Item 8.01. Other Events.

On August 28, 2009, Patricia C. Barron resigned her position as Board Chair and the board of directors of Ultralife Corporation (the Company ) appointed Daniel W. Christman as Board Chair. Ms. Barron will remain a director of the Company. The change of Board Chair was required in order for the Company to satisfy federal government regulations in connection with certain government contracts which prohibit a company's chairperson from holding dual citizenship. Ms. Barron holds both U.S. and British citizenship.

Mr. Christman will no longer be a member of the Governance Committee or a member of the Compensation and Management Committee where he has served as committee Chair. Ms. Barron will replace Mr. Christman as a member of the Governance Committee and the Compensation and Management Committee. Ranjit C. Singh, who currently sits on the Compensation and Management Committee, has been named Chair of that committee.
