On May 26, 2006, NuVasive, Inc. (the Company) and New York Life Insurance Company (NYLIC) entered into an Earnest Money Contract and Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) providing for the acquisition by the Company of real property in Memphis, Tennessee owned by NYLIC (the Memphis Property). The Memphis Property to be acquired by the Company for a total purchase price of $3,000,000 is comprised of an approximately 100,000 square foot warehouse and distribution facility.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the closing of the acquisition will take place on June 6, 2006. The Company has delivered to an escrow agent chosen by the parties a non-refundable cash deposit of $250,000 for the benefit of NYLIC and, upon the closing of the acquisition, the Company will deliver to NYLIC an additional cash payment of $2,750,000.

The description of the Company's acquisition of the Memphis Property set forth above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement filed with this current report as Exhibit 10.1.

Severance Arrangements with Named Executive Officers

On May 23, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) of the Company approved amendments to the severance provisions of the employment agreements between the Company and each of Alexis V. Lukianov, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Keith C. Valentine, the Company's President. Pursuant to the amendment pertaining to Mr. Lukianov's employment agreement, in the event Mr. Lukianov is terminated without cause the Company is required to pay him an amount equal to two hundred percent of his compensation earned with respect to the most recently completed calendar year. Pursuant to the amendment pertaining to Mr. Valentine's employment agreement, in the event Mr. Valentine is terminated without cause prior to a change in control or sale of the Company, the Company is required to pay him an amount equal to his compensation earned with respect to the most recently completed calendar year. In addition, in the event that Mr. Valentine is terminated without cause or constructively terminated following a change of control or sale of the Company, the Company is required to pay him an amount equal to up to one hundred and fifty percent of his compensation earned with respect to the most recently completed calendar year. All of Mr. Valentine's unvested stock options will vest immediately upon the earliest of the following: (i) such stock options are not assumed by an acquiror upon a change of control or sale of the Company, (ii) an involuntary termination of Mr. Valentine's employment following a change of control or sale of the Company, or (iii) twelve months following a change of control or sale of the Company.

The description of the Company's new severance arrangements with Messrs. Lukianov and Valentine set forth above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the agreements filed with this current report as Exhibits 10.2 and 10.3.
