FIRST FINANCIAL NORTHWEST, INC. NAMES CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Renton, Washington - February 19, 2008 - First Financial Northwest, Inc. (the "Company") (NASDAQ GSM: FFNW), the holding company for First Savings Bank Northwest ("Bank"), announced today that Kari Stenslie has joined the Company and the Bank as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective February 19, 2008. Ms. Stenslie, a certified public accountant, brings nearly 20 years of financial institution experience to the Company, having been employed by First Mutual Bancshares, Inc. Bellevue, Washington and its subsidiary, First Mutual Bank, since 1988 in accounting related positions. From 1999 until its acquisition in February 2008 she was First Mutual's Senior Vice President and Controller. Ms. Stenslie received her Bachelor of Arts in Business from Seattle University. Ms. Stenslie's professional affiliations include the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Washington State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Institute of Management Accountants.

"Kari's financial institution experience, and particularly her strong background in SEC and regulatory reporting, financial controls, development and implementation of accounting policies and procedures, will be a great benefit to the Company and Bank and we are delighted to have Kari join our senior management team, " said Victor Karpiak, Chairman, President and CEO.

"First Financial and First Savings have exciting opportunities ahead and I look forward to applying my experience to support the Company's overall goals and operations" said Ms. Stenslie.

The Bank also announced that Roger Elmore has been promoted from the Bank's Senior Operations Officer to its Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Elmore has been with the Bank since 2004. Mr. Karpiak commented, "I am pleased to announce this promotion and to recognize Roger's significant contributions, as well as his increasing level of responsibility at the Bank. His banking and financial expertise, combined with his commitments to customers, employees and the community have been instrumental in the Bank's success." Mr. Karpiak continued, "Roger is a highly respected leader at the Bank and within our community. Our directors and employees join me in congratulating him on his promotion."

Forward-looking statements:

Certain matters discussed in this press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to, among other things, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company's mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements as a result of a wide variety or range of factors including, but not limited to, interest rate fluctuations; economic conditions in the Company's primary market area; demand for construction/land development, residential, commercial real estate, consumer, and other types of loans; success of new products; competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial service providers; regulatory and accounting changes; technological factors affecting operations; pricing of products and services; and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, these factors should be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements, and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. The Company undertakes no responsibility to update or revise any forward-looking statement.
