Katy Industries, Inc. (“Katy”) announced today that the New York Stock Exchange expects to suspend trading of Katy’s shares of common stock (Symbol: KT) prior to the market opening on April 13, 2007. The New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) notified Katy that it did not comply with the continuing listing standards of the NYSE in November 2005. Katy does not meet the required market capitalization level of $75.0 million over a consecutive thirty day trading day period or the required total stockholders’ equity of not less than $75.0 million.

Katy expects the NYSE will proceed in delisting Katy’s shares of common stock from the exchange by application with the Securities and Exchange Commission. It is currently expected that the stock will trade on the OTC Bulletin Board, upon approval of its application.

The press release announcing the expected suspension from the NYSE is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain various “forward-looking statements” as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 including any future increase or decrease in Katy’s market capitalization, whether the OTC Bulletin Board will approve Katy’s application for reporting and whether the OTC Bulletin Board will provide liquidity to its stockholders. The forward-looking statements are based on the beliefs of Katy’s management, as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, the company’s management. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from the statements and other information contained herein. Risks and uncertainties include but are not limited to: economic conditions in North America; changes to Katy’s cost structure; the effect of changes in Katy’s operations and strategic direction; Katy’s ability to identify and respond to evolving trends in demographics and consumer preferences; Katy’s ability to effectively invest capital to realize Katy’s strategic objectives; and the level of trading, if any, of Katy’s common stock on the OTC Bulletin Board. Additionally, the forward-looking statements are based on Katy’s current expectations and projections about future events and trends affecting the financial condition of its business and are not a guarantee of future preference. Undue reliance should not be placed on such forward-looking statements, as they speak only as of the date hereof and we undertake no obligation to update these statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances, except as may be required by law. Additional information regarding these and other risks and uncertainties is contained in Katy’s periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. Katy undertakes no obligation to revise or update such statements to reflect current events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
