ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On November 22, 2005, Newell Rubbermaid Inc. (the "Company") entered into a Separation Agreement with Joseph Galli, Jr., the Company's former President and CEO, in connection with his resignation on October 16, 2005, a copy of which is attached to this Report as Exhibit 10 and incorporated herein by this reference.

The material terms of the Severance Agreement are as follows: (i) severance payments equal to two times his current annual salary, with payments beginning May 1, 2006 and continuing until October, 2007; (ii) a bonus for 2005 equal to 120.6% of his current annual salary; (iii) continued vesting in previously granted outstanding stock options for three years following his resignation, with exercise permitted during 2008; (iv) continued vesting in previously granted restricted stock awards for two years following his resignation; (v) early payment of his accrued SERP benefit (on October 16, 2007) if he complies with the terms of the Severance Agreement through December 31, 2006; (vi) a payment of $775,000 as an additional retirement benefit; (vii) continued coverage under the Company's medical plan at active employee rates for 24 months following resignation; (viii) reimbursement of up to $100,000 in outplacement expenses; and (ix) ownership of his Company car, mobile phone and computer.

For two years following his resignation, Mr. Galli is prohibited from competing with the Company and from soliciting or hiring certain Company employees. Should he violate the terms of the Separation Agreement, including the confidentiality, noncompete and nonsolicitation provisions, further severance payments cease and all stock options and then unvested restricted stock will be forfeited. The Separation Agreement also contains a release of claims provision.
