PROXY STATEMENT

The following information is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the Board ) of the Company for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Meeting ) to be held on Wednesday, August 25, 2010, at 11:00 A.M., Atlanta time, at the Company's Corporate Headquarters, 1945 The Exchange, Suite 300, Atlanta, Georgia. A copy of the Company's Annual Report for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2010, and a proxy for use at the Meeting are enclosed with this Proxy Statement. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy first were mailed or otherwise made available to Company shareholders on or about July 28, 2010.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked without compliance with any other formalities by any shareholder who attends the Meeting and gives oral notice of his or her election to vote in person. In addition, any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked prior to the Meeting by delivering to the Secretary of the Company, at the address set forth above, a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy for the same shares bearing a later date. All proxies of shareholders solicited by the Company that are properly executed and received by the President of the Company prior to the Meeting, and which are not revoked, will be voted at the Meeting. The shares represented by such proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions thereon, and unless specifically instructed to vote otherwise, the individuals named in the enclosed proxy will vote to elect all of the nominees for Director as set forth in this Proxy Statement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in determining whether a quorum is present at the Meeting, but will otherwise have no effect on the election of the Directors. Broker non-votes occur on a matter up for vote when (1) brokers or other nominees holding shares on behalf of their clients are not permitted to vote on that particular matter without instructions from their clients; (2) the client does not give such instructions; and (3) the broker or other nominee indicates on its proxy card, or otherwise notifies the Company, that it does not have authority to vote its shares on that matter. Whether a broker has authority to vote its shares on uninstructed matters is determined by applicable stock exchange rules. A system administered by the Company's transfer agent will tabulate the votes cast.

The Company pays the cost of soliciting proxies. Copies of solicitation materials may be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for forwarding to beneficial owners of shares of the Company's common stock (the Common Stock ), and normal handling charges may be paid by the Company for such forwarding service. In addition to solicitations by mail, Directors and regular employees of the Company, at no additional compensation, may assist in soliciting proxies by telephone or other means.

As of the Record Date for the Meeting, there were 3,676,383 shares of the Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each holder of the Common Stock, the only outstanding class of voting stock of the Company, is entitled to one (1) vote per share owned on the Record Date.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board recommends the election of the five (5) nominees listed below to constitute the entire Board, to hold office until the next Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. If, at the time of the Meeting, any of such nominees should be unable or unwilling to serve, the persons named in the proxy will vote for such substitutes or vote to reduce the number of Directors for the ensuing year in accordance with his respective judgment of what is in the best interest of the Company. Management has no reason to believe that any substitute nominee for the ensuing year will be required. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting is required to elect the Directors.

The Board has determined that Samuel E. Allen, Herschel Kahn and Robert T. McWhinney, Jr. are independent Directors within the meaning of the listing standards of the NASDAQ Global Market. In addition, the Board has determined that Gilbert L. Danielson is no longer independent within the meaning of these NASDAQ standards. In making this determination, the Board considered that the Company's Building Performance Efficiency Segment has an expanding business relationship with Aaron's, Inc., the company that employs Mr. Danielson as its Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and for which Mr. Danielson serves as a member of its board of directors. While Mr. Danielson qualifies as independent under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), he currently does not satisfy the NASDAQ independence standards, because it is anticipated that Aaron's, Inc. will contribute more than five percent (5%) of the Company's consolidated gross revenues in the fiscal year ending April 30, 2011. Mr. Danielson and the three (3) independent Directors are collectively referred to as "Outside Directors" in this filing.

The Board has determined that, pursuant to the NASDAQ "exceptional and limited circumstance" exception in Rule 5605(c)(2)(B), continuing membership on the Board and on the Audit Committee by Mr. Danielson is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, at least until a new Director is elected to the Board who is independent under NASDAQ standards and who qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of the rules of the SEC. The Board based this determination on the following factors:

While Mr. Danielson is technically not independent under the NASDAQ definition of independence, he will receive no pecuniary benefit from the business relationship of his company with the Company, and the Board has determined that Mr. Danielson can continue to exercise independent judgment with respect to matters coming before the Board and the Audit Committee;

Mr. Danielson's ten (10) years of service as the Chairman of the Company's Audit Committee has given him substantial experience in the Company's industry and knowledge of the Company's operations. That experience and knowledge, coupled with his expertise in financial reporting, makes him a valuable ongoing asset to the Board and the Audit Committee; and

The Board has determined that it may take significant time to identify and qualify suitable candidates with the requisite financial expertise for election as independent directors, which would interfere with the immediate need of the Company to have a fully functioning Audit Committee.

Therefore, Mr. Danielson will continue as a member of the Audit Committee. However, in accordance with NASDAQ's Rule 5605(c)(2)(B), he will no longer chair the Audit Committee.

As a result of Mr. Danielson's current lack of independence under the NASDAQ standards, the Board, as previously composed, would have no longer consisted of a majority of independent Directors. Therefore, in order for the Board to maintain its majority independent director status, Mr. J. Andrew

Table of Contents

Abrams, a non-independent Director, elected to resign voluntarily from the Board effective on April 30, 2010. Mr. Abrams resigned from the Board solely to allow the Company to continue to meet the NASDAQ listing requirements and not as a result of any disagreement with the Company or any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices. Mr. Abrams' role at the Company otherwise remains unchanged, and it is contemplated that he will rejoin the Board at such time that a new additional independent Director is identified and elected.

The following information relating to: (1) age as of August 25, 2010; (2) directorships in other publicly-held companies; (3) positions with the Company; and (4) principal employment has been furnished by the respective Director nominees. Except as otherwise indicated, each nominee has been or was engaged in his present or last principal employment, in the same or a similar position, for more than five (5) years.

MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During the fiscal year ended April 30, 2010, the Board held five (5) meetings, the Audit Committee held four (4) meetings, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held two (2) meetings, and the Compensation Committee held three (3) meetings. All of the Directors who served during the fiscal year ended April 30, 2010, attended at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the aggregate of all Board meetings and all meetings of each committee of the Board on which he served, if any. While the Company invites the Directors to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the Company does not have a formal policy regarding Director attendance. All Directors attended the Annual Meeting last year.

The Board's standing Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are each composed entirely of independent Directors as defined in the listing standards of the NASDAQ Global Market. The Board's standing Audit Committee is composed of independent Directors, with the exception of Mr. Danielson, who is not independent under the NASDAQ standards for the reasons previously explained. These committees all operate pursuant to written charters adopted by the Board, which are available at the Company's Website, www.servidyne.com, through the Investor Relations link and then the Corporate Governance link.

The Audit Committee currently consists of Mr. Allen, Mr. Danielson, and Mr. McWhinney, who replaced Mr. Danielson as Chairman effective on April 30, 2010. The Board has determined that Mr. Danielson is an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of the rules of the SEC. The primary function of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its financial and other oversight responsibilities by serving as an independent and objective party to oversee, monitor and appraise: (1) the integrity of the Company's financial statements and other external financial information, financial reporting process, and internal controls; (2) the Company's auditing process, including all engagements of the Company's independent accountants, the internal auditors, and the performance of financial management; and (3) the Company's ethical and legal compliance. The Audit Committee has the sole authority to appoint, compensate, retain, and terminate the independent accountants, and to approve all audit and permitted non-audit services, if any, provided by the independent accountants.

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Mr. Allen, Mr. McWhinney, and Mr. Kahn, who replaced Mr. McWhinney as Chairman effective on April 30, 2010. The primary function of the Compensation Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to executive compensation. This Committee is authorized to determine the compensation of the Company's executive officers (the Executive Officers) and to administer the Company's executive compensation and equity award plans. Although management may participate in discussions at the Compensation Committee meetings and provide information for consideration, management does not participate in the Committee's voting or decision-making. The Company's Chief Executive Officer (CEO) makes recommendations regarding the compensation of the Executive Officers other than himself. The CEO is not present during the Committee's deliberations or voting on his compensation. In determining the compensation of the Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee considers not only the recommendations of the CEO, but also objective measurements of business performance, the accomplishment of strategic and financial objectives, the development of management talent within the Company, enhancement of shareholder value, and other matters relevant to the short-term and the long-term success of the Company.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee currently consists of Mr. McWhinney, Mr. Kahn, and Mr. Allen, who serves as Chairman. The primary function of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities with respect to: (1) Board and Committee membership, organization and function; (2) Director qualifications, performance and compensation; and (3) corporate governance. The Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board the slate of nominees to be recommended to the shareholders for election at the Meeting.

The Board also has a standing Executive Committee, which is empowered to take actions that do not require the approval of the full Board, subject to the authority of the other Board committees and the requirements of applicable law. All actions of the Executive Committee are subsequently submitted to the full Board for affirmation. The Executive Committee did not meet during fiscal 2010, but did execute one (1) unanimous consent in lieu of a meeting. The Executive Committee is currently inactive as of April 30, 2010, due to Mr. J. Andrew Abrams voluntary resignation from the Board for the reasons previously explained.

NOMINATION OF DIRECTORS

Nomination Process. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for considering and making recommendations to the Board concerning the Director nominees to be recommended to the shareholders in connection with the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders and nominees for appointments to fill any vacancy on the Board or to fill any newly created Board seats. To fulfill these responsibilities, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee periodically considers and makes recommendations to the full Board regarding what experience, talents, skills and other characteristics that the Board as a whole should possess in order to maintain its effectiveness. In determining whether to nominate an incumbent Director for re-election, the Board and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee evaluate each incumbent's continued service in light of the Board's collective requirements at the time such Director comes up for re-election.

When the need for a new Director arises (whether because of a vacancy or because of a newly created Board seat), the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee proceeds by whatever means it deems appropriate to identify a qualified candidate or candidates. The Committee reviews the qualifications of each candidate, and final candidates are generally interviewed by one (1) or more Board members. The Committee then makes a recommendation to the full Board based on its review, the results of the candidate interview(s), and all other available information. The full Board makes the final decision about whether to elect such candidate to the Board.

Director Qualifications. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for considering and making recommendations to the Board concerning the criteria for the selection of qualified Directors. At a minimum, Directors should have high moral character and personal integrity, demonstrated accomplishment in his or her field, and the ability and desire to devote sufficient time to carry out the duties of a Director. In addition to these minimum qualifications for candidates, the Board and the Committee may consider all information relevant in their collective business judgment to the decision of whether to nominate a particular candidate for a particular Board seat, taking into account the then-current composition of the Board. These factors may include but are not limited to: a candidate's professional and educational background, reputation, industry knowledge and business experience, and the relevance of these characteristics to the Company and the Board; whether the candidate will complement or contribute to the mix of talents, skills and other characteristics needed to maintain the Board's effectiveness; the candidate's ability to fulfill the responsibilities as a Director and as a member of one (1) or more of the Board's standing committees; whether the candidate is independent; and whether the candidate is financially literate or a financial expert.

Shareholder Nominations. Nominations of individuals for election to the Board at any meeting of shareholders at which Directors are to be elected may be made by any Company shareholder entitled to vote for the election of Directors at that meeting by complying with the procedures set forth in Section 10 of the Company's bylaws (the Bylaws). Section 10 provides that notice of proposed shareholder nominations must be given to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices not less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the meeting at which Directors are to be elected, unless the notice of meeting or public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given less than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting, in which case the notice of nomination must be received by the Secretary of the Company not later than the tenth (10th) day following the date on which the notice of meeting was first mailed to Company shareholders or such public disclosure otherwise was made. The notice of nomination must contain information about each proposed nominee, including age, address, principal occupation, the number of shares of stock of the Company beneficially owned by such nominee, and such other information as would be required to be disclosed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act ) in connection with any acquisition of shares by such nominee or in connection with the solicitation of proxies by such nominee for his or her election as a Director. Information must also be disclosed by and about the shareholder proposing to nominate that person. The chairman of a shareholder meeting may refuse to acknowledge any nomination not made in compliance with the foregoing procedures.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider recommending to the Board that it include in the Board's slate of Director nominees to be presented to a meeting of shareholders a nominee submitted to the Company by a shareholder who has beneficially held at least five percent (5%) of the outstanding Common Stock for at least two (2) years. In order for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to consider such nominees, a nominating shareholder should submit the requisite information about the nominee and the nominating shareholder, as described in Section 10 of the Bylaws, to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive offices within the time period prescribed by Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, which is generally at least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the first (1st) anniversary of the date that the Company's Proxy Statement was first released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's Annual Meeting of Shareholders. That deadline can be found herein under Shareholder Proposals. A nominating shareholder should expressly indicate that such shareholder desires that the Board and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee consider such shareholder's nominee for inclusion within the Board's slate of nominees to be presented to a meeting of shareholders, and should submit information demonstrating that the nominating shareholder has beneficially owned at least five percent (5%) of the outstanding Common Stock for at least two (2) years, and continues to beneficially own such Common Stock. The nominating shareholder and his or her nominee should undertake to provide, or consent to the Company obtaining, all other information that the Board and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may request in connection with their consideration of the nominee.

A nominee submitted to the Company by a qualified shareholder must satisfy the minimum qualifications for Director described above. In addition, in evaluating shareholder nominees for inclusion in the Board's slate of nominees, if any, the Board and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may consider any relevant information, including: the factors described above; whether there are or will be any vacancies on the Board; the size of the nominating shareholder's Company holdings and the length of time such shareholder has owned such holdings; whether the nominee is independent of the nominating shareholder and able to represent the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole; and the interests and/or intentions of the nominating shareholder.

The discussions with Deloitte also included the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended (AICPA, Professional Standards, Vol. 1. AU section 480), as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in its Rule 3200T.

Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services

Pursuant to its Charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for the pre-approval of all audit services and all permissible non-audit services to be performed for the Company by the independent public accounting firm. To help fulfill this responsibility, the Audit Committee has adopted an Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy (the Policy). Under the Policy, all auditor services must be pre-approved by the Audit Committee either (1) before the commencement of each service on a case-by-case basis called specific pre-approval; or (2) by the description in sufficient detail in an appendix to the Policy of particular services that the Audit Committee has generally approved, without the need for case-by-case consideration called general pre-approval. Under the Policy, unless a particular service has received general pre-approval, it must receive the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee or one (1) of its members to whom the Audit Committee has delegated specific pre-approval authority. The appendix to the Policy describes the services which have received general pre-approval. These general pre-approvals allow Company management to engage the independent public accounting firm for the enumerated services, subject to fee limits per engagement and aggregate limits per service for a fiscal year. Any engagement of the independent public accounting firm pursuant to a general pre-approval must be reported to the Audit Committee at its next regular meeting. The Audit Committee periodically reviews the services that have received general pre-approval and the associated ranges of fees. The Policy in no way delegates to management the Audit Committee's responsibility to pre-approve services performed by the independent public accounting firm.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company's Building Performance Efficiency Segment is providing services to Aaron's, Inc. It is currently anticipated that the amount of revenues the Company will earn from performing such services during the fiscal year ended April 30, 2011, will be between approximately $5 million and $9 million. Mr. Gilbert Danielson, a Director of the Company, is employed by Aaron's, Inc. as its Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and also serves as a member of its board of directors.

In the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2010, as part of a series of borrowings against three (3) split-dollar life insurance policies, the Company borrowed approximately $412,000 against a life insurance policy owned by a trust for which Alan R. Abrams, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and his brother, J. Andrew Abrams, the Company's Executive Vice President, serve as trustees, and for which both are potential beneficiaries. The loan amount was advanced solely from the Company's interest in the policy, and does not affect the amount ultimately payable to the beneficiaries of the trust. The loan matures in December 2011 and bears interest at 6% per annum. The Company intends to use the proceeds of the loan for working capital and general corporate purposes.
