State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Argyle Security, Inc. (the Company) is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (Form 10-Q) by November 16, 2009 without unreasonable effort or expense as a result of the ongoing review by management and the Company's independent accounting firm of the impact of recent change-of-control events and the impact of subsequent events on the financial results for the third quarter.

The Company intends to finalize its financial statements prior to the five calendar days of the due date, as required by the extension provided by Rule 12b-25(b) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Exhibit A

Argyle Security, Inc. (the Company ) had revenues of $86.8 million (including related party revenues of $1.9 million) and $105.8 million (including related party revenues of $15.1 million) for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively, representing a decrease of $19.0 million or 18.1%. The decrease in 2009 was because in 2008, the Company's Corrections business segment saw significant revenue growth due to an increase in the number of projects booked during 2007 when the U.S. economy was more robust. During 2008, the number of projects booked was lower because of the overall slowdown of the U.S. economy and a more challenging debt-financing market for larger private prison developers. The fewer projects booked resulted in lower revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

Because of the ongoing work being done by the Company to finalize the financial results, a reasonable estimate of the cost of revenues, gross margin, operating expenses, other income and net income cannot be made at this time.
