APPLICATION FOR ORDER DECLARING DYNEGY INC. IS NOT A SUBSIDIARY COMPANY
UNDER THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

The request for an order declaring that Dynegy Inc.<sup>1</sup> ( Dynegy or Applicant ) is not a subsidiary company of ChevronTexaco Corporation ( ChevronTexaco ) under the Act arose as the result of the February 2000 merger of Dynegy with Illinova Corporation, an Illinois corporation ( Illinova ), the parent company of Illinois Power Company ( Illinois Power ).

Section 2(a)(8) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the Act ) defines a subsidiary company of a specified holding company as:

(A) any company 10 per centum or more of the outstanding voting securities of which are directly or indirectly owned, controlled, or held with power to vote, by such holding company (or by a company that is a subsidiary company of such holding company by virtue of this clause or clause (B)), unless the Commission, as hereinafter provided, by order declares such company not to be a subsidiary company of such holding company; and

(B) any person the management or policies of which the Commission, after notice and opportunity for hearing, determines to be subject to a controlling influence, directly or indirectly, by such holding company (either alone or pursuant to an arrangement or understanding with one or more other persons) so as to make it necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers that such person be subject to the obligations, duties, and liabilities imposed in this title upon subsidiary companies of holding companies.

Section 2(a)(8) further provides:

The Commission, upon application, shall by order declare that a company is not a subsidiary company of a specified holding company under clause (A) if the Commission finds that (i) the applicant is not controlled, directly or indirectly, by such holding company (either alone or pursuant to an arrangement or understanding with one or more other persons) either through one or more intermediary persons or by any means or device whatsoever, (ii) the applicant is not an intermediary company through which such control of another company is exercised, and (iii) the management or policies of the applicant are not subject to a controlling influence, directly or indirectly, by such holding company (either alone or pursuant to an arrangement or understanding with one or more other persons) so as to make it necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers that the applicant be subject to the obligations, duties, and liabilities imposed in this title upon subsidiary companies of holding companies.

In its original application, Dynegy requested the Commission to declare that it is not a subsidiary company of ChevronTexaco. However, on September 30, 2004, Ameren Corporation acquired from Illinova 100 percent of the outstanding common shares and approximately 73 percent of the preferred shares of Illinois Power. As a result, none of Dynegy or its subsidiary companies is a holding company or a subsidiary company of a holding company within the meaning of the Act. As a result, Dynegy respectfully withdraws its application for a declaration pursuant to Section 2(a)(8) of the Act that it is not a subsidiary company of ChevronTexaco.
