ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES

The Board has determined to decrease the number of authorized shares of common stock of Ascena from 375,000,000 to 360,000,000. Accordingly, the Company hereby amends and supplements the proxy statement/prospectus in the sections identified below as follows:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE HOLDING COMPANY REORGANIZATION

The following information hereby amends and replaces in its entirety the question and answer entitled Why is the authorized capital of Ascena greater than the authorized capital of dressbarn? on pages 8 and 9 of the proxy statement/prospectus:

Why is the authorized capital of Ascena greater than the authorized capital of dressbarn?

dressbarn's amended and restated certificate of incorporation currently authorizes the issuance of 165,000,000 shares of common stock and 100,000 shares of preferred stock. Ascena's second amended and restated certificate of incorporation, which would govern the rights of the Company's stockholders as a result of the reorganization, currently authorizes the issuance of 360,000,000 shares of common stock and 100,000 shares of preferred stock. Upon completion of the reorganization, the number of shares of Ascena common stock that will be outstanding will be equal to the number of shares of dressbarn common stock outstanding immediately prior to the reorganization. The text of an amendment to Ascena's second amended and restated certificate of incorporation decreasing the number of authorized shares of common stock of Ascena from 375,000,000 to 360,000,000 is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex V.

The Board believes that the increase to 360,000,000 authorized shares of common stock is desirable so that, as the need may arise, the Company will have the flexibility to issue shares for legitimate business purposes without additional expense or delay in connection with possible future stock dividends or stock splits, equity financings, future opportunities for expanding the Company's business through investments or acquisitions, management incentive and employee benefit plans and for other general corporate purposes. As an example of such a legitimate business purpose, in November 2009, dressbarn issued an aggregate of approximately 11.7 million shares of common stock in connection with the acquisition of Tween Brands, Inc. If the increase in the number of authorized shares of common stock is not effected, the Company would not have the benefit of this flexibility in the future. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the Board has not taken any action to issue any of the additional authorized shares for any such purposes. The number of shares authorized for issuance under the Company's equity compensation plans as of July 31, 2010 is set forth on page 90 of this proxy statement/prospectus. No other shares are presently reserved for any other purpose.

The following information is provided in addition to the information disclosed on page 21 of the proxy statement/prospectus:

Consequences of Failure to Approve the Reorganization Proposal

If the reorganization proposal is not approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, the reorganization would not be completed, the proposed holding company structure would not be implemented and we would continue to operate our business as currently conducted.

If the reorganization proposal is not approved and the reorganization is not completed, we would not realize the anticipated benefits that we believe could be realized if the reorganization were to be completed and the holding company structure implemented, including, among others, (1) possible future strategic and business flexibility of the holding company structure, which we believe would facilitate future expansion of our business by providing a more flexible structure for acquiring other businesses or entering into joint ventures while continuing to keep the operations and risks of our other businesses separate, (2) possible future financing flexibility of the holding company structure, including the use of financing techniques that are more readily available to companies that hold a variety of diversified businesses under one corporate umbrella, (3) the greater predictability, flexibility and responsiveness of Delaware law than we currently have under Connecticut law and (4) the attractiveness of Delaware law to directors and officers and the enhanced ability to attract and retain qualified directors and officers.

In addition, the increase in our authorized shares of common stock would not be effected, and as a result thereof we would not realize the anticipated benefit of the flexibility to issue shares for legitimate business purposes without additional expense or delay, including in connection with possible future stock dividends or stock splits, equity financings, future opportunities for expanding the Company's business through investments or acquisitions (e.g., our acquisition of Tween Brands, Inc., which was completed in November 2009), management incentive and employee benefit plans and for other general corporate purposes.

In addition, we have incurred substantial direct and indirect costs and expenses relating to the reorganization to date which would not be recouped, including attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, filing fees, financial printing expenses and the time and attention our management and employees have dedicated to planning related to the proposed reorganization.

All of the shares issued and outstanding upon completion of the reorganization will be fully paid and nonassessable.
