ITEM 8.01.

OTHER EVENTS.

The Form 8-K that the Registrant submitted to the SEC for filing at 6:21 p.m. Eastern Time on February 15, 2018, was not false and misleading because the Registrant was advised as late as 4:30 p.m. Eastern Time on February 15, 2018 by its independent Registered Agent that the Registered Agent had not received any documentation establishing a record date for the ongoing consent solicitation.

After being so advised, and to minimize confusion, uncertainty and costs for all parties, the Registrant submitted a Form 8-K to the SEC at 6:21 p.m. Eastern Time on February 15, 2018 for filing in order to establish a record date for the consent solicitation so that the parties involved in the consent solicitation could move forward with a single record date.

At the time of submitting the Form 8-K on February 15, 2018, everything in the Form 8-K was accurate to the knowledge of the Registrant, and only later, at approximately 10:20 p.m. Eastern Time on February 15, 2018, did the Registrant receive notice from the Registered Agent that the Registered Agent had received outside documentation necessary to establish the record date. The Registrant's Registered Agent did not provide the correct information prior to the time the Registrant's Form 8-K was submitted to the SEC for filing, because, according to information subsequently obtained on February 16 from the Registered Agent, the documentation received by the Transfer Agent on February 13 had been "in queue" and not available for the Registered Agent to advise the Registrant prior to the Registrant's submitting its February 15 Form 8-K to the SEC.

Based on the above, the Registrant agrees that the record date for the consent solicitation is February 13, 2018, even though nothing in the Form 8-K submitted on February 15, 2018 was false and misleading based on the information available to the Registrant at the time of submission of the Form 8-K to the SEC.

Given that a record date has now been properly established, the Registrant intends to engage an independent tabulator of consents and revocations to tabulate the written consents and revocations.
