form 6-K.

Legal proceedings

The Bank is involved in a number of judicial, regulatory and arbitration proceedings concerning matters arising in connection with the conduct of its businesses. Some of these actions have been brought on behalf of various classes of claimants and seek damages of material and/or indeterminate amounts. The Group believes, based on currently available information and advice of counsel, that the results of such proceedings, in the aggregate, will not have a material adverse effect on its financial condition but might be material to operating results for any particular period, depending, in part, upon the operating results for such period.

Information on the Bank's legal proceedings is set forth in "Note 23 – Litigation" in the Notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements in the Credit Suisse Financial Statements 3Q07.

South Africa litigation

With respect to the appeal taken against the decision of the US District Court for the Southern District of New York (SDNY) dismissing the actions in the South Africa litigation matters disclosed in Item 8 of our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2006, in October 2007, the US Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit reversed the decision of the SDNY as to certain claims and remanded the case to the SDNY for further proceedings.

Quantitative disclosure about market risk

Information on market risk and other information relating to the Bank's risk management (including its segments) are included in "Risk management" in the Credit Suisse Financial Review 3Q07.
