Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 5, 2018, Pure Bioscience, Inc. (the “Company”) and Henry R. Lambert, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and President, entered into a Second Amendment (the “Second Amendment”) to Mr. Lambert’s existing Employment Agreement, dated October 23, 2013, as previously amended on January 19, 2017 (the “Existing Agreement”). Under the Second Amendment, the term of Mr. Lambert’s employment with the Company was extended to June 30, 2020. During such term, Mr. Lambert’s employment with the Company remains “at-will.” Either party may terminate Mr. Lambert’s employment early, for any or no reason, and with or without cause, by providing the other party with 30 days’ advance written notice.

In the Second Amendment, Mr. Lambert also agreed to reduce the severance payments he is entitled to receive if he is terminated by the Company without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason. Under the Existing Agreement, he was entitled to receive 24 months of base salary plus a $1,000,000 lump sum payment. Under the Second Amendment, he is entitled to receive six months of base salary. In addition, under the Second Amendment, Mr. Lambert agreed to waive his rights to: (i) receive 24 months of base salary plus a $1,000,000 lump sum payment in the event he is terminated in connection with or following a change in control of the Company and (ii) receive “gross-up” payments from the Company in the event any payment or distribution he receives from the Company is subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Second Amendment provides that Mr. Lambert will be entitled to accelerated vesting of his outstanding equity awards, and a period of 12 months to exercise any outstanding stock options, if his employment terminates at the expiration of his employment term on June 30, 2020.

The foregoing description of the Second Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Second Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
