The Accounting and Audit Committee currently consists of Robert E. Long, Chairman, and Philip M. Halpern and Salvatore Trani, who became directors in January 2006. Messrs. The Accounting and Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the audit and related work of the Company's independent auditors. The Accounting and Audit Committee reviews the degree of their independence; approves the scope of the audit engagement, including the cost of the audit; approves any non-audit services rendered by the auditors and the fees for these services; reviews with the auditors and management the Company's policies and procedures with respect to internal accounting and financial controls and, upon completion of an audit, the results of the audit engagement; and reviews internal accounting and auditing procedures with the Company's financial staff and the extent to which recommendations made by the independent auditors have been implemented. The Accounting and Audit Committee has adopted a charter, a copy of which was attached as an exhibit to the 2004 proxy statement.

The Personnel Committee held fourteen (14) meetings in 2005. Matters were also addressed by unanimous written consent in accordance with Delaware law. The Personnel Committee currently consists of Mr. Halpern and Mr. Trani, Co-Chairpersons, and Mr. Long. The principal functions of the Personnel Committee are to consider and recommend nominees for the Board, to oversee the performance and approve the remuneration of officers and senior employees of the Company and its subsidiaries and to oversee and approve the employee benefit and retirement plans of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Personnel Committee will consider stockholder recommendations for director, submitted in accordance with the Company's By-Laws. The Personnel Committee does not currently have a written charter.

The Company's By-Laws require that in the event a stockholder wishes to nominate a person for election as a director, advance notice must be given to the Secretary of the Company not less than 120 days in advance of the date on which the Company's proxy statement is released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of stockholders, except that if no annual meeting was held in the previous year or if the date of the annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 calendar days from the date contemplated at the time of the previous year's proxy statement, such a proposal must be received by the Company a reasonable time before the solicitation is made, together with the name and address of the stockholder and of the person to be nominated; a representation that the stockholder is entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy to make the nomination; a description of arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and others pursuant to which the nomination is to be made; such other information regarding the nominee as would be required in a proxy statement filed under the proxy rules as set forth in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Securities Exchange Act"); and the consent of the nominee to serve as a director if elected.

Communications with Directors

In order to provide the Company's security holders and other interested parties with a direct and open line of communication to the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors has adopted the following procedures for communications to directors. The Company's security holders and other interested persons may communicate with the Chairman of the Company's Accounting and Audit Committee, either of the Co-Chairman of the Personnel Committee, or with the non-management directors of the Company as a group, by mailing a letter addressed in care of the Corporate Secretary, AmBase Corporation, 100 Putnam Green, 3rd Floor, Greenwich, Connecticut 06830.

All communications received in accordance with these procedures will be reviewed initially by the Company. The Company will relay all such communications to the appropriate director or directors unless the Secretary determines that the communication:

- o does not relate to the business or affairs of the Company or the functioning or constitution of the Board of Directors or any of its committees;
- o relates to routine or insignificant matters that do not warrant the attention of the Board of Directors;
- o is an advertisement or other commercial solicitation or communication;
- o is frivolous or offensive; or
- o is otherwise not appropriate for delivery to directors.

The director or directors who receive any such communication will have discretion to determine whether the subject matter of the communication should be brought to the attention of the full Board of Directors or one or more of its committees, and whether any response to the person sending the communication is appropriate. Any such response will be made only in accordance with applicable law and regulations relating to the disclosure of information.

The Secretary will retain copies of all communications received pursuant to these procedures for a period of at least one year. The Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors will review the effectiveness of these procedures from time to time and, if appropriate, recommend changes.

Board Attendance at Annual Meetings

We have not established a formal policy regarding director attendance at our annual meetings of shareholders, but our directors generally do attend the annual meeting. The Chairman of the Board presides at the annual meeting of shareholders, and the Board of Directors holds one of its regular meetings in conjunction with the annual meeting of shareholders. Accordingly, unless one or more members of the Board are unable to attend, all members of the Board are expected to be present for the annual meeting. All of the four members of the

Edgar Filing: AMBASE CORP - Form DEF 14A

Board at the time of the Company's 2005 annual meeting of shareholders attended that meeting.

Nomination of Directors

The Personnel Committee has adopted specifications applicable to members of the Board of Directors, and nominees for the Board of Directors recommended by the Personnel Committee must meet these specifications. The specifications provide that a candidate for director should:

- o have a reputation for industry, integrity, honesty, candor, fairness and discretion;

- o be knowledgeable in his or her chosen field of endeavor, which field should have such relevance to our businesses as would contribute to the Company's success;

- o be knowledgeable, or willing and able to become so quickly, in the critical aspects of our businesses and operations; and

- o be experienced and skillful in communicating with and serving as a competent overseer of, and trusted advisor and confidant to senior management, of a publicly held corporation or other corporation.

In addition, nominees for the Board of Directors should contribute to the mix of skills, core competencies and qualifications of the Board through expertise in one or more of the following areas: accounting and finance, the financial industry, international business, mergers and acquisitions, leadership, business and management, strategic planning, government relations, investor relations, executive leadership development, and executive compensation. The Personnel Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders for election at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders that are submitted prior to December 4, 2006, to our Secretary at the Company's offices, 100 Putnam Green, 3rd Floor, Greenwich, Connecticut 06830. Any recommendation must be in writing and must include a detailed description of the business experience and other qualifications of the recommended nominee as well as the signed consent of the nominee to serve if nominated and elected, so that the candidate may be properly considered. All stockholder recommendations will be reviewed in the same manner as other potential candidates for Board membership.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Based solely upon a review of the forms filed with the SEC and written representations received by the Company pursuant to the requirements of Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act, the Company believes that, during 2005, there were no transactions which were not reported on a timely basis to the SEC, no late reports nor other failure to file a required form by any director, officer or 10% stockholder of the Company.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT MATTERS

Report of the Accounting and Audit Committee

Edgar Filing: AMBASE CORP - Form DEF 14A

As set forth in more detail in the Accounting and Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") charter (attached as an Exhibit A to the Company's 2004 Proxy Statement) the primary purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee management's conduct of the Company's financial reporting process, including the oversight of the following:

- o financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to any governmental or regulatory body, the public or other users thereof;
- o the Company's systems of internal accounting and financial controls; and
- o the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed the Company's audited financial statements and met with both Company management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's registered independent public accounting firm, to discuss those financial statements. Management has represented to us that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Audit Committee has received from and discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the written disclosure and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees". These items relate to that firm's independence from the Company. The Audit Committee also discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP any matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 "Communication with Audit Committees".

Based on these reviews and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

Pursuant to its charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for selection, approving compensation and overseeing the independence, qualifications and performance of the Company's independent accountants. The Audit Committee has adopted a pre-approval policy pursuant to which certain permissible audit and non-audit services may be provided by the independent accountants. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year, is detailed as to the particular service or category of services and may be subject to a specific budget. The Audit Committee may also pre-approve particular services on a case-by-case basis. In assessing requests for services by the Company's independent accountants, the Audit Committee considers whether such services are consistent with the auditor's independence; whether the Company's independent accountants are likely to provide the most effective and efficient service based upon their familiarity with the Company; and whether the service could enhance our ability to manage or control risk or improve audit quality.

There were no non audit-related, tax or other services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers in fiscal year 2005.

Retirement Benefits

The AmBase Supplemental Retirement Plan, as amended and restated (the "Supplemental Plan"), is an unfunded, non tax-qualified retirement plan which has been in effect since 1985, under which benefits are based on a varying percentage accrual (historically ranging from 2.5% to 4%, determined on an individual basis by the Personnel Committee) of the participant's average base salary and bonus (averaged over the three years of credited service that produce the highest average) multiplied by the number of years of the participant's credited service, up to 20 years, plus 1% of his or her average base salary and bonus multiplied by his or her years of credited service from 20 to 25 years, plus 0.5% of his or her average base salary and bonus multiplied by his or her years of credited service in excess of 25 years. Benefits vest after ten years of service although the Personnel Committee may waive or reduce the ten-year service requirement for individual participants. Benefits are payable in the form of a 10-year life and certain annuity or upon the election of a vested participant whose employment has terminated after ten years of service or after a change in control of the Company, in the form of an actuarially equivalent lump-sum payment. Mr. Bianco is the only current executive officer of the Company who participates in the Supplemental Plan and his Supplemental Plan benefits are fully vested, effective with the terms of his initial employment with the Company in 1991.

The following table presents, for representative periods of credited service, estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement at the normal retirement age of 60 (under the Supplemental Plan) to hypothetical vested participants in the Supplemental Plan, in the form of a ten-year certain and life annuity. For purposes of the Supplemental Plan, accrual has been assumed at the rate of 4% per year.

For the purposes of computing accrued benefits under the Supplemental Plan, Mr. Bianco had 14.67 years of credited service as of December 31, 2005 and his accrual percentage is 4% in effect from the time of his initial employment with the Company. Assuming Mr. Bianco's continued employment with the Company until the expiration of his current employment contract on May 31, 2007, he will have 16.08 years of credited service for the computation of accrued benefits under the Supplemental Plan. Mr. Bianco received no benefit under the AmBase Retirement Plan, a tax-qualified retirement plan, which was terminated in 1993. No other employee of the Company is a participant under the Supplemental Plan.

In consideration for Mr. Bianco's agreement to extend his employment with the Company for an additional five (5) years with no further Supplemental Plan accruals for the extension period, the Company has amended the Supplemental Plan to provide for the payment to Mr. Bianco of his Supplemental Plan benefit in a lump-sum on or about May 31, 2007 (the date of his Supplemental Plan benefit entitlement had he not agreed to extend his employment with the Company beyond May 31, 2007). The Company and Mr. Bianco have further agreed that for purposes of computing his Supplemental Plan benefit as of May 31, 2007, his Final Average Earnings (as defined in the Supplemental Plan) will be capped as of December 31, 2004, a 5.75% discount rate will be used and a "RP-2000" projected to 2004 mortality table will be used, resulting in a Supplemental Plan lump-sum benefit payment to Mr. Bianco of $16,676,115. The Company has further amended the Supplemental Plan to automatically terminate following the lump-sum payment to Mr. Bianco on or about May 31, 2007. See Employment Contracts, below for a more complete description of Mr. Bianco's employment agreements with the Company.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

During 2005, the annual fee to be paid to each director who is not an employee of or a consultant to the Company, is $7,500. The annual fees are payable in December, provided that a director who is not an employee of or consultant to the Company attends at least 75% of all meetings during the calendar year. Mr. Costello and Mr. Long each received $7,500 for their services on the Board during 2005. Mr. Quinn, who served as a director until his resignation in October 2005, received $5,912 for his services on the Board during 2005. Pursuant to the Company's By-Laws, directors may be compensated for additional services for the Board of Directors or for any committee at the request of the Chairman of the Board or the Chairman of any committee. No additional fees were paid to outside directors in 2005.

Effective for 2006, each director of the Company, including Mr. Bianco, who is the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, are to be paid an annual fee of $7,500. In addition, each Chairperson and Co-Chairperson of a Board committee is to be paid an additional fee of $1,000 per year, and after four (4) Board and/or committee meetings, each director is to be paid a $500 per meeting attendance fee.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors is the committee, the functions of which are equivalent to those of a compensation committee. The members of the Personnel Committee during 2005 were John B. Costello, Chairman, until his resignation in December 2005, Robert E. Long, and Michael L. Quinn, until his resignation in October 2005. All Personnel Committee members during 2005 were independent directors of the Company. As of January 2006, the Personnel Committee members are Salvatore Trani, Co-Chairperson, Philip M. Halpern, Co-Chairperson, and Robert E. Long. Mr. Trani, Mr. Halpern and Mr. Long are all independent directors of the Company.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS

An employment agreement, as amended, is in effect between Mr. Bianco and the Company, which provides for him to serve as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company at an annual base salary of $625,000 through May 31, 2007. The employment agreement also provides for additional benefits, including his participation in various employee benefit plans, annual bonus eligibility, certain long-term disability benefits and the accrual of benefits under the Company's Supplemental Plan at 4% of his average base salary and bonus (averaged over the three years of credited service that will produce the highest benefit), and 100% vesting in his Supplemental Plan accrued benefit. In the event the Company was to terminate his employment other than for reasons permitted in the employment agreement, Mr. Bianco would be entitled to receive a lump-sum amount equal to the salary payments provided for in the employment agreement for the remaining term thereof following the passage of a six (6) month period from his date of termination.

During March 2006, an additional employment agreement between Mr. Bianco and the Company, effective June 1, 2007, has also been executed (the "2007 Employment Agreement"). The terms of the 2007 Employment Agreement provide for Mr. Bianco to continue to serve as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company from June 1, 2007 through May 31, 2012. Under the terms of the 2007 Employment Agreement, Mr. Bianco will continue to receive an annual base salary of $625,000 for the first three (3) years and then is eligible for discretionary increases to the amount of his base salary in the fourth and fifth years. The 2007 Employment Agreement continues to provide for discretionary annual bonuses (which may not take into consideration his efforts to obtain a recovery for the Company of its investment in Carteret Savings Bank, FA), employee benefit plans participation, and certain long-term disability benefits; however, there will be no further Supplemental Plan benefit accruals. (See Retirement Benefits above, for further information with regard to the lump-sum payment of Mr. Bianco's Supplemental Plan benefits). The 2007 Employment Agreement provides a long-term incentive arrangement for Mr. Bianco, whereby, should the Company receive a recovery of its investment in Carteret Savings Bank, FA, through litigation or otherwise (including the Company's Supervisory Goodwill litigation), Mr. Bianco will receive (with certain exceptions), a lump-sum payment equal to a percentage of that recovery, as follows:

Long-Term Incentive Award = 5% of the first $50,000,000 of Recovery Amount;

Plus

8% of Recovery Amount in excess of $50,000,000 but not greater than $150,000,000;

Plus

10% of Recovery Amount in excess of $150,000,000 but not greater than $250,000,000;

Plus

Discretionary amount (not less than 10%), to be determined by the Board, of Recovery Amount in excess of $250,000,000.

Under the terms of the 2007 Employment Agreement, if no recovery has been obtained by the Company by the expiration of the five-year term of the 2007 Employment Agreement, the Company and Mr. Bianco will enter into a consulting arrangement pursuant to which, following his employment with the Company, he will continue to provide services to the Company as an independent contractor, solely for the purpose of assisting the Company in obtaining such a recovery.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Personnel Committee is responsible for fixing compensation and other employee benefits for executive officers of the Company. The Personnel Committee's executive compensation philosophy is to provide competitive levels of compensation to its executive officers through a combination of base salary, incentive awards and equity in the Company. It is designed to reward above average corporate performance, recognize individual initiative and achievement and assist the Company in attracting and retaining qualified management. Management compensation is intended to be set at levels that the Personnel Committee believes fairly reflect the challenges confronted by management.

Overview and Philosophy

The Personnel Committee believes that the objectives of executive compensation are to attract, motivate and retain the highest quality executives, align the interests of these executives with those of the Company's stockholders by encouraging stock ownership by executive officers to promote a proprietary interest in the Company's success, and to provide incentives to achieve the Company's goals. In furtherance of these objectives, the Company's executive compensation policies are designed to focus the executive officers on the Company's goals. The Personnel Committee determines salary, bonuses and equity incentives based upon the performance of the individual executive officer and the Company.

Executive Officers and Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Base salaries for executive officers are determined initially by evaluating the responsibilities of the position, the experience of the individual and the competition in the marketplace for management talent, including companies confronting problems of the magnitude and complexity faced by the Company. Annual salary adjustments are determined by evaluating a number of factors. The most important factor is the performance of the executive, followed by the performance of the Company, any increased responsibilities assumed by the executive and the competition in the marketplace for similarly experienced executives. Salary adjustments are determined and normally made at twelve-month intervals.

The Personnel Committee approved cash bonuses for officers and employees for 2005. Factors considered included performance of the executive, performance of the Company, total compensation level, the Company's financial position and other pertinent factors. This analysis was necessarily a subjective process which utilized no specific weighting or formula with respect to the described factors in determining cash bonuses. Mr. Bianco received base salary payments in 2005 of $625,000 in accordance with his employment agreement. Mr. Bianco was paid a bonus of $625,000 for 2005, compared to $800,000 in each of 2004 and 2003. The Personnel Committee considered Mr. Bianco's work in connection with the $10 million gain realized by the Company on the sale of real estate and Mr. Bianco's continuing and integral role in the Company's Supervisory Goodwill case, and other pending proceedings which are significant to the Company. Mr. Bianco was also recognized for his role in maintaining a controlled level of expenditures, his management of the Company's investment returns, and his role in pursuing several potential acquisitions.

Edgar Filing: AMBASE CORP - Form DEF 14A

Pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, compensation exceeding $1 million paid to any of our executive officers may not be deducted by us unless such compensation is performance based and paid pursuant to criteria approved by our shareholders. The Personnel Committee considered the provisions of Section 162(m) in setting 2005 compensation paid to Mr. Bianco.

The Company maintains a Supplemental Plan, as more fully described under Executive Compensation - Retirement Benefits, above, which is scheduled for lump-sum benefit payout and termination on or about May 31, 2007, as described above.

The Company believes that its compensation programs, carefully mixing equity and cash incentives, will continue to focus the efforts of the Company's executive officers on long-term growth for the benefit of the Company and its stockholders.
