Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On October 3, 2008, NYSE Regulation, Inc. (NYSE Regulation) announced the suspension of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) listing of the common stock of Penn Treaty American Corporation (the Company), effective with the open of business on October 3, 2008.

NYSE Regulation determined that the Company s securities are longer suitable for trading on the NYSE in light of the Company s October 3, 2008 announcement regarding an economic restructuring plan pursuant to which the Company (i) has suspended the issuance of new policies and (ii) will enter into a voluntary rehabilitation program with the Pennsylvania Department of Insurance no later than January 1, 2009 if certain events do not occur, as discussed more fully in the press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

NYSE Regulation also stated that the Company is delayed in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 and other quarterly reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and was operating under a late filer trading extension period with the NYSE that would have extended through October 31, 2008. However, in light of the aforementioned development, NYSE Regulation decided to take action to delist the Company s common stock prior to the expiration of the extension period.

The Company s common stock is currently listed and available for trade on the over-the-counter electronic market (the Pink Sheets) under the symbol PTYA..

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 3, 2008, the Company issued a press release announcing an economic restructuring plan and held a conference call to update its investors. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

A transcript of the Company s conference call produced by the conference call facilitators is attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report Form 8-K. Certain revisions were made to the exhibit in the Current Report Form 8-K in order to correct typographical errors.
