PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Municipal Mortgage & Equity, LLC (hereinafter the "Company" or "MuniMae") from holders of Common Shares (the "Shareholders") for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on May 9, 2002.

The Company will pay the cost of the solicitation of proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited in person by directors, officers and employees of the Company without additional compensation, and by telephone, telegram, facsimile or similar methods. Brokers and other persons will be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials to Shareholders who have a beneficial interest in Common Shares registered in the names of nominees.

The enclosed proxy, if executed and returned, may be revoked at any time prior to the meeting by executing a proxy bearing a later date or by written notice to the Secretary of the Company. The power of the proxy holders will also be revoked if the Shareholder executing the proxy appears at the meeting and elects to vote in person. Executed proxies confer upon the persons appointed as proxies discretionary authority to vote on all matters which may properly come before the meeting, including motions to adjourn the meeting for any reason.

In accordance with the Company's By-Laws, the share transfer records were compiled on March 18, 2002, the record date set by the Board of Directors for determining the Shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, this meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. On that date, there were 25,203,196 outstanding Common Shares. The holders of the outstanding Common Shares at the close of business on March 18, 2002 will be entitled to one vote for each share held by them as of such date.

The presence of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, either in person or represented by properly executed proxies, is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. If there are not sufficient shares represented in person or by proxy at the meeting to constitute a quorum, the meeting may be postponed or adjourned in order to permit further solicitation of proxies by the Company. Proxies given pursuant to this solicitation and not revoked will be voted at any postponement or adjournment of the Annual Meeting in the manner described above. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the "Exchange"), brokers holding shares for beneficial owners have authority to vote on certain matters when they have not received instructions from the beneficial owners, and do not have such authority as to certain other matters (so-called "broker non-votes").

An abstention is deemed "present" but is not deemed a "vote cast." A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power on that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. As a result, abstentions and broker non-votes are not included in the tabulation of the voting results on the election of directors or issues requiring approval of a majority of the votes cast and, therefore, do not have the effect of votes in opposition. Broker non-votes and the shares as to which a Shareholder abstains are included in determining whether a quorum is present. Broker non-votes and abstentions, however, have the effect of a vote against any proposal for which a majority of the outstanding shares must vote in favor, including Proposal 2 to approve the restatement of the Operating Agreement.

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy are first being sent or given to Shareholders on or about April 8, 2002.

Shares represented by proxies which are marked "WITHHOLD" will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect.

Compensation of Directors

The Company pays its directors who are not officers of the Company fees for their services as directors. From time to time, the Board of Directors may change this compensation.. During 2001, the directors received annual compensation of $16,000 plus a fee of $1,000 for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors including committee meetings and $500 for telephonic board meetings. Officers of the Company who also serve as directors are not paid any director fees.

In addition, non-employee directors are granted options for Common Shares and may elect to receive Common Shares or deferred Common Shares in lieu of fees under the 1996 Non-Employee Directors' Share Plan (the "1996 Directors' Plan"), the 1998 Non-Employee Directors' Share Plan (the "1998 Directors' Plan") and the 2001 Non-Employee Directors' Share Plan (the "2001 Directors' Plan," and collectively with the 1996 Directors' Plan and the 1998 Directors' Plan, the "Directors' Plans"). Under the 1996 Directors' Plan, each non-employee director was granted an option to purchase 2,500 Common Shares following the merger of the Predecessor with the Company. Effective January 1, 2000, the Directors' Plans were amended to provide that each non-employee director receive an option to purchase 7,000 Common Shares upon his initial election or appointment and an option to purchase 5,000 Common Shares on the date of each Annual Meeting of Shareholders. These options have and will have exercise prices equal to the fair market value of Common Shares on the date of grant, and expire and will expire at the earlier of 10 years after the date of grant or one year after the optionee ceases serving as a director. Options received upon initial election or appointment will become exercisable in three equal installments commencing at the earlier of: (a) the next anniversary of the director's initial election, or (b) the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Options received on the date of each Annual Meeting of Shareholders become exercisable at the earlier of: (a) the next anniversary of the option grant, or (b) the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders. These options are subject to earlier exercisability in the event of death, disability, or a change in control (as defined in the Directors' Plans), and will be forfeited in the event of cessation of service as a director within 10 months after the date of grant. The Directors' Plans also permit a non-employee director to elect to be paid any directors' fees in the form of Common Shares or deferred Common Shares ("Deferred Shares"). A director who makes the election to receive Common Shares will receive Common Shares having a fair market value at the time of issuance equal to the amount of fees he has elected to forego, with such shares issuable at the time the fees otherwise would have been paid. At any date on which fees are payable to a director who elected to defer fees in the form of Deferred Shares, the Company will credit such director's deferral account with a number of Deferred Shares equal to the number of Common Shares having an aggregate fair market value at that date equal to the fees that otherwise would have been payable at such date. Whenever distributions are made, the deferral account of a director who elected to receive Deferred Shares will be credited with distribution equivalents having a value equal to the amount of the distribution paid on a single Common Share multiplied by the number of Deferred Shares credited to his deferral account as of the record date for such dividend. These distribution equivalents will be credited to the deferral account as a number of Deferred Shares determined by dividing the aggregate value of the distribution equivalents by the fair market value of a Common Share at the payment date of the distribution. A total of 100,000 Common Shares are reserved for grants under the 1996 Directors' Plan and 1998 Directors' Plan and 150,000 Common Shares are reserved for grants under the 2001 Directors' Plan. As of December 31, 2001, there were 110,185 shares available under the Directors' Plans. The number and kind of shares reserved and automatically granted under the Directors' Plans are subject to adjustment in the event of share splits, share distributions and other extraordinary events.

CERTIFICATE OF FORMATION AND OPERATING AGREEMENT (Proposal No. 2)

The following is a brief description of the material effects of the restatement of the Operating Agreement. The description is qualified in its entirety by reference to such Operating Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A.

Most public companies are governed by articles of incorporation, which are typically fairly brief. Because we are a limited liability company, we are governed by an Operating Agreement. The operating agreement addresses various issues arising from the fact that we are a limited liability company, such as allocations of income, which corporations do not face. Our current operating agreement includes a number of provisions that are no longer relevant due to the evolution of the Company and its capital structure. These provisions relate to our transformation from the Predecessor, including the creation at our formation of our Preferred Shares, Preferred Capital Distribution Shares and Term Growth Shares. In January 2002, we redeemed all of the outstanding preferred securities. As required by our current operating agreement, this caused the simultaneous redemption of all of the Term Growth Shares.

All of the provisions in our operating agreement relating to the preferred securities and the Term Growth Shares ceased to be effective upon redemption of the preferred securities and Term Growth Shares, including provisions relating to limitations on redemptions of equity that ranks junior to the preferred securities, special voting rights, priority allocations of income and rights with respect to the bonds originally owned by our predecessor. We are recommending adopting a restated operating agreement in which the only changes will be to eliminate provisions that relate to classes of shares that have been fully redeemed and events that have already occurred, and thus are no longer effective. Removing the provisions that do not have any effect will significantly simplify our operating agreement.

We have included a copy of our restated operating agreement, marked to show the differences from our present operating agreement, in Appendix A to this proxy statement. This summary of the changes is qualified by the language in Appendix A, which we encourage you to review.

We believe making these changes will result in a simplified operating agreement, without affecting the rights or privileges of our shareholders or the rules or regulations of our business.

Vote Required for Approval

The affirmative vote of a majority of the holders of the outstanding Common Shares is necessary for the restatement of the Operating Agreement. Shares represented by an executed proxy in the form enclosed will, unless otherwise directed, be voted for the election of this proposal. Shares represented by proxies which are marked "WITHHOLD" will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect. Shares that are not represented at the Annual Meeting will have the effect of votes against the proposal.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE
FOR THIS PROPOSAL

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Employment Agreements

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

In 1999, Mark K. Joseph, Michael L. Falcone, Gary A. Montesana, Robert J. Banks and Keith J. Gloeckl and, in April 2001, William S. Harrison (each an "Officer" and collectively, the "Officers"), entered into employment agreements with the Company. The specifics of the agreements are as follows:

The terms of the agreements for Messrs. Joseph, Falcone and Montesana are three years and two years for Mr. Harrison. The agreements provide for annual base compensation in the amounts of $250,000, $250,000, $160,000 and $225,000, respectively, with allowance for cost of living adjustments and annual cash bonuses (or incentive compensation) of up to 150% for Mr. Joseph and 100% for Messrs. Falcone, Montesana and Harrison. The agreements further provide for total compensation goals equal to $675,000 and $650,000 for Messrs.

Joseph and Falcone, respectively, and $350,000 for Messrs. Montesana and Harrison, respectively, based on achievement of certain performance goals by the individual and the Company. Each of the employment agreements provides for certain severance payments in the event of disability or termination by the Company without cause equal to base compensation for the longer of the balance of the employment term or 36 months for Mr. Joseph and 18 months for Messrs. Falcone, Montesana and Harrison. Additionally, upon an employee's death, his estate shall receive two years' base compensation. The agreements also contain provisions which provide such officers with substantial payments should their employment terminate as a result of a change in control.

The terms of the agreements for Messrs. Banks and Gloeckl are four years. Each of the agreements provides for annual base compensation in the amount of $250,000, with allowance for cost of living adjustments not less than 5% per year. Annual cash bonuses (or incentive compensation) for Mr. Banks and Mr. Gloeckl are based on the Company's incentive compensation plan; however, no incentive compensation will be paid in any year in which Midland does not achieve certain earn-out target goals for such year. Messrs. Banks and Gloeckl were also awarded options to purchase up to 87,500 Common Shares. Each of the employment agreements provides for certain severance payments in the event of disability or termination by the Company without cause equal to base compensation for the balance of the employment term. In addition, all earn-out shares (as defined in the Stock Purchase and Contribution Agreement dated September 30, 1999 by and between the Company and Messrs. Banks, Gloeckl and Mr. Ray F. Mathis, the "Stock Purchase Agreement") which have been earned through the date of termination and may become payable, shall be immediately and irrevocably issued to them in the event of disability or termination by the Company without cause. In the event of death, an employee's agreement is terminated; however, his estate shall be entitled only to the balance of the earn-out shares described in, and earned pursuant to, the Stock Purchase Agreement. Effective June 2001 and August 2001, Mr. Banks' and Mr. Gloeckl's agreements were amended to eliminate the earn-out target goals defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement. Further, Mr. Banks' agreement was amended to reflect an initial term of 39 months.

Pursuant to the employment agreements, the Company generally will have "cause" to terminate an Officer if such person: (i) engages in acts or omissions with respect to the Company which constitute intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (ii) personally receives a benefit of money, property or services from the Company or from another person dealing with the Company in violation of law; (iii) breaches his non-competition agreement with the Company; (iv) breaches his duty of loyalty to the Company; (v) engages in gross negligence in the performance of his duties; or (vi) repeatedly fails to perform services that have been reasonably requested of him by the Board of Directors following applicable notice and cure periods and which are consistent with the terms of his employment agreement. Each of Messrs. Banks and Gloeckl shall continue to be entitled to earn-out shares to the extent provided in the Stock Purchase Agreement regardless of whether such Officer has been terminated for cause.

Each Officer will have "good reason" to terminate his employment with the Company in the event of any reduction in his base compensation without his consent, any material breach or default by the Company under his employment agreement, any substantial diminution in his duties, any requirement to perform an act which would violate criminal law or any requirement to perform an act not in the best interests of the Company and its Shareholders. Each of Messrs. Banks and Gloeckl shall be entitled to all earn-out shares (defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement), which have been earned through the date of termination and may become payable and such shares shall be immediately and irrevocably issued to each of them.

As part of their employment agreements, each of the Officers is bound by a limited non-competition covenant with the Company which prohibits each of them, without prior written consent of the Board of Directors, from engaging in or carrying on, directly or indirectly, whether as an advisor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, shareholder, associate or consultant of or to any person, partnership, corporation or any other business entity which is engaged in the business of financing or asset management of multifamily apartment properties financed by tax-exempt bonds, except by or through the Company, for 12 months following the termination of employment with the Company for Messrs. Joseph, Falcone, Montesana and Harrison and 24 months following the termination of employment with the Company for Messrs. Banks and Gloeckl; provided, however, if such Officer's employment is terminated by the Company without "cause" or by the employee for "good reason," the covenant not to compete will terminate upon termination of employment. Certain of the agreements may contain other exceptions.

Options/SAR Grants in Last Fiscal Year

The following table sets forth information regarding grants of stock options to the Company's executive officers under the Company's 1998 Share Incentive Plan during fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

(1) These options were granted pursuant to the 1998 Share Incentive Plan. The options become exercisable up to one-third of the total number of shares commencing on the date of grant, up to one-third of the total number of shares commencing on February 23, 2002 and all remaining shares commencing on February 23, 2003. Options shall become fully exercisable in the event of death or disability; provided that, the options shall be exercisable after termination for any reason other than death or disability only to the extent that the option was exercisable at such date. In the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the 1998 Share Incentive Plan) at a time that the employee is employed by the Company, the option shall become immediately and fully exercisable. In addition, the Company may, in its sole discretion, at any time, upon written notice to the employee, accelerate the exercisability of all or a specific portion of the options. Generally, options expire ten years from the date of grant. However, options will expire immediately upon the termination of employment for cause and three months after termination of employment for reasons other than death, disability or normal or early retirement. In the event of death, disability or retirement, options will expire one year after such event.

(2) The Potential Realizable Value is the product of (a) the difference between (i) the market price per share at the grant date and the sum of (A) 1 plus (B) the assumed rate of appreciation of the shares compounded annually over the term of the option and (ii) the per share exercise price of the option and (b) the number of shares underlying the option at December 31, 2001. These amounts represent certain assumed rates of appreciation only. Actual gains, if any, on share option exercises are dependent on a variety of factors, including market conditions and the price performance of the share. There can be no assurance that the rate of appreciation presented in this table can be achieved.

Options are only "in-the-money" if the fair market value of the underlying security exceeds the price of the option.

Report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors

The Compensation Committee met three times in 2001 and determined executive compensation in accordance with recommendations of an independent consultant hired to assist in the determination of executive compensation. The recommendations were based on survey data prepared by nationally recognized real estate compensation consultants. Based on discussions with the Compensation Committee and the acquisition of Midland, the consultants decided that each position within the Company's organization should be benchmarked against its own unique peer group, depending upon the roles and responsibilities of the position. The consultants established custom peer groups from two categories of companies: multifamily Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs") and specialty finance and investment companies. As a result, the CEO, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company were compared to the multifamily REITs, while the other executives of the Company were compared to the specialty finance and investment companies. For 2001, the Compensation Committee concluded that the 1999 study was still appropriate for these executive officers.

The Company's executive officer compensation program is comprised of base salary, annual cash incentive compensation, long-term incentive compensation in the form of share options, Deferred Shares and various benefits, including medical and life insurance plans generally available to all employees of the Company.

Executive Compensation

The Company is committed to establishing and maintaining an organization and culture where all employees are equitably rewarded for their contribution to the success of the Company. The compensation program created has as its basis a strong pay-for-performance approach designed to foster and reward individual entrepreneurial action and resourcefulness within a team environment. The Company's overall compensation policy is designed to provide a reward structure that will motivate the executives to assist in achieving strategic and financial goals, retain and attract competent personnel and link the interests of management and shareholders through equity-based compensation.

Base Salary. The Company generally establishes base salaries for executive officers, including the CEO, at amounts that fall at or below the market median determined by the consultants. This conservative position has allowed the Company to create long-term incentive opportunities that are at or somewhat above average. The Company provides for individual adjustments to base salary for changes in the market, expansion of job responsibilities and/or the executive's contribution to the financial success of the Company. The base salaries of the executive officers fall between the 25th percentile and the median, and lower for the CEO. Annual cash compensation (base salary and bonus) for all other officers is currently within the competitive ranges of the Company's peer groups. The Company has reviewed and will continue to periodically review the benchmark salary ranges to maintain continued market competitiveness.

Annual Incentive. The Company paid incentive compensation to the officers listed above during 2001. The incentive compensation plan provides incentives to executive officers based on the achievement of qualifying operating profit goals. The Compensation Committee awards annual bonuses to officers other than the CEO based on the recommendations of the CEO; for the CEO, annual bonuses are determined solely by the Compensation Committee. Based on the consultant's report, the Compensation Committee established three profit ranges, threshold, target and superior, to be used to determine bonus awards.

The threshold performance range signifies a solid achievement but falls short of budget expectations. The target performance range signifies a stretch achievement that means achieving the business plan and internal budget goals. Finally, the superior performance range signifies an exceptional achievement toward realizing the long-term objectives of the Company and would significantly exceed budget expectations. The threshold, target and superior ranges are based exclusively on achievement of cash flow per share goals, taking into account the payment of all bonuses. The plan provides for incentive ranges as a percentage of base salary to determine annual bonuses within each profit range.

For 2001, the Company achieved target performance, and therefore, annual bonuses were paid to the executives, as well as employees, for performance under the plan in the target performance range, as disclosed in the Summary Compensation Table.

Long-term Incentive. The Company established the 1996 Share Incentive Plan (the "1996 Plan") prior to the merger with the Predecessor in August 1996. In June 1998 and July 2001, Shareholders approved the 1998 Share Incentive Plan (the "1998 Plan") and the 2001 Share Incentive Plan (the "2001 Plan" and, collectively with the 1996 Plan and 1998 Plan, the "Plans"), respectively. The Plans provide a means to attract, retain and reward executive officers and other key employees of the Company, to link employee compensation to measures of the Company's performance, and to promote ownership of a greater proprietary interest in the Company. The Plans authorize grants of a broad variety of awards, including non-qualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted shares, Deferred Shares and shares granted as a bonus or in lieu of other awards. Any restricted share or Deferred Share awards need to be approved or ratified by the Share Incentive Committee (the "Committee"). Initially, 883,033, 839,000 and 900,000 Common Shares are reserved for issuance in connection with awards under the 1996 Plan, the 1998 Plan and 2001 Plan, respectively, except that shares issued as restricted shares and shares issued as awards other than options (including restricted shares) are limited to 20% and 40% of the total number of Common Shares reserved under the Plans, respectively. Shares subject to forfeited or expired awards, or relating to awards settled in cash or otherwise terminated without issuance of shares to the participant become available again under the Plans. As of December 31, 2001 there were 991,655 shares available under the Plans.

The Plans are administered by the Committee, which consists of two or more independent directors. As of the date hereof, the Board has appointed Robert S. Hillman and Charles C. Baum as members of the Committee. This Committee is authorized to select from among the eligible employees of the Company the individuals to whom awards are to be granted and to determine the number of shares to be subject thereto and the terms and conditions thereof. The Committee may condition the grant, vesting, exercisability or settlement of any award on the achievement of specified performance objectives. Awards may be settled in cash, Common Shares, other awards or other property, in the discretion of the Committee. The Committee is also authorized to adopt, amend and rescind rules relating to the administration of the Plans. The exercise price of stock options granted will be at least equal to 100% of the fair market value of Common Shares on the grant date. No member of the Committee will be eligible to participate in the Plan. The Committee may adjust the number of shares reserved under the Plans and the number of shares relating to outstanding awards and related terms to reflect stock splits, dividends, and other extraordinary corporate events.

During 2001, the Company awarded stock options to acquire up to 75,000 common shares and a total of 63,050 Deferred Shares to certain executives and employees based on their overall performance and contribution to the success of the Company.

CEO Compensation

In determining the CEO's base salary and incentive compensation, the Compensation Committee evaluates the compensation paid to chief executive officers considered in the CEO's custom peer group. As a result of the 1999 survey, the Compensation Committee determined that the CEO's base salary of $150,000 ranked in the lowest quartile among the Company's peer group. As a result, the CEO's base salary was increased to $250,000. The CEO is eligible to receive awards under the Company's share incentive plan and incentive compensation plan.

For the year ended December 31, 2001, the CEO received total cash payments of $350,000 in salary and bonus (as shown in the Summary Compensation Table on page 9). The Compensation Committee considered these 2001 payments appropriate in light of Mr. Joseph's leadership and contributions to the overall long-term strategy and growth of the Company. As also shown in the Long-Term Incentive Plans Table (on page 10 herein), Mr. Joseph was granted 12,500 Deferred Shares that vest over 22 months for so long as Mr. Joseph remains in the continuous employ of the Company.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Mr. Robert S. Hillman, Chairman
Mr. Carl W. Stearn
Mr. Charles C. Baum
Mr. Douglas A. McGregor

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No person who served as a member of the Compensation Committee during the 2001 fiscal year has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. During fiscal year 2001, no executive officer of the Company served as a director or member of the compensation committee of another entity, one of whose directors or executive officers served as a director or member of the Compensation Committee of the Company.

Performance Graph

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

The following table compares total shareholder returns for the Company at December 31, 2001 to the Standard and Poors 500 Index ("S&P 500"), the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts Index ("NAREIT") and the Lipper Municipal Bond High Yield Index ("Lipper Bond") assuming a $100 investment made on December 31, 1996. The Company does not believe that there are any other businesses or indices that reflect both the same industry as that in which the Company operates and the same "pass-through" tax status as that of the Company. Accordingly, the Company selected the NAREIT and Lipper Bond indices because the NAREIT index consists of real estate investment trusts which, like the Company, pass-through their income to their shareholders, although not tax-exempt income, and the Lipper Bond index, which represents the performance of municipal bond issues.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On August 1, 1996, the Company completed a merger (the "Merger") in which the Company succeeded to the business of the Predecessor. The former general partners of the Predecessor were responsible for initiating and structuring the Merger. Mark K. Joseph, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, was a stockholder, director and officer of the former general partners of the Predecessor.

As a result of the Merger, the former general partners (and their affiliates) received certain economic benefits, including 1,000 Term Growth Shares in exchange for their general partnership interests in the Predecessor and 883,033 Common Shares in exchange for the contribution of their mortgage acquisition and servicing activities that generate fees from the operating partnerships that are the ultimate debtors on the Company's bond investments (the "Operating Partnerships"). In connection with the Merger, the former general partners retained an independent third party to render an opinion that the allocation of the Common Shares and Term Growth Shares among the former general partners and the BAC holders was fair from a financial point of view.

At the time of the Merger, the Company designated Shelter Development Holdings, Inc. ("Shelter Development") as the shareholder that has personal liability for the obligations of the Company (the "Special Shareholder") and whose death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution would result in the dissolution of the Company (the "Dissolution Shareholder") to preserve its pass-through tax status under the tax laws in existence at that time. Mr. Joseph is the beneficial owner of 100% of Shelter Development. In connection with the Merger, Shelter Development received 26,729 Common Shares for its agreement to serve as the Special Shareholder and Dissolution Shareholder. The Company does not compensate Shelter Development annually for serving as the Special Shareholder or Dissolution Shareholder. Nevertheless, the Dissolution Shareholder has the right to appoint one director to the Company's Board of Directors so long as the size of the Board is 10 persons or less, and two directors if the size of the Board is more than 10 persons. In addition, if certain change-in-control transactions occur that the Special Shareholder has not approved, the Special Shareholder has the right to receive $1 million if it exercises its right to withdraw as the Special Shareholder of the Company.

The Company leases office space from an affiliate. Mr. Joseph and Mr. Richard O. Berndt, a director of the Company, have ownership interests in the partnership that leases the office space to the Company at market rates. For the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company paid $208,000 in rental lease payments under the lease agreement.

Mr. Joseph controls and is an officer of an entity that is responsible for a full range of property management functions for certain properties that serve as collateral for the Company's bond investments. Mr. Michael L. Falcone, Chief Operating Officer of the Company, had an ownership interest in and was board member of this entity until he relinquished these positions in 2000. For these services the affiliates receive property management fees pursuant to management fee contracts. Consistent with the Company's Operating Agreement, each affiliate property management contract is presented to the independent members of the Board of Directors for approval with information documenting the comparability of the proposed fees to those in the market area of the property. During 2001, there were 10 affiliated property management contracts for properties that collateralize the Company's investments with fees at or below market value. During the year ended December 31, 2001, these fees approximated $1.1 million.

Mr. Joseph controls the general partners of 20 of the operating partnerships whose property collateralizes some of the Company's bonds and Mr. Falcone serves as a director in three such general partners. Ms. Angela A. Barone, the Company's Vice President of Finance and Budgeting, serves as an officer in one such general partner. In order to preserve the loan obligations and the participation in cash flow for the Company and thereby assure that the Company will continue to recognize tax-exempt income, 14 of the 20 operating partnerships were created as successors to the original borrowers. With respect to the other 6 operating partnerships, an entity controlled by Mr. Joseph was designated as the general partner of the original borrowing entities. However, such entities could have interests that do not fully coincide with, or even are adverse to, the interests of the Company. Such entities could choose to act in accordance with their own interests, which could adversely affect the Company. Among the actions such entities could desire to take might be selling a property, thereby causing a redemption event, at a time and under circumstances that would not be advantageous to the Company. Also, Mr. Joseph owns an indirect interest in the general partners of the Southgate Crossings and Poplar Glen operating partnerships.

In 1998 and 1999, the Company sold certain taxable demand notes related to 11 operating partnerships whose general partners are controlled by Mr. Joseph (discussed above). In order to facilitate the sale of the demand notes, the Company provided a guaranty on behalf of the operating partnerships for the full and punctual payment of interest and principal due under the demand notes.

At December 31, 2001, the Company owned all of the interests in a trust that holds a $33.9 million bond collateralized by the Village of Stone Mountain. In 2001, the Company negotiated a transfer of the Stone Mountain deed in lieu of foreclosure to MMA Housing - Stone Mountain, LLC, a Maryland limited partnership whose single member is MMA Affordable Housing Corporation. MMA Affordable Housing Corporation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit entity organized to provide charitable donations on behalf of the Company. Mr. Joseph is the Chairman and one of five directors of the MMA Affordable Housing Corporation. Mr. Falcone, Mr. Gary A. Montesana, Chief Capital Officer of the Company, and Mr. Earl W. Cole, III, Senior Vice President of a subsidiary company, are also officers and directors of the MMA Affordable Housing Corporation. In conjunction with the transfer of the ownership, the Company made a $1.8 taxable loan to the property. Prior to 2001, the borrower of the $33.9 million mortgage revenue bond is the Shelter Foundation, a public non-profit foundation that provides housing and related services to families of low and moderate income. Mr. Joseph is the President and one of six directors of the Shelter Foundation. In addition, a company of which Mr. Joseph owns an indirect minority interest serves as property manager of the related apartment community.

At December 31, 2001, the Company owned a $2.2 million B bond, a $2.1 million C bond and a $1.2 million taxable loan collateralized by the Winter Oaks apartment community. The borrower of the bonds and the taxable loan is Winter Oaks Partners, Ltd., (L.P.), a Georgia limited partnership whose 1% general partner is MMA Successor I, Inc. and whose 99% limited partner is Winter Oaks, L.P. The 1% general partner of Winter Oaks, L.P. is MMA Successor I, Inc., and the 99% limited partner of Winter Oaks, L.P. is the MuniMae

Foundation, Inc., a private non-profit entity organized to provide charitable donations on behalf of the Company. Mr. Joseph is the President and one of three directors of the MuniMae Foundation. Mr. Falcone and Mr. Montesana are also directors of the MuniMae Foundation. In addition, a company of which Mr. Joseph owns an indirect minority interest serves as property manager of the related apartment community.

At December 31, 2001, the Company owned a $15.1 million bond (face amount) collateralized by the Santa Fe apartment community. The borrower of the bond is MMA SFS Apartments, L.P., a Maryland limited partnership whose 1% general partner is MMA Successor I, Inc. and whose 99% limited partner is the MuniMae Foundation, Inc. Mr. Joseph is the President and one of three directors of the MuniMae Foundation. Mr. Falcone and Mr. Montesana are also directors of the MuniMae Foundation. In addition, a company of which Mr. Joseph owns an indirect minority interest serves as property manager of the related apartment community.

At December 31, 2001, the Company owned a $19.1 million bond collateralized by the Lake Piedmont apartment community. In December 2000, the Company negotiated a transfer of the Lake Piedmont deed in lieu of foreclosure to MMA Housing I, LLC, a Maryland limited partnership whose single member is MMA Affordable Housing Corporation. MMA Affordable Housing Corporation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit entity organized to provide charitable donations on behalf of the Company. Mr. Joseph is the Chairman and one of five directors of the MMA Affordable Housing Corporation. Mr. Falcone, Mr. Montesana, and Mr. Cole are also officers and directors of the MMA Affordable Housing Corporation. In conjunction with the transfer of the ownership, the Company made a $500,000 taxable loan to the property. The Company established a valuation allowance equal to the principal outstanding of the loan at December 31, 2000.

In 2000 and 2001, prior to his employment with the Company, Mr. William S. Harrison, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, provided consulting services to the Company through a corporation wholly owned by Mr. Harrison. The Company paid approximately $31,000 and $79,000 in 2001 and 2000, respectively, for these services.

Mr. Berndt, a director of the Company since 1996, is the managing general partner of the law firm of Gallagher, Evelius and Jones LLP ("GEJ"), which provides corporate and real estate legal services to the Company. For the year ended December 31, 2001, $1.6 million in legal fees to GEJ was generated by transactions structured by the Company of which $1.0 million was directly incurred by the Company. 2.3 The Certificate. The Shareholders hereby agree to execute, file and record all such certificates and documents, including amendments to the Certificate, and to do such other acts as may be appropriate to comply with all requirements for the formation, continuation, and operation of a limited liability company, the ownership of property, and the conduct of business under the laws of the State of Delaware and any other jurisdiction in which the Company may own property or conduct business.

2.4 Principal Business Office. The principal business office of the Company shall be located at 218 North Charles Street, Suite 500, Baltimore, Maryland 21201, or at such other location as may hereafter be determined by the Board of Directors. The principal business office, as well as the registered office and the registered agent, of the Company may be changed by the Board of Directors from time to time in accordance with the then applicable provisions of the Act and any other applicable laws, as well as the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2.5 Term of Company. The term of the Company shall continue until it is wound up and dissolved pursuant to the provisions of Article 10 hereof.

2.6 Purposes. The purposes of the Company are (a) to invest in or engage in activities related to investment in Bonds and in real estate, including but not limited to loan servicing and loan origination (whether in connection with loans to the Company or to others), and to generate returns from such investments; this may include investing in entities which invest in bonds and in real estate assets; provided, however, that the investment criteria shall be established by the Board of Directors from time to time in its sole discretion subject to the requirement that such criteria be consistent with the purposes of the Company; (b) to engage in any other activities relating to, and compatible with, the purposes set forth above; (c) to acquire, own and dispose of general and limited partnership interests, membership interests, and stock or other equity interests in Entities, and to exercise all rights and powers granted to the owner of any such interests; (d) to take such other actions, or do such other things, as are necessary or appropriate (in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors) to carry out the provisions of this Agreement; and (e) to invest in any type of investment and to engage in any other lawful act or activity for which limited liability companies may be organized under the Act, and by such statement all lawful acts and activities shall be within the purposes of the Company, except for express limitations, if any.

2.7 Powers. In furtherance of its purposes, but subject to all of the provisions of this Agreement, the Company shall have the power and is hereby authorized to (a) invest (at any time during the term of the Company) in (i) mortgage revenue bonds or portions of or interests in (including junior positions) mortgage revenue bonds financing multifamily properties, senior living facilities, manufactured housing communities, or congregate care facilities, beneficial ownership certificates or any other securities of other funds or investments with similar underlying investment objectives, (ii) multifamily real estate, including senior living facilities, manufactured housing communities, and congregate care facilities, and (iii) entities which engage in any activities described in clauses (i) or (ii) of this sentence;

invest (at any time during the term of the Company) in other assets which are designed to accomplish any of the foregoing investment purposes or in any manner consistent with the Company's then-existing investment criteria and objectives; and to reinvest the proceeds of any sales by the Company of Company assets, in any permitted investments; (b) act as a general or limited partner, member, joint venturer, manager or shareholder of any Entity (including but not limited to an operating partnership), and to exercise all of the powers, duties, rights and responsibilities associated therewith; (c) take any and all actions necessary, convenient or appropriate as the holder of any such interests or positions; (d) operate, purchase, maintain, finance, improve, own, sell, convey, assign, mortgage, lease, demolish or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property that may be necessary, convenient or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company; (e) borrow money and issue evidences of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of the purposes of the Company, and secure the same by mortgage, pledge or other lien on any assets of the Company; (f) invest any funds of the Company pending distribution or payment of the same pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; (g) prepay in whole or in part, refinance, recast, increase, modify or extend any indebtedness of the Company and, in connection therewith, execute any extensions, renewals or modifications of any mortgage or security agreement securing such indebtedness; (h) enter into, perform and carry out contracts of any kind, including, without limitation, contracts with any Person affiliated with any of the Shareholders, necessary to, in connection with or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes of the Company; (i) establish reserves for capital expenditures, working capital, debt service, taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, repairs, improvements, depreciation, depletion, obsolescence and general maintenance of buildings and other property out of the rents, profits or other income received; (j) employ or otherwise engage employees, managers, contractors, advisors and consultants, and pay reasonable compensation for such services, and enter into employee benefit plans of any type; (k) enter into partnerships or other ventures with other Persons in furtherance of the purposes of the Company; (l) purchase or repurchase Shares from any Person for such consideration as the Board of Directors may determine in its reasonable discretion (whether more or less than the original issuance price of such Share or the then trading price of such Share); (m) enter into rights plans or other plans relating to Shares, options or bonuses, and to issue Shares, options or warrants thereunder (or other derivatives relating thereto) for any consideration (even if such consideration is less than the market value of such Shares); and (n) do such other things and engage in such other activities as may be necessary, convenient or advisable with respect to the conduct of the business of the Company, and have and exercise all of the powers and rights conferred upon limited liability companies formed pursuant to the Act.

2.8 Effectiveness of this Agreement. This Agreement shall govern the operations of the Company and the rights and restrictions applicable to the Shareholders, to the extent permitted by law. Pursuant to Section 18-101(7) (a) (2) of the Act, all Persons who become holders of Shares in the Company shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and shall be deemed to be parties hereto, whether or not such Persons execute a counterpart of this Agreement. The payment for any Shares acquired by any Person, or the action of becoming an assignee or Transferee of such Shares, shall be deemed to constitute a request that the records of the Company reflect such admission, assignment or Transfer, and shall be deemed to be sufficient acts to comply with the requirements of Section 18-101(7) (a) (2) of the Act and to so cause that Person to become a Shareholder and to bind that Person to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (and to entitle that Person to the rights of a Shareholder hereunder), without the requirement for execution of this Agreement by such Person.

ARTICLE 3

Classes of Shares; Admission of Shareholders; Capitalization

3.1 Classes of Shares.

(a) The Company shall have the authority to issue the following classes and series of Shares:

- (i) shares which are designated "Common Shares"; and
- (ii) one or more other classes or series of Shares, as to which the Board of Directors shall have the exclusive authority, by resolution or resolutions providing for the issuance of Shares or of a particular class or series thereof, to fix and determine the voting powers, full or limited or no voting power, and such designations, preferences, and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations, or restrictions thereof, as may be desired by the Board of Directors from time to time, to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by the laws of the State of Delaware (collectively, all such other classes and series to be referred to as the "Future Shares"); Nothing in this Section 3.1(a) (ii) shall be deemed to restrict the ability of the Company to incur secured or unsecured debt (directly or indirectly), including but not limited to through custodial, trust or similar or other arrangements.

(b) Each Common Share shall (i) have no stated par value per Share, and (ii) have the rights and be governed by the provisions set forth in this Agreement; and none of such shares shall have any preemptive rights, or give the holders thereof any rights to convert into any other securities of the Company, or give the holders thereof any cumulative voting rights, except as specifically set forth herein.

(c) The Board of Directors may cause the Company to issue such numbers of Common Shares and Future Shares from time to time as the Board of Directors may determine in its sole discretion, and the number of such shares is not limited.

(d) If the Board of Directors determines that it is necessary or desirable to amend this Agreement or to make any filings under the Act or otherwise in order to reference the existence or creation of a class or series of Future Shares, the Board of Directors may cause such amendments and filings to be made, which filings might take the form of amendments to the Company's Certificate; provided, however, that, unless specifically required by the Act or this Agreement, no approval or Consent of any Shareholders shall be required in connection with the making of any such filing, instrument or amendment.

(e) No Future Share shall have any preemptive rights or give the holder thereof any rights to convert into any other securities of the Company, or give any holders thereof any cumulative voting rights, unless such rights are specifically provided for in the Board of Directors' resolution creating the class of which such Future Share is a part.

(f) The Board of Directors, without any Consent of any Shareholders being required, may effect a split or reverse split of Shares of any series or class, by adopting a resolution therefor. If the Board of Directors determines that it is necessary or desirable to make any filings under the Act or otherwise in order to reference the existence of such a split or reverse split, the Board of Directors may cause such filings to be made, which filings might take the form of amendments to the Company's Certificate; provided, however, that, unless specifically required by the Act or this Agreement, no approval or Consent of any Shareholders shall be required in connection with the making of any such filing or amendment.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, the Board of Directors may, without the consent of Shareholders, amend this Agreement to the extent required to allow the Board of Directors to exercise the powers granted to it by this Section 3.1.

3.2 Additional Provisions Relating to Additional Shareholders. In the event that the Board of Directors determines that additional funds are required by the Company for any Company purpose, or that the Company should for any reason seek to raise additional capital, the Board may cause the Company to sell Future Shares for a price equal to what the Board of Directors determines to be the fair value of such Shares, in exchange for cash, other property, services or any other lawful consideration to be received by the Company in consideration of such Shares (to be valued by the Board of Directors in its discretion), or may cause the Company to obtain funds as a loan from any third party upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors deems appropriate, or any combination thereof from time to time. The Initial Capital Contribution of any such additional Shareholders shall be specified by the Board of Directors at the time of admission of such additional Shareholder.

3.3 Capital Accounts. A separate capital account (a "Capital Account") shall be established and maintained for each Shareholder, including any Transferee or additional Shareholder who shall hereafter acquire a Company Interest, in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) To each Shareholder's Capital Account there shall be credited the amount of cash and fair market value of the property actually contributed to the Company by such Shareholder pursuant to, such Shareholder's allocable share of Profit, and the amount of any Company liabilities that are assumed by such Shareholder or that are secured by any Company property distributed to such Shareholder.

(b) To each Shareholder's Capital Account there shall be debited the amount of cash and the fair market value of any Company property distributed to such Shareholder pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, such Shareholder's allocable share of Loss, and the amount of any liabilities of such Shareholder that are assumed by the Company or that are secured by any property contributed by such Shareholder to the Company.

(c) If any asset of the Company is distributed in kind, the Company shall be deemed to have realized Profit or Loss thereon in the same manner as if the Company had sold such asset for an amount equal to the greater of (i) the fair market value of such asset, or (ii) the fair market value of any debts to which such asset is then subject, in each case as determined by the Board of Directors. If at any time after the date of this Agreement, the Book Value of any Company asset is adjusted pursuant to the last sentence of the definition of Book Value set forth in Section 1 hereof, the Capital Accounts of all Shareholders shall be adjusted simultaneously to reflect the aggregate net adjustments, as if the Company recognized Profit or Loss equal to the respective amounts of such aggregate net adjustments.

(d) The provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) of the Treasury Regulations, and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Treasury Regulations.

(e) A Shareholder shall not be entitled to withdraw any part of its Capital Account or to receive any distributions from the Company, except as provided in Article 5 hereof, nor shall a Shareholder be entitled to make any loan or Capital Contribution to the Company other than as expressly provided herein. No loan made to the Company by any Shareholder shall constitute a capital contribution to the Company for any purpose.

(f) Except as required by the Act, no Shareholder shall have any liability for the return of the Capital Contribution of any other Shareholder. A Shareholder who has more than one interest in the Company may have a separate Capital Account for each different class of interest owned.

3.4 Transfer of Capital Accounts. The original Capital Account established for each Transferee shall be in the same amount as the Capital Account of the Shareholder which such Transferee succeeds, at the time such Transferee is admitted to the Company. The Capital Account of any Shareholder whose Company Interest shall be increased by means of the Transfer to it of all or part of the Company Interest of another Shareholder shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such Transfer. Any reference in this Agreement to a Capital Contribution of, or distribution to, a then-Shareholder shall include a Capital Contribution or distribution previously made by or to any prior Shareholder on account of the Company Interest of such then-Shareholder.

3.5 Tax Matters Partner.

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

(a) Shelter Development Holdings, Inc. or its assignee shall be the Company's "tax matters partner" (as such term is defined in Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code) (the "Tax Matters Partner"), for purposes of Section 6231 of the Code, with all of the powers that accompany such status (except as otherwise provided in this Agreement). Promptly following the written request of the Tax Matters Partner, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, reimburse and indemnify the Tax Matters Partner for all reasonable expenses, including reasonable legal and accounting fees, claims, liabilities, losses and damages incurred by the Tax Matters Partner in connection with any administrative or judicial proceeding with respect to the tax liability of the Shareholders. The provisions of this Section 3.7 shall survive the termination of the Company and shall remain binding on the Shareholders for as long as a period of time as is necessary to resolve with the Internal Revenue Service any and all matters regarding the federal income taxation of the Company or the Shareholders.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 3.7(a) 3.5(a) hereof, the Tax Matters Partner shall have no fiduciary duty whatsoever to any other Shareholder, and shall be treated in exactly the same manner as any other Shareholder other than as specifically provided in Section 3.5(a) hereof.

Allocations

4.1 General Rules Concerning Allocations. Within 45 days after the end of each calendar month, the Company shall conduct an interim closing of the books as of the end of the last day of that calendar month. On the basis of the closing of the books for each calendar month, the Company shall determine the amount of Profit and Loss attributable to that calendar month. Profits and Losses shall be determined in accordance with the accounting methods followed by the Company for federal income tax purposes.

4.2 Allocations of Profits and Losses. All allocations to the Shareholders of items included within the Company's Profits and Losses attributable to each calendar month shall be allocated solely among the Shareholders recognized as Shareholders as of the last day of that calendar month, as follows:

(a) The Company's Profit or Loss for the applicable period shall be allocated among the Common Shareholders in proportion to their relative ownership of Common Shares.

(b) The Tax Matters Partner is authorized to make reasonable determinations regarding the allocation of Profit and Loss under this Section 4.2, including determinations relating to the calculation of Profit or Loss, and such other items of the Company's income, gain, loss, deduction and credit as may be appropriate to carry out the intent of this Section 4.2.

4.3 Special Allocations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent an allocation of Profit or Loss or any item thereof to any Shareholder pursuant to Sections 4.1 or 4.2 of this Agreement would be in violation of the requirements of the Treasury Regulations under Section 704(b) of the Code, the Tax Matters Partner shall comply with the requirements of such Treasury Regulations and adjust such allocations to comply with such requirements in a manner that will, in the reasonable judgment of the Tax Matters Partner, have the least effect on the amounts to be allocated and distributed under this Agreement. In the event a Shareholder unexpectedly receives any adjustment, allocation or distribution described in Treasury Regulation Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6) that causes or increases a negative balance in a Shareholder's Capital Account, items of Profit shall be specially allocated to such Shareholder so as to eliminate such negative balance as quickly as possible. The Shareholders agree that if this Section 4.3 becomes applicable, the Tax Matters Partner is authorized to review and adjust the allocations made pursuant to Sections 4.1 or 4.2 of this Agreement.

4.4 Additional Allocations.

(a) If there is a net decrease in "partnership minimum gain" (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(d)) during a taxable year, a Shareholder shall be allocated, before any other allocation of the Company's items for such taxable year (and if necessary, subsequent years), items of the Company's income and gain in the amount equal to the Shareholder's share of such net decrease in partnership minimum gain (within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)).

(b) The Tax Matters Partner, in order to preserve uniformity of Shares within a class, may, in its sole discretion, make a special allocation of items of income, gain, loss or deduction but only if such allocations would not have a material adverse effect on the Shareholders and if they are consistent with the principles of Section 704 of the Code.

(c) If, and to the extent that any Shareholder is deemed to recognize income as a result of any transaction between such Shareholder and the Company pursuant to Sections 1272-1274, Section 7872, Section 483 or Section 482 of the Code, or any similar provision now or hereafter in effect, any corresponding loss or deduction of the Company shall be allocated to the Shareholder who was charged with such income.

(d) Adjustments to the Capital Accounts of Shareholders with respect to an adjustment to the tax basis of any asset of the Company pursuant to Section 734(b) or Section 743(b) of the Code shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(m).

4.5 Tax Allocations.

(a) For federal income tax purposes, except as otherwise provided in this Section 4.5, each item of income, gain, loss and deduction of the Company shall be allocated among the Shareholders in the same proportion as the corresponding items are allocated pursuant to Sections 4.3 and Section 4.4 hereof.

(b) In the event that the Book Value of any asset contributed to and held by the Company differs from its basis for federal income tax purposes ("Tax Basis"), allocations of income, gain, loss or deduction with respect to such asset shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the Shareholders so as to take account of any variation between Book Value and Tax Basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Tax Matters Partner may elect any reasonable method or methods for making such allocations.

(c) If the Book Value of any asset of the Company is adjusted pursuant to Section 1.15 1.11 hereof, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deductions with respect to such asset shall take into account any variation between Book Value and Tax Basis in accordance with the provisions of Section 704(c) of the Code and Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(d) The Tax Matters Partner shall have the sole discretion to make special allocations of items of income, gain, loss and deductions that are consistent with the principles of Section 704(c) of the Code and to amend the provisions of this Agreement (without Shareholder action, notwithstanding Section 14.4 of this Agreement), as appropriate, to reflect the proposal or promulgation of Treasury Regulations under Subchapter K of the Code. The Tax Matters Partner may adopt and employ such methods and procedures for (A) the maintenance of capital accounts for book and tax purposes, (B) the determination and allocation of adjustments under Sections 704(c), 734 and 743 of the Code, (C) the determination and allocation of taxable income, tax loss and items thereof under this Agreement and pursuant to the Code, (D) the determination of the identities and tax classification of Shareholders, (E) the provision of tax information and reports to the Shareholders, (F) the adoption of reasonable conventions and methods for the valuation of assets and the determination of tax basis, (G) the allocation of asset values and tax basis, (H) conventions for the determination of depreciation, cost recovery and amortization deductions and the adoption and maintenance of accounting methods, (I) the recognition of the transfer of Shares, and (J) for compliance and other tax-related requirements, including without limitation, the use of computer software, to use filing and reporting procedures similar to those employed by publicly-traded partnerships and limited liability companies, as it determines in its sole discretion are necessary and appropriate to execute the provisions of this Agreement and to comply with federal and state tax law, and to achieve uniformity of Shares. The Tax Matters Partner shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company for any expenses, penalties or other liabilities arising as a result of decisions made in good faith on any of the matters referred to in the preceding sentence. If the Tax Matters Partner determines, based on advice of counsel, that no reasonable allowable convention or other method is available to preserve the uniformity of Shares within a class, or the Tax Matters Partner in its discretion so elects, Shares may be separately identified as distinct classes to reflect differences in tax consequences.

Distributions, Liquidations and Priority

5.1 Distributions. The Board of Directors may from time to time authorize the Company to pay distributions to holders of Common Shares from cash of the Company which the Board of Directors determines is available for distribution to the holders of Common Shares after taking into account amounts determined by the Board of Directors to be necessary or advisable to meet actual or anticipated expenses or liabilities of the Company or to create reasonable reserves therefor.

5.2 Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding-Up.

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

(a) Liquidation. Upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Company, after payment of all of the Company's creditors, each Shareholder shall receive an amount in cash or in kind equal to the positive Capital Account balance of such Shareholder, as determined after taking into account all Capital Account adjustments for the taxable year of the dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Company other than the distribution under this Section 5.2(a).

(b) A consolidation or merger of the Company with or into any other Entity, or a sale, lease or exchange of any or all of the assets of the Company in consideration for the issuance of equity securities of another Entity, shall not be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company.

5.3 Priority. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, it is specifically acknowledged and agreed by each Shareholder that the Company's failure to pay any amounts to such Shareholder, whether as a dividend, redemption payment or other distribution, even if such payment is specifically required hereunder, shall not give such Shareholder creditor status with regard to such unpaid amount; but rather, such Shareholder shall be treated only as a shareholder of whatever class such person is a Shareholder, and not as a creditor, of the Company. This Section 5.3(b) is, as permitted by Section 18-606 of the Act, intended to override the provisions of Section 18-606 of the Act relating to a member's status and remedies as a creditor, to the extent that such provisions would be applicable in the absence of this Section 5.3.

5.4 Payments to Shareholders for Services. Any payments by the Company to a Shareholder for services rendered to or on behalf of the Company shall be treated as guaranteed payments for services under Section 707(c) of the Code.

ARTICLE 6

Shareholders

6.1 Limited Liability.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by the Act or in Section 6.1(b) hereof, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and the Shareholders shall not be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Shareholder of the Company. The Shareholders shall not be required to lend any funds to the Company. Each of the Shareholders shall only be liable to make payment of his, her or its respective contributions as and when due hereunder and other payments as expressly provided in this Agreement. If and to the extent a Shareholder's contribution shall be fully paid, such Shareholder shall not, except as required by the express provisions of the Act regarding repayment of sums wrongfully distributed to Shareholders, be required to make any further contributions.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.1(a) hereof, the Special Shareholder, for so long as such Person holds Shares (unless such Person duly resigns as a Special Shareholder in accordance with this Section 6.1 or Section 6.3 of this Agreement), shall have personal liability to creditors of the Company (and any such creditor may seek personal satisfaction from the Special Shareholder), to the extent that the assets of the Company (including without limitation the proceeds of any and all available insurance) are insufficient to satisfy such creditor's claim (and, if there be more than one Special Shareholder at any time, then such Special Shareholders shall be jointly liable for all liabilities set forth in this Section 6.1(b)); provided, however, that, notwithstanding Section 6.3 of this Agreement, any Special Shareholder may resign its status as a Special Shareholder after (i) the consummation of a transaction in which a Person acquires more than 10% of the then-outstanding Shares of any class or series where such acquisition is not consented to by the Special Shareholder, or (ii) any Shareholder or group of Shareholders controls a majority of the seats on the Board of Directors in any case where such control is not consented to by the Special Shareholder. In the event of such a resignation, (x) the Special Shareholder's personal liability under the first sentence of this Section 6.1(b) shall, to the fullest extent permissible under law, terminate immediately, automatically, and in full, although such Person may continue to hold Shares, and (y) the Company shall pay to the Special Shareholder, promptly after such resignation, the sum of $1,000,000 in direct consideration for the Special Shareholder's prior service to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 6.1(b) hereof, the Special Shareholder shall have no fiduciary duty whatsoever to any other Shareholder, and shall be treated in exactly the same manner as any other Shareholder other than as specifically provided in Section 6.1(b) hereof. Without limiting the foregoing, it is agreed that (i) the Special Shareholder has no responsibility to treat other Shareholders as creditors of the Company toward which the Special Shareholder would bear any responsibility or have any liability whatsoever (including without limitation in the event of any Company failure to pay any amounts to such Shareholders, whether as a dividend, redemption payment or other distribution, even if such amounts are specifically required hereunder to be paid), and (ii) the Special Shareholder is entitled to act solely in its own self interests without regard to the interests of other Shareholders.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Dissolution Shareholder shall have the right to serve as one (or, if there are at any time more than ten Directors on the Board of Directors, two) of the Company's Directors, through such representatives as are appointed by the Dissolution Shareholder (such designated persons to be referred to as the "Specially Appointed Director(s)") at all times and from time to time, and shall have the sole right to remove such representative(s) as Directors; all as provided in Section 7.2(b) of this Agreement.

6.2 Voting Rights of Shareholders; Authority of Board of Directors.

(a) The Board of Directors shall make all decisions made for and on behalf of the Company, such decisions shall be binding upon the Company, and the Shareholders shall have no voting rights; except, however, as expressly set forth herein. The Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, has full, complete and exclusive right, power and authority in the management and control of the Company business to do any and all things necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Company; except, however, as expressly set forth herein. The members of the Board of Directors shall devote such time as is necessary to the affairs of the Company, and shall receive such compensation from the Company and such reimbursement for expenses as is permitted by the Company's By-laws as then in effect. No Person dealing with the Board of Directors shall be required to determine its authority to make any undertaking on behalf of the Company or to determine any facts or circumstances bearing upon the existence of such authority.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.2(a) above, but subject to Sections 10.1(a) (i) and 10.1(a) (ii), Article 12 and Article 13 hereof, in the event of a proposed sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company at any one time, merger or consolidation of the Company (where the Company is not the surviving Entity), dissolution of the Company, or issuance of any restricted Share or deferred Share awards under a Company incentive share plan, any such proposed occurrence, in order to be approved must, (i) with respect to the merger or consolidation of the Company (where the Company is not the surviving Entity), first receive the approval of the Board of Directors, (ii) with respect to a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company at any one time, or dissolution of the Company, any such proposed action must first receive the approval of the Board of Directors, and (iii) receive the vote, at a duly held meeting, of more than 50% in interest of the total then issued and outstanding Shares (or, in the case of a written Consent without a meeting, more than 50% in interest of the total then issued and outstanding Shares), voting as one class (and not as separate classes, notwithstanding the fact that there may be members of more than one class voting) or such greater percentage as is then required under the Act.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 6.2(a) above, but subject to Sections 6.1(d), 7.2(a) and 7.2(b) and Articles 12 and 13 hereof, the vote, at a duly held meeting, of more than 50% in interest of the total then issued and outstanding Shares (or, in the case of a written Consent without a meeting, more than 50% in interest of the total then issued and outstanding Shares), voting as one class (and not as separate classes, notwithstanding the fact that there may be members of more than one class voting), shall be able to remove any Director (other than a Specially Appointed Director) and elect a replacement therefor. If the Shareholders vote to remove a Director pursuant to this Section 6.2(c), they shall provide the removed Director with notice thereof, which notice shall set forth the date upon which such removal is to become effective.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or in any share plan or share incentive plan adopted by the Company, the holders of Common Shares have sole Shareholder authority;

(i) to vote on such matters as may be brought before the Shareholders from time to time (on issues other than those as to which this Agreement specifically provides for voting rights of Shareholders in addition to or instead of holders of Common Shares);

(ii) to elect Directors, and shall do so on an annual basis;

and in all such votes on which the holders of Common Shares have sole Shareholder voting authority, in order for the holders of Common Shares to act to approve a matter on which they are voting, such matter must receive the vote of more than 50% in interest of the Common Shares which are voted at a meeting at which a quorum of Common Shares is present (or, in the case of a written Consent without a meeting, must receive the written Consent of more than 50% in interest of the aggregate Common Shares), voting as one class (and not as separate classes, notwithstanding the fact that there may be members of more than one class voting) (or such greater percentage as is then required under the Act or under the express terms of this Agreement). For purposes of the foregoing sentence, the term "quorum" means more than 50% of the then issued and outstanding Common Shares, except as provided in any share plan or share incentive plan adopted by the Company.

The annual meeting of the holders of Common Shares of the Company for the election of Directors and for the transaction of such other business as properly may come before such meeting shall be held in accordance with the By-laws. Subject to the provisions of Article 13 relating to meetings of Shareholders and related subjects, the By-laws shall govern matters relating to, among other things, annual and special meetings, notice, waiver of notice, adjournment, proxies, written consents, procedures, and telephonic meetings, to the extent not inconsistent with this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Shareholders have voting rights with respect to a particular matter (to the extent provided herein with regard to categories of Shareholders permitted to vote on particular matters, and otherwise) only after such matter has first been approved by the Board of Directors, except with regard to (i) the removal of a Director (and the election of a replacement therefor in connection therewith) as provided in this Agreement, (ii) the amendment of this Agreement, (iii) the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company at any one time, (iv) the dissolution of the Company, and (v) any matter as to which any share plan or share incentive plan adopted by the Company provides otherwise.

(f) For purposes of this Agreement, in order for a meeting of Shareholders to be considered duly held with regard to a particular question, a quorum of more than 50% in interest of the Shares which are entitled to vote at such meeting on the particular question must be present (in person or by proxy).

6.3 Transfers of Special Shareholder Interests. The restrictions, limitations and other provisions of this Section 6.3 shall in no manner limit or restrict the right of a Special Shareholder to resign its status as a Special Shareholder to the extent permitted under Section 6.1(b) of this Agreement; and, once such Special Shareholder properly resigns pursuant thereto, the transfer restrictions set forth in this Section 6.3 as they relate to such Special Shareholder shall automatically and immediately terminate. Subject to the foregoing sentence, it is agreed that:

(a) No Special Shareholder (a "Special Transferor") may make any Transfer of any of its Shares to a Transferee (a "Special Transferee") unless each of the following requirements is met:

(i) At all times during the existence of the Company, including upon consummation of such Transfer, one or more Special Shareholders must have, in the aggregate, at least a number of Shares which will result in the allocation to the Special Shareholder(s), in the aggregate, of the minimum percentage interest in the Company which will permit the Company to retain its tax status as an association taxable as a partnership rather than as a corporation, in the opinion of counsel to the Company; and

(ii) Before any such Transfer can be made, the Company must be furnished with an opinion of counsel (which may or may not be the same counsel as is referenced in subparagraph (i) above) to the effect that the Transfer in question will not adversely affect the Company's tax status as an association taxable as a partnership rather than as a corporation.

(b) No Transfer to a Special Transferee shall be recognized by the Company unless the Board of Directors of the Company receives documentation satisfactory to it that the requirements of this Section 6.3 have been met.

(c) If the Special Transferor transfers all of its Shares in such Transfer, in accordance with the restrictions and requirements of Sections 6.3(a) and 6.3(b) of this Agreement, then such Special Transferor shall thereafter no longer be a Special Shareholder. If the Special Transferor transfers fewer than all of its Shares in such Transfer, then:

(i) if such Special Transferor makes no provision for the termination of its status as a Special Shareholder in accordance with clause (ii) immediately below, such Special Transferor shall continue to be a Special Shareholder; and

(ii) if the Special Transferee agrees in writing to be a Special Shareholder and to be subject to the liabilities of a Special Shareholder as provided in this Agreement, then, if all of the requirements and limitations set forth in Section 6.3(a) of this Agreement are complied with, the Special Transferor may terminate its status as a Special Shareholder upon notice thereof to the Company; provided, however, that no such resignation shall be recognized by the Company unless the Board of Directors of the Company receives documentation satisfactory to it that the requirements of this Section 6.3(c) have been met.

6.4 Transfers of Dissolution Shareholder Interests.

(a) No Dissolution Shareholder (a "Dissolution Transferor") may make any Transfer of any of its Shares to a Transferee (a "Dissolution Transferee") unless each of the following requirements is met:

(i) At all times during the existence of the Company, including upon consummation of such Transfer, one or more Dissolution Shareholders must have, in the aggregate, at least a number of Shares which will result in the allocation to the Dissolution Shareholder, in the aggregate, of the minimum percentage interest in the Company which will permit the Company to retain its tax status as an association taxable as a partnership rather than as a corporation, in the opinion of counsel to the Company; and

(ii) Before any such Transfer can be made, the Company must be furnished with an opinion of counsel (which may or may not be the same counsel as is referenced in subparagraph (i) above) to the effect that the Transfer in question will not adversely affect the Company's tax status as an association taxable as a partnership rather than as a corporation.

(b) No Transfer to a Dissolution Transferee shall be recognized by the Company unless the Board of Directors of the Company receives documentation satisfactory to it that Section 6.4(a)'s requirements have been met.

(c) If the Dissolution Transferor transfers all of its Shares in such Transfer, in accordance with the restrictions and requirements of Sections 6.4(a) and 6.4(b) of this Agreement, then such Dissolution Transferor shall thereafter no longer be a Dissolution Shareholder. If the Dissolution Transferor transfers fewer than all of its Shares in such Transfer, then:

(i) if such Dissolution Transferor makes no provision for the termination of its status as a Dissolution Shareholder in accordance with clause (ii) immediately below, such Dissolution Transferor shall continue to be a Dissolution Shareholder; and

(ii) if the Dissolution Transferee agrees in writing to be a Dissolution Shareholder, then, if all of the requirements and limitations set forth in Section 6.4(a) of this Agreement are complied with, the Dissolution Transferor may terminate its status as a Dissolution Shareholder upon notice thereof to the Company; provided, however, that no such resignation shall be recognized by the Company unless the Board of Directors of the Company receives documentation satisfactory to it that this Section 6.4(c)'s requirements have been met.

ARTICLE 7

Directors and Officers

7.1 General Powers of Directors.

(a) Except as may otherwise be provided by the Act or by this Agreement, the property, affairs and business of the Company shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company (including but not limited to deciding whether to make various tax elections), and the Shareholders shall have no right to act on behalf of or bind the Company. The Directors shall act only as a Board, and the individual Directors shall have no power as such. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement and the By-laws with regard to Board of Directors actions that can be taken without a quorum, the approval of a matter by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute approval by the Board of Directors (or, in the case of a written consent without a meeting, the approval of a matter by all of the Directors shall constitute approval by the Board of Directors).

(b) Unless expressly provided otherwise under this Agreement, the Board of Directors shall have the exclusive authority to make all determinations under this Agreement and under the By-laws.

(c) No contract or transaction among the Company and one or more of its Affiliates, Directors or officers, or among the Company and any other Entity in which one or more of the Company's Affiliates, Directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the Director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee thereof which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his or their votes are counted for such purpose, if:

(i) The material facts as to such Affiliate's, Director's or officer's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested Directors, even though the disinterested Directors be less than a quorum;

(ii) The material facts as to such Affiliate's, Director's or officer's relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Shareholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by more than 50% in interest of the Common Shares which are present and entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum is present (or, in the case of a written Consent without a meeting, more than 50% in interest of the aggregate Common Shares), voting as one class (and not as separate classes, notwithstanding the fact that there may be members of more than one class voting), who are not Affiliates of any of the interested Persons involved in such transaction; or

(iii) The contract or transaction is fair as to the Company.

Common or interested Directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

Notwithstanding, the foregoing provisions of this Section 7.1(c), the Company shall enter into or renew no agreement pursuant to which any Affiliate of any Director would provide management services for any Property, unless such agreement is approved by a majority of the Directors who (a) are not officers of the Company, (b) are neither related to any Company officer nor represent concentrated or family holdings of the Company's Shares, and (c) are, in the view of the Board of Directors, free of any relationship that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment; and, if such approval is obtained in the case of a particular contract, such approval shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this Section 7.1(c).

(d) Notwithstanding the above provisions of this Section 7.1, in any transaction in which the Company wishes to issue Shares to SCATEF or any Affiliate of SCATEF in exchange for such Person giving up fees otherwise payable to it, such transaction, including but not limited to the exchange ratio of Shares for such fees, shall not be approved or undertaken by the Company unless and until approved, in lieu of the requirements set forth in Section 7.1(c), by a majority of the directors of the Company who are not Affiliates of SCATEF or of any SCATEF Affiliate (even though the disinterested Directors may be less than a quorum of the full Board of Directors), after the material facts as to such transaction are disclosed or are known to such unaffiliated Directors.

7.2 Number and Term of Office of Directors.

(a) The number of seats constituting the entire Board of Directors shall be at least five and no more than 15, with the exact number of seats on the Board of Directors to be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. At least a majority of the Directors in office at any point in time must be individuals who are not employed by the Company or by any Affiliate of the Company. Each Director (whenever elected) shall hold office until his or her successor has been duly elected and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, resignation, or removal. A Director shall not be required to be a Shareholder or a resident of the State of Delaware.

(b) The Specially Appointed Director(s) shall have all of the powers, rights, privileges, obligations and duties as all other Directors, and shall for all purposes be Directors of the Company, except that (i) the Specially Appointed Director(s) shall not be counted when determining the total size of the Board of Directors for the sole purpose of making the determination in Section 7.2(c) below as to how many Directors are in each class, (ii) no

Shareholders other than the Dissolution Shareholder shall have any right to elect, remove or replace the Specially Appointed Director(s), and, without limiting the foregoing, the Specially Appointed Director(s) shall not stand for election or reelection at any meeting of the holders of Common Shares. Without limiting the foregoing, all other Shareholders, by becoming Shareholders of the Company, agree that (I) the Dissolution Shareholder has such rights to serve, through its appointed representatives, as the Specially Appointed Director(s) and that the necessary one seat or two seats on the Board of Directors shall be reserved for such appointment(s) (and the size of the Company's Board of Directors shall automatically be expanded at any time if such expansion is necessary in order to permit the Dissolution Shareholder to effect such appointment(s)), and (II) the Company's officers and Directors may take any and all steps deemed appropriate by them, in connection with Shareholder meetings or otherwise, to implement this Section 7.2(b).

(c) Subject to Section 7.2(b) above, at all times the Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in numbers as the then total number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors permits, with the term of office of one class expiring each year (with the first such class expiration to occur at the first annual meeting of Shareholders); and the Board of Directors shall have sole power to make such determinations. At the first annual meeting of the holders of Common Shares, only the Directors of the first class shall be elected by the holders of Common Shares (in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof), and such persons shall hold office thereafter for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting. At the second annual meeting of Shareholders, only the Directors of the second class shall be elected by the holders of Common Shares (in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof), and such persons shall hold office thereafter for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting. At the third annual meeting of Shareholders, only the Directors of the third class shall be elected by the holders of Common Shares (in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof), and such persons shall hold office thereafter for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting. At each subsequent annual meeting of Shareholders thereafter, the successors to any class of directors whose term shall then expire shall be elected by the holders of Common Shares (in accordance with Section 6.2 hereof) to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting.

7.3 By-law Provisions. The By-laws shall govern matters relating to, among other things, (a) with respect to directors, annual and special meetings, notice, waiver of notice, quorum, voting, adjournment, written consents, committees, procedures, telephonic meetings, resignations, removals, vacancies, books and records, reports, and compensation and reimbursement of expenses, to the extent not inconsistent with this Agreement, (b) with respect to officers, all matters not governed by this Agreement, and (c) employee benefit matters, which matters shall be subject to and managed as provided by the discretion of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 8

8.1 Limitations on Liability, and Indemnification of, Directors and Officers.

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

(a) No director or officer of the Company shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or any of the Shareholders for any act or omission performed or omitted by him or her, or for any decision, except in the case of fraudulent or illegal conduct of such person. For purposes of this Section 8.1, the fact that an action, omission to act or decision is taken on the advice of counsel for the Company shall be evidence of good faith and lack of fraudulent conduct.

(b) All Directors and officers of the Company shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim (including any reasonable attorney's fees incurred by such person in connection therewith) due to any act or omission made by him or her, except in the case of fraudulent or illegal conduct of such person; provided, that any indemnity shall be paid out of, and to the extent of, the assets of the Company only (or any insurance proceeds available therefor), and no Shareholder shall have any personal liability on account thereof.

(c) The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the Person acted fraudulently or illegally.

(d) The indemnification provided by this Section 8.1 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of Shareholders or Directors, or otherwise, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(e) Any repeal or modification of this Section 8.1 shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director or officer of the Company existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

(f) The Company may, if the Board of Directors of the Company deems it appropriate in its sole discretion, obtain insurance for the benefit of the Company's Directors and officers, relating to the liability of such persons.

ARTICLE 9

Subject to Section 6.3 of this Agreement (relating to Special Shareholders) and Section 6.4 of this Agreement (relating to Dissolution Shareholders), the Shares shall be freely transferable; and any Person who is a Transferee of Shares shall, by having such status, (a) automatically become a Shareholder of the Company with no further action being required on such Person's part, and (b) automatically be bound to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (and be entitled to the rights of a Shareholder hereunder), without the requirement for execution of this Agreement by such Person. Certain mechanical aspects of the transfer of Shares shall be set forth in the By-laws.

(i) a unanimous written decision of all of the Original Shareholders who are then still Shareholders to dissolve the Company;

(ii) the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy (as defined in Section 18-304 of the Act) or dissolution of a Person who is then a Dissolution Shareholder, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership in the Company of a Person who is then a Dissolution Shareholder, unless more than 50% in interest of the then-outstanding Shares votes, at a duly held meeting (or, in the case of a written Consent without a meeting, more than 50% in interest of the aggregate Shares acts), within 180 days of such event to continue the Company; or

(iii) the vote of the Shareholders pursuant to Section 6.2(b) hereof.

The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy (as defined in Section 18-304 of the Act) or dissolution of a Shareholder or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a Shareholder in the Company, shall not cause the dissolution of the Company except to the extent specified above in this Section 10.1(a).

(b) Dissolution of the Company shall be effective on the day on which the event occurs giving rise to the dissolution, but the Company shall not terminate until the assets of the Company shall have been distributed as provided herein and a certificate of cancellation of the Certificate has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

10.2 Application of Assets. In the event of dissolution, the Company shall conduct only such activities as are necessary to wind up its affairs (including the sale of the assets of the Company in an orderly manner), and the assets of the Company shall be applied, first, as required by Section 18-804(a)(1) of the Act, and then in the manner, and in the order of priority, set forth in Article 5.

10.3 Gain or Losses in Process of Liquidation. Any gain or loss or disposition of Company property in the process of liquidation shall be credited or charged to the Capital Accounts of Shareholders in accordance with the provisions of Article 3. Any property distributed in kind in the liquidation shall be valued and treated as though the property were sold at its fair market value and the cash proceeds were distributed. The difference between the fair market value of property distributed in kind and its Book Value shall be treated as a gain or loss on the sale of such property and shall be credited or charged to the Capital Account of Shareholders in accordance with Article 3; provided, that no Shareholder shall have the right to request or require the distribution of the assets of the Company in kind.

10.4 Procedural and Other Matters.

(B) The highest per Company Interest price (including any brokerage commissions, transfer taxes and soliciting dealers' fees) paid by the Interested Party for any Company Interest of the same class or series acquired by it on, or within the five-year period immediately before, the Determination Date, plus an amount equal to interest compounded annually from the earliest date on which the highest per Company Interest acquisition price was paid for the same class or series through the valuation Date at the rate for one-year United States Treasury obligations from time to time in effect, less the aggregate amount of any cash distributions paid and the market value of any distributions paid in other than cash, per Company Interest of the same class or series from the earliest date through the Valuation Date, up to the amount of the interest; or

(2) The Market Value per Company Interest of the same class or series on the first day in such five-year period on which the Interested Party acquired the Company Interests.

(ii) The consideration to be received by the holders of any Company Interests is to be in cash or in the same form as the Interested Party has previously paid for Company Interests, except to the extent that the Shareholders otherwise elect in connection with their approval of the proposed transaction under Section 6.2 of this Agreement. If the Interested Party has paid for Company Interests with varying forms of consideration, the form of consideration for such Company Interests of the same class or series shall be either cash or the form used to acquire the largest number of Company Interests of the same class or series previously acquired by it, except to the extent that the Shareholders otherwise elect.

(iii) After the Determination Date and prior to the consummation of such Business Combination:

(A) There shall have been no failure to declare and pay at the regular date therefor (if applicable) any full periodic distributions (whether or not cumulative) on any outstanding Company Interests or other securities of the Company;

(B) There shall have been:

(1) No reduction in the annual rate of distributions made with respect to any class or series of Company Interests (except as necessary to reflect any subdivision of Company Interests); and

(2) An increase in such annual rate of distributions as necessary to reflect any reclassification, recapitalization, reorganization or any similar transaction which has the effect of reducing the number of outstanding Company Interests; and

(C) The Interested Party did not become the Beneficial Owner of any additional Company Interests except as part of the transaction which resulted in such Interested Party becoming an Interested Party or by virtue of proportionate Company Interest splits or distributions.

The provisions of items (A) and (B) of this subsection (b)(iii) do not apply if no Interested Party or an Affiliate or Associate of the Interested Party voted as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company in a manner inconsistent with such items (A) and (B) and the Interested Party, within 10 days after any act or failure to act inconsistent with such items, notifies the Board of Directors of the Company in writing that the Interested Party disapproves thereof and requests in good faith that the Board of Directors rectify such act or failure to act.

(c) The provisions of Section 12.2 do not apply to any Business Combination of the Company with an Interested Party that became an Interested Party inadvertently, if the Interested Party:

(i) As soon as practicable (but not more than 10 days after the Interested Party knew or should have known it had become an Interested Party) divests itself of a sufficient amount of Company Interests so that it no longer is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10 percent or more of the outstanding Company Interests; and

(ii) Would not at any time with the five-year period preceding the Announcement Date with respect to the Business Combination have been an Interested Party except by inadvertence.

12.4 Amendment. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, this Article 12 may be amended or repealed only by a vote of 80% in interest of all Shareholders, voting together as a single class, excluding Company Interests held by any Interested Party or any Affiliate of an Interested Party.

12.5 Certain Determinations with Respect to this Article 12. The Board of Directors shall have the power to determine for the purposes of this Article 12, on the basis of information known to the Directors: (i) the number of Company Interests of which any Person is the Beneficial Owner, (ii) whether a Person is an Affiliate or Associate of another, (iii) whether a Person has an agreement, arrangement or understanding with another as to the matters referred to in the definition of "Beneficial Owner" as hereinabove defined, (iv) whether two or more transactions constitute a "series of transactions," and (v) such other matters with respect to which a determination is required under this Article 12.

Voting Rights of Certain Control Company Interests

13.1 Definitions. For purposes of this Article 13, the following definitions shall apply:

"Acquiring Person" means a person who makes or proposes to make a Control Company Interests Acquisition, or such Person's Affiliate or Associate.

"Associate" when used to indicate a relationship with any Person means:

(a) An "Associate" as defined in Section 12.1; or

(b) A Person that:

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

(i) Directly or indirectly controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Person specified; or

(ii) Is acting or intends to act jointly or in concert with the Person specified.

"Control Company Interests" means those Company Interests that, except for this Article 13, would, if aggregated with all other Company Interests (including Company Interests the acquisition of which is excluded from the definition "Control Company Interests Acquisition" below) owned by a Person or in respect of which that Person is entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power, except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy, entitle that Person, directly or indirectly, to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of any class or series of Company Interests within any of the following ranges of voting power:

- (a) One-fifth or more, but less than one-third of all voting power;
- (b) One-third or more, but less than a majority of all voting power; or
- (c) A majority or more of all voting power.

"Control Company Interests" includes Company Interests only to the extent that the Acquiring Person, following the acquisition of the Company Interests, is entitled, directly or indirectly, to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power within any level of voting power set forth in this section for which approval has not been obtained previously under Section 13.2.

"Control Company Interests Acquisition" means the acquisition, directly or indirectly, by any Person (other than (i) the Company, (ii) any subsidiary of the Company, (iii) the General Partners, the Special Shareholder, the Original Shareholders, and the Dissolution Shareholder, and (iv) any Affiliate or Associate of any Person described in clause (iii) above), of ownership of, or the power to direct the exercise of voting power with respect to, issued and outstanding Control Company Interests. Control Company Interests Acquisition does not include the acquisition of Control Company Interests:

- (a) Under the laws of descent and distribution;
- (b) Under the satisfaction of a pledge or other security interest created in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this Article 13; or
- (c) Under a merger, consolidation or exchange of interests if the Company is a party to the merger, consolidation or exchange of interests.

Unless the acquisition entitles any Person, directly or indirectly, to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power of Company Interests in excess of the range of voting power previously authorized or attained under an acquisition that is exempt under items (a), (b) or (c) of this definition, "Control Company Interests Acquisition" does not include the acquisition of Company Interests in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing this Article 13, by or from any Person whose voting rights have previously been authorized by the Shareholders in compliance with this Article 13 or any Person whose previous acquisition of Company Interests would have constituted a Control Company Interests Acquisition but for the exclusions in items (a) through (c) of this definition.

"Interested Company Interests" means Company Interests in respect of which an Acquiring Person is entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of the voting power of Company Interests in the election of Directors or otherwise.

13.2 Voting Rights.

(a) Control Company Interests acquired in a Control Company Interests Acquisition have no voting rights except to the extent approved by the Shareholders at a meeting held under Section 13.4 by the affirmative vote of two-thirds in interest of all Shareholders, excluding any votes cast with respect to Interested Company Interests.

(b) For purposes of this Section 13.2:

49

(i) Company Interests acquired within 180 days or Company Interests acquired under a plan to make a Control Company Interests Acquisition are considered to have been acquired in the same acquisition; and

(ii) A Person may not be deemed to be entitled to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power with respect to Company Interests held for the benefit of others if the Person:

(A) Is acting in the ordinary course of business, in good faith and not for the purpose of circumventing the provisions of this Section of the Agreement; and

(B) Is not entitled to exercise or to direct the exercise of the voting power of the Company Interests unless the Person first seeks to obtain the instruction of another person.

13.3 Acquiring Person Statement. Any Person who proposes to make or who has made a Control Company Interests Acquisition may deliver an Acquiring Person statement to the Company at the Company's principal office. The Acquiring Person statement shall set forth all of the following:

(a) The identity of the Acquiring Person and each other member of any group of which the Person is a part for purposes of determining Control Company Interests;

(b) A statement that the Acquiring Person statement is given under this Article 13;

(c) The number of Company Interests owned (directly or indirectly) by the Acquiring Person and each other member of any group;

(d) The applicable range of voting power as set forth in the definition of "Control Company Interests"; and

(e) If the Control Company Interests Acquisition has not occurred:

(i) A description in reasonable detail of the terms of the proposed Control Company Interests Acquisition; and

(ii) Representations of the Acquiring Person, together with a statement in reasonable detail of the facts on which they are based, that:

(A) The proposed Control Company Interests Acquisition, if consummated, will not be contrary to law; and

- (B) The Acquiring Person has the financial capacity, through financing to be provided by the Acquiring Person, and any additional specified sources of financing required under Section 13.5, to make the proposed Control Company Interests Acquisition.

13.4 Special Meeting.

(a) Except as provided in Section 13.5, if the Acquiring Person requests, at the time of delivery of an Acquiring Person statement, and gives a written undertaking to pay the Company's expenses of a special meeting, except the expenses of opposing approval of the voting rights, within ten days after the day on which the Company receives both the request and undertaking, the Board of Directors of the Company shall call a special meeting of the Shareholders, to be held within 50 days after receipt of the Acquiring Person statement and undertaking, for the purpose of considering the voting rights to be accorded the Company Interests acquired or to be acquired in the Control Company Interests Acquisition.

(b) The Board of Directors may require the Acquiring Person to give bond, with sufficient surety, to reasonably assure the Company that this undertaking will be satisfied.

(c) Unless the Acquiring Person agrees in writing to another date, the special meeting of Shareholders shall be held within 50 days after the day on which the Company has received both the request and the undertaking.

(d) If the Acquiring Person makes a request in writing at the time of delivery of the Acquiring Person statement, the special meeting may not be held sooner than 30 days after the day on which the Company receives the Acquiring Person statement.

(e) If no request is made under subsection (a) of this Section 13.4, the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the Company Interests acquired in the Control Company Interests Acquisition may, at the option of the Company, be presented for consideration at any meeting of the Shareholders. If no request is made under subsection (a) of this Section 13.4 and the Company proposes to present the issue of the voting rights to be accorded the Company Interests acquired in a Control Company Interests Acquisition for consideration at any meeting of the Shareholders, the Company shall provide the Acquiring Person with written notice of the proposal not less than 20 days before the date on which notice of the meeting is given.

13.5 Calls.

(a) A call of a special meeting of Shareholders is not required to be made under Section 13.4 unless, at the time of delivery of an Acquiring Person statement under Section 13.3, the Acquiring Person has:

- (i) Entered into a definitive financing agreement or agreements with one or more responsible financial institutions or other entities that have the necessary financial capacity, providing for any amount of financing of the Control Company Interests Acquisition not to be provided by the Acquiring Person; and

- (ii) Delivered a copy of the agreements to the Company.

Edgar Filing: MUNICIPAL MORTGAGE & EQUITY LLC - Form DEF 14A

13.6 Notice of Meeting.

(a) If a special meeting of the Shareholders is requested, notice of the special meeting shall be given as promptly as reasonably practicable by the Company to all Shareholders of record as of the record date set for the meeting, whether or not the Shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting.

(b) Notice of the special or annual meeting at which the voting rights are to be considered shall include or be accompanied by the following:

(i) A copy of the Acquiring Person statement delivered to the Company under Section 13.3; and

(ii) A statement by the Board of Directors setting forth its position or recommendation, or stating that it is taking no position or making no recommendation, with respect to the issue of voting rights to be accorded the Control Company Interests.

13.7 Redemption Rights.

(a) If an Acquiring Person statement has been delivered on or before the 10th day after the Control Company Interests Acquisition, the Company may, at its option, redeem any or all Control Company Interests, except Control Company Interests for which voting rights have been previously approved under Section 13.2, at any time during a 60-day period commencing on the day of a meeting at which voting rights are considered under Section 13.4 and are not approved.

(b) In addition to the redemption rights authorized under subsection (a) of this Section 13.7, if an Acquiring Person statement has not been delivered on or before the 10th day after the Control Company Interests Acquisition, the Company may, at its option, redeem any or all Control Company Interests, except Control Company Interests for which voting rights have been previously approved under Section 13.2, at any time during a period commencing on the 11th day after the Control Company Interests Acquisition and ending 60 days after the acquiring person statement has been delivered.

(c) Any redemption of Control Company Interests under this Section shall be at the fair value of the Company Interests. For purposes of this section, "fair value" shall be determined:

(i) As of the date of the last acquisition of Control Company Interests by the Acquiring Person in a Control Company Interests Acquisition or, if a meeting is held under Section 13.4, as of the date of the meeting; and

(ii) Without regard to the absence of voting rights for the Control Company Interests.

13.8 Amendment. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, this Article 13 may only be amended or repealed by a vote of 80% in interest of all Shareholders, voting together as a single class, excluding any votes cast with respect to Interested Company Interests.
