Subject Company: Neuberger Berman Inc.
Commission File No. 001-15361

Date: July 22, 2003

The attached document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the acquisition of Neuberger Berman by Lehman Brothers, including financial and operating results, synergy benefits and any accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the acquisition; Lehman Brothers' and Neuberger Berman's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements contained in this presentation that are not historical facts; and (ii) other statements identified by words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates" or words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements are based upon management's current beliefs or expectations and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies and third-party approvals, many of which are beyond our control. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the those described in the forward-looking statements: (1) whether the stockholders of Neuberger Berman approve the proposed transaction; (2) the satisfaction of the other conditions specified in the merger agreement, including without limitation the receipt of required governmental and other third-party approvals of the proposed transaction; (3) the ability to successfully combine the businesses of Lehman Brothers and Neuberger Berman; (4) the realization of revenue and cost synergy benefits from the proposed transaction; (5) operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees; (6) changes in the stock market and interest rate environment that affect revenues; and (7) competition. Lehman Brothers and Neuberger Berman do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date such forward-looking statement is made.

The attached document shall not constitute an offer of any securities for sale. The proposed transaction will be submitted to Neuberger Berman's stockholders for their consideration. Lehman Brothers and Neuberger Berman will file a registration statement, a proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction with the SEC. Stockholders of Neuberger Berman are urged to read the registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC when they become available, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information. Stockholders of Lehman Brothers can obtain more information about the proposed transaction by reviewing the Form 8-K filed by Lehman Brothers in connection with the announcement of the transaction, and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC when they become available.

You will be able to obtain a free copy of the proxy statement/prospectus, as well as other filings containing information about Lehman Brothers and Neuberger Berman, at the SEC's Internet site (HTTP://WWW.SEC.GOV). Copies of the proxy statement/prospectus and the SEC filings that will be incorporated

LEHMAN BROTHERS AND NEUBERGER BERMAN
ANNOUNCE STRATEGIC COMBINATION

Creates a Leading Position in High-Net-Worth Marketplace

Conference Call to be Held Today at 9:30 a.m. EDT

Edgar Filing: NEUBERGER BERMAN INC - Form 425

New York, New York -- July 22, 2003-- Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (NYSE ticker symbol: LEH) and Neuberger Berman Inc. (NYSE ticker symbol: NEU) announced today that they have entered into a definitive agreement whereby Lehman Brothers will acquire Neuberger Berman in a transaction valued, at the time of the announcement, at approximately $2.625 billion (including $42 million in in-the-money options and less $255 million in net excess cash as of June 30, 2003 and excluding 1.6 million unvested restricted shares in employee compensation plans). Under the terms of the agreement, based on yesterday's closing stock price, each Neuberger Berman shareholder would receive an implied price of $41.48 per share consisting of $9.49 in cash and 0.496 shares of Lehman Brothers common stock. The number of shares to be received by each Neuberger Berman shareholder may, however, be adjusted if the price of Lehman Brothers common stock is above $66.51 during a period shortly prior to closing, subject to a collar.

Transaction Benefits

- o The acquisition of Neuberger Berman's Private Asset Management business will position Lehman Brothers as one of the industry's leading providers of services to high-net-worth investors
- o The addition will bring Lehman Brothers' client assets under management to over $100 billion
- o Neuberger Berman will expand Lehman Brothers' capabilities in the areas of mutual funds, wrap accounts, institutional separate accounts, and alternative investments
- o Lehman Brothers will provide Neuberger Berman's clients with access to an expanded range of investment products and services to manage risk or seek enhanced returns, including structured capital markets products, private equity, and other alternative and asset management products
- o Neuberger Berman's comprehensive portfolio of money management products will create incremental product opportunities to be distributed through Lehman Brothers' global network of institutional and high-net-worth clients
- o The combination is expected to further enhance Lehman Brothers' revenue diversification and earnings stability, raising the percentage of revenues from its Client Services Segment from 13% to 21%, on a pro forma basis for 2002

Lehman Brothers Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Richard S. Fuld, Jr. said, "Neuberger Berman is an ideal partner for Lehman Brothers in every respect. Strategically, this acquisition meets our objectives of enhancing business diversification and growing our higher margin businesses. Financially, we expect the combination to further improve our ability to generate consistent and attractive cross-cycle results and create additional value for our shareholders. Culturally, Neuberger Berman is a wonderful fit with our One Firm culture. Its team-oriented culture, as well as the minimal overlap in our business platforms, should help ensure a smooth integration process. We look forward to welcoming everyone at Neuberger Berman as colleagues."

Jeffrey B. Lane, president and chief executive officer of Neuberger Berman, added, "In Lehman Brothers, we have found the best possible partner. Neuberger Berman's strategy has been to diversify the breadth of the products and services we offer in order to meet client needs and be responsive to the ever-changing global securities markets. This strategy has helped us achieve solid performance across the business cycle for both our clients and shareholders. By combining our industry-leading private wealth and asset management platform with Lehman Brothers' wide range of products and geographic scope, we can create an even greater array of opportunities together."

Subsequent to the closing of the transaction, Neuberger Berman will become part of Lehman Brothers' Client Services Segment's Wealth and Asset Management Division headed by Theodore P. Janulis. Jeffrey B. Lane will become a vice chairman of Lehman Brothers, a member of the Office of the Chairman, chairman of the Wealth and Asset Management Division, and chairman of Neuberger Berman. Robert Matza will become president of Neuberger Berman and remain its chief operating officer. In addition, Mr. Matza will join Lehman Brothers' Management Committee.

Pursuant to the definitive agreement, each share of Neuberger Berman will be exchanged for $9.49 in cash and a fractional share of Lehman Brothers common stock based on the average trading price of Lehman Brothers common stock during a period of time shortly prior to closing. The exchange ratio would be fixed at 0.496 if the average stock price during that period were $66.51 or less. If the average stock price were greater than $66.51 but not more than $73.00, the exchange ratio would vary so that Neuberger Berman shareholders would receive total per share consideration of $42.50. Above $73.00, the exchange ratio mechanics vary subject to a minimum exchange ratio of 0.411 if the average stock price were above $90.41.

The transaction has been approved by the boards of directors of both companies and is subject to the approval of Neuberger Berman shareholders and other closing conditions, regulatory approvals, and termination events. As part of the overall transaction, the 32 active Neuberger Berman partners who lead most of the wealth management teams will convert their Neuberger Berman stock, including approximately $941 million in shares subject to transfer restrictions, into Lehman Brothers stock and cash on the same basis as the public shareholders. All Lehman Brothers stock received in exchange for these restricted shares will continue to be subject to similar transfer restrictions. Also, Lehman Brothers will establish a $120 million stock retention pool for key producers, subject to vesting. The transaction is expected to close during Lehman Brothers' 2003 fiscal fourth quarter. The transaction is intended to be tax-free with respect to the Lehman Brothers common stock to be received in the transaction by Neuberger Berman shareholders. Lehman Brothers was advised in the transaction by its own M&A advisory group, and Neuberger Berman was advised by Merrill Lynch.

A conference call to discuss Lehman Brothers' acquisition of Neuberger Berman will be held today, July 22 at 9:30 a.m., EDT. The call will be open to the public. Members of the public who would like to access the conference call should dial, from the United States, 888-989-4365 or, from outside the U.S., 712-271-3214. The pass code for all callers is LEHMAN.
