On February 8, 2011, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Insteel Industries, Inc. (the Company) approved an amendment to the Company's Bylaws (the Bylaws), effective immediately (the Amendment). The Amendment revised the first sentence of Article 3, Section 2 of the Bylaws to read as follows: The number of directors constituting the board of directors shall be not less than six nor more than ten, the precise number to be determined from time to time by resolution of the board of directors. The Bylaws previously provided for a Board constituted of not less than seven nor more than twelve directors as fixed by a shareholder or Board resolution or, in the absence of such a resolution, the number of directors elected at the prior Annual Meeting.

A complete copy of the Bylaws, as amended, is included as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

The Company held its 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) on February 8, 2011. Set forth below is a brief description of each item submitted to a vote of the shareholders at the Annual Meeting and the final voting results for each item. A more complete description of each item is set forth in the Company's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting.

Item Number One Election of Directors

Each of the two nominees named in the proxy statement for the Annual Meeting were elected by the shareholders to the Board for three-year terms based on the following vote:

Item 8.01. Other Events

On February 8, 2011, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Board had declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.03 per share payable on April 8, 2011 to shareholders of record as of March 25, 2011. A copy of this release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

While the Company intends to pay regular quarterly cash dividends for the foreseeable future, the declaration and payment of future dividends, if any, are discretionary and will be subject to determination by the Board each quarter after taking into account various factors, including general business conditions and the Company's financial condition, operating results, cash requirements and expansion plans.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to the Company's intent and ability to pay future dividends. Although the Company believes that its plans, intentions and expectations reflected in or suggested by such forward-looking statements are reasonable, such forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, and the Company can provide no assurances that such plans, intentions or expectations will be implemented or achieved. Many of these risks and uncertainties are discussed in detail in the Company's reports and statements that it files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, in particular in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended October 2, 2010. You should carefully review these risks and uncertainties.

All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements. All forward-looking statements speak only to the respective dates on which such statements are made and the Company does not undertake and specifically declines any obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect any future events or circumstances after the date of such statements or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events, except as may be required by law.
